This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

III. That in accordance with the Standing Orders, we have arranged the popular meetings as follows: Friday, May 22, Sabbath-school Work, in Westminster Presbyterian Church; Monday,

May 25, Freedmen, in Fort Street Presbyterian Church; Tuesday, May 26, Home Missions, in Fort Street Presbyterian Church; Wednesday, May 27, Foreign Missions, in First Presbyterian Church; Friday, May 29, Temperance, in Second Avenue Presbyterian Church.

IV. That we recommend the following additional public meetings: Sabbath, May 24, at 3.30 P.M., Sabbath Observance, in Central Presbyterian Church; Sabbath, May 31, Presbyterian Historical Society, in Fort Street Presbyterian Church.

V. That we recommend the acceptance of the following invitations that are hereby extended to the General Assembly:

1. Saturday, May 23, at 1.30 P.M., an excursion to Ann Arbor, to attend the opening of McMillan Hall, in connection with the work of the Tappan Presbyterian Association in the University of Michigan, and to accept the hospitalities of the Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor.
2. Thursday, May 28, a reception and banquet in the Detroit Rink, tendered by the Presbyterians of this city.
3. Saturday, May 30, at 2 P.M., an excursion upon Detroit river and Lake St. Clair to the Flats.

VI. That, in accordance with the recommendations of the last General Assembly, this Committee has directed that all advertising or the distributing of anything not issued by the Boards or the Committees, or directly connected with our Church work, be excluded from the Assembly rooms. And in the enforcement of this rule we ask the thoughtful coöperation of the members of this Assembly.

VII. That, for the convenience of the Commissioners, we have arranged in this room for pages, and in the lecture-room, the following special facilities: Post-office, telegraph, telephone, writing-room with material, and a type-writer. The type-writer is for the special use of the Moderator and Chairmen of the Standing Committees.

Respectfully submitted,
WALLACE RADCLIFFE, Chairman.

The Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., on behalf of the Committee, presented to the Moderator a beautiful gavel made of Michigan wood, iron, copper, silver and gold.

On the nomination of the Stated Clerk, the Rev. William Greenough, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia Central; the Rev. John H. Miller, D.D., of the Presbytery of Kansas City, and the Rev. Alexander G. Russell, of the Presbytery of Nassau, were elected Temporary Clerks.

The Rules for Judicatories, appended to the Constitution, were made the Rules of this Assembly.

The Stated Clerk reported the Docket, and was directed to print the Roll and the Docket for the use of the Assembly.

The Records of Synods, the Statistical Reports and other papers from the Presbyteries were called for, and put in the hands of the Stated Clerk.

The Special Committee on a Consensus Creed presented its Report, which was accepted, and the recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Committee on a Consensus Creed would respectfully report to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was constituted by virtue of action taken by the General Assembly of 1890, viz., "The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported on the Overtures on a new and Consensus Creed. The Report was adopted and is as follows: 'The Committee recommend that all Overtures on a new and Consensus Creed shall be referred to a Committee of nine, who shall invite the coöperation of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian system, to prepare a short Creed containing the essential articles of the Westminster Confession, to be used as the common Creed of these Churches; not as a substitute for the Creed of any particular denomination, but to supplement it for the common work of the Church—especially in mission fields—to report to the next General Assembly; and that the Moderator of this Assembly be the Chairman of the Committee'" ("Minutes," 1890, p. 87).

The Committee has held three meetings, has considered carefully the delicate and important trust committed to its charge, and, in compliance with the instructions given, has addressed a circular letter to the majority of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian system, requesting them to coöperate in the movement for a Consensus Creed by the appointment of Committees to facilitate correspondence. A copy of this letter is appended.*

The Committee also, for the purpose of saving time, and making correspondence with the Committees of other Churches, when appointed, more definite, has been engaged in the preparation of a draft of a Consensus Creed to be submitted as a mere suggestion or basis for the interchange of opinion. This draft is as yet in an incomplete form.

The Committee feels deeply the severe loss it has suffered in the death of one of its members, the Rev. Howard Crosby, D.D., LL.D. Dr. Crosby was present at two meetings, and his unwavering faith, his broad charity, his love of unity and his courage of conviction have been a guidance in our labors which will be greatly missed in the future.

The Moderator of the General Assembly, by virtue of the authority entrusted to him, has appointed the following members to fill vacancies in the Committee: The Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., in place of the Rev. Howard Crosby, D.D., LL.D., deceased, and the Rev. John T. Duffield, D.D., in the place of the Rev. B. B. Warfield, D.D., resigned.

* See Appendix.

The Committee would further state that the Clerks and Secretaries of the majority of the Churches addressed by the Committee have already acknowledged the receipt of the letter sent them, and have personally expressed their great interest in and appreciation of the movement. The Supreme Judicatories of the several Churches with which correspondence has been opened will meet during the present or the three following months.

Believing earnestly in every movement which will further the coöperation in all good work of the more than eighty Churches composing our widespread Presbyterian communion, and feeling confident that the work now undertaken can be prosecuted to a satisfactory, far-reaching and Christ-honoring result, your Committee respectfully asks that it be continued, and that its action thus far be approved.

In behalf of the Committee,
Wm. E. Moore, Chairman.

The Special Committee in charge of The Church at Home and Abroad, presented its Report, which was accepted, and the recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

Your Committee beg leave to present to the General Assembly the Fifth Annual Report of their conduct of The Church at Home and Abroad, and in doing so, we are well assured of the deep and growing interest taken by the General Assembly in the magazine that month by month presents the activity and aims of our several Church Boards.

Your Committee during the past year have been much encouraged in their work of supervision by several gratifying experiences. Among these causes of satisfaction may be mentioned, first, the greatly strengthened endorsement of the wisdom shown by the Assembly in resolving to have one great organ to represent at once the whole work of our Church. Again and again has evidence been submitted to your Committee that intelligent interest has been awakened in the varied departments of Church enterprise, where of old none existed, or where thought had been given exclusively to but one or two objects. The experience of these past years has proved the value of this coördinate presentation to what are sometimes in popular speech, though not perhaps very wisely, designated, "the smaller Boards." Their friends have been multiplied, intelligent interest in them has been created and developed, and their funds increased; and at the same time the work of the Home and Foreign Boards is studied by a wider circle than ever before. Another pleasant fact, to be mentioned by us with gratitude, is the emphatic approval of the monthly contents of the magazine. The uniform testimony is that the periodical has decidedly improved and continuously advanced in interest; the Committee have sought information on this point, and have received voluntary statements on the same subject. The not unreasonable and frequently leveled charge, that the consolidated magazine was nothing more than a combination of separate missionary journals, bound together under one common cover, has now wholly ceased. Commendations of both matter and form have been constant and hearty; several valuable suggestions have been made to us, and cordially adopted by us. Such kindly and judicious criticisms are ever most truly welcomed by your Committee, and are ofttimes of great value. Moreover, we continue to receive strong approvals of our magazine and its methods from the members of sister communions; and earnest wishes have been expressed that our plan might soon be adopted by the Churches to which our kind critics severally belong.

At the beginning of a new year, your Committee sent out urgent appeals to the ministers and congregations of our Church for enlarged sympathy and increased subscription lists. Very many of our busy pastors and missionaries answered immediately and most kindly, and gave their valuable services to us in this work, which is the work of the whole Church, and in the best interests of all our Boards. To them we return our most hearty thanks.

We must, however, give utterance to our not unnatural surprise that too many made no response whatever; while some even refused to aid us in carrying out the commands of the Assembly. Surely, the loyal support of this enterprise is part of the duty belonging to each true-hearted member of our great and enlightened communion. It is not too much to ask and expect that well-nigh every household in our Church will take the magazine, which gives, month by month, the story of our varied work for the Master, and reminds us of what our fellow-believers, the wide world over, are attempting and achieving for Christ.

The circulation of the magazine up to this date is 21,733. It will thus be seen that we have, during the year, somewhat increased the number of our subscribers.

The General Assembly of 1889 referred to your Committee the important subject of the possible reproduction of this magazine in a cheaper form. At several meetings this subject has been fully considered, and discussed by us. The Committee heard, with great interest, the able arguments of the esteemed brother at whose suggestion this subject was brought before the General Assembly: the Rev. William H. Hubbard, of Auburn, N. Y. We weighed every plea for this new departure, and decided unanimously that we could not recommend to the Assembly the adoption of a cheaper edition of the magazine.

In the judgment of your Committee, the better and wiser way to reduce the price of the periodical is to largely increase the circulation. If the circulation were doubled or tripled we think that we could materially reduce the price of the magazine. It seems to us that there are at least seventy-five thousand families in our Church perfectly able to subscribe for a great missionary journal such as The Church at Home and Abroad. If we had a subscription list of seventy or eighty thousand we could lower the price of the magazine by a quarter or perhaps even half of its present cost. We would make our appeal through the General Assembly to the pastors and elders of our Church, and the superintendents of our Sabbath-schools. We are persuaded that they could do very much towards effecting this most desirable object, and if this could be achieved, we believe that the benefit resulting to the Church would be very great.

Your Committee confidently expect that the General Assembly will recommend pastors and elders under its care to coöperate heartily with us in achieving so worthy an aim.

This magazine is the special presentation of the entire work of our Church; it ought to be in every household belonging to our communion; it is the great advertising medium of the Boards; through it they reach, with their appeals, our members month by month; and its wider circulation would immediately increase the interest in missions and augment the resources of our overstrained Boards. Your Committee has had prepared and printed as part of this Report a detailed account of our expenditures.

COST OF PRODUCTION OF "THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD" FOR YEARS 1889 AND 1890:

Engravings,	$132 85	$82 55
Payments to Contributors,	119 10	60 00
Paper,	9,758 63	8,529 47
Printing,	7,782 98	7,870 62
Folding, etc.,	2,764 80	2,258 66
Salary—Editor,	4,000 00	4,000 00
Wages—Clerks,	1,737 50	1,645 00
Traveling Expenses,	129 47	51 90
Advertising,	166 28	139 24
Freight, etc.,	487 90	374 53
Stationery,	376 10	650 05
Postage,	2,638 24	1,995 88
Incidentals,	216 73	360 28
Total,	$30,310 58	$27,518 18

Average circulation per month—1889, 20,026 copies; 1890, 20,293 copies.

Your Committee desire to recognize their indebtedness to the Board of Publication for a valuable and economical management of the business of the magazine. While this has involved much clerical and other labor, the cost has been small—viz., $1645.

Your Committee also report that last autumn, in order to reduce the cost of manufacturing, they selected a lower grade of paper, though of good quality, and that this reduction, together with reductions in the charge for printing and binding, has lessened the total cost of the year's product $2057.

The name of the magazine has also engaged our attention. Several new titles were suggested, but nothing appropriate and attractive could be found, and after careful thought we resolved to keep our present term.

It becomes, alas! the painful duty of your Committee to report what is for us and with us our whole Church, an irreparable loss in the death of our beloved friend and most efficient associate, Howard Crosby. Among his many devoted labors in behalf of our Presbyterian Church, few causes stirred his interest more deeply, few won from him more thought, few showed the touch of his master hand more markedly than did this Church at Home and Abroad; it gained from him its very name. Ever faithful in attendance, eagerly watchful of all affecting for weal or woe our work, freely giving his time and labor to the advancement of the magazine, he will be remembered by us all with a tender affection, he will be missed through all the future history of this magazine —the honored friend, the wise counselor, the devoted servant of the Lord.

Your Committee would respectfully suggest the name of the Rev. George Alexander, D.D., of New York, to fill the vacancy thus created. In order that we may carry forward this work, that we may develop our plans, that we may add fresh interest to the magazine, and secure for it a larger circulation, your Committee recommend that the Special Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad be continued, with the same powers which have been already conferred, and be directed to report to the Assembly of 1892; and that the expenses of the Committee be paid out of the funds.

All of which is respectfully submitted by the Committee.

JOHN S. MACINTOSH, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk presented his Report on the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture on Chapter xxiii, Form of Government, sent down by the last General Assembly, as follows:

The Stated Clerk would respectfully report to the General Assembly that 206 Presbyteries have forwarded to him their Answers to the Overture sent down by the last General Assembly for the addition to the Form of Government of a new chapter, to be entitled "Chapter xxiii. Of Amendments," and for the striking out of Section 6, Chapter xii, Form of Government (see "Minutes," 1890, pp. 63, 64). It appears that 192 Presbyteries answer the Overture in the affirmative, and 8 in the negative, and that 6 report no action. The total number of Presbyteries is 216.

It is suggested that these Answers be submitted to a Committee of Canvass, with direction to report to the General Assembly whatever action may be necessary in connection therewith.

Respectfully submitted,
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The Report was approved, and on motion it was

Resolved, That a Committee consisting of three ministers and two elders be appointed by the Moderator to canvass the answers to the Overture, and report on the whole subject.

The Stated Clerk also reported the Answers of the Presbyteries, on the Overture on the subject of Deaconesses sent down to the Presbyteries by the last General Assembly, as follows:

The Stated Clerk would respectfully report to the General Assembly that 203 Presbyteries have forwarded to him their Answers to the Overture sent down by the last General Assembly, asking whether a section, to be numbered Section 2, should be added to Chapter vi, and also whether a section, to be numbered 9, should be added to Chapter xiii, of the Form of Government (see "Minutes," 1890, p. 121).

It appears that 52 Presbyteries have answered the Overture in the affirmative, 82 in the negative, that 68 cast a divided vote, and 3 took no action. The number of Presbyteries failing to answer is 11. In view of the fact that the Overture, as a whole, appears to have been rejected, while at the same time a part of the Overture appears to have been approved by a majority, it is suggested that the Answers be referred to a Committee of Canvass to report thereupon.

Respectfully submitted,
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The report was approved, and on motion it was

Resolved, That a Committee of Canvass, consisting of three ministers and two elders, be appointed to report upon the answers to the Overture on Deaconesses.

The Special Committee on the Revision of the Confession of Faith presented its Report, which was accepted, and it was Resolved, That the Report presented by the Committee of Revision be now accepted as a report of progress, and that the Stated Clerk be directed to print the same under the supervision of the Committee, and send it down to the Presbyteries in accordance with its recommendations; and also that the Committee be continued to make final report to the next Assembly. Adopted.

The Report is as follows:

The Assembly's Committee on Revision of the Confession of Faith, begs leave to submit the following Report:

In pursuance of the Assembly's instructions (see "Minutes" of 1890, p. 85) the first meeting of the Committee was held at the call of the temporary Chairman, in the Library of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny City, Pa., October 14, 1890. The first half hour was devoted to prayer and consideration of the gravity of the situation, the importance of the work to be undertaken, and the best interests of our beloved Church.

When the roll of the Committee was called, twenty-three members answered to their names, and letters were received from the remaining two expressing regret at their inability to be present on account of ill health.

After completing the organization of the Committee by electing, by ballot, the Rev. William C. Roberts, D.D., as the permanent Chairman, and the Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., as the Secretary, the tendered resignations of Rev. Thomas S. Hastings, D.D., of New York, and of Barker Gummere, Esq., of New Jersey, were accepted, and the Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., of New York, and Morris H. Stratton, Esq., of New Jersey, were elected to fill their places. Upon learning of their election, the new members repaired at once to Allegheny City, thus making a full attendance of the Committee.

The following rules were adopted for the regulation of the Committee, namely: that the General Rules for Judicatories be made the rules of the Committee; that the first half hour of each day be spent in devotional exercises; that each session be opened and closed with prayer, and that no alterations or amendments be proposed that would in any way impair the integrity of the Reformed or Calvinistic system of doctrine taught in the Confession. These regulations were strictly enforced during the sessions of the Committee, both at Allegheny City and in Washington.

At the second meeting, held in Washington, February 3d to 16th, 1891, all of the members of the Committee were present.

In order to allay any fears that might be entertained in regard to the thoroughness of the work of revision, the whole Confession was read before the Committee, and an opportunity afforded to note every word, sentence, and paragraph suggested by the Presbyteries, or desired to be considered by any member of the Committee.

This was followed by taking up in order for discussion, omission, or alteration every one of these noted passages. The omissions and alterations then decided upon were considered only tentative, in order to afford time for further reflection and consideration. The venerable Confession was thus subjected twice to the closest scrutiny. All the changes and amendments recommended in this Report have been forged by the heaviest hammers that your Committee could wield. Those favorable to revision, and those opposed to it did not array themselves in hostile bands, but labored as brethren anxious to perform satisfactorily the duty committed to them by the General Assembly. The harmony and brotherly kindness which characterized all its deliberations were not due to a determination to agree, whatever interests might suffer, but to the evident presence of the Holy Spirit guiding the passions and the feelings, as well as the mind and heart. At every session was displayed the glittering of the polished steel of the professor, as well as the practical judgment of the experienced pastor. The clear-cut analysis made by the skilled dialectician called forth no greater applause than the pathetic appeals of the shepherd to let down the tender grass of the Word sufficiently low to afford the lambs of the flock opportunity to feed thereon. The keen blade of the layman did as effective work as the broad sword of the clergyman. Neither time nor labor was spared in the prosecution of the work. It is proper to add that, as to some of the most important changes suggested, such as those in the third and tenth chapters, there were decided differences of judgment in the Committee, some members being opposed to the changes therein recommended and voting against them.

The Committee does not flatter itself with the hope that all the Presbyteries will be satisfied with its work, as submitted to this Assembly. Some, beyond doubt, will feel that the pruning knife has been too sparingly used, and many will allege that not a few precious limbs have been lopped off. In view of the condition of things in and out of the Church, the Committee did not deem it needful nor wise to use the reckless penknife of Jehoiakim, nor, on the other hand, to spare passages that are unnecessarily harsh or misleading. If the Presbyteries will devote sufficient time to inquire into the reasons why some objectionable paragraphs have been left untouched, whilst others considered less so have been eliminated, they will find that the Committee was governed in its discriminations by restrictions imposed upon it by the Assembly, or by what it believed to be the views held by the majority of our ministers, elders, and private members.

To meet a want felt by individuals and Presbyteries, of a clearer and more specific statement concerning the common operations of the Spirit, and the universal offer of the Gospel, the Committee has judged it wise to devote to these subjects two entire chapters. The bringing together, under one head, of statements that would otherwise be inserted here and there throughout the book, does not increase its bulk, while it makes it far more convenient for reference. Since the conversion of the heathen was hardly thought of in the days of the Westminster divines, there is evident propriety in adding a chapter to mark the progress which the Church has made in evangelistic ideas and Christian work during the last two hundred years.

It may not be out of place in this connection to furnish the Assembly with a brief explanation of the changes that will presently be given in detail.

The Committee, without request from any of our Presbyteries, thought it wise to recognize in Chap. i the commonly accepted external evidences of the divine origin of the Scriptures.

It will be seen that Chap. iii, which has been regarded by many as the pivot around which revision revolves, has been altered more than any other portion of the Confession. It has not, however, been completely rewritten, as some Presbyteries have asked, but so recast that the expressions most objected to have entirely disappeared. It was thought that further alterations in the same direction would, in the opinion of some, impair the validity of our Reformed or Calvinistic system.

Finding that the latter part of Sec. 1, of Chap. iv, was not true to fact, or in keeping with the teachings of God's Word, a slight but important change has been proposed. The frequently misunderstood Sec. 4, of Chap. vi, in regard to the ability of man to perform any deeds acceptable to God, is so amended as to confine his inability to spiritual good. The "means" through which the Lord offers unto sinners life and salvation, is added to Sec. 3, of Chap. vii, and the whole of Sec. 4 is stricken out on the ground of its not being supported by facts of Scripture. In Sec. 5, Chap. viii, "divine justice" is substituted for "the justice of His Father," because this attribute is common to the three persons of the Godhead.

Sec. 3, of Chap. ix, is so altered as to leave no doubt in regard to the responsibility of man as a free moral agent.

In order to discriminate between the two operations included in effectual calling, Sec. 2, Chap. x, the passivity of the subject is confined in the amendment to the "act of regeneration." The frequently discussed, and openly denounced section concerning the condition of infants dying in infancy, is so altered as to take away forever, what has been to many a rock of offense. The section on the works done by unregenerate men, in Chap. xvi, is so amended as to express the fact in the light of God's Word. Owing to the impossibility of knowing who have sinned the sin unto death, the Committee has so changed Sec. 4, of Chap. xxi, that it reads, "the forgiveness of all sins, except the sin unto death." The word "popish" is stricken out of Sec. 7, Chap. xxii, on the ground of its being an epithet, and therefore weakening in its effect, and the expression, "nursing fathers," in Sec. 3, Chap. xxiii, is dropped, because civil magistrates in this country cannot be said to hold that relation to the Church. Without passing judgment on the question whether or not "papists" are idolaters, the Committee was of the opinion that our Church members might, without falling under Scripture condemnation, enter into marriage relations with some members of the Romish Church, and therefore propose, as a substitute for "papists, or other idolaters," in Sec. 3, Chap. xxiv, the words, "the adherents of false religions." Though the Committee has no disposition to tone down in the slightest degree the objectionable features of the Church of Rome, yet it has changed Sec. 6, of Chap. xxv, so as to make it agree with accepted facts. Instead of reading, Sec. 2, Chap. xxix, "The popish sacrifice of the Mass," the revised Confession, if adopted, will read, "the Roman Catholic doctrine of the sacrifice of the Mass." The unqualified statement in Sec. 2, of Chap. xxx, that the officers of the Church "have power respectively to retain and remit sins," is so modified as to read, that the power thus given them is "ministerial and declarative." A few changes of important words also have been made, but the reason for the same is so clear as to need no explanation in this connection.

Communications from various sources were received by your Committee asking for the publication of this Report before the spring meetings of the Presbyteries, in order that it might be considered at that time, and Commissioners to the Assembly be elected who would fairly represent the views of the majority of the members on the proposed changes. It was impracticable to accede to this reasonable request. But, to meet the case in fact, if not in form, the Committee would recommend that the General Assembly send this Report down to the Presbyteries for consideration, criticism, or amendments, with the request that they forward their criticisms and amendments in print or typewriter form by December 1, 1891, to the Secretary of the Revision Committee, and that said Committee be instructed to consider these communications, and prepare its final Report for adoption, modification, or rejection by the General Assembly of 1892. Such procedure will have the happy effect of securing the coöperation of all the Presbyteries in a work that is felt by all to be most difficult, far-reaching, and important, and of affording your Committee time to review, and, if necessary, revise in a new light the changes which they have made.

The alterations, amendments and additions which the Revision Committee is prepared to recommend to the General Assembly are the following:

NOTE.—The changes recommended are in italics.

CHAPTER I. OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURE.

V. We may be moved and induced by the testimony of the Church to an high and reverent esteem for the Holy Scripture. And the truthfulness of the history, the faithful witness of prophecy and miracle, the heavenliness of the matter, the efficacy of the doctrine, the majesty of the style, the consent of all the parts, the scope of the whole (which is to give all glory to God), the full discovery it makes of the only way of man's salvation, the many other incomparable excellencies, and the entire perfection thereof, are arguments whereby it doth abundantly evidence itself to be the Word of God; yet, notwithstanding, our full persuasion and assurance of the infallible truth, and divine authority thereof, is from the inward work of the Holy Spirit, bearing witness by and with the Word, in our hearts.

CHAPTER III. OF GOD'S ETERNAL DECREE.

Sections i and ii unchanged, Sections iii and iv stricken out; and Section v amended so that [new] Section iii will read:

III. God, before the foundation of the world was laid, according to His eternal and immutable purpose, and the secret counsel and good pleasure of His will, hath predestinated some of mankind unto life, and hath particularly and unchangeably chosen them in Christ unto everlasting glory, out of His mere free grace and love, without any foresight of faith, or good works, or perseverance in either of them, or any other thing in the creature, as conditions or causes, moving Him thereunto; and all to the praise of His glorious grace.

Section vi remains unchanged and becomes Section iv. Section vii was amended, and becomes Section v, and is as follows:

V. The rest of mankind, God was pleased according to the unsearchable counsel of His own will, whereby He extendeth or withholdeth mercy as He pleaseth, not to elect unto everlasting life, but to ordain them to dishonor and wrath for their sin, to the praise of His glorious justice; yet so as thereby neither is any limitation put upon the offer of salvation to all, upon condition of faith in Christ; nor is restraint laid upon the freedom of any one to hinder his acceptance of this offer.

VI. Section viii remains unchanged and becomes Section vi.

CHAPTER IV. OF CREATION.

I. It pleased God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for the manifestation of the glory of His eternal power, wisdom and goodness, in the beginning, to create of nothing, the universe, and all things therein, whether visible or invisible, and all very good. The heavens and the earth, with all that they contain, were made by Him in six creative days.

CHAPTER VI.

OF THE FALL OF MAN, OF SIN, AND OF THE PUNISHMENT THEREOF.

IV. From this original corruption, whereby we are utterly indisposed, disabled, and made opposite to all that is spiritually good, and wholly inclined to evil, do proceed all actual transgressions. Nevertheless, the Providence of God, and the common operations of His Spirit, restrain unregenerate men from much that is evil, and lead them to exercise many social and civil virtues.

CHAPTER VII. OF GOD'S COVENANT WITH MAN.

III. Man by his fall, having made himself incapable of life by that covenant, the Lord was pleased to make a second, commonly called the covenant of grace; wherein he freely offereth by His Word and Spirit unto sinners life and salvation by Jesus Christ, requiring of them faith in Him, that they may be saved, and promising to give, unto all those that are ordained unto life, His Holy Spirit, to make them willing and able to believe.

Section iv was stricken out, Section v becomes Section iv. The words in the last line "and is called the Old Testament," were stricken out.

IV. This covenant was differently administered in the time of the law, and in the time of the Gospel: under the law it was administered by promises, prophecies, sacrifices, circumcision, the paschal lamb, and other types and ordinances delivered to the people of the Jews, all foresignifying Christ to come, which were, for that time, sufficient and efficacious, through the operation of the Spirit, to instruct and build up the elect in faith in the promised Messiah, by whom they had full remission of sins, and eternal salvation.

Section vi becomes Section v. In line 9, the words "and is called the New Testament" were stricken out.

V. Under the Gospel, when Christ, the substance, was exhibited, the ordinances, in which this covenant is dispensed, are the preaching of the Word, and the administration of the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper; which, though fewer in number, and administered with more simplicity, and less outward glory, yet in them it is held forth in more fullness, evidence, and spiritual efficacy, to all nations, both Jews and Gentiles. There are not, therefore, two covenants of grace, differing in substance, but one and the same under various dispensations.

CHAPTER VIII. OF CHRIST THE MEDIATOR.

V. The Lord Jesus, by His perfect obedience and sacrifice of Himself, which He through the eternal Spirit once offered up unto God, hath fully satisfied Divine justice, and purchased, not only reconciliation, but an everlasting inheritance in the kingdom of heaven, for all those whom the Father hath given unto Him.

The chapter "Of the Work of the Holy Spirit" becomes Chapter ix.

CHAPTER IX. OF THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

I. The Holy Spirit, the third Person in the Trinity, being very and eternal God, the same in substance with the Father and the Son, and equal in power and glory,[1] is, together with the Father and the Son, to be believed in, loved, obeyed and worshiped throughout all ages.[2]—[1]Matt. iii, 16, 17; xxviii, 19. John xiv, 16, 17.

1 Cor. ii, 11. [2]2 Cor. xiii, 14. Gal. v, 22, 25. Eph. iv, 4–6. Heb. ix, 14.

II. The Holy Spirit who of old revealed to men in various ways the mind and will of God, hath fully and authoritatively made known this mind and will in all things pertaining to life and salvation in the sacred Scriptures,[1] holy men of God speaking therein as they were moved by the Holy Ghost;[2] and these Scriptures, being so inspired, are the infallible Word of God, the supreme rule of faith and duty.[3]—[1]1 Cor. ii, 10–13. Heb. i, 1, 2. John xvi, 13. [2]Acts i, 16. 2 Tim. iii, 15, 16. 2 Peter i, 21. [3]1 Thess. ii, 13. John v, 39. Col. iii, 16.

III. The Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, is everywhere present among men, confirming the teachings of nature and the law of God written on the heart, restraining from evil and inciting to good; and is the source of all the wisdom, virtue, and reverence for God found in men, and of all the peace and good order in society; thus preparing the way for the Gospel wherever it is preached.[1] He everywhere accompanies the Gospel with His persuasive energy, and urges its message upon the unregenerate, enlightening their minds concerning divine things, quickening their consciences, and drawing them by His grace, so that they who reject the merciful offer of the Gospel are not only without excuse, but are also guilty of resisting the Holy Spirit.[2]—[1]Joel ii, 28. John i, 9. Rev. xxii, 17. Rom. x, 18. Rom. i, 19, 20; ii, 14, 15. [2]John xvi, 8. Isa. lxiii, 10. Acts ii, 16–18. Acts vii, 51; xxiv, 25. Heb. x, 29.

IV. The Holy Spirit is the only efficient agent in applying and communicating redemption. He effectually calls sinners to new life in Christ Jesus, regenerating them by His almighty grace, freeing them from the bondage of sin and death, and persuading and enabling them to embrace Jesus Christ by faith.[1] He dwells in all believers as their Comforter and Sanctifier, and as the Spirit of adoption and of supplication,[2] leading them into all the truth, making the means of grace efficacious in their edification, strengthening them for all duty, sustaining them in all affliction,[3] and performing all other gracious offices by which they are sanctified, sealed, and made meet for the inheritance of the saints in light.—[1]John iii, 5. 2 Cor. v, 5, 17. Rom. viii, 2. 1 Cor. xii, 3. 2 Cor. vii, 10. [2]John i, 12; xiv, 17. Rom. viii, 15, 26, 27. [3]Gal. v, 5, 22. Jude 20, 21. Eph. iii, 16; iv, 30. 2 Thess. ii, 13. Col. i, 12.

V. By the indwelling of the Holy Spirit all believers are vitally united to Christ, who is the head, and are thus united to one another in the Church, which is His body.[1] He calls and anoints ministers for their holy office. He also calls and qualifies all other officers in the Church for their special work, and imparts various gifts and graces to its members.[2] He gives efficacy to the Word and to the ordinances of the Gospel; keeps the Church from apostasy, revives it in times of declension, and enables it to bear effectual testimony to the truth.[3] By Him the Church has been and will be preserved, increased, and purified, until it shall cover the earth, and at last be presented to Christ a glorious Church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing.[4]—[1]1 Tim. iii, 15. Eph. i, 22, 23; iii, 10; iv, 16. [2]Acts xiii, 2. 1 Cor. ii, 4. [3]Eph. iv, 3, 4. 1 Tim. iv, 1. Joel ii, 28. Acts ii, 17. Matt. xxviii, 18–20. [4]Eph. v, 27. Rev. v, 11–13; xi, 15.

CHAPTER IX (X). OF FREE WILL.

III. Man, by his fall into a state of sin, hath wholly lost all ability of will to any spiritual good accompanying salvation; so as a natural man, being altogether indisposed to that good, and dead in sin, is not able, by his own strength, to convert himself, or to prepare himself thereunto. Yet is his responsibility as a free moral agent not thereby impaired.

The chapter "Of the Universal Offer of the Gospel" becomes Chapter xi, and the number of all succeeding chapters is increased by two.

CHAPTER XI. OF THE UNIVERSAL OFFER OF THE GOSPEL.

I. God so loved the world that He provided in the covenant of grace, through the mediation and sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ, a way of life and salvation sufficient for and adapted to the whole lost race of man;[1] and He doth freely offer this salvation to all men in the Gospel.[2]—[1]Rom. i, 16. 2 Cor. v, 19. Eph. i, 10. Col. i, 20. Heb. ix, 26; x, 14. 1 John i, 7; ii, 2. [2]Luke xxiv, 47. Acts ii, 39; xiii, 47. Col. i, 23.

II. The Gospel declares the love of God for the world,[1] and His desire for the salvation of all men.[2] It sets forth fully and clearly the only way of salvation, which is through Christ alone;[3] promises that all who truly repent and believe in Him shall be saved;[4] commands, exhorts, and invites all to embrace the offered mercy; and urges every motive to induce men to accept its gracious invitations.[5] This free and universal offer of the Gospel is accompanied by the Holy Spirit,[6] striving with and entreating men to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.—[1]John iii, 16. 1 John iv, 14. [2]Ezek. xxxiii, 11. Matt. xxiii, 37. Luke xix, 41, 42. 1 Tim. ii, 4. [3]Isa. liii, 5. Matt. i, 21. Luke ii, 30–32. 1 Cor. i, 30; iii, 11. 1 Tim. ii, 5, 6; iii, 16. [4]John v, 24; vi, 47; xx, 31. Acts ii, 38; iii, 19; x, 43; xvi, 31. Rom. x, 9–11. [5]Isa. lv, 1–3. Matt. xi, 28–30. Mark i, 15; viii, 36. Luke iv, 18. John vii, 37. Acts xvii, 30. 2 Cor. v, 20. [6]John xvi, 8–11. Acts ii, 17; x, 44, 45; xvi, 14. 1 Cor. ii, 4. Titus iii, 5, 6. Heb. ii, 4. Rev. xxii, 17.

III. It is the duty and privilege of every one who hears the Gospel immediately to accept its merciful provisions.[1] Great guilt and danger are incurred by delay or neglect.[2] And they who continue to disobey the Gospel perish by their own fault, and are wholly without excuse, because they have resisted the Holy Spirit, and rejected God's gracious offer of eternal life.[3]—[1]Matt. iii, 2. Luke ix, 61, 62; xiii, 24, 25. 2 Cor. vi, 2. Heb iii, 13, 15. [2]Matt. vii, 24–27; xxv, 10. Luke xii, 20; xiv, 18. Acts xxiv, 25. Heb. ii, 1–3; xii, 25. [3]Prov. i, 24–26. John iii, 18, 19, 36. Acts vii, 51. Rom. ii, 4, 5. 2 Cor. ii, 15, 16; iv, 3, 4. 2 Thess. i, 8, 9.

IV. As there is no other way of salvation than that revealed in the Gospel,[1] and as in the divinely established and ordinary method of grace, faith cometh by hearing the Word of God, Christ hath given to His Church the written Word, the Sacraments, and the Ministry; endowed her with the Holy Spirit, and commissioned her to go with His Gospel into all the world, and to make disciples of all nations.[2] It is, therefore, the duty and privilege of all believers to sustain the means of grace where they are already established, and to contribute by their prayers, gifts, and personal efforts to the extension of the kingdom of Christ throughout the whole earth.—[1]John viii, 24; x, 9; xiv, 6. Acts iv, 12. [2]Matt. xxviii, 19, 20. Mark xvi, 15. Acts i, 8; viii, 4; xxvi, 16–18. Rom. i, 14, 15; x, 14, 15, 17; xvi, 25, 26.

CHAPTER (X) XII. OF EFFECTUAL CALLING.

II. This effectual call is of God's free and special grace alone, not from anything at all foreseen in man, who is altogether passive in the act of regeneration, wherein being quickened and renewed by the Holy Spirit, he is enabled to answer God's call, and to embrace the grace offered and conveyed in it.

III. All infants dying in infancy, and all other persons, who, from birth to death, are incapable of being outwardly called by the ministry of the Word, are redeemed by Christ, and regenerated by the Spirit, who worketh when, and where, and how He pleaseth.

IV. Others, not elected, although they may be called by the ministry of the Word, and may have some common operations of the Spirit, yet inasmuch as they never truly come to Christ, they cannot be saved: neither is there salvation in any other way than by Christ through the Spirit, however diligent men may be in framing their lives according to the light of nature, and the law of that religion they do profess.

CHAPTER (XI) XIII. OF JUSTIFICATION.

I. Those whom God effectually calleth, He also freely justifieth; not by infusing righteousness into them, but by pardoning their sins; and by accounting and accepting their persons as righteous: not for anything wrought in them, or done by them, but for Christ's sake alone: not by imputing faith itself, the act of believing, or any other evangelical obedience to them, as their righteousness: but by imputing the obedience and satisfaction of Christ unto them, they receiving and resting on Him and His righteousness by faith; which faith (they have, not of themselves, it) is the gift of God.

The words in parenthesis were stricken out so as to read which faith is the gift of God.

III. Christ, by His obedience and death, did fully discharge the debt of all those that are thus justified, and did make a proper, real and full satisfaction to Divine justice in their behalf. Yet, inasmuch as He was given by the Father for them, and His obedience and satisfaction accepted in their stead, and both freely, not for anything in them, their justification is only of free grace; that both the exact justice, and rich grace of God, might be glorified in the justification of sinners.

In line 4, Divine is substituted for "His Father's" justice.

CHAPTER (XIV) XVI. OF SAVING FAITH.

I. The grace of faith, whereby sinners are enabled to believe to the saving of their souls, is the work of the Spirit of Christ in their hearts; and is ordinarily wrought by the ministry of the Word; by which also, and by the administration of the sacraments, and prayer, it is increased and strengthened.

CHAPTER (XVI) XVIII. OF GOOD WORKS.

VII. Works done by unregenerate men, although they may be things which God commands, and of good use both to themselves and others; and while their neglect of such things is sinful, and displeasing unto God, yet because they proceed not from a heart purified by faith; nor are done in a right manner, according to the Word; nor to a right end, the glory of God; they are therefore not free from sin, and cannot be accepted of God, or make a man meet to receive grace from God.

CHAPTER (XXI) XXIII.

OF RELIGIOUS WORSHIP AND THE SABBATH DAY.

IV. Prayer is to be made for things lawful; for the forgiveness of all sins, except the sin unto death; and for all sorts of men living, or that shall live hereafter; but not for the dead.

CHAPTER (XXII) XXIV. OF LAWFUL OATHS AND VOWS.

VII. No man may vow to do anything forbidden in the Word of God, or what would hinder any duty therein commanded, or which is not in his own power, and for the performance whereof he hath no promise or ability from God. In which respects, (popish) monastical vows of perpetual single life, professed poverty, and regular obedience, are so far from being degrees of higher perfection, that they are superstitious and sinful snares, in which no Christian may entangle himself.

The word popish, in line 5, was stricken out, so as to read "monastical vows," etc.

CHAPTER (XXIII) XXV. OF THE CIVIL MAGISTRATE.

III. Civil magistrates may not assume to themselves the administration of the Word and sacraments; or the power of the keys of the kingdom of Heaven; or, in the least, interfere in matters of faith. Yet, as nursing fathers, it is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the Church of our common Lord, without giving the preference to any denomination of Christians above the rest, in such a manner, that all ecclesiastical persons whatever shall enjoy the full, free, and unquestioned liberty of discharging every part of their sacred functions, without violence or danger. And, as Jesus Christ hath appointed a regular government and discipline in His Church, no law of any commonwealth should interfere with, let, or hinder the due exercise thereof among the voluntary members of any denomination of Christians, according to their own profession and belief. It is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the person and good name of all their people, in such an effectual manner as that no person be suffered, either upon pretense of religion or infidelity, to offer any indignity, violence, abuse, or injury to any other person whatsoever; and to take order, that all religious and ecclesiastical assemblies be held without molestation or disturbance.

The words, "as nursing fathers," line 5, were stricken out.

CHAPTER (XXIV) XXVI. OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

III. It is lawful for all sorts of people to marry who are able with judgment to give their consent, yet it is the duty of Christians to marry only in the Lord. And, therefore, such as profess the true religion should not marry with infidels, nor with the adherents of false religions, neither should such as are godly be unequally yoked, by marrying with such as are notoriously wicked in their life.

CHAPTER (XXV) XXVII. OF THE CHURCH.

VI. There is no other head of the Church but the Lord Jesus Christ, and the claim of the Pope of Rome to be the vicar of Christ, and the head of the Church universal, is without warrant in Scripture or in fact; and is a usurpation dishonoring to the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER (XXIX) XXXI. OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

II. In this sacrament, Christ is not offered up to His Father, nor any real sacrifice made at all, for remission of sins of the quick or dead; but only a commemoration of that one offering up of Himself, by Himself, upon the cross, once for all, and a spiritual oblation of all possible praise unto God for the same; so that the Roman Catholic doctrine of the sacrifice of the mass is most abominably injurious to Christ's one only sacrifice for sin.

VIII. Although ignorant and wicked men receive the outward elements in this sacrament, yet they receive not the thing signified thereby; but, by their unworthy coming thereunto, are guilty of the body and blood of the Lord, to their own damnation. Wherefore all ignorant and ungodly persons, as they are unfit to enjoy communion with Him, so are they unworthy of the Lord's table, and cannot, without great sin against Christ, while they remain such, partake of these holy mysteries, or be admitted thereunto.

For damnation, line 4, condemnation was substituted.

CHAPTER XXX (XXXII). OF CHURCH CENSURES.

II. To these officers the keys of the kingdom of Heaven are committed, by virtue whereof they have ministerial and declarative power respectively to retain and remit sins, to shut that kingdom against the impenitent, both by the word and censures; and to open it unto penitent sinners, by the ministry of the Gospel, and by absolution from censures, as occasion shall require.

In behalf of the Committee,
WM. C. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on Unemployed Ministers and Vacant Churches was presented, read, accepted and ordered to be printed, and made the second Order for to-morrow morning.

It was made the first Order for this afternoon to hear the Report of the Special Committee on the Seal of the Church.

A Resolution on the course to be taken, when elections of Professors in the Theological Seminaries are reported to the Assembly, was referred to the Standing Committee of Theological Seminaries, with direction to report at its earliest convenience.

The Special Committee on a New Edition of the Constitution, presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee, consisting of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, appointed to supervise the editions of the Constitution of the Church, would respectfully report to the General Assembly of 1891 that a new edition of the Constitution has been prepared under the supervision of the Committee, and published by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work. Great care has been taken in the preparation of this edition, and it is believed to be more accurate than any preceding issue. The text has been carefully compared with the editions of 1789, 1797, 1815, 1885 and 1888, the edition of 1789 being regarded as the Princeps, and also with the texts of the several amendments as they appear in the "Minutes" of the General Assembly. In the judgment of the Committee this edition contains what may be regarded as the authoritative text of the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. The proof texts have been carefully compared with those contained in the edition of 1797. The Index has been enlarged, and it is believed will prove a decided help in consulting the work.

The Committee thankfully acknowledge the faithful, painstaking services and valuable assistance rendered in the preparation and publication of this edition by the Rev. Elijah R. Craven, D.D., LL.D.

As a result of the work done by him and your Committee the following restorations of the true text of the Constitution have been made.

The princi al emendations of the text of the Constitution are as follows:

CONFESSION.

1. The title of Chapter iii is altered from "Of God's Eternal Decrees" to "Of God's Eternal Decree."
2. Chapter vii, 3—"offered" changed to "offereth."
3. Chapter xi, 3—the punctuation altered so as to read: "Yet, inasmuch as He was given by the Father for them; and His obedience and satisfaction accepted in their stead; and, both, freely," etc.
4. Chapter xiii, 1—a colon (:) after "dwelling in them:" and a semi-colon (;) after "weakened and mortified;".
5. Chapter xv, 6—a semi-colon (;) after "the pardon thereof;".
6. Chapter xxi, 6—"into" is altered to "unto" in the phrase "either tied unto."
7. Chapter xxiii, 4—the article "the" is omitted in the first clause before "people" so as to read: "It is the duty of people."
8. Chapter xxix, 2—"one" changed to "once" in the clause: "a commemoration of the once offering up of himself." (This change is made in accordance with the American Princeps. The British editions, so far as they have been examined, all read "one.")

LARGER CATECHISM.

9. Answer 113—altering "the" to "His" in the clause: "using His titles, attributes," etc.

10. Answer 113 (near end)—substituting "wise" for "ways" in the clause: "or any wise opposing," etc.

11. Answer 120—inserting "day" in the clause: "the seventh day is the Sabbath," etc.

12. Answer 135 (near end)—substituting "forbearing" for "forbearance."

13. Answer 139 (near end)—substituting semi-colon (;) for comma (,) after "stage-plays."

14. Answer 142—substituting "depredation" for "depopulations." (The word employed by the Westminster divines was "depopulations," and it was appropriately used in thickly settled Britain. In this country, however, which was sparsely settled, the word "depredation" appears in the Princeps, and, beyond doubt, was the term designed by the Synod. The change to "depopulations" was made subsequent to the year 1842, doubtless to bring the Catechism into conformity with the original Westminster.)

15. Question 164—inserting "in his church" after "instituted."

16. Answer 172 (near middle)—substituting "desires" for "desirous" in the clause: "unfeignedly desires to be found in Christ."

17. Answer 175—substituting "relapses" for "relapse."

SHORTER CATECHISM.

18. Answer 19—the reading of the American Princeps restored, so that the third clause shall read: "and so made liable to all the miseries of this life."

(There are three forms of this answer: (1) The American Princeps, as above, which was continued in all editions until 1842. (2) The Westminster and Scotch, adopted in the N. S. edition of 1850, and introduced into the editions of the Presbyterian Board after 1872—"and so made liable to all miseries in this life. (3) A form introduced subsequent to 1842, and which seems to have been an attempted compromise between the American and Westminster forms—"and so made liable to all the miseries in this life.")

19. The words "END OF THE CATECHISM" restored after the Creed. (These words appear in the American Princeps, and in all editions previous to those of 1821.)

FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

20. Chapter viii, 1—last line, "or in" substituted for "and" in the clause: "in opinion or in practice."

21. Chapter xiv, 7—in Question 1, substituting "the" for "and" in clauses: "the word of God, the only infallible rule."

22. Chapter xxii, 1—substituting "their" for "the" in the clause: "for their commissioners to attend to their duty."

The Committee has also prepared a Summary, setting forth in brief the history of the Standards of the Church, and this has been published on page 4 of the new edition.

Your Committee would recommend the passage and adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution be enlarged by the addition, ex officio, of the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., LL.D.

Resolved, 2. That no change of the text of any of the several Standards of Doctrine, Government, Discipline and Worship, included in the Constitution, shall hereafter be made except after report to the General Assembly, and due constitutional procedure.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. H. Roberts,
Wm. E. Moore.

The Special Committee on German Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which was accepted as a report of progress, and its recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on German Theological Seminaries respectfully report:

The Committee was appointed under the following resolution ("Minutes" of General Assembly, 1888, page 96):

"Resolved, That under the profound and earnest conviction of the large and urgent needs of the work among our immigrant population, to which the Church, by this Assembly, has addressed itself with renewed zeal, a Committee of five ministers and five elders be appointed, who shall take into consideration the condition and prospects of our two German Theological Seminaries, confer with all parties in interest, and report to the next General Assembly, what course can be adopted to put this work upon a more sure basis, and provide for the largest and best results in the use of the most economical and business-like methods."

Your Committee found it impracticable to secure a meeting until a recent day—too late to make a satisfactory examination and report on the important matter referred to them. After as full a discussion as the circumstances under which they were constrained to meet permitted, they concluded that in order to a thorough understanding of the work it would be necessary to visit each of the seminaries. They, therefore, determined to recommend to the Assembly the continuance of the Committee, with power to fill such vacancies as may occur.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Signed in behalf of the Committee,

E. R. Craven, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work ("Minutes," 1890, p. 61) presented its Report, which was accepted and made the second Order of the Day for Tuesday afternoon.

Delegates at Large—Principals.

James McCosh, D.D., LL.D,
William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D.

The Committee would state that they have been guided in the distribution of appointments by two general principles, one geographical, the other restrictive. In the list of delegates, the majority of the Synods of the Church are represented in proportion to their respective numerical strength, and with one or two exceptions, no persons have been appointed who have been present at previous Councils. The principal exception to the operation of the restrictive principle is the Rev. Dr. James McCosh, at whose suggestion the Alliance was organized in 1875, and who yet abides in strength one of the most respected of the ministers of our widespread Presbyterian communion.

The Committee also recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Moderator, for the time being, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, be a Committee with power to fill vacancies occurring in the list of delegates.

Resolved, 2. That this General Assembly recommends to the Executive Commission of the Alliance that it authorize the various Boards of Home and Foreign Missions of the several Churches in the Alliance, to appoint to the Council one representative for each Board, such representatives to have in the Council all the rights and privileges of corresponding members.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. E. MOORE, Chairman.

The Report was adopted, and the nominations confirmed.

The Special Committee on Reprinting the "Minutes" of the General Assembly presented a Report, which was accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Republication of the "Minutes" respectfully report that the "Minutes" for 1836 and 1837 have been printed as before reported, and bound with the volume 1821-1835, published by the Board of Publication, thus completing the "Minutes" from 1706 to 1837 in three volumes. The "Minutes" of the Old School Assembly, 1838-1858, have been printed by the Board in two volumes. There remain to be printed the "Minutes" of the Old School Assembly, 1859-1869; and the "Minutes" of the New School Assembly, 1838-1869, which are ready for the printer, and await the convenience of the Board.

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 22, 1891, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in behalf of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work in the Westminster Presbyterian Church, in accordance with the Report of the Committee of Arrangements.

SATURDAY, May 23, 1891, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners as present, and their names were enrolled: Ministers—D. T. Carnahan, of the Presbytery of Puget Sound; John H. Worcester, Jr., D.D., of the Presbytery of Chicago; W. Hart Dexter, of the Presbytery of West Chester; Ruling Elders—James F. Gayley, M.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; Cicero Coomer, of the Presbytery of Larned, and B. M. Thomas, M.D., of the Presbytery of Santa Fé.

The Rev. Luigi Angelini addressed the Assembly in the interests of the Evangelical Church of Italy, and the Moderator responded to the address.

The Report of the Special Committee on the Seal of the Church was taken up and discussed, and its further consideration was made the first Order for Monday morning.

The Special Committee on Increasing the Number of Ministers ("Minutes," 1890, p. 71) requested that its Report might be committed for consideration to a Special Committee. The request was granted, and the Moderator appointed: Ministers—Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., Herrick Johnson, D.D., E. D. Morris, D.D., George P. Hays, D.D., S. F. Scovel, D.D., and James Lewis; Ruling Elders—George Griffith, Charles Lyman, George W. Ketcham, and Robert Ranken.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by the Rev. W. C Cattell, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Ministerial Relief respectfully report that the Annual Report of the Board, together with their Book of Minutes for the year from the 1st of April, 1890, to April 1, 1891, have been placed in our hands.

The whole number aided during the year was 659: ministers 266, widows of ministers 342, orphan families 31, 2 missionary women, 1 widow of a medical missionary, and 17 inmates of the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, an increase of 17 over last year. Most of these 659, it will be remembered, represent families of from two to ten persons, who all share in the relief furnished by the Board.

During the year, 39 of those securing aid—27 ministers and 12 widows—have been removed by death; while 83 have been added to the roll, viz.: 52 ministers, 25 widows, 4 orphan families, and 2 missionary women.

Under the new rule of the Assembly, authorizing the Board to extend its aid to honorably retired ministers over seventy years of age, and who have served the Church as pastors or missionaries for a period of not less than thirty years, without the annual recommendation of the Presbyteries; 58 have been relieved whose average age was seventy-eight years, and the average amount received by each was $280. Such, in brief, so far as facts and figures can express it, is the record of the Board's ministry during the year.

The entire income of the Board, during the year, was $155,154.78, derived from investments and contributions of churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals. It is an advance upon the receipts of the last year, which were $140,856.64, and is the largest income ever secured by the Board since its organization. Taking the five sources of income, contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools, individuals, the Permanent Fund, bank deposits, and miscellaneous sources, it is a gratifying fact that there has been an advance in the receipts from every one of these. The balance is now changed to the right side; instead of an annual deficit, amounting, during the two preceding years, to over $11,000, there is this year a balance in favor of the treasury from the operations of the year of $3833.78.

While these facts show that the Board is securing a larger place in the hearts of God's people, and a larger share in their offerings, there is yet most urgent need for still larger and ever-enlarging gifts to its treasury. The meagre sum of $3000 is too small to carry the Board through the summer months; their appropriations cover the entire year, while their receipts are largely restricted to the winter months. Of the $19,000 balance in the treasury at the April meeting, only $3000 were left at the May meeting.

All the Reports of the Board, and of the Assembly's Committees, since the Centennial year have called special attention to the danger of the churches falling off in their annual contributions, in view of the large income from the invested fund. This danger has been clearly pointed out, and pastors and Sessions have been so frequently and earnestly urged to guard against it by Committees, and by the repeated and earnest warnings of the Secretary, whose heart is so completely one with those for whom he pleads, that your Committee need do nothing more on this subject than to stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance.

All recognize the importance of substituting the idea of justice for that of charity in the work of the Board, so that it shall be regarded not as the doling out of alms to needy mendicants, but the payment of debts to legitimate creditors—debts which the Church is bound by every obligation of honesty and of honor to pay. The idea of charity, in the sense of gifts to those who have no claim upon us, ought not to be attached to the relief ministered by the Board; and to get rid of what seems to be the unpleasantness of the name, some have proposed to substitute some other name for that of Ministerial Relief. But no better name in the judgment of the Board has yet been proposed, earnestly as they have sought for it. A simple statement of facts and enforcements of the claims of the Christian ministry, is all that is necessary to remove misapprehension on this subject when such exists.

The cause of Ministerial Relief is its own best advocate. Could we look in upon the hearts and homes whose sorrow this Board has turned into joy, we would need no other incentive to secure it a large place in our hearts.

Your Committee have examined the minutes of the Board and find them full and well kept. They recommend:

1. That the wisdom and fidelity of the Board be approved, and the zeal and devotion of the honored Secretary, ever increasing as the years go on, are worthy of special recognition.

2. The Assembly renewedly commends this cause to the confidence and enlarged contributions of the churches; and solicits for it the continued interest which the elders have always shown in it.

3. That the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, in forwarding to the Board the application of honorably retired ministers for an appropriation under the new rule of the Assembly, shall certify that the same has been reported to Presbytery and is recorded upon its minutes.

4. That the following members of the Board, whose term expires with the present Assembly, viz., Rev. James H. Mason Knox, D.D., Rev. John Elliott Wright, D.D., F. S. Kimball, Esq., and Joseph M. Collingwood, Esq., be reëlected to serve for the next three years; and that the Rev. W. M. Paden be elected to fill the vacancy which exists in the class whose term of service expires in 1892, and the Hon. John Scott to fill the vacancy in the class of 1893. In behalf of the Committee,

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education presented its Report, which was read and accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, and by the Rev. D. W. Poor, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Education, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Education beg leave to report that they have examined the minutes of the Board, and find them in due form.

Your Committee have great satisfaction in observing in the statistics reported by the Board, evidence which awakens a hope that a steady advance has set in, which is to continue until the demands of the Master are adequately met year by year.

There were aided eight hundred and sixty-nine candidates, or an increase of thirty over the previous year, and that year showed an increase of sixty-seven over its predecessor.

There were received from all sources, $106,599.74, or an increase of $21,666.80 over the previous year, and that year showed an increase of $4001.67 over its predecessor.

But though these favorable signs encourage hope in passing from them, we meet deficiencies pointing to delinquencies and inadequacy in what is now done, fitted to quicken us to obey the command, "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest," and to arouse the churches to all the effort which that prayer implies.

1. There is a lack of promptness among the churches. The Board must pay its students and square its accounts at a fixed date, known to all; but when their books were closed there was still needed $16,000, and yet, it appears, between this closing and the printing of the Report, $8000 were received. Now all churches are under the same Master, and equally obligated with the Board of Education by the Rules of the General Assembly, to conform to the same dates. The simple virtue of promptness would remove this wrong and annoying result.

2. Despite these late receipts, there is still a debt to go over as an incubus upon the next year. Yet it appears that the Board, in obedience to the Assembly, after balancing all probabilities and calculating on a moderate increase of receipts, gave timely and repeated notice of the danger of lack of funds, which, if heeded, would have secured that end so devoutly to be wished—the closing of the year without a debt.

3. It should be observed further, if the calculation with which the Board entered upon the year had been fully realized, the result would have been totally inadequate. It would not have aided all who were offered by the Presbyteries, for 86 candidates were declined. Nor should we be satisfied to fix the limits of demand for money by the number of candidates recommended. Nor would the funds have been sufficient if tested by the law of supply and demand, as applied to vacant churches, old and new, and the men to supply them. The "Minutes" of 1890 report 1163 vacant churches, an excess of 15 over the previous year, and 222 new ones organized, against 65 disbanded, leaving an increase of 157, not counting those which could have been organized in connection with the thousand or more new Sabbath-schools, if there had been men for the work. The graduates of the Theological Seminaries numbered 12 more than the previous year, or 218. This gain, and that from other sources, may be set down as balanced. substantially by those of other denominations who study in our Seminaries, or who, for various causes, fail of entering our ministry. The effort of this General Assembly to adjust the unsupplied churches and unemployed ministers, by supplying needed information, and arousing the Presbyteries to use their direct authority, will take away one cause of reproach and hindrance to the work committed to the Board of Education, and also remove an indeterminate factor from the problem of a sufficient supply of preachers. We should not be led to conclude we have enough ministers because every attractive vacancy is besieged by an army of applicants, or because so many churches in one extreme of fastidiousness or another, draw the line of accepted entrance so far up in maturity, or establish the dead line so near the point of greatest effectiveness.

4. If members of the General Assembly will study the statistics of the Board, by Synods, they will find facts more significant than any comments of ours. Take several wealthy Synods. The Synod of Baltimore received $253 more than it gave for its nineteen candidates—forty-seven churches gave nothing; the Synod of Illinois received $1221 more than it gave; the Synod of Indiana received $3761 more than it gave; Ohio received $4251 more than it gave. Your Committee should add that they are gratified to observe the extent to which these facts are attracting attention in several Synods.

5. Further emphasis is given to these facts by a slight computation showing the rate of contribution per member. True, it should always be kept in mind that all churches cannot do alike; there is a reasonable expectation of more candidates from the country and more money from the cities, in proportion to church membership; but looking at five churches in one of our prosperous cities, we notice that the average rate of giving, per member, was in one, per year, eight cents; in another, six cents; in two others, four cents, and in one, one-half cent. Taking into account the whole body of churches, it appears that those contributing numbered 2970; those not contributing, 3700. Must we not conclude that in a large number of instances pastors, or stated supplies, or elders, were at fault in not drawing attention to the cause? Neither churches nor Presbyteries would justify the Board in thus administering its trust in disregard of the duties assigned it by the General Assembly. How can they reckon themselves without blame in neglecting their part of the same duties laid upon them by the same authority?

6. The great care taken by the Board in administering its trust, especially in exceptional cases, leads your Committee to remark that similar care on the part of Sessions, Presbyteries, and instructors of young men, would remove hindrances and increase satisfactory results. Need we say candidates should not be recommended by Presbyteries who are well known to possess sufficient means to educate themselves, or who are wasteful in the use of funds, or in any way unfit either in ability, conduct or character? Need we add, candidates should be carefully examined before Presbytery, especially as to whether they have already gone astray in theology, and should also be expected to be in constant and close relations with the pastors and Committees of Presbytery, and to be faithful in all appropriate Church work and in holy living?

The Bible ideal of the ministry should be so disclosed, so made real by the instructions of parents and preachers, and in the life of the minister, and so supplemented and completed by the treatment of the minister by the Church, that this realized ideal will draw to it the most consecrated young men of promise; and more should be done to lead sons of families of wealth to enter the sacred office. Indeed, a greater effort on the part of pastors and elders to inspire young men to study, to make more careful preparation for life, would, by advancing the education of the whole Church, afford a more cultivated eldership, and bring larger numbers forward ready to judge more correctly of their duty to enter the ministry. It should never be true that the nearer to a theological seminary, or the more closely the ministry is scrutinized, the less it is esteemed, or the less willing our young men are to give themselves to its service, or the less liberally do the churches bestow their means for preparation for it, or for its support.

7. If such studies and arguments as those by Dr. Morris, and such activities as those of Christian Endeavor Societies, and such movements as that among students towards missions, have added to the number offering for the ministry, why may we not expect that other motives, and a more profound sympathy with the work of the Holy Spirit for the salvation of souls, may hasten the day when there shall be men to preach the Gospel to every perishing soul, and consecrated means forthcoming for their ample support?

8. There should be special caution lest in the devotion of young men to school and to books they be separated from the work of God among His people. The ministry must possess more than voice or learning, or the mastery of its theory. It must live

Christ and go about doing good. Not a few are embarrassed in their work, or remain unemployed on account of some defect in manner or habits, or both, which might have been removed by proper and careful attention on the part of advisers or teachers. Some are waiting calls because imperfectly educated; some because deficient in consecration; and many because they have not met at first, and step by step, the Presbyterian test of consecrated infancy, and of the possession of the mind of Christ, in the choice of vocation, as well as in their beliefs and conduct. Let every Christian, especially every office-bearer, elder or minister, ask himself what is the mind of Christ with reference to their duties to this Board. A large share of our ministry must come under its care; they must supply our pulpits at home, and a multitude of other important places, teaching or directing under the command of the Church; they must answer the Macedonian cry from distant parts of the world. Every Board of the Church will be paralyzed if there are not men to do its work. The Master selected His disciples and taught them, but gave no heed to a multitude of other matters now greatly exalted among His followers. The hosts of the Lord cannot go forward without leaders. In the entire circle of our Church activities the one central demand is the supply of men?

We recommend:

1. That the Minutes of the Board be approved.

2. That Elder Samuel B. Huey, Esq., be elected a member of the Board to fill the place of Samuel Field, Esq., deceased, in the class of 1892, and that Elder R. S. Walton be elected to fill the place made vacant by William Few Smith, resigned, in the class of 1892, and that Elder William Wood be elected to fill the place made vacant by James S. McGee, declined to serve, class of 1893. The term of service of the following members expires this year, viz.: Ministers—Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., J. H. Munro, D.D., Edward B. Hodge; Ruling Elders—James F. Gayley, M.D., Charles H. Mathews, Esq., George Peirce, Esq. The Committee recommend that they be reëlected for the ensuing three years.

3. We observe with satisfaction in the statistics before us, that there were aided 3 Indians, 103 Negroes, 6 Mexicans, 38 Germans, 2 Japanese, and representatives of other nationalities, and we would be specially urgent that all placed in any relations to these races and nationalities, to influence them religiously, seek carefully from among them men fit to become preachers of the Gospel to their own people. They are needed not only to go abroad, but for the conversion of multitudes among us, by the neglect of whom we not only imperil their own salvation, but the institutions of liberty committed to our care for the more speedy conversion of the world to Christ.

4. In view of the fact that young men able to support themselves either when entering upon their studies, or becoming able to do so before closing them, have mistakenly received the beneficence of the Church, we recommend that the Board be given larger discretion in such cases, and that teachers afford them needed information.

5. In view of present delinquencies, and the ample authority of Presbyteries, we recommend that all Presbyteries adopt the plan now followed by some with most satisfactory results, in calling for a report from each church, once a year, both as to candidates and donations for this cause.

6. We repeat the urgency of our predecessors that parents and pastors and teachers be watchful to find young men for this special service of the Master, after the pattern of the Scriptures.

7. We commend the care taken by the Board in the acceptance and oversight of candidates, and invite Sessions and Presbyteries to renewed fidelity in bringing men into the ministry.

8. We recommend that the whole question be prayerfully restudied and restated, that there may continue to be an increase of men, and that there may be a corresponding increase of means consecrated to this purpose.

9. But since neither the amount of funds, nor the number of candidates offered, should be the measure of our efforts, we urge that the churches should not measure themselves by themselves, nor their future by the inadequate past, but that they seek to know and do what the Master expects of us, both as to men and means, for the conversion of the world in our day and generation.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN EATON, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported on a Paper which had been referred to it, viz.: a Paper "On Certain Forms of Worldly Amusements," recommending that a Special Committee of two ministers and one elder be appointed to consider the same, and to report to this Assembly. The recommendation was adopted, and the Moderator appointed the Committee as follows: Ministers—Joseph W. Torrence, D.D., Abram W. Halsey; Ruling Elder—David Lytle.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 25, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting, in the interests of the Freedmen's cause, was held in the Fort Street Presbyterian Church, as provided for by the Report of the Committee of Arrangements.

TUESDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported, recommending the reference to the Committee on Concerts of Prayer of Overture No. 55, from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, on the Day of Prayer for Colleges; Overture No. 56, from the same Presbytery, on the Week of Prayer; Overture No. 63, from the Presbytery of Sacramento, asking the Assembly to recommend that the present ecclesiastical year be devoted, in a very special manner, to evangelistic work; and Overture No. 58, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, on a pastoral letter to ministers and churches. Adopted.

The Committee also recommended that Overture No. 31, from the Presbytery of Chester, on the subject of Roman Catholic schools among the Indians, and Overture No. 32, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, on the same general subject, be referred to a Special Committee, to inquire into the facts, and to suggest to the next General Assembly what action, if any, should be taken. The recommendation was adopted, and Ministers Joseph T. Smith, D.D., William A. Bartlett, D.D., and Ruling Elder Charles Lyman, were appointed the Committee.

The Committee on Commissions reported an additional Commissioner, the Rev. Elwood M. Wherry, D.D., of the Presbytery of Lodiana, and his name was enrolled.

The Report of the Committee on the Seal of the Church was made the third order for Friday A.M.

The Report of the Committee on Unemployed Ministers and Vacant Churches was taken up. The seventh recommendation was considered, and the blank for salary was filled with the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, and necessary expenses. The Report was then referred to a Committee consisting of: Ministers—George D. Baker, D.D., Edward D. Ledyard, D.D., John H. Worcester, Jr., D.D.; with Ruling Elders—George Junkin and John J. McCook, to report to this Assembly, on the constitutionality of the measures proposed in the Report.

The following telegram was received and read:

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 26.

To Dr. William Henry Green, Moderator:

I have to announce that Dr. Henry J. Van Dyke, Professor-elect of Systematic Theology in the Union Theological Seminary, died instantly last night from angina pectoris.

[Signed] CHARLES CUTHBERT HALL.

In view of this sudden event, the Assembly was led in prayer by the Moderator, and the Moderator and Stated Clerk were directed to send in the name of the Assembly a message of condolence to the family of Dr. Van Dyke, which was immediately done. The Moderator then appointed the Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., and the Rev. Thomas A. Nelson, D.D., a Committee to prepare a suitable minute on the death of Dr. Van Dyke.

The Moderator announced the Committee on Concerts of Prayer as follows: Ministers—John L. Nevius, D.D., William Adams, D.D.; with Ruling Elder—Morris H. Stratton.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented its Report, which was read and accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. D. J. McMillan, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee feel that there is no more important subject claiming the serious and prayerful attention of the Assembly than that which we now present; not merely because of the financial interests involved nor yet because of the necessity of the work itself, for the preservation and extension of righteousness in our land, but especially because of its relation to the life of the Church. The vigor of that life is not only measured by obedience but determined by obedience. The work of missions holds the secret of the spirituality of the Church, and spirituality will throw off threatening evils as a healthy body throws off a cold. "Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh." "Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: . . . . Wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, ... but the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance." For its own sake, therefore, as well as for the sake of the perishing, the Church needs a great missionary awakening. This conviction gives emphasis to the Report we now present.

It is necessary first of all to get clearly before us the work to which we are called in this land. It is to be feared that many have no just conception of its extent and variety. The mere reading of the annual Report of the Board is a revelation of the practical boundlessness of our field and the multiplying agencies required to meet the obligations laid upon us by every consideration of patriotism and Christian stewardship.

In addition to the Report of the Board, your Committee have availed themselves of other sources of information and now bring before you a somewhat detailed statement of the work entrusted to this great Church of Christ.

While such a statement may seem repetitious to those already informed, it is necessary before intelligent action can be taken by the Assembly—such action as seems imperatively demanded in this time of emergency.

The picture called up in most minds by the term Home Missions is doubtless one of pioneer life in the West. The appeal most frequently urged from our pulpits is in behalf of the struggling settlers in the rapidly developing States and Territories. This may be because the need in such places is more apparent, which makes the appeal more urgent; or it may be because of limited knowledge of the actual field of operations. That field is practically commensurate with the United States, including old New England as well as the new Northwest; Florida and Texas as well as Wisconsin and Idaho; great cities as well as mining camps and booming villages; not to mention Alaska and Indian Territory; and without depreciating the importance of the prospects in Kansas, Nebraska, the Dakotas or Minnesota, we believe that the work in every other section is far too important to be overlooked or lightly esteemed. Even if it were a question of relative importance, which it is not, there are many who would give the first place to some other Territory than that just named. We mention this only to show the necessity of comprehensive knowledge of the field before the Church can be aroused to its duty and high privilege. It will be comparatively easy to take care of the prairies, but what of the seaboard, the mountains, the palmetto groves? The need of the Gospel is no less imperative in these districts, and this Church is the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Beginning with the extreme Northeast, we face the condition of need and of opportunity.

New England, long regarded as in no sense appealing to our Presbyterian sympathies and Christian aggressiveness, has been brought before us in the providence of God as a part of our inheritence in this land.

Canadians, Scotch and Scotch-Irish, who are Presbyterians by birth, training and conviction, are there by thousands, and through immigration are increasing by thousands each year. They naturally reach out their hands to us for help. If this were merely a matter of Church pride, it were better for us to commend them to the care of our Congregational brethren, who would gladly minister to their spiritual needs. But in the work of the Lord, convictions are too sacred to be disregarded, and natural tendencies are not to be treated lightly. The tenacity of the Scotch character may be a weakness in New England, but we call it strength elsewhere, and to it more than anything else on earth is due the vigor of Presbyterianism in these United States. This very tenacity of conviction and purpose becomes a call of the Lord to us to reach out our hands to those outstretched towards us from the East, for they will not be turned towards others. Experience shows that, for the Scotch, in New England at least, it is a Presbyterian Church or nothing. This is the real basis of the demand that comes to us from New England, and while the blood of the Covenanters is our heritage, that demand should not be and will not be disregarded. The history of our work there is proof of its need.

It moves rapidly forward. The increase in membership during the past decade is far in advance of that resulting from a like employment of men and expenditure of money in many other parts of our country. During the past year the increase upon confession of faith in the Presbytery of Boston is greater than that of any other Presbytery in the Synod of New York, excepting that in New York and Brooklyn. This is also true of the additions by letter. Moreover, the advance in the financial support of these churches is marked. The aggregate contributions far exceed those of some entire Synods. The statistics of this field will convince any one that our Church has a place in New England, not by crowding itself in, and crowding out some others, but by taking up that which is naturally and providentially its own, and which it has no right to neglect. Our Church is no parasite. It never has to steal its sheep to start a flock or keep the fold from going empty. Here as everywhere it gathers its own kind and wants none else. And its own kind are here by hundreds and thousands, and other hundreds and thousands are coming.

It should be added that besides this foreign population, Presbyterian by inheritance, there are many native Americans who are looking to our Church because of its superior polity and its evangelical faith. We have been neglecting that aggressive work among these native-born which has characterized our operations elsewhere. In view of this open door, what reproach is carried by the statement of the Board: "No new work has been undertaken in New England this year."

After New England come the great Western States east of the Mississippi. These represent the stronghold of Presbyterianism in this country, and might seem therefore to be excluded from strictly Home Missionary territory. But another phase of the need is here developed. From this region, especially from country districts, multitudes are constantly moving to settle in the great cities or in the far West. Because of this, many churches, once vigorous, are shorn of their strength, and demand help if their existence is to be maintained. We cannot let them die, for they are still needed by the communities about them. Besides, it is not Christian to abandon the weak, simply because they are weak, especially when their vitality has been given to others. Then these older States are steadily increasing in population, and there is a constant demand for aggressive work. New churches must be organized. This field alone is important enough to claim all the men and money provided by the churches within it. But instead of diverting contributions from the regions beyond, an effort is being made by some of the Synods to provide for their own work in addition to all that they have previously done for the Home Mission cause. Your Committee commend most heartily this effort. In their opinion much would be gained if the Synods, and especially the older Synods, would assume more direct responsibility for the work within their own borders, developing Synodical agencies for supervising and pushing their own missionary enterprises, thus relieving the Board of some of its arduous labors. The employment of missionary evangelists, as well as missionary superintendents, as in the Synod of Illinois, would seem a wise and necessary provision.

What is called the Middle West is another distinctive field, offering its own problems. From Minnesota and the Dakotas on the north, to Arkansas on the south, this seems our most fruitful and encouraging territory, because of the marvelous growth of these States in population, the rapid development of their resources, and the opening of new regions by the ramifications of great railway systems. It is impossible to represent fairly the need thus brought before us. The Report of the Board is almost discouraging by its revelation of practically boundless opportunities. Think for a moment of a town in Missouri of four thousand inhabitants, and not a church of any kind. Another town of three thousand and not a church. Another of two thousand without any church. Missouri alone asks for thirty new men, and not one can be given, for the Church has said through its Board: "No new work must be undertaken."

What is true of Missouri is true of all the other States within this belt. Opportunities everywhere, and nothing with which to meet them. What the Church has done shows what the Church might do. It may be questioned if this century, or any century since the Reformation, has witnessed such quick returns and such large returns for spiritual investments as these States have brought. The mission church of one year becomes the missionary church of the next year—the mother of churches. Omaha organizes a new Presbyterian church every year. Nothing seems lacking to arouse interest and enthusiasm in the work of establishing Gospel influences in the great States of the Middle West.

Within this region lies the Indian Territory, which offers some features of exceptional interest. The white population is now twice as great as the Indian, and so special attention must be given to its needs. This is the formative period when the school represents our most successful work, and is doing more for civilization, more for Christianity, more for general prosperity, than all other agencies combined. Under the wise and direct control of the Board of Home Missions, with teachers and superintendents elected for special fitness, these schools have become the mighty power they are, and emphasize the wisdom of former Assemblies in placing full responsibility for their management directly in the Board, giving Presbyteries advisory power only.

Closely identified with Indian Territory, yet separate, is Oklahoma, which is rich with promise. Two years ago it was opened for settlement. To-day it is clamoring for admission as a State. Our work here is hindered by lack of men and insufficient means for church erection.

But beyond this territory of the Middle West lies that of the Southwest and the new Northwest, even greater in extent and no less inviting to missionary enterprise. Gold and silver stored in the mountains, harvests prophesied in the fertile valleys, drawing increasing thousands from Eastern homes and from lands across the seas, all intent upon the riches that perish, but all needing treasures unseen and eternal. Colorado, California, Oregon, Washington—these are names attracting the attention of the world. To them the Church must also pay heed, if it would be true to its trust. The story of our work in this region is a story of uninterrupted success. The last year has been especially fruitful. In Washington sixteen new churches have been organized, in spite of the Board's protest, and fifteen hundred souls added as the result of a revival. From every one of these States comes a demand for more missionaries—a demand created by the needs of growing communities without the Gospel.

Still we have not traversed in thought our entire field. The South opens before us. We have missionaries in all the Southern States but four. Texas, with its vast area and its population of over two million souls, is a most inviting field. The North is sending millions of dollars to be invested in lands, manufactories, mining and iron industries. The people are following the money in great numbers. God has greatly blessed our work in this field. A Home Missionary is a Commissioner to this Assembly who received at one time during the past year fifty-five souls upon confession of faith, and others have been almost equally blessed. Two years ago a missionary was settled in a town in Southwestern Texas. His church was very small, but since then they have built a house of worship which is filled, and the pastor has organized two other churches. Here, as everywhere else, the cry is, "We must have more missionaries."

Two years ago, we had but four churches in Florida and less than a hundred members. To-day we have forty churches and more than a thousand members. This year their contribution to Home and Foreign Missions was more than double that of last year. The State is being rapidly developed by Northern capital, and the outlook is most promising, for all its enterprises, secular and religious.

While in this hasty review we have gone up and down the land, we have noticed for the most part only our native population, or rather our English-speaking population. Besides this, there is the large foreign element found especially in our great cities and in Western agricultural districts, and which demands special agencies for its evangelization. As yet we have scarcely touched this work, although, according to the Report of the Board, no department of our work is more promising. This certainly is not the part of wisdom, when we consider that the problem of our American civilization is the problem of the city, and that the difficulties in the way of its solution are found in the number and character of our immigrant population. We do well to send grateful greetings to the Reformed Church of Italy. We would do better to send the reforming influences of the Gospel to the Italy and Germany and Scandinavia of our own country. "These ought ye to have done and not to have left the other undone." Your Committee feel that the enthusiasm of the Church would be aroused and the blessing of God would rest upon us if we entered systematically upon the work of evangelizing the immigrants, and we feel constrained to say that this must be done if we would do our part in saving our country from Sunday desecration and unbelief, from anarchy and crime.

But beyond this the city presents a most serious problem to our Christian thought, because of the abandonment of our churches in down-town districts, thickly populated not only with foreigners, but with native Americans, the great working class as we call it. The most needy Home Mission field is to be found in wards of our cities that were once abundantly blessed with Gospel privileges. This field demands organized work, calling for the outlay of much money and the employment of many consecrated workers. It seems to your Committee a great evil that any church site should be abandoned while thousands of souls are clustered about it. It should be a part of the Home Mission work of individuals to sacrifice ease and comfort for these perishing multitudes.

It is simply impossible to speak of the further work appealing to us through the Board, the evangelization of the poor mountain whites in the South, the Indians, the Mormons, the Alaskans. Each of these fields is deserving and calls for our interest, prayer, and gifts, and each promises large returns for consecrated labor.

We have dwelt thus at length upon the field, its opportunities and needs, only that we might have a just appreciation of the magnitude of the work to which God calls us. It is work, brethren, work that calls for our best thought, our most fervent prayers, the fullest consecration of ourselves to our Lord and to humanity for His sake. It must be manifest to all that the measure of our consecration in the past will not suffice. The Church has not regarded this as its serious business in the world. Despite the steady refusal of the Board to undertake new work, despite actual retrenchment in many directions, we begin the year with a debt of $98,346.04, an increase of nearly $20,000 over the indebtedness of last year. It is only just, however, to say that this is due wholly to the decrease in receipts from legacies, the gifts from the churches being $34,122.22 in advance of the previous year, excluding $64,000 contributed especially towards liquidating the debt. In this respect, therefore, the record of the year is gratifying indeed, and encourages the belief that even the present indebtedness of nearly $100,000 will not stand in the way of the great work before the Church. But the Church must be aroused; and when we say the Church we do not mean a few congregations supposed to be especially responsible because especially rich, but every congregation, however small and however poor. One talent carries with it as much responsibility as ten. Our Lord makes no distinction in His spiritual commands, and when we translate duty into privilege, as we ought always to do, no individual or church will care to believe that He does make a distinction. The Church, the whole Church, must be aroused, first by the explicit teaching and emphasizing of missionary obligation, and secondly by the presentation of the facts calculated to arouse interest and direct enthusiasm. What many of our ministers need, and not a few of our churches, is more faith that the Lord will take care of them if they will take care of His work. Christ did not make a mistake when he said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you."

A most gratifying part of the year's work is found in the report of the Women's Executive Committee. If this report were read in every church it would serve to stimulate activity in this cause. When we consider that the women of our Church contribute, independently, nearly if not quite as much as the churches themselves, we realize what might be accomplished if something of their wisdom and zeal were shared by their brothers in the Lord. It would seem that in this, as in every other great cause of righteousness, the women are the God-appointed leaders. Whether it is natural intuition or divine inspiration, they seem to plan more wisely and work more efficiently.

In view of the multiplying opportunities of evangelization which lay upon the Church, increasing responsibilities, demanding, especially at this time, a mighty forward movement by the entire Church, and in view of the necessity of extraordinary efforts to effect this advance, your Committee offer the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly reaffirm its grateful recognition of the great service rendered by the Women's Executive Committee, and recommend to all pastors and Sessions the duty of fostering this work in their churches.

2. That all the Sabbath-schools be urged to take a collection for Home Missions during the year, and that, so far as possible, the Sabbath before Thanksgiving be observed for their united offerings.

3. That this Assembly instruct the Board of Home Missions to organize and push the work among the foreign population with all possible energy, even to the extent, if necessary, of employing an officer who shall have it in special charge, and that in view of the spiritual need of the Italians now coming in such numbers to our country, the American Bible Society be requested to furnish, as soon as possible, a cheap edition of the Bible in the Italian tongue.

4. That the minutes of the Board having been examined, be approved.

5. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office expires with this Assembly, be reappointed: Ministers—John Hall, D.D., and D. Stuart Dodge; Laymen—George R. Lockwood and Titus B. Meigs; and that Rev. Lyman W. Allen be appointed in place of the Rev. John R. Paxton, D.D., who declines to serve, and John Crosby Brown, in place of Joseph F. Joy, deceased.

6. That the Board be urged and enjoined to increase its membership as soon as possible, according to the request preferred to the Assembly of 1889 and granted by that Assembly, and the Assembly authorizes the Board to secure whatever change in its charter may be necessary for this increased membership.

7. That the Assembly expresses its grateful appreciation of the work of the Board during the year, and commends its administration of the great trust committed to it to the confidence of the Church, and we recommend the sum of $1,000,000 as the amount which should be contributed during the year in order both to carry on the work and liquidate the debt.

8. Because of the present embarrassed condition of the Board we recommend immediate remittances, whether as regular or special offerings, on the part of individuals and churches.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,
ANDREW V. V. RAYMOND, Chairman.

The Moderator appointed: Ministers—George P. Hays, D.D., Henry H. Rice; Ruling Elder—Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, a Committee to report upon certain Overtures with reference to a Missionary Conference.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 26, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Report of the Committee on the Increase of the Ministry was made the Order for 9.30, Wednesday A.M.

The Report of the Committee on Correspondence was made the first Order for Wednesday P.M.

The Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners as present, and their names were enrolled: Minister—Charles H. Parkhurst, D.D., of the Presbytery of New York; Elder—L. S. Lovell, of the Presbytery of Grand Rapids.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance presented its Report, which was read and accepted, and its recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Sabbath Observance respectfully report to the General Assembly that there is urgent necessity for increased vigilance and activity on the part of those who prize the Lord's day.

In support of this view, they point to the vigorous and organized attempts constantly made to destroy its legal and moral safeguards; to the proposed opening on Sunday, in our great cities, of museums and art galleries, upon the specious and false plea of elevating the masses; to the insidious invasion of the holy Sabbath by a secularizing Sunday literature with its attendant evils; to the corruption of public morals through various forms of amusement foreign to the true purpose of this day; to the excuses of sinful pleasure-seeking, as exhibited in Sunday excursions and Sunday social entertainments; and to an easy-going indifference and laxity of sentiment in reference to these evils among many of those who profess loyalty to God and His commandments.

In addition to these considerations, there are certain peculiar phases of American society which occasion grave apprehensions as to the future, and should lead us more than ever to call upon the King of Nations to enforce His own laws by persuading all men to keep them. Multitudes crowding our shores from the Old World are entering upon the responsibilities of citizenship without a proper appreciation of those national characteristics that have contributed so much to our prosperity. Trained in foreign habits, many of these individuals prefer the European Continental Sabbath to the American Sabbath. Their influence tends to change the character of the day. Prejudice, in many cases, renders them incompetent to study the Sabbath question in the light of American history; while the Socialistic spirit, controlling some of the elements of the population, denounces our Sunday laws as oppressive and tyrannical. Added to all this, the almost universal greed for gain continually invents new forms of Sabbath desecration, compelling thousands to toil on the weekly rest day on pain of dismissal, when no public or private necessity demands it. These are only a few of those antagonistic forces which try to undermine the foundations of the Sabbath, both as a civil and religious institution. The problem thrust upon us—How shall the Sabbath of the Republic be preserved?—is profoundly serious at the present moment. It should compel the careful consideration of the patriot, the philanthropist and the Christian.

We believe the only answer to the question is to be found in keeping God's commandment, as delivered on Mount Sinai, and expounded by His Son in Palestine. Physical force alone will avail little or nothing. Arguments drawn from mere expediency will prove insufficient. If we rely upon these, and disregard the sacred character of the day, the American Sabbath must inevitably perish. God's grace, lodged in the heart, is the only effectual means to counteract anti-Sabbath sentiment. Since this is so, it becomes the imperative duty, especially of the home and the Church, to teach that the basis upon which the Sabbath rests is divine.

We rejoice that in many localities there have been notable signs of such a moral awakening during the past year. The Scriptural argument in favor of the Sabbath has forced the wide and earnest discussion, both at home and in foreign lands, of the temporal and economic value of the weekly rest day. The distribution of literature upon different aspects of the subject, the activity of Sabbath associations, organized in the States and Territories of our country, and the millions of protests against opening the gates of the Columbian World's Fair on the Lord's day in 1893—all these, we confidently believe, have been steadily moulding the public conscience in the right direction.

The American Sabbath Union, a national society organized at Washington, D. C., December 12, 1888, and incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, and its Board of Directors made up of Christians of various denominations, seeks as its only object to preserve the Christian Sabbath as a day of rest and worship—and for that purpose to gather and diffuse information, to publish documents, to cause public addresses to be made, and to employ such other means as shall be expedient and proper. Its auxiliaries and agencies are multiplying in various parts of the Republic. It has received at its New York office for transmission to the World's Columbian Commission, many petitions and memorials representing the convictions and requests of several millions of people against opening the World's Fair on Sundays. Its literature—embracing reports, addresses, permanent documents, leaflets, together with its weekly Pearl of Days—covers every aspect of the Sabbath question of the age. In addition to this, The American Sabbath is published in New York City as the official quarterly organ of the society. The Union is constantly leading public opinion in favor of the civil and religious observance of the Sabbath and against the violations of the Sunday laws of the land. It looks after national and State legislation for the protection of the rights of all classes of the people to their weekly rest. One thousand Protestant clergymen of New York State recently presented their protests through this society at Albany against the enactment of a law that proposed to legalize the opening of saloons in that State on the Lord's day, from 1 P.M. till midnight, and the law was defeated. This society has the generous assistance of many of the best secular and religious newspapers and magazines. It adheres closely to its single subject, and to its constitutional methods, avoiding all entangling alliances and prosecuting its patriotic and Christian work in cordial sympathy with all evangelical churches, and with all organizations that seek the preservation of the civil and Christian Sabbath. The Chairman of your Committee has for the third time been elected its President.

The Pan-Republican Congress Committee, at a late session in Washington, D. C., received with marked favor the suggestion of the American Sabbath Union to reserve a place on its program at the World's Fair in 1893, for the discussion of the civil, economical, hygienic, industrial, social and moral aspects of the weekly rest day for all classes. Arrangements will be made by that Committee at the proper time for an International Sunday Congress, similar to the one held in Paris in 1889, with such glorious results. We cannot but believe that the consideration of these important topics, under such auspices at that time, will be productive of great good. The subject of making a demonstration at the Columbian Exhibition of the achievements and value of evangelical Christianity, and therein of the Sabbath or Lord's day, by a series of exhibits, and, if possible, in a separate building to be provided by the public authorities, is one of great importance. It is believed that should the subject be found feasible, the General Assembly's Committee on the World's Fair will fully take charge of Presbyterian interests in connection therewith. Your Committee would express the hope that it may please the General Assembly to enlarge this Committee by adding at least seven members, so that it shall have fourteen members in all.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly express profound gratitude to God for the fulfillment of His declaration in the Fourth Commandment by His blessing the country and those who have kept His day holy.

Resolved, 2. That we most earnestly recommend to the National and State Commissioners, and municipal directors of the Columbian Exhibition, to be held in Chicago in 1893, immediately to decide that its doors shall not be opened to the public on Sunday, and to announce that decision so that the public conscience shall be set at rest on the subject, and that Christians of all denominations may consistently unite in rendering that Exhibition a great success by attending it with their families, sending their exhibits there, and praying to God, who would thus be honored by the keeping of His day holy, to bless the Exhibition, and make it a means of incalculable good to the nations of the earth; and that a certified copy of this resolution, properly authenticated by the signature of the Stated Clerk, shall be entrusted to the Sabbath Observance Committee for presentation to the said authorities.

Resolved, 3. That the work of the American Sabbath Union, in behalf of the Sabbath day, is cordially recommended to our pastors and churches for their active coöperation and prayerful encouragement.

Resolved, 4. That the first week of April, 1892, be observed by our churches as a period for special prayer for the blessings of our Father which is in heaven, upon all the people, that they may be led to a better observance of the Lord's day.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ELLIOT F. SHEPARD, Chairman.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That Elliot F. Shepard, of New York, James A. Beaver, of Harrisburg, Pa., Byron Sunderland, D.D., of Washington, D. C., Herrick Johnson, D.D., S. J. McPherson, D.D., John L. Withrow, D.D., and Henry J. Willing, of Chicago, Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., of St. Louis, Mo., F. C. Monfort, D.D., of Cincinnati, O., Robert J. Trumbull, of San Francisco, Cal., William R. Worrall, of New York, Rev. W. S. Wright, of Pearsall, Texas, John Cameron, of Detroit, Mich., C. H. Glover, of Horicon, Wis., are appointed as the General Assembly's Committee on Sabbath Observance, to serve without expense to the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies presented its Report, which was read and accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Hervey D. Ganse, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies would present the following Report for the adoption of the Assembly:

This Board was created in order that busy givers might have some trusted agency to sift applications and administer the contributions of good people. The chaotic system of turning every ambitious region loose on the Church, to solicit aid for their needed or unneeded enterprises, was closing up the hearts of the benevolent. Liberal people said, "We cannot take the time and we have not the means to investigate and distribute wisely. If an agency is established to discriminate among cases, we will trust that agency with a little at first, and with more, if it shall show such business methods as deserve confidence; and we will give it nothing, if its managers make business fools of themselves."

Many things the Board has not done. It has not secured as much money as it wants. It has not helped every institution as much as the institution wants. It has not invented any way to get money except to have it given. The whole Church will be obliged to any genius who will devise a way to solve these difficulties.

Some things it has accomplished. It has created a way by which Western and weaker institutions can get favorable access to some of the liberal givers, and secure large sums. These weaker institutions heretofore have been practically unknown to most large donors. This Board can bring some of them to the knowledge of those persons, who are ready to give or to bequeath large sums, and aid such givers in selecting objects for bequest according to the preference of the giver. The Board cannot aid every college, but if it thus aids any, that is clear gain. No obstacle is put in the way of any institution applying as of old to any person. But such roving applicants are not likely to succeed, because givers are increasingly turning to this Board. It is a great relief to busy people by enabling them to know that good claims will come to them through the officers of this Board. These officers are men well known and whose business methods can be trusted. Being the agent of the giving side of the Church as well as the receiving, this Board cannot encourage debt, or approve of impracticable projects, or yield to appeals for aid beyond the extent of the funds in sight. To do so would be to court bankruptcy and cut away confidence in its measures.

On the other hand, the Board does and ought to give very patient attention to all exceptional cases. Of course there is a liability for cases to become chronic as "exceptional," if that will enable its friends to persuade the Board to furnish the asked for relief. The Board is administering a beneficence, and should continue to give solicitous care to each section overtaken by temporary disaster or hampered by temporary financial difficulty. For all such cases the General Assembly joins the Board in appealing for "emergency aid." Somewhere, however, the Church must locate the delicate and painful duty of deciding that cases have no longer claims owing to depopulation and vanishing resources. With colleges as with churches, it may come out that the supposed promise of usefulness was a mistake, and that more gifts would be a waste of money destroying the confidence of donors. It is better for property "out of debt" to be closed for years, than to be swamped and finally sold out for floating debt accumulated in a hopeless struggle. It is false pride to maintain that everything ever undertaken must be eternally persisted in.

Donors to educational institutions are now in two classes in our Church. One class is small but of large means and larger hearts. With these the officers and members of the Board are fast establishing helpful acquaintance and confidence. Yet the implied contract is, that either in person or by letter the Board shall apply to them directly. Agents must not be sent to them to beg. From these donors much may be obtained, but good faith and thorough business methods must be shown, otherwise the institutions will get nothing. The other class is the outside public, to whom any one can go without asking permission of the Board. This last class will no doubt be a barren field for gleaning, and the Board can do applicants neither good nor harm among them. The test of all tests on these money matters of benevolence is that confidence which secures aid. The increasing sums given in large amounts through this treasury is the incontestable proof of the efficiency of these men on this Board.

In one respect certain older sections of the Church seem to your Committee to deal hardly with this Board and the institutions it was intended to aid. The reliance of the Board for funds to aid in paying teachers is on the collections of the churches. For older and richer Synods, Presbyteries or churches, without the consent of the Board, to take a collection under the name of Aid for Colleges and Academies, and then use such funds for their local institutions, is keeping the forms but breaking the substance of the whole plan. We urge those directly or indirectly interested in this matter to consider whether this is fair. Ought they not to give the collections to the Board (or to special objects with the approval of the Board) and make their own objects separate and special efforts. Let Presbyterial Committees look earnestly after this matter.

Upon the whole, your Committee is deeply convinced that the time has come for an earnest effort to lift this cause of College Aid to a higher plane of contribution among our people. With universal regular collections for professors' salaries, and vigorous solicitation for large gifts from large donors, our hold on the public can be made secure. Whatever philosophy, political, scientific or religious, educates the young, will control any community. Every pastor and elder ought to feel personally called on to see to it that the attention of all wealthy persons in their churches is called to this Board as a wise and safe channel for placing large permanent investments in God's work. This Board knows the whole field open to such durable contributions better than any giver can know it. Gifts wisely located are worth to the cause of God and humanity three times as much as if misplaced. Ministers and people, who have not much means of their own, have a duty here to do, in calling attention to this Board as a wise counselor of those contemplating donations while living, or bequests in their wills. The Presbyterian Church membership has large wealth, a liberal spirit, and a great duty to posterity. Let us by large gifts, judiciously directed by this Board, make the most of our ability and opportunity.

In view of the foregoing, your Committee recommends the General Assembly to adopt the following:

1. This Assembly gratefully recognizes the goodness of God in leading our Church to establish this Board, and in blessing and guiding the Board in its work to abandon methods which proved failures, and to adopt its present business methods of administering beneficence.

2. With calls urgent and important, and resources all too small, we appreciate the painful perplexities and embarrassing duties of the Board in striving, when all claims cannot be met, to select the most important. We bespeak for the Board the wisdom of God and the confidence of His people.

3. The work of principals and teachers in newly founded communities in conducting Christian education is as truly mission work as any to which Christians can give themselves, and we insist on Sessions regularly and urgently presenting the claims of these workers as represented by this Board. If the people do not give when the case is presented that is their responsibility. When Sessions do not give the opportunity to give, a double responsibility is incurred, to wit, both that of the Session and that of the people.

4. In many cases it will seem hard to insist on the rule that

"No debt shall be incurred," but the future is so uncertain, and givers are so unwilling to pay debts, that we advise the Board to be very slow to abandon in any case its rule of requiring each year's expense to be kept within that year's income. The deficiency should be made up somehow.

5. This Assembly strongly commends to those whom God has blessed with means the endowment of these living fountains in new lands. The local friends generally do their utmost in providing ground and buildings for colleges and academies. Whoever then endows the institution serves God and his fellow-men for all time to come. Tombstones may perish, but endowments give harvest every year. The children of the poor seem to make the best students, and though rich givers may only know of colleges rich in money, this Board can direct them to schools rich in physical endurance, intellectual ability and consecrated spirit in the classes. They give doubly who give to the needy, when the needy are the coming great and influential.

6. That the following persons be and hereby are elected members of the Board to serve three years, namely: Ministers—M. Woolsey Stryker, D.D., J. G. K. McClure, D.D., M. L. Haines, D.D., Thomas C. Hall; Laymen—Hon. Dan P. Eells, Cyrus H. McCormick, Hon. James McMillan, Thomas Lord.

7. That the minutes of the Board be approved, as on examination we find them accurately and neatly kept.

In behalf of the Committee,
Geo. P. Hays, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on a Publishing Outfit for the Board of Publication was taken up. Pending discussion, the hour of adjournment came, and the Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 26, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Home Missions was held in accordance with the programme of the Committee of Arrangements.

WEDNESDAY, May 27, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication was made the Order of the Day for to-morrow at 3.30 o'clock P.M.

The Committee on Commissions reported an additional Commissioner: Ruling Elder—C. C. Hoover, M.D., of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, and his name was enrolled.

The Standing Committee on Mileage presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

1. That the Committee on Mileage be authorized to pay the mileage expenses of the Commissioners.

2. That the Mileage Committee be authorized to pay to the Stated Clerk such moneys received by it as belong to the Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

The Special Committee on a Religious Exhibit at the Columbian Exposition in 1893, presented its Report, which was accepted, and the recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly in 1890 to consider the question of a Religious Exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition in 1893, would report its conviction that such an exhibit is practicable and desirable. In an exposition designed to show the progress of America, it is as important to illustrate the forces which have produced our civilization as to exhibit the material products of that civilization.

To be most effective, the exhibit should set forth the position and work of all the religious organizations of the country. It might include the following departments:

1. Statistics.—Representing the growth, extent and distribution of the various organizations, by means of charts, maps and globes.

2. Publication.—Representative collections of distinctively religious books and periodicals.

3. Education.—Illustrations of theological seminaries, colleges and schools, including those in mission fields, under directly religious control.

4. Evangelistic Work.—Representative church, Christian association, Sunday-school, and other buildings for religious uses.

5. Charities.—Illustrations of hospitals, asylums, orphanages, reformatories and other charitable institutions under religious control.

6. History and Biography.—Pictures and memorials of men, places and events of especial interest in connection with religious work.

Accompanying the exhibit should be comprehensive descriptive publications concerning it and the work it illustrates.

It is believed such an exhibit would give encouragement to all friends of religion, and would increase their interest in all efforts to still further extend the field of religious activities; that it would be effective in impressing upon the irreligious and the indifferent the extent of the religious influences at work in this country, and the many ways in which these influences are advancing the material, social, educational and moral interests of the people of this and other lands, and that it would be exceptionally valuable to the many representative visitors from countries in which the influence of Christianity, especially of our Protestant Christianity, is little felt.

In the nature of the case it is impossible to fully present to the eye all the means used and the results achieved in educational, moral or religious work, but it is believed the great development in recent years of the graphic method of presenting statistical information, and of the art of photography, makes it possible to secure an attractive as well as an instructive and valuable exhibit.

There is no central authority under the direction of which the exhibit can be prepared. There is every reason to expect cordial approval of the proposal by the Exposition authorities, but they, at most, can only indirectly aid. Each organization must, in a large degree, act independently. But conference and coöperation of those interested would greatly aid in securing a symmetrical, attractive and valuable exhibit. It is believed the proposal will so commend itself to the judgment of Christians that most, if not all, the religious organizations of the country will join in making the exhibit—either by official action, or through individual members.

The work done by our own Church in the past and its present position makes it not presumptuous nor unfitting for it to take the initiative in this matter.

Under the auspices of an organization known as the World's Congress Auxiliary of the Columbian Exposition plans are being prepared for a great religious Congress, and invitations are extended to the various Churches of the country to hold special Congresses at Chicago during the progress of the Exposition. That such Congresses may be productive of good is obvious, and the preparation for them is an additional reason for the religious exhibit.

Preparation for such an exhibit will require much correspondence and conference and the expenditure of considerable sums of money. The active help of the various Boards of the Church would naturally be given, but it is believed the work may most wisely be committed to a Special Committee to be appointed by this General Assembly. Obviously no part of the funds contributed to the Boards of the Church should be called on for this work. It is believed the necessary amount can be secured from contributions by individuals interested, without applying to the churches in general.

Believing that such an exhibit as has been thus briefly outlined may most appropriately form a part of a great commemorative Exposition under the auspices of a Christian nation, which has received such bountiful blessings from God, the Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the General Assembly gives its approval to the proposal to have an exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition illustrative of the influence of religion on civilization, and that it invites the hearty coöperation of other Churches and religious organizations throughout the land in the work of preparing such an exhibit.

Resolved, That a Committee of nine be appointed by this Assembly, empowered to confer with the Exposition authorities and the representatives of other religious bodies, and to make specific plans and arrange for the preparation of the exhibit representing our own Church and its work. Provided, That all funds needed shall be secured by contributions from individuals interested in the exhibit. In behalf of the Committee,

· GEORGE E. MORROW, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Increasing the Number of Ministers presented its Report. After some discussion, the third recommendation was referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Arthur Mitchell, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions reports as follows:

The contents of the Fifty-fourth Annual Report have been carefully studied. Within the Board itself, we note the resignation of Mr. John Sloane, and the election of David Gregg, D.D. From the Secretarial force, the senior Secretary, John C. Lowrie, D.D., retires as Secretary Emeritus, after service, in one form or another, for more than half a century. These services were duly commemorated, and their fidelity recognized. The Church at large makes this recognition its own, and through this Assembly extends to him its congratulations in view of a period of service so exceptionally long and eventful. The call of forty-eight Presbyteries for a Field Secretary, to move among the churches of the Central West, has been answered by the appointment of the Rev. Thomas Marshall, who entered upon his duties, December 1, 1890. For Mr. Marshall the Board and the churches have only good words and Godspeed. The expense of this office is met by persons and churches impressed with a sense of its urgent need.

Into the wide field of labor an unusually large number have gone forth—in all seventy-three. They have reinforced thirteen of our missions—more especially in China, India and Africa—to the joy of the overburdened. From the same wide field, for one cause or another, six have retired, and eight have fallen at their posts. The starred names are Blackford, of Brazil; Brier, of the Gaboon; Abbey, of China; Heron, of Korea; Miss Craig, of Lodiana; Mrs. Wright, of Persia; Mrs. Mills, of China, and Mrs. Phraner, of Laos. These are serious losses. To the bereaved and to the afflicted missions the sympathy of the whole Church is assured. This reduces the net gain of the working force to 59—in all, from this country, 210 ministers; of lay missionaries, 40 men and 348 women—a total of 598. Most gratifying is the assurance that, as a result of this work of evangelization and education, an ever-enlarging native force is coming to the help of our missionaries, already numbering 366 preachers of the Gospel and 1055 lay helpers—in all, 1421. This is at once the fruit and the justification of our educational work in all the great centres of influence, the college and the seminary being as vital to the work of missions in China, Japan, India and Brazil, as Harvard, Yale and Princeton, and the newer colleges of the West, to the work of the Kingdom in this country. There is reported an advance in the number of pupils in all the schools, but the number of boys and men in training as teachers and helpers has well-nigh doubled, being now 2202, and of girls and women, 1715; while of students for the ministry in theological schools, the increase is 50 per cent.—160. To all who believe that the final evangelization of any land must be reached through the natives of that land, this exhibit is most gratifying. The printing press is an ally as mighty as ever, and from the two great plants of this Board at Beirut and Shanghai have issued 64,023,325 pages, of which more than 40,000,000 were Scriptures. So is it that the miracle of Pentecost repeats itself. They do still receive the words of grace and life in the tongue in which they were born. Noticeable it is, and significant, that one shipment of Scriptures from Beirut was to the Arabic-speaking people of Chicago. As heretofore, the American Tract and Bible Societies have lent efficient aid in multiplying and distributing the Scriptures, books and periodicals.

Of all forms of missionary activity, that of medical missions continues, in popular favor, to lead all others. For this heathendom has no substitute. To it it can make no protest. For this work the missionary physician is ready the moment his foot touches the soil of a foreign land. Barred doors are opened to him. Princes bow down to him. And once his tongue is loosed, as well as his hand, there are no limits to the good he may do but such as inhere in human frailty. This Board has in operation twelve hospitals and fourteen dispensaries, and of its missionary force thirty-three are physicians, eleven of these being women. The medical force can neither be too numerous nor too good.

Lifting our eyes and looking abroad upon the wide field, we find the civil and political commotions of a year ago in South America and Japan still affecting missionary progress, and for the time being certainly not favorably, though the outcome may be greatly to the advantage of civil and religious liberty, and so to the progress of the Kingdom. But over all the great domain to the south of us, on this continent, what lessons are yet to be learned, what overturnings, before Christ will have His way there? And what a responsibility rests upon this Christian nation to exert itself in all lawful ways to bring to these new-born or inchoate republics the aid of our enlightenment and our Christianity! Our missions need to be both multiplied and strengthened, and the call for colleges in Brazil and Chili answered in the affirmative. But what a spectacle is this in wondrous Japan, land of perennial surprises, brought now within ten days of our shores, to see a Christian man presiding over the first Constitutional Assembly the nation ever saw, supported by a score of others, Christian in faith, trained in church and school under missionary influence. And this is a land where, twenty years ago, the faith of Christ was professed at peril of life, where the oldest church is not yet twenty years old, and the emperor was but just now worshiped as divine. It is good to know that our missionary force has been increased, but it ought to be larger, it ought to be doubled. What is done needs quickly to be done. To all this civil ferment has been added that of ecclesiastical agitation, resulting in a union of all Churches of the Presbyterian order, seven in all, in one body—the Church of Christ in Japan—with a short, simple, evangelical creed, heartily accepted, a Presbyterian form of government, an earnest and devoted ministry and an increasing and aggressive church life. While everywhere else, in all civil affairs, the Japanese are saying to foreigners, "We have no further need of you," happily, missionaries and native pastors, and foreign and home-born educators are on terms of mutual confidence and hearty coöperation. Following upon the settlement of these terms of agreement have come showers of refreshing and promise of larger ingatherings. Korea has lost a splendid missionary in the death of Dr. Heron, greatly lamented. But this, the youngest of our missions, is making encouraging progress, and reports itself as never in so good a state as now.

In the entire Chinese empire this Board has 136 missionaries, distributed through four departments. In the Canton district, restitution has been made for losses sustained some years ago by Mr. and Mrs. Fulton. The venerable Dr. Happer had little more than laid the foundations of a Christian college, for which he had himself secured the funds, before he was laid aside, disabled by illness. This was the blessed crowning of a life given up to intelligent and faithful effort for the Christianization of this empire. May it please God to prolong his honored and useful career, and may the right man be found to take up his work. At the north the Shantung district continues to be the scene of famines and revivals. Missionary tours are still rewarded with abundant fruit, and numerous have been the additions to the churches. With but a single exception, missionary work throughout the empire has been uninterrupted, and retaliation upon our missionaries, because of their nationality, has not yet taken shape with the authorities of this patient people. Medical missions are prosperous and popular wherever instituted. Here, as in Japan, a movement is on foot to unite the various sorts of Presbyterians in one organic body, upon the basis of the "Apostles'" and "Nicene" Creeds, and the Westminster Confession, another omen for good. On the Pacific Coast work is carried on effectively among the Chinese and Japanese resident there with the hearty coöperation of the churches. And at this time, especially, a deeper interest than ever is being awakened in these heathen on our shores, because of a fight going on with the powers of darkness for the rescue of girls and women from a doom worse than slavery; and the branding of a nefarious business so that it may henceforth have no abettors, Chinese or American. To all their other good works the women of the Occident are adding this also. May they be abundantly successful.

India is another of our ancient fields of great extent, of immense difficulty, of slow but certain growth. Reinforcements have gone forward, the schools are prosperous, a native ministry is being brought steadily on. Zenana and medical work are prosecuted successfully. But caste weaves a network of iron about these people, and creates a barrier to the confession of Christ, the most formidable of earth.

Quite different is the story of work among the Laos. The door of opportunity is open wide, converts are multiplied, the missionary is welcome. It is the same old story—in the morning he sows the seed, in the evening he returns with his sheaf. The work in Siam continues to share the favor of the authorities, and the greatest hindrance is that furnished by the climate. Dr. Hays, in the sole employ of the government, is able to render valuable assistance to the mission, being in charge of all the government hospitals, as well as the lunatic and orphan asylums. The necessary withdrawal of Miss Cort is a serious loss to the mission. Light and shade are mingled.

Turning northward, the work in Persia has seemed to loiter till now. Of late one of those showers of blessing, for which this ancient empire has been distinguished, has visited the mission, and the hearts of believers are revived. The Syrian mission has kept its watch-fire burning, and its diplomatic fingers busy with the pestering Turk. At length, after a six years' contest, the closed schools of the Hauran are open, and the little sheet "Neshra" no longer menaces the peace of the empire. Beirut continues to be the great centre of evangelistic and educational activity, but Sidon on the south, and Tripoli on the north, are also centres of influence reaching inwards and crossing the mountains. The latest word is, "On to Aleppo," a city of commercial importance. Syria is a hard field, but the Board has always had a brave band of workers there, ready to cope with the endless annoyances of the Ottoman government and jealousies of ancient sects.

Passing over into the Dark Continent, our missions in Liberia barely hold their own—and why not? No new recruits have yet been found for this field, and the mission is not equipped to make this a source of supply for the regions beyond. Our ancient field, the Gaboon and Corisco missions, have been encouraged by recruits, having also lost one valuable man, removed by death. If we cannot greatly multiply the agencies of evangelization, it is hoped that as an Assembly we may do something to stir up our Government, at least, to not lag behind European nations in forming a league to deliver Africa from the curse of rum. From of old we have been among the chief of sinners against our brothers of dusky skin, and this bad reputation we unfortunately still sustain. We have never atoned for one-half the mischief we have done to Africa, and to-day we are among the chief offenders against her peace and prosperity. It is high time we were bent on works meet for repentance. If we will not carry the standard of the cross into the Dark Continent, let us at least withdraw from the service of the devil.

Mexico, our nearest neighbor, makes a strong plea for our prayers and our sympathies, both because of her proximity to us and because of the stubborn resistance which, in common with all papal fields, is made to the incoming of a free Gospel and an open Bible.

A few thousand Indians still look to this Board for the bread of life, and reward our ministries as amply as work elsewhere. It is a notable fact that, in the late Sioux disturbances, none of the Christian Indians were found among the disturbers of the peace—another illustration of the fact that the missionary is better than a standing army in dealing with savage tribes.

Turning now to the Home Department, as related to the wide field, three things are needful in order that this world may be evangelized—men, money, and a praying, obedient and inspired Church. The first great need is a Church aglow with the love of Christ and men, that puts the kingdom of Christ to the front, and believes in putting Him at the head of the nations; a Church fired with passionate ardor and intelligent zeal to take the world for Christ. Such a faith, such a zeal, as have made the Moravian Church an example to Christendom for three-quarters of a century. This work, to go forward, must start from within, from hearts that have been closeted with Christ, and have learned of Him, and accepted as from His pierced hand the commission, "Go preach my Gospel to every creature."

A Church thus consecrated, and no other, will furnish the men and the money for such a work in any adequate measure. Last year we came up to the General Assembly, a large force in sight, ready to go forth. This year the cry is for men as well as means. This great student force of which we hear is not maturing fast enough for our needs, and the consecration of the children of the Church is not reaching far enough into the ranks of the young life with which our Church abounds. And the prayer should be often on our lips, "Send forth laborers into the harvest." It is our Lord's command that we thus pray.

Financially we have much, very much, to be grateful for. In the face of a deficit of $60,000, the last Assembly authorized this Board to make its appropriations on the basis of an income of a million dollars. We had been hanging fire at a million since our meeting at Omaha, and falling back $50,000 a year for two years, and now the Assembly says, Go ahead and spend a million. But our Board, wisely no doubt, cut its appropriations to $900,000, and comes out with a deficit of only about $18,000. This is mainly because the gifts of the living have materially increased, and partly because of funds available which have now been used up.

The work of the Treasurer is highly commended, and the Board is congratulated upon the efficiency, thoroughness and enthusiasm with which he has entered upon his work. Notwithstanding the financial stress of the year, the total increase of this year's income over last is more than $150,000, carrying us well on to the million notch. From churches, an increase of about $55,000; from Women's Boards, nearly $56,000; from Sabbath-schools, about $2000; from individual and miscellaneous sources, about $40,000. It is noticeable that the gifts of the Women's Boards came within about $11,000 of the aggregate gifts of the churches. Legacies fell off; Sabbath-schools disappointed us. Those women, with their 6415 auxiliaries, societies and bands, came up to the help of the Lord and the needs of this Board in a manner worthy only of themselves and their Lord. A single check from the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of Philadelphia was for $96,000. The blessing of the Lord of the harvest be on them all! And now we face another year; and if we are wise, we will take a longer look ahead than that. This Board rests now squarely on the shoulders of the churches. There are no reserve funds to be called in. This Assembly will doubtless authorize what it authorized last year, and instruct the Board not to cut below the million. Have some regard for this missionary force at the front, and the urgent needs of a growing work, as well as for the feelings and pockets of 800,000 communicants and 900,000 Sabbath-school scholars. We want an average of $1.25 each from the membership of our churches, and of 25 cents each from the Sabbath-school Army besides. And why not? Nay, why stop there? This is the minimum. A hundred of our membership can add to this $100,000; fifty others can add $25,000, and a hundred more can add $20,000. It were easy to raise this sum to $1,200,000 were we giving as becometh saints, who are also a militant army of conquest. Somehow or other, the Church must be made to see that the harvest of her sowing is ripening on a grand scale, and the reapers are too few. Somehow or other, the Church must be made to see that she has begotten a hunger which must be fed, or the clamor of the awakened will enter into the ears of the Lord of Hosts and be recorded against us. Somehow or other, the Church must be made to see that the evangelization of the world is her great business, and that two things are urgent: first, that her resources are consecrated to the Lord; this means, among other things, and chiefly, a cut into our luxuries; and then, second, that the perishing millions get their share—five dollars in a hundred of the actual gifts of the Church. Is that a fair share to go abroad? We have a fairly liberal Church, but home interests—often humanitarian interests—subsidize the great bulk of our gifts. Five dollars in a hundred! Make it ten this year, and we will open our eyes in astonishment at the impulse that will be given to this great work.

There are various Overtures put into our hands covering the ground of simultaneous meetings, calling for a great Missionary Conference, and again, a Special Committee to inquire into the causes of apathy, and possible methods of awakening interest and securing funds all along the line. These all indicate an aroused conscience in certain quarters, and a spirit of inquiry that is prophetic of good. Your Committee, having duly considered these suggestions, are moved to say that, not only to hold our own, but to avert disaster, first of all, pastors and Sessions must take this matter upon their hearts, and determine upon liberal things. Then, let Presbyterial and Synodical Committees do their work faithfully, arrange simultaneous meetings and conferences wherever it is practicable, and see that the dilatory are brought into line. Let the Synod of New Jersey instruct us.

In the local church, and in public gatherings, let the methods of gathering funds be scrutinized, and new ones be devised. Keep the old ones, if necessary, but put a special subscription top of that. Take up some special work in the church, in Sabbath-school, in Mission Bands, over and above the annual plate collection or the weekly offering. Exercise ingenuity in these matters. We get into ruts. The annual plate collection is a very bad one for most churches. Our highly esteemed weekly Sabbath offering, divided, such a per cent. to each Board, is liable to become a very unsatisfactory rut, if trusted to altogether. Neither of these methods alone will ever meet the exigencies of this last decade of a missionary century. Let our Board and the Secretaries be alert to suggest methods of increasing the offerings. It will never do for them to wait for the churches to come up to the true ideal. Let them lead and inspire the churches. Let them not tie up too closely to methods of fifty years ago. Let them not be afraid of innovations—guide them. Let them encourage individuals to go out at their own charges to support missionaries, to take up a native helper, a school, a student, a chair or a scholarship in a college—only do it through the Board. Write to headquarters. The Board has always at hand a list of such things that can be put right under the eye of pastors and others. There may be too little faith in New York, as well as too much inertness in the churches. Your Committee would be better pleased not to see three or four thousand dollars taken from our treasury to make up annual deficits for The Church at Home and Abroad. We believe that that estimable journal ought to be self-sustaining, specially since it absorbed one that was not only self-sustaining, but a source of revenue.

And we also would like it better if arrangements were made whereby foreign news, and the latest news, from the churches could be bulletined just before the day of publication, and every issue tell us in bold figures just where we stand as towards the appropriations for the year, and this we ask that the Assembly direct to be done. As it is, we depend not upon our journal for the latest missionary news, but upon the weekly papers and the Missionary Review.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the minutes of the Board be approved.
2. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office has expired, be reëlected, to wit: Ministers—R. R. Booth, D.D., Charles H. Parkhurst, D.D., W. R. Richards; Laymen—Edward Wells, Esq., George S. Coe, and Darwin R. James; also David Gregg, D.D., new member.
3. That the Assembly adopt, as its own, the suggestions made in the body of this Report as to means and methods of stimulating interest and securing the necessary funds for this work.
4. That a Christmas offering be planned for, and taken in every Sunday-school of our Church, in aid of making Christ known to the nations—that this blessed charity may be associated with one of the sweetest festivals of childhood.
5. That our various Women's Boards be heartily commended for the work of the past year, and begged not to relax one jot or tittle of their splendid endeavors, but go on to greater things; to be just as inventive, consecrated and winsome as they can be, and having covered the rest of the ground so well, try their hand on the men and see what they can do with them.
6. That the recommendation of last year, as to expenditure, be reaffirmed for this year, with instructions to the Board to obey the injunction of the Assembly if the exigencies of the work demand so much; and the churches are urged to, at once, plan to meet the requisition by raising the sum of $1,100,000, that the Board may incur no debt.

Respectfully submitted,
H. C. Haydn, Chairman.

The following resolution was received and referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions:

Resolved, That all rules proposed by the Board of Foreign Missions for the direction and control of the missionaries of our Church, be first submitted to the missionaries in the different mission fields for suggestion, and reported to the General Assembly, together with the other business proceedings of the Board.

The Committee to prepare a minute on the death of the Rev. Henry Jackson Van Dyke, D.D., presented a paper, which was adopted. The Stated Clerk was directed to send a copy to the family of the deceased, and to preserve the paper on the files of the Assembly.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 27, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Moderator announced the Committee on a Religious Exhibit at the Columbian Exposition as follows: Prof. George E. Morrow, Elliot F. Shepard, Herrick Johnson, D.D., S. J. McPherson, D.D., J. H. Worcester, Jr., D.D., Cyrus H. McCormick, William C. Gray, Henry Warden, John H. Converse.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported, recommending the reference to the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions of three Papers on the Jerusalem Missions, and of Overture No. 6, from the Presbytery of Cayuga, on a Missionary Conference. The reference was made.

The Committee also reported recommending the reference of Overture No. 4, from the Presbytery of Puget Sound, and No. 5, from the Presbytery of East Oregon, both on the subject of the next place of meeting, to the Permanent Committee on that subject; Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of Chicago, asking for certain changes in Chap. xxiii, of the Form of Government, to the Committee on Bills and Overtures; Overture No. 3, from the Synod of New York, and Overture No. 57, from the Presbytery of Lansing, both asking for certain changes in the Statistical Blanks, to the Committee on the Polity of the Church. Adopted.

The Committee further reported a communication from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, asking this General Assembly to join with it, and with others, in petitioning all the governments of the world to take measures to banish warfare, as the means of settling the strifes that arise between nations, and to substitute a more rational and Christian tribunal, and that this Assembly appoint a delegate to a meeting of like delegates, to be held at a date to be named. The Committee recommend that the Assembly assent to the request. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. E. MOORE, Chairman.

The Committee on Correspondence presented its Report:

The Standing Committee on Correspondence respectfully present the following Report:

That under authority of the Assembly, Rev. Paul F. Sutphen was appointed delegate to the General Council of the Reformed Episcopal Church at Cleveland, O., and Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., his alternate. They recommend that Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., be appointed delegate to the Synod of the Reformed Church in America, soon to meet at Asbury Park, N. J., and Rev. Frank Chandler, D.D., his alternate; that Rev. J. G. Mason, D.D., be appointed delegate to the next meeting of the Reformed Synod in the United States, and Rev. Sylvester W. Beach his alternate.

Your Committee, also, believing that the expression of brotherly love towards those "that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ" is peculiarly consonant with the mind of our Lord and with His touching prayer for His disciples, "that they all may be one," desire to record the sentiment, as that of this Assembly, that fraternal relations are cordially extended by it towards all, and invited by it from all organized bodies of believers that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity, and that are laboring together with us for the coming and glory of His kingdom.

Your Committee further recommend that, in accordance with the fraternal usages of former Assemblies, the Moderator be requested to convey by telegram, through the Stated Clerk, the Christian greetings of this body to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session at Birmingham, Alabama, to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, and to the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, at Pittsburgh.

Your Committee report that the following accredited delegates have been sent to us from corresponding bodies, namely: Rev. Luigi Angelini, who has been already heard by this Assembly, from the Evangelical Church of Italy, which designates itself in its greetings to this body as the youngest in the sisterhood of Churches holding the Presbyterian faith and polity; Rev. Joseph H. Dubbs, D.D., from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States; the Rev. Ashbel G. Vermilye, D.D., from the Reformed Church in America; the Rev. Mason Gallagher, D.D., from the General Council of the Reformed Episcopal Church, and Rev. George W. Chamberlain, D.D., from the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil. It is recommended by the Committee that these four delegates last mentioned be now received publicly and heard by this Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,
A. H. Carrier, Chairman.

The Rev. J. H. Dubbs, D.D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States; the Rev. Mason Gallagher, D.D., delegate from the Reformed Episcopal Church in the United States; and the Rev. George W. Chamberlain, D.D., delegate from the Presbyterian Synod of Brazil, conveyed the salutations of their respective bodies to the General Assembly, to which the Moderator made appropriate response.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented a Report in part, with reference to the appointment of the Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D.D., as Professor of Biblical Theology in the Union Theological Seminary. The Report was accepted, ordered to be printed, and made the first Order of the Day for Thursday morning.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented its Report, which was read and accepted, and, after an address by the Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D., the Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Assembly's Standing Committee on Church Erection beg leave to submit their Report. Every facility has been furnished by the able and faithful Secretary to make a thorough examination of its affairs. The Twenty-first Annual Report of the Board, the Treasurer's Report, as well as the minutes of the Board for 1890 and 1891, together with such further information as has been deemed necessary, have enabled your Committee to put forth the following summary of facts, and to make the ensuing recommendations.

The removal of Elder John Sloane from earthly service to heavenly reward has left a bequest of faithful service and devoted love, and a vacancy which will be difficult to fill.

The results of Home Missionary enterprise cannot be assured until they are housed in a church home. The visible edifice consolidates and expresses religious effort. The house of God incarnates and makes permanent the spiritual success.

This Board not only provides for the new church, but aids the waning and feeble congregations to rebuild, and thus covers a larger extent than Home Missions itself. The demand ever increases. What facts are these? Since 1880 there have been organized in connection with our Church 1859 new congregations, an average of 184 each year, but varying from less than 100 in 1881 to 236 in 1889 and 222 in 1890. The applications to this Board are about equal to the churches organized, the old churches seeking aid to repair or rebuild keeping up the average. For the past year aid was sought by 190 churches for edifices and 52 for manses. The sum demanded for the former was $123,615, and for manses $21,498, or a total of $145,113, an increase of $16,073 over last year, and $27,856 more than the year before. You can mark the progress of the Church by this increasing demand. It is stimulating but suggestive of grave responsibilities. This demand in five years has increased more than thirty-one per cent.

What have the churches done to meet this ever-enlarging call? Out of the 6894 churches only 3182 contributed, leaving 3712 unrepresented in this holy work. After the broadest charity there must be serious indifference or carelessness or torpor. With an empty treasury at the beginning of the year, and a slight falling off of contributions, well might the Board take alarm and be filled with anxiety. The working income of the Board from all sources and for every purpose was $126,648.28. This Board conducts a vast business enterprise with its insurance and mortgages. The value of the property secured by its intervention during the last year is at least $400,000. This is no inconsiderable item even in the grand aggregate of church property, which by statistics gathered by this enterprising Board is proximately $75,000,000. There are reported 804 churches without buildings. There were 222 new churches put on our list last year. It is clear to the Committee that the manse fund should be raised from $35,000 to at least $50,000. Our Methodist brethren in this regard teach us a wise lesson in economy, comfort and stability. The new book of church designs is an architectural triumph. It is an inspiration to build and a suggestion how to do it with the least money. We must ever keep in mind that all the grants are secured by mortgages without interest and by insurance policies. The Board is protected against loss through the failure of the church, but it is not protected against unnecessary delays in liquidating the indebtedness. Out of the three millions of dollars thus loaned no penny of interest enriches the current resources.

The Committee has considered an Overture from the Presbytery of Baltimore, asking that the Board be authorized to establish a loan fund. The object to be attained is that a separate fund shall be raised which, at the discretion of the Board, may be loaned, either with or without interest, to churches which, while not being proper recipients under the rules of the Assembly of absolute grants from the general fund, may still need temporary assistance. Such funds are in existence in the Methodist and Congregational bodies, and have been approved by their actual working through many years. Your Committee think that the time has come when a similar agency should be inaugurated in our own Church.

An Overture has been also received from the Presbytery of Chickasaw, asking that special provision be made to meet the exigency involved in the rapid settlement of the new territory of Oklahoma. The request appears to your Committee to be reasonable, and a recommendation will be proposed which it is believed will meet this and other similar exceptional cases. The Committee also suggest that the Board place in the hands of the Stated Clerk, or Chairman of the Church Erection Committee of each Presbytery, a list of the churches within its bounds to which aid has been given, so that immediate steps may be taken to protect the interest of the Board in case of dissolution, or transfer to other denominations. Finally, we call upon churches to first amply care for their own Boards before they heed the fascinating distress of special appeals. We must provide for our own. Presbyterian money is often misdirected and our own causes to which we are pledged suffer. Why should this great Board, founded in wisdom, approved by all our consciences and conducted with conspicuous ability, devotion and skill, be forced to exhaust all its special funds, and see itself crippled by a falling off in church contributions? Never was the field so broad nor more imperative. Presbyteries display great ingenuity in inventing new methods in expending the Board's resources. What Presbytery will lead, and what consecrated man will arise to devise practical ways for increasing the supply of money? Who will discover and open the new and broader stream to feed the depleting reservoir, that the sum of the receipts may be equal to the demands of distribution? "Freely ye have received, freely give." Let us go home determined to meet this emergency, lift the receipts of this handmaid of Home Missions to a round $150,000, that the spiritual Church, gathered by faithful workers, may have the incalculable blessing of a visible home.

Your Committee would submit the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly commend with enthusiasm this worthy Board to the Church's generosity.

2. That as far as possible, all contributions for Church Erection go to the treasury of the Board.

3. That the sum of $150,000 be the minimum of contributions for the coming year.

4. That the Assembly approve of the new Book of Plans as businesslike and adapted to aid the work.

5. That the records be approved so far as written.

6. We recommend the following new rules to meet the exigency suggested in the Overture from Chickasaw Presbytery, namely: In cases where, owing to the rapid settlement of lands newly opened, the establishment of preaching stations and the organization of churches for the maintenance of Home Missionary work are imperatively demanded in advance of the growth of the ordinary measure of self-help, the Board at its discretion, after conference with the officers of the Home Missionary Board, may exceed the usual limit of aid permitted, namely, one-third of the value of the property, provided such additional aid shall in no case exceed one-half of the value of the property, or the sum of $1500.

7. That special contributions be invited from churches and individuals to establish a loan fund, to be controlled by the Board of Church Erection under the following restrictions: (1) No part of said fund shall ever be disposed of by gift for any purpose or be used for current expenses, but it shall be preserved without diminution as a perpetual fund. (2) Said fund may be loaned to any church without interest in small sums, or with interest when the Board shall deem it expedient, in aid of the work committed to the Board of Church Erection, such loans to be secured by proper mortgages, and to be returned in installments as the Board may direct. (3) The details of the administration of this fund shall be referred to the Board with directions to report a complete plan to the next Assembly.

8. We recommend the reëlection of the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire at this time: Ministers—David R. Frazer, D.D., Charles T. Haley, D.D., David McGee, D.D.; Elders—Robert Jaffray, Hezekiah King, and also the election of the Rev. R. H. P. Vail, D.D., in place of the Rev. S. M. Hamilton, D.D., resigned, and Mr. John J. McCook, to fill the place made vacant by the death of Mr. John Sloane.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Wm. A. Bartlett, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Missions for Freedmen was taken up and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Missions for Freedmen would respectfully submit the following Report:

The Board of Missions for Freedmen have brought to this Assembly their Twenty-sixth Annual Report, in which they record their gratitude to God for the success which has attended the prosecution of their work during the past year, rendering it one of the most successful years in this important department of the Church's work. During this time the missions already established have been strengthened and enlarged, and new ones have been begun in other fields, as far as the means of the Board would permit. The Board has had in commission, during the year, 354 missionaries, 288 of whom were colored. The work of preaching the Gospel, and gathering the people into the Church, and the children into the Sabbath-school, and the catechetical instruction of the young, has been prosecuted with zeal and earnestness by the missionaries and teachers. About 50 new missionaries have been commissioned, and 7 new churches have been organized; 1483 members have been added to the mission churches of the Board, 1296 on examination, and 193 on certificate, making an average of over 10 to each minister, on profession of their faith.

The whole number of churches receiving aid from the Board is 252, and 17 missions as yet without church organization. The whole number of communicants in these churches is 15,486. The whole number of Sabbath-schools is 259, with 18,212 scholars. Two churches, with about 600 members in each, went off the Board during the year, and have become self-sustaining. This reduction of the number of members, together with a steady migration of the people from the Atlantic coast, the chief field hitherto of the Board's operations, to the Gulf States, has lessened somewhat the total number of communicants reported.

The Board's Field Superintendent or Synodical Missionary, as we would say, has rendered most valuable service in the prosecution of the work, in visiting churches and schools, attending Presbyteries and Synods, and in exercising general supervision of the entire work upon the field. His reports show a growing and gratifying progress of the entire work of the Board. And his is a most important position and agency, in order to the efficient and successful prosecution of this work, one that will ever call for the right man in this very important place.

While the primary and chief work of the Board is evangelistic, a second and marked feature of the work of very great importance and promise is its educational work. It has been found, as the result of experience, to be a matter of very great importance that the preachers and teachers for the colored people should be trained up among their own people. Not only because it is less expensive, but because they are kept in constant contact and sympathy with them in their present circumstances, habits and wants; and also, because, as soon as they are prepared for their work, they find fields of labor all around them ready and calling for their service. It is important that colored ministers should have training sufficiently long and thorough, so as to establish them in their habits of piety and exemplary Christian living, and so as to be well qualified for their work of religious instruction and training, and also that they be not educated away from the people, and out of sympathy with them, so as to be unwilling to adapt themselves to their modes of life and circumstances.

In addition to the primary and higher grades of schools for the Christian and secular training of the colored race, and schools for the collegiate and theological training of ministers and teachers, there has been opened, during the past year, in connection with Biddle University, at Charlotte, North Carolina, an Industrial Department, which gives promise of great usefulness and benefit to the colored people. At this University, which is most advantageously located in the midst of a dense population of colored people, and which is specially designed for the education of preachers and teachers, there have been, during the past year, 175 students, more than fifty of whom have the ministry in view. It has thirty acres of land and a college building, which cost over $40,000, a large dormitory and four professors' houses, and is, in all respects, well equipped for its work. In the Industrial Department, in which the students may acquire a knowledge of the industrial arts, such as printing, carpentering, the manufacturing of plain furniture, and other mechanical pursuits, eighty-five of the students have spent an hour and a half daily since its opening, with the prospect of becoming qualified thereby to add much to their future usefulness and comfort. If this department could receive at once a proper endowment, with wise management, a great door of usefulness would be opened for the advancement of the colored people in all that region.

A great and growing demand for boarding schools for the careful religious and secular training of colored girls is felt all over the field occupied by the Board. Scotia Seminary, a girls' school at Concord, N. C., has had to turn away over 200 girls for want of room during the past year. The ladies of Cincinnati have raised $10,000 towards its enlargement. The institution has already done a successful work, and with its increased facilities, which are to be ready at the opening of the next term, it is expected to extend and widen its influence through all the adjacent country.

The Mary Allen Seminary, at Crockett, Texas, though a young institution of only six years' standing, has been greatly prospered. By virtue of the generous donation of $16,000 from the Hon. James McMillan, of this city (Detroit, Mich.), and the hall that has been erected by means of it, its usefulness has been greatly increased the past year, and yet with its increased capacity it is not able to receive many who seek admission, 102 girls having been turned away during the last term for lack of room to accommodate them.

The same is true of many other schools of like character. The Swift Memorial Institute, at Rodgersville, Tenn., is in a prosperous condition, and is to have increased facilities for enlarged work. The Academy, at Cotton Plant, Ark., is crowded and calling for enlargement, though comparatively a new institution with 214 pupils.

By the contribution of $2000, mostly from ladies in Illinois, another Academy has been built and opened at Monticello, Ark. By the contribution of $10,000 from a friend of the Board in Pittsburgh, the Haines Industrial Academy has been built and opened at Augusta, Ga., and has had enrolled the past year 525 pupils. At Danville, Va., and Burkville, Va., the schools are advancing. The new building at the latter place is under contract and it is believed that it will be filled from the time of its first opening.

Brainard Institute, at Chester, S. C., with its 460 pupils; Wallingford Academy, at Charleston, S. C., with its 507 pupils; Beaufort Academy, at Beaufort, S. C., with its 572 pupils; and Richard Allen Institute, at Pine Bluff, Ark., with its 250 pupils, are all reported as doing a good work for the elevation of the colored people in these several districts.

The educational work of the Board, as thus shown, has been much enlarged and strengthened the past year. The eagerness of the colored girls and boys to secure an education has been a matter of surprise even to the members and officers of the Board, as well as to other friends of the cause, and has awakened earnest desire and prayer for more funds to meet the increasing demand.

The ladies of Illinois proposed to raise $6000 towards the founding of a boarding school for girls, in the State of Mississippi, to be known as the Mary Holmes Seminary. About $10,000 are reported as secured towards the erection of a building for its accommodation. This will be the first entrance of the Board into the State of Mississippi.

The important and liberal aid given by the women of the Church to this work during the past year, has been specially encouraging to the officers and members of the Board. They have awakened an interest in churches and societies heretofore unreached, and have increased their receipts to this object, over those of the previous year, to the amount of $8457.99. The whole number of schools aided is 84. The whole number of pupils in them is 11,029. The number of teachers is 197.

The financial exhibit for the past year, while not so large as the year previous, yet is equally and even more encouraging. The amount contributed by the churches, Sabbath-schools, women's societies and individuals, was $155,078.13. To this sum is to be added $45,581.30 given by the colored people in the churches and schools towards self-support, an increase of more than $4000 over the previous year. The reason of the falling off in the total amount of receipts, in comparison with the year previous, is explained by the Board having received bequests amounting to over $40,000, and $21,000 in special gifts, to two institutions, while for these objects the Board received only $27,000 the past year from the same sources, making a difference of $34,000.

The number of churches contributing to the Freedmen's Board the past year is 2891; the number of Sabbath-schools, 324; of women's missionary societies and bands, 1121.

At no time since the entrance of our Church upon the work of evangelizing the freedman, has the present condition and the future influence of the negro upon the nation for good or evil been so widely discussed in the secular and religious press of the country. Every phase of the subject has been canvassed. In regard to the future of the negro, these four facts have come to be regarded as quite settled. 1. That the negro is here to stay, and that his future home is to be chiefly in the Southern States, all plans for his transportation to other countries being regarded as impracticable. 2. That the negro is capable of improvement. He may be educated and Christianized. 3. That the negroes are improving in their worldly circumstances; that many of them are becoming landholders; that others are entering into business, or becoming mechanics or tradesmen. 4. That the negroes as a class have not improved in morals as they have in their material condition.

During the last twenty-five years there has been, in proportion to the population as shown by statistics, all over the country a great increase of crime. 1. In the foreign population of the country. 2. Still greater among the native-born population. 3. And greatest of all among the negro population. The reason assigned for this increase of crime and failure of advancement in the moral condition of the negro population has been the lack of moral and religious influences. To save this race and to save the nation from their demoralizing influence Christians of all evangelical denominations must take hold of the work of their Christianization, and the moral and industrial elevation of the race with a strong hand and a firm and persevering faith.

As already intimated, there is a steady migration of the colored people to the Gulf States and to the Southwestern States, beyond the Mississippi. They must be accompanied by the missionary and by the church and the school, or else ere long darkest America will be found in all that region of country. The work is large and urgent. Among no people has the amount of religious labor been accompanied with larger practical results.

Two things this Board desires the whole Church well to consider.

1. The permanence of this work.
2. The need of its enlargement.

The foundations have been laid. Churches and institutions have been planted which are to become centres of widespread and increasing influence. Principles, and lines, and methods of operation have been established. The Board is planning to greatly enlarge this work. The call now is loud and earnest for men, for larger and more general contributions from all the churches, and for earnest prayer to God, and a firmer reliance upon His promises.

Your Committee have examined the minutes of the Board and the report of the Treasurer, and have found them correct, and recommend their approval.

The Committee would further add that this Board has felt aggrieved and oppressed by a restriction imposed upon it by the last Assembly, which is exceptional in its character and embarrassing in its operation. They suppose the Committee of last year, in asking the Assembly to restrict the expenses of the office of Secretary and Treasurer, including the necessary expense for clerical service, to the sum of $2000 per annum, was led to do so under some misunderstanding. The Board are unanimously of the opinion that this work cannot be done as it should be for the sum specified. As the current expenses of this Board are believed to be less than the expenses of any other Board involving the same amount of labor, and the percentage of expenses is the lowest, being only three per cent., the Board submits a series of facts going to show the inexpediency and injustice of such a restriction, and would most respectfully, yet most earnestly, ask the Assembly to remove the limitation, and deal with it as with the other Boards of the Church.

Since the relative importance and amount of work committed to this Board has greatly changed, and in view of the demands for an immediate enlargement of its work, both evangelistic and educational, the Board would call the attention of the Assembly to the need of a readjustment of the proportionate percentage of the collections of the churches to be assigned to the several Boards.

In view of these statements, your Committee would respectfully recommend:

1. That the restriction placed upon this Board by the last Assembly be removed, and that the Board be recommended to exercise a wise discretion in seeing that its affairs are administered in as economical a manner as the business will allow.

2. That the attention of the Standing Committees of the Presbyteries be called to the urgent need of larger and more general contributions to this cause from all the churches, and that they use their best endeavors to have this cause brought before the churches which have heretofore failed to make contributions to the same.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires with this Assembly. Ministers—D. S. Kennedy, E. P. Cowan, D.D., H. T. McClelland, D.D.; Ruling Elder—W. B. Negley. We recommend that the four persons whose term now expires be reappointed for the term of three years, and that Mr. J. G. Stephenson be appointed to fill the place of Mr. T. A. Parke in the class of 1892, resigned, and that Mr. T. A. Kitsmiller be appointed in the place of Mr. Charles Hubbard of the class of 1891, resigned.

In behalf of the Committee,
EBENEZER ERSKINE, Chairman.

Resolved, That the propriety of omitting from or changing in the so-called "Apostles' Creed," the phrases, "He descended into hell," and the "Holy Catholic Church," be referred to the Committee on a Consensus Creed to consider what is wise in the way of action, and to report to the General Assembly.

The Stated Clerk presented the following Report on the Binding in Volumes of the Reports of the Boards, which was approved, and the Resolutions adopted, viz.:

The Stated Clerk respectfully presents his Report as the Committee in the matter of the binding and distribution of 7000 copies of the Annual Reports of the Benevolent Boards and Committees for the year 1890.

1. Distribution of the volumes of the bound Reports was made to all ministers whose addresses were given in the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries, or were ascertainable from other sources; to all vacant churches having more than twenty communicants, and to the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries or Synods for the documentary files of those bodies.

2. The Assembly's direction with reference to an early distribution of the volumes of Reports could not be complied with by the Clerk. A contract was made early in June, 1890, with Messrs. J. W. Clark's Sons, of Philadelphia, Pa., specifying among other things that the distribution of the Reports should begin on the 12th day of July, 1890. This proposed arrangement, however, could not be carried into effect owing to the delay in the delivery to the binders of the Reports of certain of the Boards. The first packages of the Reports were received on the 7th and the last on the 31st of July, 1890. Immediately on receipt of the last of the Reports, the binders proceeded with their work, and distribution was begun on August 14, and completed by the close of that month.

3. The Stated Clerk is gratified to be able to report that the work of binding and distributing the Reports has been thoroughly done, and that the expense has been $406 less than in 1889.

The following resolutions are offered for approval:

1. That the Annual Reports of the Boards for the year 1891 be bound and distributed as heretofore, under the sole direction of the Stated Clerk, the expense to be borne by the several Boards in proportion to the space occupied by their Reports in the bound volumes.

2. That the Boards be requested to use all possible expedition in the publication of their Reports after the rising of the Assembly, in order that the Reports may be bound and distributed at the latest by August 1.

3. That the account of the Stated Clerk, for expenditures connected with the work, be referred to the Finance Committee.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 27, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Foreign Missions was held in the First Presbyterian Church, in accordance with the programme of the Committee of Arrangements.

THURSDAY, May 28, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries in the matter of Prof. Charles A. Briggs was taken up. Pending the discussion of the motion to adopt the same,

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 28, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was resumed, the question being on an amendment offered by Dr. S. C. Logan, viz., to insert the words "for the present," before the word "disapproves," in Resolution No. 1. The Hon. Samuel Miller Breckinridge, LL.D., took the floor, and after speaking twenty minutes in favor of the Report of the Committee, closed his speech with the words, "I have discharged my duty," and turning to leave the platform, fell dead.

The Assembly at once engaged in devotional services in view of the solemn event, and a Committee was appointed to recommend such action as would be appropriate on the part of the Assembly. The Moderator appointed as the Committee: Ministers—George P. Hays, D.D., LL.D., F. L. Patton, D.D., LL.D., Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Henry P. Smith, D.D.; Ruling Elders—George Junkin, John J. McCook, E. W. C. Humphrey, with the Rev. A. G. Vermilye, D.D., of the Reformed Church in America. The Committee withdrew for consultation and reported that the escort accompanying the mortal remains of Judge Breckinridge to his home at St. Louis, Mo., would be Ministers—George P. Hays, D.D., LL.D., S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., A. A. E. Taylor, D.D., Charles A. Dickey, D.D., with Ruling Elders—John Montgomery, Jr., and Robert Ranken; that Gen. R. A. Alger had tendered his special car to the escort, and that the offer had been thankfully accepted. In the same connection the Committee of Arrangements recommended that the Assembly rescind the action appointing a banquet and reception, for which preparations had been made, and that a prayer service be held in lieu thereof, in this Church, this evening. The recommendations were adopted, and the Moderator appointed the Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., LL.D., to conduct the service.

After devotional services and remarks, the Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 28, 8 o'clock P.M.

In accordance with the action taken at the afternoon session, a meeting for prayer and solemn commemoration was held in the Fort Street Church, presided over by the Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., LL.D.

FRIDAY, May 29, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Rev. A. G. Vermilye, D.D., the delegate from the Reformed Church in America, presented the salutations of that venerable body, and was responded to by the Moderator.

A telegram was received from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, cordially reciprocating the fraternal greetings and referring to 2 Cor. xiii, 14: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen."

The consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on Theological Seminaries was resumed.

After discussion, an amendment was proposed by the Rev. John H. Worcester, Jr., D.D., as a substitute for the amendment of Dr. Logan, and also for the Report of the Committee, viz.:

The Assembly recognizes that the present relations of our Theological Seminaries to the General Assembly were brought about through the voluntary and generous concession by Union Seminary of a portion of its independence, in the interest of a better adjustment for all.

It recognizes that in the recent transfer of Prof. Briggs to the chair of Biblical Theology, the Directors of Union Seminary acted in perfect good faith upon a possible construction of their powers under the act defining those relations. It recognizes also, that the present widespread uneasiness and agitation in the Church has grown out of utterances of Prof. Briggs, subsequent to the transfer.

At the same time it regards those utterances as certainly ill-advised, and as having seriously disturbed the peace of the Church, and led to a situation full of difficulty and complication. Yet the Assembly desires to act in the spirit of the largest charity and forbearance consistent with fidelity to its trust, and of the most generous confidence in the Directors of Union Seminary. Therefore,

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed by this Assembly, consisting of eight ministers and seven ruling elders, for the following purposes, viz.:

1. To confer with the Directors of the Union Seminary, in regard to the relations of the said Seminary to the General Assembly, and report thereon to the next General Assembly.
2. To request the Directors of Union Seminary to reconsider the action by which Dr. Briggs was transferred to the chair of Biblical Theology.
3. To advise that, in any case, Prof. Briggs be not allowed to give instruction during the year previous to the meeting of the next Assembly.

The discussion was continued until 12.30 P.M., when

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 29, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, in the case of Dr. Briggs, was resumed, the question being on the amendment of Dr. Worcester. It was Resolved, That the vote on all the propositions under consideration be taken at 5 o'clock.

The time for the vote having arrived, the amendment of Dr. Worcester was rejected by a vote of 106 in the affirmative, to 360 in the negative. The amendment of Dr. Logan was also rejected; and the Report of the Standing Committee was adopted by a yea and nay vote of 449 to 60. The Report, as adopted, is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, to whom were referred certain Overtures respecting the Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D.D., beg leave respectfully to report that they have examined the same and find that sixty-three Presbyteries, to wit, the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Baltimore, Butler, Cairo, Carlisle, Cherokee Nation, Chester, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbus, Crawfordsville, Dayton, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, Freeport, Grand Rapids, Hastings, Holston, Huron, Iowa, Iowa City, Los Angeles, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Marion, Maumee, Monmouth, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Brunswick, New Castle, North River, Northumberland, Osborne, Ozark, Philadelphia, Philadelphia Central, Philadelphia North, Redstone, Pittsburgh, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Puget Sound, St. Clairsville, St. Louis, Shenango, Solomon, South Florida, Springfield, Steubenville, Transylvania, Trinity, Union, Utah, Vincennes, Walla Walla, Washington City, West Jersey, White Water, Willamette, Winona and Wood River, have overtured the General Assembly in reference to the utterances of the Rev. Dr. Briggs, contained in the address which he delivered on the occasion of his induction into the chair of Biblical Theology in the Union Theological Seminary, New York. Some of the Presbyteries recommend specific action on the part of the Assembly, but the majority of them ask in general terms that the General Assembly take such action as, in its wisdom, it may deem best.

Inasmuch as the theological training of our candidates for the ministry is a matter in which all the Presbyteries have a deep and common interest, the Presbyteries aforesaid are to be commended for their vigilant regard for the purity of the Church, and their Overtures should have weight with the Assembly in taking action upon a matter which would, in any event, have come to the knowledge of the Assembly through the Report of the Directors of Union Theological Seminary to the General Assembly. The present Report of your Committee is also a Report on so much of the Report of the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary as refers to the appointment of Dr. Briggs to the chair of Biblical Theology in the said Seminary. It appears from that Report that "on the 11th of November, 1890, the Edward Robinson Professorship of Biblical Theology was founded and endowed by Charles Butler, LL.D., by the gift of $100,000;" and that "at the same time Prof. Charles A. Briggs, D.D., was transferred to the new chair from the Davenport Professorship of Hebrew and the Cognate Languages." On the 20th of January, 1891, Dr. Briggs delivered an Inaugural Address on "The Authority of Holy Scripture," which has been the subject of severe criticism, and which is the occasion of the recommendations which your Committee feel constrained to make to the Assembly. In making these recommendations, your Committee feel that they are acting in the discharge of a difficult and delicate duty. The matter with which they have been called to deal bears in a very important way upon the purity and peace of our Church. The interests of the Union Theological Seminary should be most carefully considered, and great regard should be had for the judgment of those who, as Directors and as members of its Faculty, are administering its affairs. The Committee feel, moreover, that while the Assembly has not been officially informed that the Presbytery of New York has taken steps that look towards a prosecution of Dr. Briggs on the charge of heresy, this well-known fact should be so far recognized as to secure from the Assembly the protection of the good name of Dr. Briggs in the discussion of the question that will come before the Assembly through this Report, and also to prevent any expression of opinion on the part of this Assembly that could be justly regarded as a prejudgment of the case that will soon, as it now appears, assume the form of a judicial process in the Presbytery of New York. It cannot be too carefully observed that the question before this Assembly is not whether Dr. Briggs, as a Presbyterian minister, has so far contravened the teachings of the Westminster Confession of Faith as to have made himself liable to judicial censure, but whether, in view of the utterances contained in the Inaugural Address already referred to, and the disturbing effect which they have produced throughout the Church, the election of Dr. Briggs to the chair of Biblical Theology in the Union Theological Seminary should be disapproved.

Your Committee have examined the law of the Church regarding the relation of the General Assembly to the Theological Seminaries under its care. The relation of the Assembly to the Union Theological Seminary, so far as the appointment of professors is concerned, is embodied in the following statement, taken from page 390, of the New Digest:

"1. That the Board of Directors of each Theological Seminary shall be authorized to appoint all professors for the same.

"2. That all such appointments shall be reported to the General Assembly, and no appointment of a professor shall be considered as a complete election if disapproved by a majority vote of the Assembly.

"And further, be it Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary in the city of New York, persuaded that the plan proposed in the memorial will meet the cordial approval of the patrons, donors and friends of all these Seminaries, and contribute to the peace and prosperity of the Church, do hereby agree, if the said plan shall be adopted by the General Assembly, that they will agree to conform to the same, the Union Theological Seminary in New York being in this respect on the same ground with other Theological Seminaries of the Presbyterian Church." (See "Minutes," 1870, pp. 148, 149.)

"The Assembly complied with this request." (See "Minutes," 1870, pp. 60–64.)

On page 397 of the New Digest there is the following statement respecting the "limitations of time within which the Assembly may exercise its veto in the election of a professor:"

"That the Assembly declare that the true meaning of the act subjecting the election of a professor to the veto of the Assembly is that such election be reported to the next General Assembly thereafter, and if not vetoed by that Assembly the election shall be regarded as complete according to the plan ratified by the Assembly of 1870." (See "Minutes," pp. 60–65, 1878; 1871, p. 581.)

It appears, then, that according to the terms of the contract quoted above, the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary have conceded to the Assembly the right to veto the appointment of professors; and that an election is complete unless vetoed by the next Assembly following the election.

Your Committee would have been disposed to recommend that the Report of the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, so far as it has reference to the transfer of Dr. Briggs to the chair of Biblical Theology, be referred to the next Assembly, if such a disposition of the matter had been possible. But the Assembly has clearly no power to postpone action. The control of the Church over the election of Dr. Briggs ceases with the dissolution of the present Assembly. Your Committee are constrained, therefore, to say that, in their judgment, it is the duty of the Assembly to disapprove of the appointment of Dr. Briggs to the Edward Robinson chair of Biblical Theology in the Union Theological Seminary.

Your Committee desire to say, moreover, that while they are clear in their judgment that the Assembly has the right to veto the appointment of Dr. Briggs to the chair of Biblical Theology, it is possible to impose a meaning upon the apparently unambiguous phraseology of the compact between the General Assembly and the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary that would lead to a different conclusion. Fairness also requires us to remember that the Assembly is one of the parties to the contract that it is called upon to construe. While your Committee are of the opinion that the compact in question did not contemplate the distinction between the election of a person to be a professor, and the appointment of one already a professor, to the work of a certain department of instruction, it cannot be denied that such a distinction exists; the one act conferring status, the other only assigning duties.

The seemingly irregular course of the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, whereby Dr. Briggs was inducted into office before the Assembly had been advised of his appointment, is doubtless to be attributed to their mode of construing their compact with the General Assembly. While your Committee are sure that the Assembly will not and should not admit that its right of disapproval is restricted to the original election of a person to a place in the faculty of the Union Theological Seminary, and while they are of the opinion that, acting according to the light it now has, the Assembly cannot but disapprove of the appointment of Dr. Briggs to the professorship of Biblical Theology in that Seminary, they are nevertheless of the opinion that in the interest of the mutual relations of confidence and cordial respect subsisting between the Union Theological Seminary and the General Assembly, it would be eminently proper for the Assembly to appoint a Committee to confer with the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary in regard to the relations of the said Seminary to the General Assembly, and to report to the next General Assembly.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That in the exercise of its right to veto the appointment of professors in the Union Theological Seminary, the General Assembly hereby disapproves of the appointment of the Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D.D., to the Edward Robinson professorship of Biblical Theology in that Seminary, by transfer from another Chair in the same Seminary.
2. Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of eight ministers and seven ruling elders, be appointed by this Assembly to confer with the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary in regard to the relations of the said Seminary to the General Assembly, and to report to the next General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANCIS L. PATTON, Chairman.

It was ordered that the amendments to the Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, offered by Drs. Logan and Worcester, be printed as part of the Record.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 30, 1891, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A telegram was received from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, in session at Princeton, Ind., cordially reciprocating the fraternal greetings of this General Assembly, and referring to Hebrews, Chap. x, 23, 24: "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for He is faithful that promised; and let us consider one another, to provoke unto love and good works."

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported:

Overture No. 42, a Memorial from the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Boulder, and in behalf of said Presbytery, asking of the General Assembly an answer to the following question:

In the first organization of Home Missionary Churches, when from necessity there can be but two elders, how may the provisions of Form of Government, Chap. xiii, Sec. 8, be reconciled with the decision of the Assembly of 1884 (Digest, p. 548, 8) that "the provision of this section cannot be carried out should the elder be elected for a longer or shorter term than three years."

Also a Paper from certain members of the Presbytery of Chicago, asking substantially the same question.

Your Committee would reply, by referring to the principle laid down by the Assembly of 1876, p. 74 (Digest, p. 547, 2), viz.: "A Constitutional rule must have power to effect whatever is necessary for its practical operation." In the judgment of your Committee, if, in introducing the system of Term Service, it is found necessary to elect one or more classes for less than three years, so as ultimately to make the classes three, and the term of service three years, it is lawful to do so, in accordance with the principle stated above. Adopted.

Overture No. 43, from the Presbytery of Baltimore, asking the Assembly "to modify the deliverance of the Assembly of 1890 ('Minutes,' p. 113) so that church Sessions may delegate authority to issue letters of dismission to those in good and regular standing, the granting of such certificates to be affirmed at the next meeting of the Session."

The Committee answer, that it does not find in the Form of Government anything which would invalidate the custom of authorizing, by vote of Session, its Moderator or Stated Clerk to issue letters in the interim of the meetings of the Session to members who are in good standing, and to report such dismissions to the Session at its next meeting. Adopted.

Overture No. 45, from the Presbytery of Brooklyn, asking that ministers whose names are now on the rolls of Presbyteries, and are reported from year to year, though it is not known where they reside, or whether they are living or not, may be reported apart from others, their names being printed on a Reserved Roll; and that the Presbyteries be directed to place their names on Reserved Rolls in their respective Reports to the Assembly, and not to count them in determining their representation in the Assembly.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted. Adopted.

Overture No. 61, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia Central, asking the Assembly that the "Surplus Mileage Fund, if the way be clear, be devoted to the payment of the indebtedness of the Boards of the Church."

The Committee recommend for answer, that the Assembly has no power to devote the funds collected for the expenses of the Assembly to other purposes. Adopted.

Overture No. 71, from the Presbytery of Winnebago, asking, "Is it lawful for the Session of a church that is without a pastor, to invite a minister of another Presbytery to moderate its meetings?"

Answer: "No" (see Digest, p. 126, 2, a, b, c). Adopted.

Overture No. 69, from the Presbytery of Washington City, relative to Art. lxxi, Chap. ix, Book of Discipline, whether under that article, it is discretionary with Church Sessions to order the minutes of the Board of Deacons to be incorporated with the records of Session?

Answer: It is discretionary.

Overture No. 52, from the Presbytery of Freeport, in reference to the examination of candidates for licensure and ordination, asking that Chap. xiv, Sec. 4, and Chap. xv, Sec. 2, of the Form of Government, be so amended as to include an examination in the English Bible as one of the requirements on the part of Presbytery from candidates for licensure and ordination.

In the judgment of the Committee, it is not expedient, at this time, to send down new Overtures to the Presbyteries. Adopted.

Overture No. 59, from the Presbytery of Neosho, asking for certain changes in Chap. xxiii, in the Form of Government.

Overture No. 51, from the Presbytery of Dubuque, asking that the provisions of the Form of Government, requiring ministers and elders at their ordination to subscribe to the Confession of Faith, etc., be not subject to amendment by a majority, but like the Confession of Faith, require a two-thirds vote for any change.

Overture No. 85, from the Presbytery of Chicago, asking "for such an alteration of the Constitution as shall provide that the questions, which it is now required shall be propounded to candidates for licensure and for ordination to the ministry, or admission to the pastorate in our Church, shall not be changed by less than two-thirds of the Presbyteries; and that when such an alteration shall have received the approval of the requisite number of the Presbyteries, it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to enact the same as the law of the Church.

The Committee recommend as the answer to this Overture, and also to No. 51, from the Presbytery of Dubuque, and No. 59, from the Presbytery of Neosho, that inasmuch as this chapter (No. xxiii) has just been adopted by the majority of all the Presbyteries, it is not expedient to send down new Overtures upon it. Adopted.

Overture No. 66, from the Presbytery of Southern Dakota, on the subject of the early publication of the "Minutes," asking "that the Stated Clerk be instructed to have the 'Minutes' published and mailed to their destination at least as early as August 1 of each year."

The Committee report for answer, that they find on inquiry that the delay in the issue of the "Minutes" is due to the time required for the printing of the Statistical Tables, which can be shortened only, either by the Presbyteries furnishing their Statistical Reports as early as March—which is not practicable—or by going to much larger expense in the way of printing, and recommend that no action be taken. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,
Wm. E. Moore, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Coöperation with other Churches presented its Report, which was accepted, and referred to the Special Committee on Church Unity appointed by this Assembly.

The following Report was presented and accepted:

The Stated Clerk, as the Committee on a Meeting of the General Assembly at San Francisco, would respectfully report that the Presbytery of San Francisco, last December, notified him that it was inexpedient to hold a meeting of the General Assembly in San Francisco in 1892. Sometime, thereafter, however, the Presbytery reconsidered its negative action, and in unison with the pastor and Session of the Calvary Presbyterian Church, now extends a most cordial invitation to the General Assembly to meet in San Francisco next year. The Stated Clerk would also report that he believes the way to be clear to hold a meeting of the General Assembly on the Pacific Coast, without any increase in the usual Mileage Fund apportionment of seven cents per member; and would further state that the whole question of the next place of meeting will come before the Assembly through the Report of the Permanent Committee on that subject.

The Report was approved.

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully report that invitations have been placed in their hands for the place of meeting of the next General Assembly:

From the Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, Cal.; from the First Presbyterian Church, Portland, Oreg.; and from the First Presbyterian Church, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

The invitation from Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, is accompanied by an invitation from the Presbytery of San Francisco, and a guarantee of $15,000 for extraordinary expenses.

The invitation from the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oreg., is accompanied by a written guarantee of free entertainment for 200 Commissioners, and of $20,000, if necessary, for extraordinary expenses.

The Committee recommend:

1. That representatives of Calvary Church, San Francisco, and the First Church, Portland, Oreg., be heard each for fifteen minutes in support of their respective invitations.

2. That, if the Assembly accepts an invitation, the way being clear, to meet on the Pacific Coast in 1892, the Second Church, Kansas City, Mo., be inserted in the resolution of adjournment as an alternative place of meeting.

3. That, as customary, all arrangements for the railway and other transportation of delegates be committed to the sole charge of the Stated Clerk.

The Assembly accepted and adopted the Report, and Resolved, 1. To hold, if the way be clear, the next meeting of the General Assembly on the Pacific Coast.

Resolved, 2. That when the Assembly adjourn, it adjourn to meet in the First Presbyterian Church, Portland, Oreg., or in the Second Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, Mo., the place of meeting to be determined three months before the time of meeting of the next General Assembly by the following Committee—the Stated Clerk, the Permanent Clerk, and the Moderator.

Resolved, 3. That the special thanks of this General Assembly are hereby tendered to the Calvary Church, San Francisco; to the Presbytery of San Francisco; to the Second Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, Mo., and to the First Presbyterian Church, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., for their invitations so kindly extended to the General Assembly.

The Judicial Committee presented a partial Report of cases put in its hands, recommending that Judicial Case No. 2, being the appeal and complaint of Rev. James A. Rainey, against the Synod of Atlantic, be referred to a Commission, consisting of the Judicial Committee, with the addition of Ministers—Alexander Alison, Thomas R. Beeber, Abram W. Halsey; with Ruling Elders—James S. Fowler and William B. Dean. The Commission received leave to sit during the sessions of the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions reported on Papers with regard to a Presbyterian Mission at Jerusalem, and also on a Resolution dealing with the Rules of the Foreign Board, recommending their reference to the Board of Foreign Missions. Adopted.

The Committee appointed to take such action as might be required in reference to the death of Judge Breckinridge reported. The Report was accepted, and its recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed to act for the General Assembly in view of the death of Hon. Samuel M. Breckinridge, LL.D., of the Presbytery of St. Louis, a member of this body, would respectfully report that a Special Committee, consisting of the following persons: Ministers—George P. Hays, D.D., Charles A. Dickey, D.D., A. A. E. Taylor, D.D., J. W. Allen, D.D., Alexander Walker; Ruling Elders—John Montgomery, Jr., and Robert Ranken, accompanied the remains of the deceased to his home in St. Louis. The courtesy of Gen. Russell A. Alger placed at the disposal of the Assembly his private railway car, with a special train, on the Wabash railway. With these facilities, under the protecting providence of God, your Committee reached St. Louis early Friday morning. We were met at the depot by the Session of the Second Presbyterian Church and members of the bereaved household. Together with these friends, we attended the remains to the family residence. Your Committee conveyed the sympathies of the Assembly to Mrs. Breckinridge and her family, and informed them, as fully as possible, of the details of the sorrowful event. We also suggested to them such facts and considerations as would tend to relieve their bereavement. Responsive to the message of the Assembly, the family expressed their warm gratitude for the respect and kindness manifested, and they desired your Committee to say to the Assembly, that while overwhelmed by this sudden affliction, they are yet graciously sustained by the consolations of their Heavenly Father, and by the tender sympathies of His children. Dr. Samuel J. Niccolls, the pastor of Judge Breckinridge, accompanied us on our mournful journey, and a portion of your Committee remained with him to represent the Assembly at the burial services. We found the whole community, in which Judge Breckinridge was such an honored and distinguished citizen, burdened with the deepest sorrow at his decease.

Your Committee recommend for adoption by the Assembly the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That in the name of the Church, this Assembly hereby gratefully acknowledges the goodness of God in giving to the Presbyterian Church such an able and faithful member and officer as Samuel Miller Breckinridge. Descended from two honored and conspicuous families, long identified historically with American Presbyterianism, he preëminently illustrated in his public services and in his private life the principles and spirit of our faith. In this Assembly, as in the many other Assemblies of which he was a member, he proved himself the wise counselor, the well-versed ecclesiastic, and the able and courteous advocate of his convictions.

Resolved, 2. That the startling translation of Judge Breckinridge on the platform of this Assembly immediately at the close of his address, produced an impression upon the Assembly as enduring as life, and should be received as a solemn admonition of the uncertainty of life and of the necessity of constant preparation for the final hour.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly hereby conveys its expression of tender sympathy and condolence to Mrs. Breckinridge and the several members of the bereaved household; to the pastor and Session and to the members of the Second Presbyterian Church, St. Louis—of which Judge Breckinridge has been for twenty years an elder—and to our whole Presbyterian communion; and we pray that the ministrations of the Holy Comforter may be avouched to all who are afflicted in this event.

Resolved, 4. That the sincere thanks of the Assembly are hereby extended to Gen. Russell A. Alger, of Detroit, for his courtesy and kindness in furnishing a special train for the use of your Committee and for his personal attention in securing their comfort and safe journey.

Respectfully submitted, GEO. P. HAYS, Chairman.

It was ordered, That the members of the Assembly absent on Friday because of assignment to the sad duty of conveying to St. Louis, Mo., the body of the Hon. S. M. Breckinridge, LL.D., be allowed to record their votes in the matter of the appointment of Prof. Charles A. Briggs to the Chair of Biblical Theology in Union Theological Seminary.

The Assembly adjourned and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, June 1, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report upon the following Overtures, viz.:

Overture No. 70, from the Presbytery of Wellsborough, on Deacons, asking the Assembly to make such deliverance as shall define and emphasize the spiritual dignity and value of this characteristic office of the New Testament; to distinguish a church officer from a municipal overseer of the poor; to keep the Diaconate as well as the Eldership in line with modern Church work among the young and the visitation of the poor and sick; and generally, to exalt the office of those "who purchase a good degree, and great boldness in the day of Jesus Christ."

The Committee recommend that a Committee of three be appointed to report to the next Assembly, defining in general the duties of the Deacon. Adopted.

Overture No. 37, from the Presbytery of Muncie, asking the Assembly "to appoint a Committee to report on the advisability of prescribing work for an order of trained Deaconesses."

The Committee, deeming the time not yet ripe, recommend no action. Adopted.

A Resolution of the Presbytery of Iowa City, which was put in its hands, to wit:

"Resolved, That this Presbytery most respectfully disapproves of the action of the General Assembly, requiring that a categorical answer only shall be given to the Overture touching amendments to the Constitution."

The Committee recommend that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 3, from the Synod of New York, asking that "a change be made in the form of the blanks provided for Presbyterial Reports to the General Assembly, so as to discriminate between Home Missions and local missions in the record of the contributions of the churches," and Overture No. 57, from the Presbytery of Lansing, asking that a column be added to the Statistical Reports in which the total contributions of our Women's Missionary Societies may be reported.

The Committee recommend that these requests be not granted, because it is impracticable to add so many columns, without complete change of the form. Adopted.

Overture No. 14, from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, on "Young People's Societies," asking the General Assembly "to add to the Standing Committees of the General Assembly one on the Young People's Societies of the Church," etc.; and also, Overtures No. 3, from the Presbytery of Omaha; No. 77, from the Presbytery of Kansas City; No. 18, from the Presbytery of Huron; No. 20, from the Presbytery of Lake Superior; No. 21, from the Presbytery of Lehigh; No. 22, from the Presbytery of Osborne; No. 24, from the Presbytery of Sacramento; No. 28, from the Presbytery of Troy, and No. 53, from the Presbytery of Iowa, on the same general subject.

Also, Overtures Nos. 19 and 26, from the Presbytery of La Crosse, asking the General Assembly "to take cognizance of the 'Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor;'" and Overtures No. 25, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, and No. 27, from the Presbytery of Steuben, on the same subject.

Also, Overture No. 29, from the Presbytery of Wooster, asking the General Assembly "to take whatever steps may be necessary to authorize and encourage the formation of a 'Westminster League' of the young people of our Church under proper supervision," and Overtures No. 15, from the Presbytery of Detroit, and No. 16, from the Presbytery of Dubuque, on the same subject.

Also, Overture No. 23, from the Presbytery of Portland, being a memorial, deprecating the movement "looking towards the organization of another department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work," and asking the General Assembly "to reënact the deliverance of the Assembly of 1890 on the subject."

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the following deliverance:

The General Assembly recognizes with gratitude to God, the great religious interest manifested by the young people of our churches, finding expression in the organization of Young People's Societies of various kinds, for the promotion of Christian activity and the development of spiritual life, and desires to encourage and foster in every legitimate way, the spirit of devotion to the cause of Christ and of loyalty to the Church, which, operating through such channels, is accomplishing much for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom and for the training of our youth for the service of the Church.

The General Assembly also heartily commends to the loving sympathy and oversight of the pastors, Sessions and Presbyteries of our Church, these various Young People's Associations, and recommends especially that each Presbytery shall appoint a Permanent Committee to coöperate and counsel with them in such ways as the circumstances in each case may indicate as being wise and necessary for the highest interests of all departments of the Church's work and worship.

The Order of the Day, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, was taken up, and in connection with it the Reports of the Special Committee of Seven appointed last year ("Minutes," 1890, p. 61), and of the Special Committee on the Publishing Outfit of the Board of Publication ("Minutes," 1889, p. 91). The Report of the Special Committee of Seven was approved and its recommendations adopted. Both the Special Committees were then discharged with the cordial thanks of the Assembly.

The Report of the Committee of Seven is as follows:

Your Committee were appointed by the last Assembly, to consider the Report of the Special Committee on the Publishing Outfit of the Board of Publication, and the Report of the Business Committee of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work; to hear the answer of the Business Committee to the several matters alleged against their management by the Special Committee; and to hear the Special Committee, and to consider the whole question, and report our finding of facts to the General Assembly in 1891. We were clothed with power, if in our judgment it should be deemed necessary, to instruct the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, to carry into effect any or all of the recommendations contained in the Special Committee's Report, or such modifications or new recommendations as we should think proper.

We most respectfully present, that we have attended to our duties as enjoined, to the best of our ability, and in our judgment we have not deemed it necessary to exercise the power conferred upon us without first reporting our conclusions to the Assembly.

Your Committee are called upon to mourn the loss of one of our number by death, Mr. W. C. Martin, late of New York, whose long experience, clear mind, and special knowledge in the work which he was appointed to on this Committee, rendered him of great value to us and the Church, and whose character and society endeared him warmly to us.

The Special Committee of 1889 was to ascertain (1) "Whether it is advisable for the Board to purchase a complete outfit of type, presses, and labor-saving machinery;" (2) "To devise some plan or method by which the publications of the Board can be more fully brought before the members of the Presbyterian Church throughout the United States;" and (3) "To ascertain whether it is possible to reduce the price of books, tracts, etc., below the present list;" the Special Committee were also (4) "instructed to confer with the Business Committee of the Board on all matters referred to the Committee;" and the Special Committee and Business Committee were instructed to "make a joint Report to the next (last) General Assembly."

Such a joint Report was not made, and the matters discussed at the last Assembly grew out of the Report made by the Special Committee without a full opportunity afforded to the Business Committee to know the tenor of the Report or prepare a full answer thereto. Judging that the intention and spirit of the Assembly of 1889 and 1890 was to secure harmonious action and agreement between any Committee and the Board of Publication on the matters referred to them, your present Committee have directed their investigations chiefly to that end. We have heard the Special Committee who appeared before us, received their proofs and allegations, which so far as they would affect us, we have submitted to the Business Committee, receiving first their general answer, and, after proofs submitted, their specific answer. We state, that if these proofs and facts had been submitted to the Business Committee, a joint Report on the facts of the case could have been made to the last Assembly.

It is also probable, if not certain, that a joint Report or recommendations could have been agreed upon by the Special Committee and the Business Committee. It is in evidence before us from both Committees that by the changing of a single word such a Report would have been made. We therefore need not go into long details, but pass them all with a single remark, that while we have found many facts ascertained by the Special Committee to be substantiated and some of their recommendations wise, and approve of such in this Report, it is to be regretted that a joint Report was not agreed upon as regards the facts, for the Special Committee state that they "found the officers and employés ready to answer all questions and render assistance" to them, "and to furnish promptly everything asked for;" and they state that they "believe from their experience that the books are so kept as to furnish all needed information for the Business Committee, or any other that may wish to know the condition of the Board."

If these two Committees differed only as to one recommendation, it would have been easy for the last Assembly to have adjusted the difference. We also state that the Board of Publication have been perfectly willing and desirous to receive and welcome among their members, men who have technical knowledge and experience in the business branch of their work, and if there be any fault in this respect, it is because the General Assembly has not seen fit heretofore to appoint more of them. This criticism has, however, now been partially met both by the action of the last Assembly, and since then by the action of the Board itself. We also remark further, that so far as the Board of Publication and its Business Committee is concerned, we find no single fact or mistake which is of sufficient moment to shake the confidence of the Church in either their business or Christian character or management. To say that mistakes have not been made, or that in minor respects they may not be subject to a proper criticism, would be to say that they are more than human, and to place them above not only every Board of our own Church, but every Board of every kind composed of human beings. We feel constrained to say to the Church at large, that in criticising a Board engaged in a distinctive religious work, which Howard Crosby in his last Report declared to be "one of the most important agents of home evangelization," and at the same time, unlike any other Board, carrying on a distinctive business enterprise for success and profit, and one which every business man, clerical or lay, in the Church, feels competent or at liberty to criticise, we should indeed be careful how we complain of and criticise every supposed error or mistake. This Board in the last ten years has been investigated six times by a Special Committee. We know of no business enterprise which could succeed under such fire, and we doubt if any religious organization can continue to thrive under it. And yet, does it not speak well for the business management, notwithstanding these numerous investigations and their depressing effect, that the Board has more than maintained its ground and steadfastly prosecuted its work? This may be seen from the following figures:

The gross sales in 1880 were $151,577; in 1890, $266,327.

In accordance with instructions we now report our facts.

In regard to the cost of the plant that would constitute "a complete outfit" for the publication work of the Board, the Special Committee found that it could be put in for less than $40,000. We have no reason to doubt that for such a plant as they asked bids for, that sum would meet the necessary expense. But it is also true, as the Business Committee answer, that no details or specifications of such a plant were shown. Your present Committee also considered, whether a smaller plant confined to the periodicals and pamphlets issued by the Board would not be feasible, but upon investigation are satisfied that the opinion of the Business Committee, both those who are by technical experience acquainted with the whole nature of the business, and also others who are familiar with all the operations of the Board, should control in this matter. The fact appears that both the Special Committee and the Board, for different reasons, oppose a plant. The reasons on the part of the Special Committee, when summed up, are the want of what they deem special qualifications on the part of the Business Committee; the reasons on the part of the Business Committee are that the building is not strong enough, is not adapted to the work; that all the work could not be economically done, and that which might be done could be more cheaply done by contract; and finally, a want of sufficient capital. We may further state that if a plant is ever proposed by the Assembly, it should only be when the Board have prepared with care, technical plans and specifications, and secured reliable bids, and with a provision adopted by the Assembly to secure the adequate amount of money therefor.

In regard to the cost of periodicals, the amount paid for the work, including folding and cutting, stereotyping, etc., referred to in the Special Committee's Report, we may state that that Committee did procure certain bids, made to the members of the Committee individually, at prices below those paid at that time by the Board. And in so far as the Committee give details of the specifications for which they ask bids, they furnish valuable facts, and indicate that it was possible by competitive bidding to secure work at a cheaper rate. But the answer of the Business Committee is correct when they in effect say, that not one of the Special Committee's invitations for bids, nor the answers of the bidders, were in proper shape on which to base a contract for any permanent length of time, either as to quantity of work, quality of work, or price. The facts ascertained by the Special Committee were of value, and should have been submitted to the Board, or Business Committee, so that these suggestions might have been by the Business Committee incorporated in their specific invitation for bids. Nevertheless the Business Committee, in view of the facts, did in the proper form solicit by circulars, in June last, competitive bids, which bids were publicly opened and read in the Board room on July 1, 1890. These bids were from fourteen different well-known firms in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston. Where a reduction in cost was found, such parties were given the contract. The result was a decided saving in certain directions. In some respects the new work is not equal in quality to what the Board before received; while on some portions of its work nothing was gained by such competitive bidding.

The Business Committee state that some reduction in the item of paper has been made in the use of papers of lower grades and weights; while in the other items of manufacture, a considerable reduction has also been made. Your Committee has been furnished with copies of all the bids received by the Business Committee, together with a tabulated statement showing the comparison between them. The tabulated statement shows, that an annual saving can thus be made on book and pamphlet work of $3181.92, and on periodicals of $15,686.40, making a total saving per annum of $18,818.32. The whole answer of the Business Committee is full, fair and frank, and of great value, embodying the smallest details, and revealing a methodical exactness quite unusual in ordinary business statements.

The "strange discrepancies" mentioned in the Report of the Special Committee are fully explained by the necessary manner of keeping the accounts. This was admitted by a member of the Special Committee on the floor of the Assembly last year. In the judgment of your Committee they are unfounded, and the statement grew out of a misapprehension. Your Committee cannot but regret the reflections cast by the Special Committee on the members of your Board of Managers, which implies that because of their regular business pursuits, or professional employment, they cannot rightly administer the peculiar work of the Board. Now, it should be borne in mind that these gentlemen are your appointees, and that men of intellectual ability and professional training are able, practically, to grasp the scope and details of business, as fully and successfully as men of technical knowledge under their employ. The general success of all our Boards proves this, and the general success of corporate interests throughout the country attests it.

In regard to the plan or method by which "the publications of the Board can be more fully brought before the Presbyterian Church," the Special Committee suggest only the removal of certain alleged grievances and defects, but suggest no affirmative plan. Your Committee find no violation of the orders of the Assembly, and no friction or irritation between the Business and Missionary Departments, their relations being entirely harmonious, cordial, and satisfactory. On the contrary, every effort is made to carry out the wishes of the Assembly. That some wrong impressions have arisen of unfairness in dealing with the Missionary Department, has perhaps grown out of the form in which the Reports are made to the Assembly. The accounts are kept in the books entirely separate, and the effort is constantly made to so adjust the accounts, as to cause no inequity, and we find that no injustice has been done. The Treasurer stated in writing to the Special Committee, before the Report was made, that the thirty per cent. profit was not charged to the Missionary Department on items of stationery, printing and advertising furnished that department. Your Committee believe, however, that hereafter, in addition to the two separate detailed accounts, given in the Annual Report to the Assembly, there should also be given separate balance sheets of the Missionary and Business Departments.

In regard to the charge that too much is paid for manuscripts, by the purchasing outright, in advance of publication, and that a plan of royalty on the sales of the books would be cheaper, the facts are shown that while some books have not yielded a sufficient profit from their sale, to return the amount of copyright paid for the manuscript, other books have far exceeded it; and an examination of all, as a whole, indicates that the royalty system would have cost the Board more than the plan adopted of purchase outright. It is the testimony of publishers who have had experience, that this item is one of general average, and that no fixed rule can be adopted to govern in all cases, but this, like many other business details, must be left to the judgment of the Editor and the Board of Managers. The fact appears that when they have returned to the royalty system, they have lost some of their best writers, and the records of the Board fully justify the plan already pursued. No credit is given by the Special Committee for publications purchased at a reasonably low price, the royalty on which would have amounted to a large sum. A single instance will show this. The hymnal was purchased outright for $8000. If a royalty of ten per centum on the retail price of the book had been paid, which is the usual royalty for such a book, it would, on the gross sales, have amounted to $55,000.

But this whole matter is properly left with the Secretary and Editorial Committee, subject to the sanction of the entire Board.

In regard to the issue of "Sunday-school Books which do not pay," we can only say that, pecuniarily, this may be partly true. This has been a subject matter of consideration in the Assembly repeatedly, also by the Board and various Committees, and the decision thus far has been that the usefulness of such books by such a Board sufficiently justifies their publication, and should be continued as a religious work. That they do not pay pecuniarily, is hardly chargeable to the Business Committee, when it is remembered that the Church fails to fully recognize the claim of its own Board of Publication, and the fact that their denominational imprint limits the sale, and also that periodicals now take the place of books to a large extent.

The facts stated by the Special Committee in regard to the books bound, and unbound, on hand and stored away, are in the main correct. These are the accumulations of many years, and a common result in all publishing business. We recommend that a series of "cheap libraries" be made up of books published before 1870, and that certain of the books, tracts, etc., be, in the discretion of the Board, systematically given away, say ten thousand dollars a year in value, during a period of three years, to Mission Schools, Home Mission stations, or any appropriate benevolent work, and be charged to the merchandise account, thus reducing stock and adding to the benevolent work of the Board.

We also recommend, that the Board, in their judgment, print smaller editions in the first instance, that they open a copyright account, and charge off a certain per cent. each year on the total amount. These suggestions, and others in the Special Committee's Report, and our own, are mere matters of book-keeping, and wholly within the judgment of the Board. Some of them, however, are such as the Board might not feel at liberty to adopt without the authority of the Assembly, lest they be called to account for taking on themselves an undue responsibility.

Your Committee also think the Board should now have discretion to melt up useless stereotype plates, and reap the value of the metal, and we recommend it.

The amount spent for advertising seems too high, and yet it is a matter which at times perplexes the shrewdest merchant to know how much it does, or does not, pay to advertise. We recommend, however, that hereafter it do not exceed $6000 per year. We may add, that the calculations made by the Special Committee, founded on ten years of advertising, and confining it to books that do not sell, are misleading. The amount spent for advertising during those years includes all kinds, both in newspapers and circulars, of books and periodicals, the sales of the latter having been largely and payingly increased.

Attention may properly be called to the stereotype plate account which is now about $57,000. When we consider that the Board's list from the first numbers over 2400 books and tracts, and including engravings, the plate account amounts to a total only of $79,000, it is in the estimation of your Committee, and of others competent to judge, a comparatively very small sum, and we venture the suggestion that if all the stereotype plates were now melted up, they would return at least one-third of the present valuation as old metal. The Business Committee has evidently carefully watched this item, and made constant reductions in the amount, by charging up to profit and loss the depreciation. The total amount charged off is $254,000. Your Committee find many electrotype cuts, that have been used in the periodicals, for which there is now no use, but which still have some market value. These might properly be sold.

In regard to salaries, your Committee find, in their judgment, they are not too large for the amount of work that is put upon the different departments, and do not exceed in the aggregate those of other Boards. Periodical publications involve much clerical and other labor.

In regard to the reduction of the price of books, tracts, etc., below the present list, your Committee would state that they do not find the same class of books equal in quality of binding, paper, and illustration, sold cheaper than the publications of the Board. It is for the Assembly to decide if the present standard of manufacture is too high. The experience of the Board is, that if this be lowered, many of our people will buy the books of other pub lishers. In some cases the Board has adopted a cheaper grade of paper and plainer binding, and with favorable results. Your Committee has already alluded to a new series of "Cheap Sunday-school Libraries." Inasmuch as the Special Committee's Report deals only with the adverse side, the picture they present, in so far as the facts they state are true, tends, as your Committee believe, to cripple the influence of the Board. The work of the Board is a comprehensive one, including the religious and missionary work, the Business Department of never-ending details, the care of the building, and the contact with the churches, pastors, and the members in various ways. The growth of the business has been gradual and healthy, as may be seen in the Annual Reports made to the Assembly. It has kept pace with the times along the new lines of periodicals and pamphlets. Its real estate was well located, and has increased in value rapidly, and has always been well cared for, with ample rooms for various Boards of the Church free of rent. No financial blunders have been made to jeopardize the trust committed to the Board. Above the wreck and disaster of uncounted mercantile and other houses, during the last fifty years, it still stands financially strong. The growth of all the interests, committed by your Assemblies to the Board, has been remarkable in many respects. Its balance sheet has shown the profit and loss account on the right side. The contributions of the last year have exceeded those of any previous year, indicating that if there has been any "irritation" in the Church, there has not been distrust generally. There is no criticism by the Special Committee, or any one else, of the binding department, and no successful criticism as to the paper used, its quality or price.

Your Committee is firm in their opinion that the Church should give their entire confidence to the Board and their general management; many of the members have been on the Board for years; their acquaintance with the whole business, its scope and aim, which demand peculiar adaptability and experience in order to meet its many and varied details, is invaluable to the Church. The Board is ever ready to receive and to adopt suggestions which commend themselves to the judgment of the Church, but it must be remembered that so far as these are experiments, the responsibility of their success or failure, when ordered, must rest with the Church.

In the foregoing statements, your Committee have interspersed various recommendations as they have appeared proper to us, not desiring to formulate them more specifically, deeming it only necessary to suggest them for the consideration of the Board, and in the belief that they will be acted upon in case of the adoption by the Assembly of this Report.

Before entering upon specific recommendations, we give more attention to the second duty laid upon the Special Committee, and which that Committee did not affirmatively act upon, except so far as to suggest the removal of certain obstacles. That duty was to devise "some plan or method by which the publications of the Board can be brought more fully before the members of the Presbyterian Church throughout the United States." Our investigations and conferences with members of the Board and Business Committee, have impressed upon us the fact that the present and prospective growth of the business of the Board has developed the necessity for a division of the details of the business.

At the present time two entirely distinct lines of business, namely, one of manufacturing, and one of distribution, are carried on under the care of one single Business Superintendent. Your Committee believe these departments should be divided, and be managed by separate heads, viz.: (a) That of Manufacturing, under a superintendent familiar with all the details of such a business, who, having the proper time for such details, could give his undivided attention to a more perfect and economical supervision of all contracts for paper, printing, binding, and the many other incidentals pertaining to such a department. Such a division would now seem to be indispensable, since the Board has adopted the system of letting by contract after competitive bidding, and there is the necessity for careful watching of the work of such contractors. (b) That of Publication and Distribution, under a superintendent, into whose charge shall be given all the details of this department, namely, the general charge of the book and periodical business, the ordering and receiving of all books, stock, etc., from the manufacturing department, with the supervision of all sales; he shall also perform in this department such duties as now devolve on the present business superintendent. Thus relieved of the many and perplexing duties incident to manufacturing, such a superintendent could give full attention to a further development of the sales of the books and other publications of the Board; could hold more constant relations to the constituency of the Church, and also with the general book trade of the country.

It is the judgment of your Committee, that by a readjustment of the salaries now paid consequent upon the division of labor, a small additional expenditure, if any, would be required. This proposed plan might require a change of the By-Laws of the Board by adding another Committee, but this should be left wholly to the Board to work up and carry out, as their experience and knowledge shall indicate, so as to avoid any clashing of duties or division of responsibility. Should the Assembly approve of this plan and the recommendation hereafter made, your Committee deem it essential that it be carried out at the earliest convenience of the Board. In this connection, we dissent entirely from the second recommendation of the Special Committee, which provided for the appointment by the General Assembly of three elders, with no responsibility to the Board, and with power superior to the Board. It would be an imperium in imperio. Men of self-respect would hardly serve on a Board so constructed, except as a matter of self-denial. It is entirely contrary to the theory of our Church, which is to hold the Board primarily responsible for all that is done by them, and those employed under them. Whatever the Assembly decides to do, it should accomplish through the Board which it has constituted. The Board is the executive arm of the Church. It is the Church in action. While we appreciate the value of technical knowledge, and welcome heartily such men as have it as component parts of the Board, even these should be men of sufficient breadth to comprehend the whole religious work of the Church in connection with their own department. Such men as these are on the Board already. The design aimed at by the Special Committee can be accomplished by the appointment of such practical men on the Board. Your Committee also state, that it is hardly fair to expect at all times, the same shrewd business tact and degree of financial profit from the Board, that the individual at times reaches, spurred on by self-interest, fear of bankruptcy, or personal competition. A Board, like a corporation, must depend upon others who are salaried officers; these may, at times, not feel the impulse of private ownership, may fall into routine and become less efficient. Unless it is in large matters, or extensive business, it generally costs corporations, or bodies of men, more to transact business of detail than a private individual; nevertheless we think the Special Committee has called attention to matters that should be, can be, and have been remedied by the Board.

The investigations of your Committee, with the above considerations, lead to the following recommendations:

We recommend:

1. That for the present it is not expedient to purchase a complete outfit for manufacturing purposes. The Board of Publication is invited, if, at any time, it may appear to them proper to consider fully the matter, to prepare a complete report with reference to the extent and expense of the outfit, its cost, the proper place for its location, and if in the present building, the changes requisite therein, and report the same to any future Assembly.

2. The Board of Publication is requested and hereby empowered, to make a subdivision of the Business Department, with a manufacturing branch, to be placed under the charge of a competent person, who shall be held responsible for its proper management; and also to make a publishing and distributing branch, also in charge of a competent person, by whom the book and periodical business of the Board may be extended, and its publications brought more fully to the attention of the churches and the people.

3. That the Assembly approve and commend the plan adopted by the Board in July last of competitive bidding and contracts, and recommend its continuance with reports from time to time to the Assembly.

4. That such of the stock of books bound, or unbound, the sales of which have been superseded by more recent issues, be made up into "cheap libraries" as far as possible, and so far as proper also donated to Sunday-schools and Home Mission Stations, or any appropriate benevolent work, with a view to reducing largely each year the quantity of idle material on hand.

5. That the Board be authorized to make, at their convenience, a re-inventory of the merchandise, and such other property as is included in capital stock account, with a view to reduction of the same to a cash basis.

6. That in reporting to the Assembly each year, a separate balance sheet be presented of the Missionary Department and the Business Department.

Your Committee deem it proper to add, that in the meeting of the Committee at which our brother Martin was present, he was in harmony with the views of your Committee as embodied in the foregoing Report, and subsequently, in conference with one of the members with whom he was on a sub-Committee, he expressed the same views.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ALFRED HAND, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work was then taken up, adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully report:

We have examined the Records of the Board, and also the Treasurer's balance sheet, together with his annual account, and recommend these for the approval of the General Assembly.

We have also carefully examined the Annual Report of the Board, and desire herein, in concise form, to restate the simple facts of the Board's structure and methods of working, to gather up the notable results of the year's history, and to emphasize points of progress and hope.

The work of the Board comprises two great branches, as indicated by its title: (1) Publication, and (2) Sabbath-school Work. The publication branch of its work is twofold, with two departments, editorial and business. The Editorial Department seeks and prepares the material, in books, tracts and periodicals, which the Business Department manufactures and places on the market. The Sabbath-school and Missionary branch of the Board's work comprises: 1. Sabbath-school organization and upbuilding, and is carried on by permanent and student missionaries. 2. The distribution of books, tracts, lesson-helps, Sabbath-school papers, Bibles and hymn books, by grants and by missionary sales. 3. The elevation and improvement of existing Sabbath-schools. 4. The collection and tabulation of Sabbath-school statistics.

There have been published during the year 1,310,300 books and tracts and 21,367,199 periodicals, which, together with 8150 copies of the Annual Report and 1000 copies of the history of the Board printed for gratuitous distribution, make an aggregate of 22,686,649 publications. There has been an increase over the publications of last year in books and tracts of 17,050, and in periodicals of 602,377—a total increase in the number of books, tracts, and periodicals of 776,427.

The placing on the market of these publications has been performed by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia, and twenty-three depositories and branch houses, eighteen of which are in our own land, four in British America and one in England.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $103,572.05. The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $151,430.12. These aggregates include not only the ordinary sales of the main house and of the depositories and branch houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department for grants, and all sales by Sabbath-school missionaries.

The net profits of the year have been $12,517.48. Of this sum, two-thirds, or $8344.99, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. Your Committee have specially examined the matter of the only considerable loss of the last twenty years as reported now by the Board, that incurred by the failure of Mr. C. H. Whiting, of Chicago; having before them for this purpose the Business Superintendent, and a member of the Business Committee of the Board, we would report that we are entirely satisfied, from the statements and figures presented, that the best interests of the Board were conserved in the final settlement, and in taking the control of the depository into their own hands. For other minute details this Committee refers to the Report of the Board.

In reference to the reported amount of capital in charge of the Board, it is proper to repeat here the Board's own statement:

"Much of what is so reported is unproductive. It consists of books in the library; of stereotype plates of books for which there is very little demand; of printed sheets of books and tracts that cannot in any considerable degree be placed at once upon the market; of investments in periodicals that have not yet reached a paying basis; and also of real estate. The reported value of the Publication House is upwards of $152,000. From the portions of this house not used by the Board, a large rent would naturally be expected by those not acquainted with the facts. In compliance, however, with the well-known wishes of the donors, offices free of charge are granted to the different Boards of the Church located in Philadelphia. The rent value of these rooms together with their heating and care cannot be less than $8000 per annum. In reference to such rooms, the value of which is included in its capital, the Board acts as a trustee in the interest of the benevolent operations of the Church at large."

In closing this brief review of the Board's publishing operations, your Committee deems it a matter of congratulation that the results of the year's business indicate a healthful and steadily growing prosperity in its publication work.

"The Sabbath-school and Missionary Department has been signally favored. Presbyteries, pastors, churches, Sessions and Sabbath-schools, through more complete knowledge of its object and methods, have shown an increased interest in its work, and the people have more generously contributed to its support. Its modes of operation have been more thoroughly systematized, both in the office and on the field. The missionaries have attained to a higher degree of efficiency. The contributions to its fund from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals have been largely in advance of those of any preceding year. It was enabled to place a larger number of student missionaries in the field last summer than ever before, 89 in number, and also to increase the number of its permanent missionaries to the number of 54 during the year. During the year the missionaries organized 1209 new Sabbath-schools and reörganized 65, with 4843 teachers and 40,528 scholars, a total of 45,371. In addition to these, 135 schools were organized under the offer of the Board to supply hymn books, lesson helps, papers and Bibles to any man or woman establishing a Presbyterian Sabbath-school. There have been organized during the year, under the direct and indirect agency of the Board, 1344 new schools, having a membership of over 50,000 teachers and scholars. Its missionaries visited and otherwise aided 2567 schools. They delivered 6171 addresses, visited 67,220 families and traveled 306,115 miles. It may aid in appreciating the work directly performed by our missionaries to recognize the fact that each of the 52 Sabbaths of the year covered by this Report witnessed the organization of more than 23 new schools, with over 872 teachers and scholars."

Your Committee continue to quote from the pith of an unusually pithy Report upon the permanent character of the established schools.

"An important aim of the Board has been permanently to establish Sabbath-schools and not simply to organize them. Missionaries are emphatically instructed to labor assiduously for permanency in results. A printed "Code of Instructions" is placed in their hands. They are forbidden to organize schools without the express authorization of the Presbyteries within whose bounds they labor. They are directed to place every new school, whenever possible, under the care of the Session of the nearest Presbyterian Church; in case there is no neighboring Session that can take appropriate oversight, to commend it to the Committee of the Presbytery; and, where proper supervision cannot be exercised by the Committee, to place it in the immediate care of the Synodical Missionary. Each year a careful census is taken of schools that were organized during the preceding year. Reports have been received during the year just closed of the schools that were directly organized by our missionaries between April, 1889, and April, 1890, from which the following facts are gathered: Of the 1121 schools organized, 714 are alive and flourishing; 391 have succumbed to circumstances; 16 have not been heard from. From the 714 living schools, 78 churches have already grown. It will enable us to realize in some degree the magnitude and importance of the work that was performed by our missionaries during the year that closed April 1, 1890, to consider the fact that they established, on an average, each working day of that year, two schools that continue to live, and out of which have grown a church and a half for each week. It may be added that the 109 schools established during that year under the offer of the Board to supply needed books and lesson helps, are all alive and flourishing. These, with the 714 established by the direct efforts of our missionaries make a total of 823 living Sabbath-schools that, in the year ending April 1, 1890, were added to our lists. Urgent calls for an increase in the number of missionaries come to the Board from Georgia, West Virginia, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Texas, Montana and Washington.

"During the year 70,391 volumes of Christian literature have been distributed, of which 3692 were Bibles. Of volumes the missionaries sold 5405, and gave away, other than Bibles, 45,116; and the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee made grants of 16,178. The number of pages of tracts and periodicals given away by the missionaries was 2,711,480; the number granted by the Sabbath-school and the Missionary Committee was 11,889,992; making together 14,601,472. These grants average for every working day in the year nearly two hundred volumes, and over 46,000 pages of tracts and periodicals; the number of Sabbath-schools assisted by these grants was 1570; the number of grants of books and tracts made to churches and individuals was 598.

"Methods have been used to improve the actual working of the Sabbath-school, as respects thoroughness of preparation in the study and teaching of the Bible, and also with the design of deepening the interest and securing the largest possible membership. For the promotion of teacher training, efforts have been made to stimulate the organization of Synodical and Presbyterial Conventions and Institutes, and special attention has been given to the formation of Normal Classes and Teachers' Meetings. A careful estimate places the number of these in the entire Church at 1500. The text-books and all necessary helps for the conduct of such classes and meetings are furnished by the Board.

"To deepen interest in the school itself the plan has been employed of associating each school that sends a contribution to Sabbath-school mission work with a particular missionary who sends to the school a Quarterly Report of his work. The effect of this method is to strengthen the interest of the schools in the work. Over 3000 such letters are sent out every three months. For the same end, the presentation of Bibles for reciting the Catechism has been continued during the year 1891. Since the offer was first made three years and a half ago, more than seven thousand scholars have received these Bibles.

"Receipts and Expenditures.—On Children's Day, 1890, more than $35,000 was contributed for the maintenance and prosecution of the Sabbath-school and Missionary work. The total receipts of this department during the year were $97,352, of which $77,964 came from churches and Sabbath-schools, $4518 from individual contributors, $4690 from interest on invested funds, $1462 from a legacy, $371 from profits on sales by missionaries, and $8344 from the Business Department. The receipts were $9844 in excess of those reported in 1890. The total expenditures of the year were $101,593, being $4240 in excess of the receipts."

The history thus succinctly reviewed, in the judgment of your Committee, indicates marked and healthful progress, and encourages all interested hearts with its large and hopeful promise for the future. Especially do we press upon the thought of Presbyterian pastors and flocks the rapidly deepening demand of the Sabbath-school missionary work in the vast States of the Centre and the West, now being so swiftly populated by the Old World emigration. This work, in the estimate of a true piety and patriotism, is intrinsically of supreme importance, and ought to be so presented by pastors of the stronger churches in all the land. And, in our judgment, no other missionary theme is capable of more effective statement, as no other missionary work presents more forceful and impressive grounds of appeal.

We conclude this Report by presenting the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly approves the plan of the Board for providing a practicable system of Normal Class instruction for teachers and advanced scholars that may be adapted for use in connection with our Sabbath-schools.

2. That the Assembly approves the proposed effort to include in the sphere of Sabbath-school instruction, with the children, the adult membership of the Church, so far as practicable.

3. That the Assembly approves the employment of theological students as Sabbath-school missionaries during the summer vacation.

4. The Assembly recommends an effort on the part of all interested in the Sabbath-school missionary work to raise the sum of $150,000 for the coming year.

5. The Assembly earnestly commends to its great constituency in the churches a combined and hearty endeavor to increase the circulation of its most admirable and most helpful missionary monthly, The Church at Home and Abroad. Such an endeavor, persistently pressed by pastors and Church Sessions, would, it is believed, speedily secure the aim of the Committee in charge of this great Presbyterian Church journal, to enlarge its lists to the number of 80,000 and reduce its cost by one-quarter or more of its present exceedingly moderate figure.

6. The Assembly recommends that the Board continue to carefully consider methods looking towards economy of management, increase of business, a wider dissemination of its literature, and a judicious lowering of the prices of its publication.

Your Committee further recommend the adoption of the following minute:

"Assuming that the recent investigation of the publishing work of this Board is merely an agitation for improved methods and enlarged usefulness, this Assembly desires to put upon record its unqualified confidence in this Board, and, with thanks to the gentlemen constituting its membership, expresses its warm appreciation of their faithful and efficient service in connection with this vital interest of the Church."

The Committee recommends the appointment of the Rev. Louis F. Benson as a member of the Board. in the place of the Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., resigned, and of Elder William H. Scott, in the place of Elder William Brockie, deceased, and that the following persons, whose terms of office will expire next month, be reëlected to serve as members of the Board for three years. Ministers—William Brenton Greene, Jr., D.D., Loyal Y. Graham, D.D., William D. Roberts, D.D., Robert H. Fulton, D.D.; Elders—Archibald McIntyre, William L. DuBois, Francis B. Reeves, William W. Allen.

Respectfully submitted,

J. GLENTWORTH BUTLER, Chairman.

The Committee also reported upon certain Overtures referred to it, as follows:

1. Overture No. 30, from the Presbytery of Cherokee Nation, asking for a grant in aid of the translation and printing of the Catechism, etc. We recommend its reference to the Board. Adopted.

2. Overture No. 40, from the Presbytery of Austin, for the printing in Spanish of the Confession of Faith, and a larger number of tracts. We recommend its reference to the Board. Adopted.

3. Overture No. 46, from the Presbytery of Buffalo, to simplify the blanks for Sunday-school Statistics. The Committee recommend for answer that the present Form seems to give satisfaction, and that any change is undesirable. Adopted.

4. Overture No. 60, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia Central, respecting the adoption of a denominational plan for Sabbath-school lessons. The Committee recommend the following reply: That the Assembly deems it inexpedient to recede at present from the International Plan. To the request in the same Overture, for a definite time to be given for the study of the Catechism, the Assembly, while deeming such a course inadvisable, earnestly recommends the systematic study of the Shorter Catechism in all the Sabbath-schools. Adopted.

The Special Committee on the Constitutionality of the Plan of Vacancy and Supply presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the question of the Constitutionality of the proposed scheme with reference to vacant churches and unemployed ministers, respectfully report that without determining the doubtful question of its Constitutionality, after consultation with the Chairman of the Committee, they recommend that the Report, in so far as it involves the prerogatives and duties of Presbyteries, be sent to them, if sent at all, in the form of recommendation instead of instruction, and that the Committee be requested to so amend their Report, and present it to the General Assembly in this amended form.

In behalf of the Committee,
GEO. D. BAKER, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Proof Texts of the Confession of Faith and the Larger Catechism presented its Report, which was accepted, and its recommendations adopted. The Moderator was empowered to fill the vacancies in the Committee. The Report is as follows:

Your Committee respectfully reports, that it has completed its work agreeably to the expectation expressed in its Report of progress made to the General Assembly of 1890.

We have the mournful duty of recording that, since that Report it has pleased God to take away from this world two members of the Committee. Dr. R. B. Welch died Monday, June 30, 1890, and Dr. Howard Crosby died Sabbath, March 29, 1891. Their praise is in all the Church, and the mourning for them has been universal. We need add nothing to commemorate them. But the Committee greatly deplores the loss of their valuable coöperation in its work, and has felt admonished that the time is short, and that there was need to press its work to conclusion.

Your Committee reported to the Assembly of 1890, that it had completed its revision of the proof texts of the Confession of Faith. Since then it has proceeded with the revision of the proof texts of the Larger Catechism, and completed that. The same mode of proceeding was followed that was partially described in foregoing Reports. Members reported in writing to the Chairman on parts of the Larger Catechism assigned to them, and their reports being manifolded were submitted to the scrutiny of the other members. After such preliminary work by correspondence, the Committee held an executive session at Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Tuesday, August 26, to Friday, August 29, 1890, inclusive. For these meetings the Rev. Charles F. Dowd, of Temple Grove, Saratoga Springs, considerately gave the use of his private study.

There were present the Chairman, and Drs. Smith, Morris and Marquis. Drs. Shedd, Crosby and Riddle, who were unable to attend the meeting, were represented by their written reports on the parts assigned to them, and by their notes of revision of the reports of others, which they had forwarded to the Chairman. Dr. Welch, who had already been called to heaven, was represented in the same way. To all these contributions scrupulous heed was given as the work progressed. The sessions of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday lasted from seven to eight hours each, and achieved the revision of the first ninety questions.

The Committee was unable to continue longer in session at that time. Moreover, it had become evident that another executive session could not be held before the General Assembly of 1891, for the reason that Drs. Morris and Riddle, having been put on the Assembly's Committee on the Revision of the Confession of Faith, would be unable to attend.

It was, therefore, resolved, at the meeting of Friday, August 29, to finish the revision of the proof texts of the rest of the Larger Catechism by the following method: Questions 91–196 were committed to the Chairman, to be revised by him with the aid of the written reports on the same and the revises of these reports by the other members, and applying the rules that had guided the Committee in the work so far completed in their executive sessions, and with consistent reference to the work already finished on the first ninety questions and on the Confession of Faith. This revision of the Chairman to be submitted to all the members of the Committee by correspondence. On their returning the same with their suggestions of amendments, the Chairman, on the basis of these suggestions, to make a final revision of the proof texts of Questions 91–196, and enter the result, along with the work finished at this executive session, in the margins of the Official Copy of the Confession of Faith belonging to the Committee.

In executing what was committed to him, the Chairman used a simple and very perfect method of correspondence. The changes proposed by him were entered on the margins of copies of the Larger Catechism having the proof texts printed in full, as the same is published by the Board of Publication. Identical copies were sent to all the members of the Committee; and so the work was completed in the way described above.

During previous stages of our work, that all the members of the Committee might be informed of the finished work, and have it at hand for reference in further revision, the results of each executive session were entered in the margins of copies of the Confession of Faith and of the Larger Catechism, which were distributed, one to each member.

It will further inform the Assembly and the Church as to the care and thoroughness of the Committee's work if we report the chief rules that were adopted for our guidance. These may be stated as follows:

The proof texts as they have heretofore been printed by the authority of the General Assembly, and the original Westminster texts, were taken together as the basis of the work.

Westminster texts were restored, where they seemed better, or even as good as those that were substituted for them in our book. For it is desirable, as far as possible, to have the original texts, and thus, also, the same proofs as are printed by other Presbyterian Churches that have the Westminster Standards and retain the Westminster texts.

Reject texts of our book (a) where such restoration or supplying new texts makes them redundant; or (b) where locating texts differently seems expedient, and occasions their redundancy, or (c) where the proof is defective in itself, or because a rejected or much disputed reading in the original, or because the sense is much debated.

Supply texts not used before where they afford the most pertinent proof.

Locate texts differently where they are more exactly adapted to other statements of the Confession or Catechism, than to those to which they are attached.

Arrange the texts under a letter in the order that corresponds to the order of topics in the clause to which the letter refers.

Print the texts in full more generally than they now appear; using simple references only to avoid repetition of the words in full in near proximity, or where the passage is long.

The Committee took into consideration the "Note attached to the Title of the Shorter Catechism," which explains the omission to supply proof texts to that compendium as the Westminster divines had done. It reads as follows: "The Shorter Catechism is simply an abridgment of the Larger; so that the proofs of both must be the same. The reader, therefore, who desires to see the Scripture authorities for any doctrine taught in this Catechism, will turn to that doctrine in the Larger Catechism," etc. To say that "the Shorter Catechism is simply an abridgment of the Larger," expresses a relation of the two that is inconsistent with the facts of their preparation, and with the differences that appear in their composition. We recommend that the note shall read as follows: "The Shorter Catechism being a brief compendium of what is taught in the Larger, the reader who desires to see the Scripture authorities," etc.

The Committee recommend that in printing the proof texts, the method of referring to them from the statements of the Confession of Faith and Larger Catechism, viz., by small letters, be made to conform as much as possible to the usage in the standard editions of the same as published by the Church of Scotland; especially in the following particulars: 1. Omit the letters j and v. 2. At the beginning of each chapter of the Confession of Faith, begin with the first letter of the alphabet to mark the references. 3. In the Confession of Faith mark the proof texts belonging to one chapter from those of another by spacing with leads; and the proof texts of one section from those of another by setting the number of the section before the first letter that marks the texts belonging to it. 4. In the Larger Catechism, mark the proof texts belonging to each question by setting the number of the question before the first letter referring to it. 5. That in respect to spelling, italics and punctuation, the printing of the proof texts be made to conform to some recognized standard of printing the English Bible.

A copy of the Confession of Faith, printed by the Board of Publication from newly made plates, in preparation for a new and more correct edition of our Standards, was taken by the Committee and called its Official Copy. The results of their labor, viz., the changes in the proof texts that they recommend, and the change in the note attached to the title of the Shorter Catechism, have been entered in the margins of the Official Copy of the Confession of Faith. This Official Copy we herewith submit to the General Assembly as the embodiment of our work.

In respect to the acceptance of this Report, and the disposition to be made of your Committee's work, the Assembly will necessarily consider the following subjects:

1. Since this revision of the proof texts was instituted, the Confession of Faith itself has been submitted to revision with a view to possible "alterations and amendments."

2. Shall the changes in the proof texts recommended by your Committee be adopted by this Assembly?

In respect to the first of these considerations, when it is remembered that the revision of the Confession of Faith now in progress is expressly limited "not [to] propose any alterations or amendments that will in any way impair the integrity of the Reformed or Calvinistic system of doctrine taught in the Confession of Faith" (Assembly's "Minutes," 1890, p. 86), it appears that the most of the work done by this Committee is unaffected by the revision of the Confession of Faith; and it may be assumed that for the most part the proof texts recommended by this Committee will still be found appropriate in places where the text of the Confession of Faith may be modified. The readjustment of them, with such omissions or other selections as may become expedient, might be referred to this Committee.

With regard to the second consideration above, your Committee would remind the Assembly that the present revision of the proof texts was instituted in view of the following facts, viz.:

1. Since the selection of such texts by the Westminster divines, two and a half centuries ago, much light has been shed on the texts used by them, and on others not so used, and, especially, much has been done to settle the correct text of the Scriptures, particularly of the New Testament. Consequently some changes of the proof texts had become important.

2. The proof texts as printed by authority of our Church differ much from the original proof texts furnished by the Westminster

Assembly. That Assembly did its work in a very thorough way. Referring it first to Special Committees, the proof texts recommended by these were canvassed in sessions of the Assembly extending through many days and even months. The finished work of that Assembly was then reported to Parliament, and approved and adopted by it.

3. No one can suppose that the work of revising those texts could be attempted by one of our General Assemblies in the fashion used by the Westminster Assembly. This was not thought necessary by the General Assemblies of 1792–4, that brought about the revised proof texts that our Church has printed ever since. But the method used at that time was faulty. The preparation of proof texts was consigned to a small Committee, and the actual work appears to have been done by only two ministers, one of whom did the work on the Confession of Faith, and the other that on the Larger Catechism. On their report and recommendation, the Assembly of 1794 adopted the proof texts and ordered their printing, in the form the Church has used to the present. (See Presbyterian Review, July, 1888.)

4. The Assembly that instituted the present revision of the proof texts improved on the methods of the earlier revision by appointing a Committee of nine ministers, all but one of whom have been able to devote much labor to the work. The Committee was intended to be fairly representative of the whole Church, by the character, qualification, and position of its members, and by their geographical distribution, and by numbers not too many to be practically coöperative. The Committee, as their Reports show, have done the work of revision by methods that have exacted the attention of every member to the whole of it, while by parts it has been subjected to particular study. Leaving it to the Assembly to vindicate the selection of the workmen that was made, the Committee itself trusts that it will be approved as having used due diligence.

Having these facts before it, the Assembly can judge whether a more perfect work may be achieved by a further process. For ourselves, having experience of the comprehensive consideration, the patient scrutiny, and deliberate wisdom required in this work, and supposing that by our combined knowledge, with the use of commentaries and theological works, we have been confronted with the criticisms that it may encounter, and that we have paid due attention to such different views, as it was our aim and duty to do, we are of the opinion that any good that might come of submitting our work to a wider scrutiny and judgment, would not justify the pains and cost of the printing that would be necessary, nor be commensurate with the confusion and trouble that would attend such a course.

We therefore conclude with the following recommendations for adoption by this Assembly:

1. That this Report be printed in the "Minutes" of this Assembly.

2. That, in view of the revision of the Confession of Faith, and other circumstances that make it impossible to treat the revision of the proof texts as a completed work at present, the Committee on Proof Texts be continued.

3. That when this Committee's work is finally adopted by the Assembly, the Church shall provide for the children a form of the Catechism with Proof Texts appended.

Respectfully submitted,
SAMUEL T. LOWRIE, Chairman.

Resolved, That a session of the Assembly be held this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock.

The Moderator announced the Committee on the Office and Duties of the Deacon, viz.: Ministers—Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., William McKibbin, D.D.; Elder—S. J. Broadwell.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, June 1, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Report of the Committee on the Seal of the Church was taken up, and it was

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Assembly, that an open Bible be the central symbol of the Church's seal, and that this Committee be instructed to prepare drawings which shall appropriately display the same, and report to the next Assembly.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported, recommending that the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay to the Treasurer of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches the sum of $735 as "our share of the expenses of the Alliance." Adopted.

The Committee also reported upon the following papers:

Overtures No. 34, from the Presbytery of Long Island, on the ministrations of women; No. 39, from the Presbytery of Washington, on the same subject; No. 30, from the Presbytery of New York, on the official employment of godly women; No. 36, from the Presbytery of Monmouth, on the same subject; and an Overture from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, on deaconesses.

The Committee recommend that all these Overtures be referred to the Special Committee on Deacons, appointed by this Assembly. Adopted.

A Communication, from the Rev. Norman L. Walker, D.D., of Scotland, on the supply of American churches in Europe. The Committee recommends its reference to the Board of Foreign Missions. Adopted.

An Invitation, from the National Temperance Society and Publication House, inviting the Assembly to send delegates to the National Temperance Convention, to be held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 15, 1891.

To this invitation we recommend the reply that while in full sympathy with every movement for the promotion of Temperance, it is not the habit of the Assembly to send delegates to any but ecclesiastical bodies. Adopted.

A Request, from the Presbytery of Wooster, asking the Assembly to petition the various party conventions, to place in their platform a full, clear recognition of the two great truths, viz.: that our Lord Jesus Christ is the Sovereign Ruler of our nation, and that His moral law is the rule of our conduct in all civil and political affairs, and to declare for—1. The American Sabbath; 2. A Uniform Christian Marriage Law; 3. The Right of the Bible in the Public Schools; and, 4. Against the American Saloon.

The Committee recommend the answer, that while the Assembly believes that all its officers and members are in the fullest sympathy with these ends, it does not see its way clear to be a petitioner to partisan conventions. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM E. MOORE, Chairman.

The Committee of Canvass of the Answers of the Presbyteries to Overtures on amending Chapters vi and xiii of the Form of Government, presented its Report, which was adopted, as follows:

Your Committee respectfully report that the vote is as follows:

Presbyteries answering in the affirmative on both parts of the Overture:

Alaska, Allegheny, Athens, Benicia, Binghamton, Bismarck, Black Hills, Boston, Canton, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Choctaw, Columbus, Corisco, Council Bluffs, Detroit, Emporia, Highland, Holston, Jersey City, Kingston, Knox, Kolhapur, La Crosse, Larned, Logansport, McClelland, Mexico, New Albany, New Brunswick, Niobrara, North Laos, Olympia, Ottawa, Palmyra, Peking, Philadelphia North, Rochester, San Francisco, San José, Santa Fé, Spokane, Syracuse, Springfield, Topeka, Transylvania, West Virginia, White River, Winona, Wood River and Yadkin.—53.

Presbyteries answering both parts of the Overture in the negative:

Aberdeen, Arizona, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Blairsville, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Butler, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Catawba, Chester, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbia, Dayton, Denver, Dubuque, Duluth, East Florida, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Fairfield, Flint, Genesee, Grand Rapids, Gunnison, Hudson, Huntingdon, Iowa, Iowa City, Kalamazoo, Kearney, Lackawanna, Lahore, Lehigh, Lima, Lodiana, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, Madison, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Castle, Newton, New York, Omaha, Osborne, Peoria, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rio Grande, Rock River, Saginaw, St. Lawrence, Sioux City, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, Southern Virginia, South Florida, Steuben, Trinity, Utah, Utica, Walla Walla, Wellsborough, West Chester, West Jersey, Westminster, Willamette, Zacatecas and Zanesville.—84.

Presbyteries answering in the negative on the first part of the Overture and in the affirmative on the second:

Alton, Birmingham, Bloomington, Boulder, Cairo, Cayuga, Cherokee Nation, Chickasaw, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Clarion, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Des Moines, East Oregon, Erie, Fargo, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, Geneva, Huron, Kansas City, Kittanning, Lyons, Mahoning, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Montana, Muncie, Muskogee, Nassau, Newark, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Otsego, Ozark, Pembina, Petoskey, Philadelphia Central, Platte, Portland, Puget Sound, St. Louis, Schuyler, Shenango, Solomon, Steubenville, Stockton, Troy, Union, Vincennes, Washington, Waterloo, White Water, Winnebago and Wooster.—59.

Presbyteries answering the first part in the affirmative and the second part in the negative:

Lansing and Washington City.—2.

Presbyteries taking no action on the first part, but answering the second part in the affirmative:

Hastings, Indianapolis, Lake Superior, Mankato, Niagara and Siam.—6.

Presbyteries taking no action on either part:

Milwaukee, Sacramento and St. Clairsville.—3.

Presbyteries not reporting:

Allahabad, Chile, Furrukhabad, Ningpo, Oroomiah, St. Paul, Shanghai, Shantung and Western Africa.—9.

Affirmative on both amendments,	53
Negative on both,	84
Negative on the first and affirmative on the second,	59
Affirmative on the first and negative on the second,	2
No action on the first and affirmative on the second,	6
A formal vote of no action,	3
No report,	9
Total number of Presbyteries,	216

It is quite obvious that the vote furnishes no sufficient means of determining the mature judgment of the Church. If the two amendments constituted one Overture, and if the vote should have been upon this as a whole, the Overture is clearly defeated, there being in that case only fifty-three votes in its favor. If, however, Presbyteries were at liberty to make a choice between voting upon it as a whole, and voting upon its two amendments separately, then manifestly the first amendment is lost and the second is carried; for the negatives upon the first amendment (59) added to the negatives upon the whole Overture (84) give 143 negatives upon the first (Scriptural warrant for the proposed new office); and the affirmatives upon the second amendment (65) added to affirmatives upon the whole (53) give 118 affirmatives, a majority of ten in favor of creating the office. It is somewhat hazardous, however, to affirm that the Church has deliberately rejected the whole Overture or deliberately endorsed the second amendment, for if all the Presbyteries had acted upon it as a whole, or all had acted upon its amendments separately, the result might have been very different. The vote seems clearly to indicate a desire for the second amendment, or rather, if we are to attach any importance to the opinions which accompany the votes in many instances, seems to make it manifest that women clothed with office are desired as helpers in religious work; and yet it is entirely possible that if all the Presbyteries had acted upon the Overture, either as a whole or upon its amendments separately, this inference would not have been obtainable. Those Presbyteries which voted upon the Overture as a whole—as well those which voted in the affirmative as those which voted in the negative—might have cast their votes quite differently if they had voted upon the two amendments separately. Nor is it possible to conjecture—much less determine—what the result would have been in that case, for two Presbyteries voted in the affirmative on the first amendment and in the negative on the second. Quite manifestly, therefore, if the 137 Presbyteries which voted upon the Overture as a whole had voted upon its amendments separately, there might have been a change of at least six votes, and that would have left the second amendment without a majority. On the other hand, if the eighty-four Presbyteries which negatived the second amendment by voting in the negative upon the Overture as a whole, had considered the amendments as practically two Overtures, some of them might have sustained this second amendment, which they might have been unwilling to do at the risk of being considered as conceding that there is Scriptural warrant for the office.

What might have been the result if all the Presbyteries had adopted either of the two methods of answering the Overture, it is idle to conjecture; but is it any less idle to attempt to determine what the deliberate judgment of the Church is when the answers of its Presbyteries are not conformed to one and the same method of procedure?

Moreover, except for the uncertainty connected with the method of rendering answer to the Overture, the three Presbyteries which by formal vote respond, "No action," and as well the nine which make no report, might have acted in such a way as to change the result.

Consequently the Assembly is confronted with the question, Have we a deliberate judgment rendered upon the Overture? The Committee is disposed to answer this question in the negative, evident confusion having been produced by the fact that two methods of rendering answer have prevailed.

If to the 84 negative answers rendered to the entire Overture, we add the 59 negatives rendered to the first amendment, we have 143 Presbyteries which have negatived the assertion, "Women also served the Apostolical Church as deaconesses, whose office and duties were similar to those of deacons." If to the 53 affirmative answers given to the entire Overture, we add the 65 affirmatives given to the second amendment, we have 118 Presbyteries which vote, "Deaconesses may be elected to office in a manner similar to that appointed for deacons, and set apart by prayer." We are thus confronted with the anomaly of 118 Presbyteries voting to create an office which 143 Presbyteries come near saying has no Scriptural warrant, 84 of them having negatived both amendments, and 59 having negatived the first—i. e., the one in reference to the warrant for the office. Evidently this does not manifest deliberate action; nor is the result in harmony with the custom prevailing in our Form of Government, which in the case of bishop, elder and deacon presents Scriptural warrant for the office held by each. No one will claim that the Presbyteries designedly said, "No Scriptural warrant for the office of deaconess; we create the office."

We are accordingly brought face to face with the question, Had the Presbyteries the right to answer the two amendments as two Overtures?

To this some may answer: The Overture does not declare that it must be answered as a whole. Its two amendments are perhaps not necessarily interdependent. An office may be created without first announcing its warrant and specifying its duties.

Others may argue: Presbyteries had no right to vote upon these two amendments as though they had been independent propositions submitted by the General Assembly. Though the two are perhaps not necessarily interdependent, nevertheless if the first is not enacted and the second is, thus becoming a part of our Form of Government, we have created an office and assigned no warrant for it. Precedent seems to require that an Overture, unless it contains in itself the evidence of granting wider liberty, should be answered as a whole. In the case of the Overture on the revision of the Book of Discipline the Assembly directed "Presbyteries to vote aye or nay upon the proposed substitution as a whole." (See Moore's Digest, p. 578.) The General Assembly may even decline to adopt amendments approved by the requisite number of Presbyteries. (See Moore's Digest, pp. 328, 329.)

Notwithstanding the uncertainty which attaches to the decision of the Presbyteries, the answers render it quite evident that a majority in the Church are in favor of securing in some orderly way the services of godly women to assist in religious work, and are desirous of clothing them with some measure of authority.

In view of all the facts your Committee recommend the following action:

Whereas, In rendering their answers to the Overture on Deaconesses, some Presbyteries have answered it as a whole, and some have answered its proposed amendments as if they were two independent Overtures; therefore,

Resolved, That in the judgment of the Assembly the Overture is defeated in both its amendments.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH S. VAN DYKE, Chairman.

The Special Committee of Canvass of the Answers to the Overtures concerning Chap. xxiii, Form of Government, presented its Report, which was accepted and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Canvass of the Written Answers made by the Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down by the General Assembly of 1890, proposing to add to the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, a new chapter, to be numbered twenty-three (23), to be entitled "Of Amendments," and providing for the mode of amendment and alteration of the Confession of Faith, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, the Form of Government, the Book of Discipline and the Directory for Worship, and also providing for the striking out of Sec. 6, of Chap. xii, of the Form of Government, respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

That after very careful examination of the answers in writing made by the Presbyteries, they find, as already reported in detail by the Stated Clerk, that 192 Presbyteries have answered affirmatively, approving the proposed amendment; that 8 Presbyteries have answered in the negative, disapproving the proposed amendment; that 6 Presbyteries have reported that (chiefly through oversight) no action was taken, and that the remaining 10 Presbyteries, all of which are remote, and all but one in foreign lands, have made no answer.

The Committee thinks it proper to incorporate into its Report the names of the Presbyteries voting, and the votes given by them respectively, as follows, to wit:

The following Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, viz.: Aberdeen, Albany, Allegheny, Alton, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Birmingham, Bismarck, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boston, Boulder, Brooklyn, Butler, Cairo, Canton, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Catawba, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Cherokee Nation, Chester, Chickasaw, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Corisco, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Dubuque, Duluth, East Florida, East Oregon, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Fairfield, Flint, Fargo, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, Genesee, Geneva, Grand Rapids, Gunnison, Hastings, Highland, Holston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huron, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kingston, Kittanning, Knox, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lahore, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, McClelland, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, City of Mexico, Milwaukee, Monmouth, Monroe, Montana, Muncie, Muskogee, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niobrara, North Laos, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Palmyra, Peking, Pembina, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia Central, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Pueblo, Puget Sound, Red River, Redstone, Rio Grande, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, San Francisco, San José, Santa Fé, Shenango, Siam, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, Southern Virginia, South Florida, Spokane, Springfield, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Trinity, Troy, Union, Utah, Utica, Vincennes, Washington, Washington City, Waterloo, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, West Virginia, White River, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wood River, Wooster, Zanesville, Zacatecas.—192.

The Presbyteries voting in the negative are the following, viz.: Arizona, Binghamton, Buffalo, Chicago, Morris and Orange, Niagara, St. Louis, Walla Walla.—8.

The following Presbyteries report no action: Detroit, Lodiana, Portsmouth, St. Clairsville, Yadkin, Schuyler.—6.

And the following Presbyteries have not reported: Alaska, Allahabad, Chile, Furrukhabad, Kolhapur, Ningpo, Oroomiah, Shanghai, Shantung, and Western Africa.—10.

The whole number of Presbyteries is 216.

The Committee therefore respectfully recommend the adoption by the General Assembly of the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, It appears that one hundred and ninety-two (192) Presbyteries, being more than two thirds (in fact more than seven-eighths) of the Presbyteries under the care of the General Assembly, have answered in writing approving the amendments proposed to the Form of Government in this, to wit:

1. The addition to the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church of a new chapter, to be numbered twenty-three (xxiii) and to be entitled "Of Amendments," as follows, to wit:

"CHAPTER XXIII. OF AMENDMENTS.

"Section 1. Amendments or alterations of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship, may be proposed by the General Assembly to the Presbyteries, but shall not be obligatory on the Church unless a majority of all the Presbyteries approve thereof in writing.

"Section 2. Amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, may be proposed to the Presbyteries by the General Assembly, but shall not be obligatory on the Church unless they shall be approved in writing by two-thirds of all the Presbyteries, and agreed to and enacted by the General Assembly next ensuing, and the written votes of the Presbyteries shall be returned to that Assembly.

"Section 3. Before any amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith, or the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, proposed by the General Assembly, shall be transmitted to the Presbyteries, the General Assembly shall appoint—to consider the subject—a committee of ministers and ruling elders, in number not less than fifteen, of whom not more than two shall be from any one Synod, and the committee shall report its recommendations to the General Assembly next ensuing, for action.

"Section 4. No alterations of the provisions contained in this chapter for amending or altering the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, or of this fourth section, shall be made, unless an Overture from the General Assembly, submitting the proposed alterations, shall be transmitted to all the Presbyteries, and be approved in writing by two-thirds of their number, and be agreed to and enacted by the General Assembly.

"Section 5. It shall be obligatory on the General Assembly to transmit to the Presbyteries for approval or disapproval, any Overture respecting amendments or alterations provided for in this chapter, which shall be submitted to the same General Assembly by one-third of all the Presbyteries. In such cases, the Overture shall be formulated and transmitted by the General Assembly receiving the same to the Presbyteries for their action, subject, as to all subsequent proceedings, to the provisions of the foregoing sections.

"Section 6. Whenever it shall appear to the General Assembly that any proposed amendments or alterations of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship, shall have received a majority vote of all the Presbyteries, the General Assembly shall declare such amendments or alterations to have been adopted, and the same shall immediately go into effect.

"Section 7. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to affect the right of two-thirds of the Presbyteries to propose amendments or alterations of the Confession of Faith, and the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, or of the General Assembly to agree to and enact the same."

2. The striking out Sec. 6, of Chapter xii, of the Form of Government, as follows, to wit:

Shall Sec. 6, Chap. xii, of the Form of Government be stricken out. The Section reads:

"Section 6. Before any Overtures or regulations proposed by the Assembly to be established as constitutional rules, shall be obligatory on the churches, it shall be necessary to transmit them to all the Presbyteries, and to receive the returns of at least a majority of them, in writing, approving thereof."

Therefore, be it Resolved, That said above recited Chap. xxiii, entitled "Of Amendments," has been adopted as an amendment to the Form of Government, and is therefore added to it and part thereof; and that said proposed amendment to strike out Sec. 6, of Chap. xii, of said Form of Government, has also been adopted as an amendment to said Form of Government, so that said Sec. 6, Chap. xii, has been stricken therefrom and is no longer a part thereof; and that said alterations and amendments are hereby declared, agreed to, and enacted by this General Assembly.

The Committee further recommends as pertinent to Chap. xxiii, as now incorporated with and a part of the Form of Government, that the following resolution be adopted by the Assembly:

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to present to the General Assembly next ensuing any Assembly which has sent down an Overture, the written answers to said Overture which may have been received by him from the Presbyteries. And thereupon, such statement from the Clerk, together with the written answers to said Overture shall be referred by the Assembly to a Committee of Canvass, to be composed of three ministers and two elders, Commissioners to said Assembly.

And, upon the report of such Committee, that after canvassing the written answers of the Presbyteries to any Overture or Overtures, amending or altering the Form of Government, the Book of Discipline, or the Directory for Worship, it appears that it has been approved in writing by a majority of the Presbyteries, the General Assembly shall by resolution declare such amendment or alteration to have been adopted, as a part of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline, or Directory for Worship (as the case may be) of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

And further, upon the report of such Committee, that after canvassing the written answers of the Presbyteries to any Overture proposing to amend or alter the Confession of Faith or the Larger or Shorter Catechism, it appears that it has been approved in writing by two-thirds of the Presbyteries, the General Assembly shall proceed to take such action concerning said proposed amendment or alteration as may seem expedient—under Sec. 4 of said Chap. xxiii of the Form of Government, concerning Amendments—which requires said amendment or alteration to be agreed to and enacted by the General Assembly, before it becomes a part of the Confession of Faith, or the Larger or Shorter Catechism of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Respectfully submitted,
George L. Shearer, Chairman.
S. M. Breckinridge.

The Report of the Committee of Canvass was adopted unanimously, and announcement was thereupon made in due form that Section 6, of Chapter xii, had been stricken from the Form of Government, and was no part of the Constitution, and that Chapter xxiii, Form of Government, had been agreed to and enacted, and was a part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The Judicial Committee presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Judicial Case No. 1, being a complaint by John C. Means and others, against the Synod of Illinois.

The complainants having requested leave to withdraw their complaint, the Committee recommends that their request be granted. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 2, being the complaint and appeal of Rev. James A. Rainey against the Synod of Atlantic.

The record shows that the action complained against was taken when no quorum was present, and as this involves a Constitutional question, the Committee recommends that a Judicial Commission be appointed to determine judgment. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 3, being the appeal and complaint of certain parties against the Presbytery of Morris and Orange and the Synod of New Jersey.

The parties concerned, as well as the representatives of the Synod, having asked leave to withdraw their Appeal and Complaint, your Committee recommend that their request be granted. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 4, being the Complaint of the Rev. N. West, D.D., against the Synod of Minnesota.

Your Committee report as follows: This case, in various forms, has been before the General Assembly since 1888. The Assemblies of 1888, 1889, 1890, considered the case and gave judgment. The Assembly of 1890 appointed a Judicial Commission, whose findings instructed the Synod of Minnesota to carefully and fully hear the complaint of Dr. West against the Presbytery of St. Paul, and to issue the same according to the provisions of the Book of Discipline. Your Committee has considered the Complaint, and the records of the Synod of Minnesota, and has heard the arguments of the Synod's representatives. Dr. West was invited to appear before the Committee, but declined. A careful examination of the instructions of the last General Assembly, of the action of the Synod of Minnesota, and of the Complaint of Dr. West, fails to discover any question of doctrine or any constitutional question involved in the decision of the Synod of Minnesota, or presented in the Complaint of Dr. West, which would justify the consideration of this Complaint by the General Assembly. In the judgment of your Committee, the action of Synod being final, according to our law, the Complaint of Dr. West cannot come properly before the Assembly. We recommend, therefore, that the Complaint of Rev. N. West, D.D., be dismissed. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 5, being a Complaint of Rev. William M. Campbell against the Synod of Baltimore.

In the judgment of your Committee, this Complaint does not involve questions of doctrine or Constitution, and the judgment of Synod being final in all other cases, your Committee recommend that it be dismissed. Adopted.

Two Overtures were submitted for our consideration:

Overture No. 47, from the Presbytery of Chester, asking the General Assembly to determine what number shall constitute a quorum of a Judicial Commission.

Overture No. 48, from the Presbytery of Chicago, asking that all Presbyteries numbering more than twenty-four ministers be authorized to appoint Judicial Commissions, whose decisions shall be subject to reversal only by the superior judicatories, except as already provided in Book of Discipline.

Your Committee recommend that the following Overture shall be sent down to the Presbyteries: "Shall the Book of Discipline be so amended that Section 118 shall read:

"Judicial Commissions.—The General Assembly, each Synod and each Presbytery under its care shall have power to appoint Judicial Commissions from their respective bodies, consisting of ministers and elders, in number not less than fourteen from the General Assembly, and not less than seven from Synods and Presbyteries.

"All judicial cases and all complaints may be submitted to such Commissions, and their decision shall be final, except in matters of law, which shall be referred to the appointing judicatory for final adjudication; and also all matters of Constitution and Doctrine, which may be reviewed in the appointing body, and, upon final adjudication by the General Assembly. Such Commissions shall sit at the same time and place as the body appointing them, and their findings shall be entered upon the minutes of the appointing body. Two-thirds of the members appointed shall constitute a quorum of a Commission." Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,
CHARLES A. DICKEY, Chairman.

The Judicial Commission appointed in the case of the Appeal and Complaint of James A. Rainey presented its Report, as follows:

Report of the Judicial Commission appointed to find judgment in the case of the Appeal and Complaint of the Rev. James A. Rainey against the action of the Synod of Atlantic, viz.: Judicial Case No. 2:

Finding.—1. It appears from the records of the Synod of Atlantic that the action complained against by Rev. James A. Rainey was taken without the quorum required by the Constitution, and that therefore said action was un-Constitutional and is void.

2. The Synod is directed to review at its next regular meeting the proceedings and action regarding this case, and complained against by Rev. James A. Rainey, and to adopt or reject them, in whole or in part, as the Synod may determine.

Adopted by a unanimous vote.

The Report of the Commission was confirmed and its finding entered on the minutes.

The Special Committee on certain Forms of Worldly Amusements presented a Report, which, after discussion, was recommitted, with instructions to amend.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion presented its Report, which was read and accepted. The first recommendation was adopted; the second was omitted from the Narrative, and referred to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Stated Clerk then read the Necrology for the year ending April 30, 1891; and the Assembly was led in prayer.

The Narrative as thus amended, and the Necrology, were ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes."

The Committee on Finance put in nomination, as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Assembly, the name of Ruling Elder John J. McCook.

The Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., and the Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., were appointed delegates to the Synod of Brazil, to serve without expense to the Assembly.

The Assembly took recess until 8 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, June 1, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented its Report on Overture No. 67, from the Presbytery of Stockton, which was accepted. After brief debate, further consideration was deferred, to take up the Order of the Day.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, which was read and accepted. The Rev. Isaac N. Hays, D.D., the Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, addressed the Assembly. The Report was considered, amended and its recommendations were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance respectfully reports to the General Assembly that it has carefully examined all papers put into its hand by the Stated Clerk of this Body, and also the Report of the Permanent Committee, and begs to submit the results of its investigations.

In reviewing the labors of the Permanent Committee, as exhibited in its minutes, and Annual Report, we find much to commend and nothing to condemn. Had the Church at large a better opportunity to learn of the self-denying toil, the wisdom, the prudence, the loyalty to ecclesiastical law, the conservatism, and yet the wise aggressiveness that have characterized its efforts since its organization, it would have a firmer hold on the hearts of our people than the very limited offerings made in its behalf would indicate that it has now.

It is needless to repeat what has so often been forcibly expressed in former Reports to this body, that the evil of intemperance is so wide, deep and permeating—reaching all classes of society—that it requires the ablest men in the Church, the most approved and effective agencies, and the divine blessing to contend successfully against it. Such men evidently compose your Permanent Committee. The work so well done shows that the most appropriate means have been used, and the success that has crowned its efforts attests the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Committee's Report is such a modest record of results that it conceals the hand of the toiler as it gives us the gathered sheaf.

The Report is, moreover, filled with hope and promise for the future. "There remains yet very much land to be possessed;" but, nevertheless, important outposts have been captured, deep inroads have been made into the enemy's country, and the hope of reaching the central citadel of strength is no longer regarded as the delusion of a dream that must die at opening day.

Your Committee has evidently held its own in the general advance on this foe of humanity, and acting in concert with all agencies aiming at the same object, has faith in ultimate victory.

All this is encouraging, but we must not blind our eyes to the many obstacles that still oppose the progress of temperance in our land. The enemy only fights the fiercer as the lines of attack begin to close around him. Frequently, the advance of the temperance cause seems so slow that some enthusiastic ones grow discouraged and imagine it does not move at all. But it is not essential to progress that its motion be always visible. Even "the kingdom of God cometh not with observation." We cannot see the hour hand of a clock as it circles round the dial, however closely we watch it; but as we turn away to work while we wait, we find, as we look again, that the hand has moved. In like manner, he who may nervously and persistently look at one phase of the temperance movement, or at a place and time when unusual obstacles oppose its progress, may begin to think that advance has entirely ceased. But if such persons work more for the cause, and worry less, they will find it is advancing, and that its progress can be definitely measured. Especially is this apparent when larger stretches of time are considered. A comparison of the present with the not very remote past indicates such a tremendous advance in the cause of temperance that the devout soul must thank God and take courage.

When our General Assembly began its recorded efforts to suppress intemperance in the early part of this century, drinking, even to intoxication, was common in the best Christian society, and tolerated, if not actually approved, by many church officials as only a minor sin, or necessary evil. Now all this is changed. In these modern days, Christians everywhere regard intemperance as a very dangerous vice. Even the world's most respectable society casts out the drunkard, though by its social customs it may have made him such. And the very saloons put swinging shutters on their door-ways, that the public may not see the drinkers at the bar, thus confessing by concealment to a certain sense of shame, and shame may often be the first blush of conscious degradation or sin. In addition to all this the traffic in intoxicants has been thrown on the defensive. Self-respecting worldly men engaged in the liquor traffic feel called upon to apologize for their business—plead necessity, or confess to a desire to get out of it. A vigorous public sentiment has made itself felt in our halls of legislation to such an extent that representatives yield to that which becomes almost moral coercion. Laws in the interest of temperance are thus frequently passed and executed, while those that are defeated are generally lost by the influence of gold freely furnished by the threatened liquor traffic.

The advantage gained over this wide-prevailing vice, is the more remarkable when we reflect on the sources of its life and strength. In man's sin-perverted nature there seems to be a morbid craving for unhealthy stimulants. Hence we find that while many semi-civilized peoples have failed to make any great discovery in science, or produce any great invention, there is scarce a barbaric tribe on the face of the earth so ignorant that it has not been able to find out the secret for the manufacture of some form of ardent spirits.

Alongside of this almost universal thirst for a stimulant that affects the brain, is the craving for gold, a desire almost as intense, and even more nearly universal, than the thirst for liquor. These twin desires are mutually supporting. The seller finds a demand for his goods as wide as the world, and as continuous as the seasons, while the buyer is willing to let his noblest needs go unsupplied, and sacrifice the holiest claims of love in order that his base craving may gain gratification.

It is no wonder that men anxious to make money quickly and surely should largely invest in the liquor traffic, which is sure of perpetual patronage. As a trade it is less liable to be unfavorably affected by financial fluctuations than other forms of business, since the very hardness of the times, by throwing men out of employment, or creating despondency, inclines them to drink. Thus the gin house is often found more thronged with drinkers when the factory is closed. It is no wonder that with such a steady and strong demand for his goods, the liquor dealer can afford to open his business on the choicest corners in our cities, and with confidence in man's unnatural craving for alcohol even push his trade into the very heart of Africa, to make the heathen more barbaric than ever.

It then is a matter of congratulation, and of devout thanksgiving to God, that such advance has been made towards the destruction of a vice that is anchored to humanity by two of the strongest roots that can get a grip on the heart of man. And we rejoice that our Church has uniformly raised its voice against this iniquity, and that now it is represented by a Permanent Committee admirably adapted to the ends designed to be attained.

In view of these historic facts, the needs of the Church and its present duty, your Standing Committee would suggest:

1. That the churches be urged to contribute more liberally to the funds of the Permanent Committee, not only that it may widen its field, and accomplish more for the cause of temperance, but also that these business-burdened men may gain some relief by securing such subordinate assistance as they may need. The Christian conscience should suggest a limit to the demands made on gratuitous toil.

2. We suggest that the Assembly continue to foster that spirit, now so prevalent in our denomination, which inclines our people to work for temperance within the lines of our own Church, and in harmony with the multiplied deliverances of our General Assembly. And that it would repeat the commendation of last year in regard to such associations of the friends of temperance as have organized, or may hereafter organize, under the authority of Church Sessions, the control of Presbyteries, or the supervision of the Permanent Committee on Temperance.

3. We suggest that this General Assembly most emphatically request the Sessions of our various churches to provide for systematic Biblical instruction in the Sabbath-schools under their care in the principles of temperance, as interpreted by our Church, and that such instruction be given at least each quarterly Sabbath.

4. We suggest that the Assembly urge upon its ministers, church officers and private members, such consistent lives in regard to the cause of temperance in the social walks of life, that their conduct shall be a quiet rebuke to any evil indulgence fostered by fashion; that it shall thus seek to banish the wine cup from banquets and remove any supposed dignity, need or grace, from all forms of social temptation to intemperance with which custom has clothed them. And we would also urge upon all the duty of a Christian citizenship to aid in continuing, increasing, and intensifying such a pure and healthy sentiment in the community as will ultimately lead to the utter eradication of intemperance from our common country.

5. We suggest that this General Assembly, through its Permanent Committee on Temperance, petition the Senate of the United States, urging our national coöperation with the other powers of the civilized world in efforts to prohibit the slave and rum traffic within the limits of the Congo Free State, as provided for in the so-called Brussels Treaty, which has already been signed by sixteen of the seventeen governments represented in the Brussels Conference. And further, as a great moral responsibility will rest upon us as a nation, if the validity and successful execution of this treaty depends on the unanimous consent of the signatory powers for its ratification, this Assembly declares that it is the urgent duty of every Christian and philanthropic citizen to use his influence to secure the ratification of this treaty by our Government, so that we, as a Christian nation, may not be held responsible for any neglect, by which a helpless heathen people may be cursed and crushed by the unrestricted sale of intoxicating liquors within their bounds.

6. We suggest that the Assembly urge on the members of our churches the reading and circulating of the tract containing a summary of the deliverances of our General Assembly for nearly eighty years past, that they may more fully know and appreciate the position of the Presbyterian Church on this important question, and use the information and inspiration thereby gained for strengthening themselves and helping humanity.

In closing, your Committee would report that it has carefully examined the minutes of the Permanent Committee, find them correct and well kept, and recommend their approval.

The Committee would recommend in regard to the Overture from the Presbytery of Sacramento, that no action be taken, as none is required, since the reforms suggested come properly within the jurisdiction of Presbytery, or under the control of the Board of Home Missions.

Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., Rev. John F. Hill, Elders O. L. Miller and T. H. Rabe, are respectfully recommended for reëlection as members of the Temperance Committee, and also Rev. A. E. Linn, to take the place of Rev. Richard S. Holmes, of the Class of 1893, who declines serving.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. S. Ramsey, Chairman.

The following additional resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly recognizes with approval the untiring labor of the Christian women of our country in their efforts to banish the liquor traffic from our midst, to reclaim the drunkard, and to secure and distribute a temperance literature. We congratulate them upon the success they have achieved, especially in securing hygienic study in the public schools of our country.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented its final Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully reports that it has received reports from fourteen Theological schools, placing themselves under the care of the General Assembly. Of these one, namely, Blackburn University, aims to send its graduates to the regular Theological Seminaries of the Church, and only furnishes instruction to those who cannot take a full course. Two of the institutions reporting to the Assembly are especially for German students, and two are for the colored race. Of the latter, Lincoln University reports that in its Theological Department Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D.D., has resigned the chair of Systematic Theology. They also report that Rev. Robert Laird Stewart, of Danville, Pa., has been elected by the Trustees as Professor of Biblical Antiquities and Sacred Geography.

Biddle University asks for sympathy and aid for its one hundred and seventy-six students in the Theological Department, who in their deep poverty are seeking to qualify themselves for work among their own people.

With regard to the two German schools, that of the Northwest reports the election of Rev. A. Van der Lippe, D.D., to the Van Vleit Professorship of Theology. This school with its thirty-three students, and its endowment not yet complete greatly needs pecuniary aid. Assistance was granted from the Board of Aid for Colleges to the amount of $1000 last year. They ask that they be commended to that Board for the sum of $1500 for the coming year. The Committee hope that this request may be granted by the Board.

The German school at Newark reports that, in addition to the fourteen German students in its Theological Department, three Bohemians and three Italians have been admitted to a special course of instruction. They also speak of the necessity for enlarged accommodations in the way of buildings. Both these schools, which are seeking to furnish an evangelical ministry for the foreign population of our land, not yet familiar with English, are earnestly commended to the sympathy and liberality of the Church. Students from these institutions are in demand, and they are greatly needed for successfully carrying on the work of evangelization in our land. But the work cannot well be enlarged without increasing the resources and accommodations of these schools.

Of the remaining nine Theological Seminaries, one, that of Omaha, sends its first report to the Assembly this year. A tract of land consisting of twenty-five acres at Seymour Park, six miles from Omaha, has been donated by Dr. George L. Miller for the erection of buildings. It is proposed to commence the course of instruction in September of this year. Arrangements have been made for temporary rooms for lectures and recitations. A Board of Directors has been chosen, and an admirable Faculty has been elected to carry on the work of theological instruction. It is the wish of the Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, that it should be taken under the care of the Assembly, and their report is understood to embody this request. The passage of the following resolution is therefore recommended.

Resolved, That the General Assembly views with satisfaction the organization of the Theological Seminary at Omaha, and orders that its relations to the General Assembly be those of the other Theological Seminaries, as defined by the compact of 1870 and 1871.

Lane Seminary reports the raising of a Deficiency Fund of $18,000, and the regular engagement of many of its students in city missionary work in Cincinnati.

San Francisco Seminary, which reported a new site and large gifts received last year, reports this year two new buildings in process of erection, and which will be ready for occupancy in the fall.

The Directors of McCormick Seminary have elected Rev. Willis G. Craig, D.D., LL.D., the Cyrus H. McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology, and Rev. Andreas C. Zenos, D.D., as the Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History. This Seminary also reports that 114 of its students are engaged in various kinds of missionary work in all parts of the city. The Seminaries at Danville and Allegheny also make mention of the same fact with reference to their students.

The Directors of Danville Theological Seminary report the election of Rev. John M. Worrall, D.D., as Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government.

Auburn Seminary reports the election of Rev. Timothy G. Darling, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Philology, to the chair of Christian Theology, in place of Rev. Ransom B. Welch, D.D., whose death the whole Church mourns.

The Directors of Union Theological Seminary report that the Rev. Francis Brown, Ph.D., D.D., has been transferred from the Associate Professorship in the Department of Biblical Philology to the Davenport Professorship of Hebrew and the Cognate Languages. They also report the unanimous election to the Roosevelt Professorship of Systematic Theology, of the Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., whose sudden and lamented death, since the opening of this Assembly, has filled all our hearts with sorrow.

Princeton Seminary reports that a New Testament Fellowship has been established. It has likewise suffered bereavement during the past year in the death of the Rev. James C. Moffat, D.D., Emeritus Professor of Church History.

Your Committee further reports that the Presbyteries of Athens, Chillicothe, Louisville, Milwaukee, Platte, Westchester and Wooster have addressed the Assembly in Overtures which indicate their anxiety in regard to the teaching in our Theological Seminaries, respecting the authority and inspiration of the Scriptures.

Your Committee believes that these Presbyteries are to be commended for their vigilance; and they recommend that the Assembly reaffirm the deliverances of former Assemblies (1882–1888) upon this subject, and are of the opinion that it is not expedient to take any further action at this time.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANCIS L. PATTON, Chairman.

The Committee of Entertainment was authorized to pay the sum of $1.50 per diem for the boarding expenses of each Commissioner.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, June 2, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A telegram was received from the Reformed Presbyterian Church conveying its salutations.

The Rev. John Hall, D.D., LL.D., and the Rev. John Hemphill, D.D., reported the discharge of their duty as delegates to the Jubilee General Assembly of the Irish Presbyterian Church; the Rev. J. P. E. Kumler, D.D., reported his attendance as a delegate on the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod in the United States of America; and the Rev. William C. Cattell, D.D., reported the discharge of his duty as a delegate to the Reformed Church in Bohemia.

The Stated Clerk, by the unanimous vote of the Assembly, cast its ballot for the following-named persons as members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund, viz.: Ministers—David R. Frazer, D.D., Charles T. Haley, D.D., David McGee, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Robert Jaffray, Hezekiah King, and in place of Rev. S. M. Hamilton, D.D., resigned, Rev. R. P. H. Vail, D.D., and in place of Mr. John Sloane, deceased, Mr. John J. McCook.

It was Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Assembly be authorized to pay the expenses incurred in printing the Report of the Committee on the Seal of the Church, made to this Assembly.

The Special Committee on Certain Forms of Worldly Amusements, presented its Report, which had been recommitted to it.

The Report was received, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee appear before you under the following action reported from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and adopted by the Assembly:

"To report a paper for adoption by this Assembly, which shall reaffirm the deliverances of former Assemblies, adding what is needed for our times, and call upon the Church, by means of thoughtful and godly living in its members, and through its pulpits and Church Sessions, to do all that can be Scripturally done to free the Church from the evils flowing from these practices."

If this world is to be conquered for Christ, His servants must perceive and dislodge the enemy wherever found. They should not see evil where there is no evil, nor should they call that good which is really evil, judged in itself, or by its fruits. Fortunately for the Church, the Master has said, "By their fruits ye shall know them." We do not therefore concern ourselves, for example, with dancing or theatre-going in themselves considered; or with the impersonation of character, or the mimic representation of any proper subject without evil accessories, but we are concerned with the dance, or the theatre, or card-playing as institutions, world-wide, very ancient, and with human nature what it is, too often injuriously fascinating. It is with their actual obstruction to the Gospel, as intelligently perceived, that we have to deal.

In reference to card-playing and all games of chance, the Committee respectfully raise the question, or perhaps it is not a question, whether they are not in themselves sinful? and, as tending to the decision of that question, we submit the following reasoning, viz.:

As a matter of fact or reality, there is no such thing as chance. In the place of what men call chance is the living God, omnipresent and omniscient. An appeal to God without serious cause is profane. Nor is this reasoning impaired by the suggestion sometimes made, that those who play at games of chance do not intend to be profane. Thus, an habitual swearer is not conscious of an intention to be profane, yet who shall say he is not, while oaths continue to drop from his lips. Ignorance and thoughtlessness are the negative causes of his unconscious guilt. Are they not also in the other case?

The standard by which right and wrong are determined is the moral law of God. Whether a responsible creature's act is right or not is to be determined by his real relations to God in the act. His relation to God exists. He refers to the nonentity chance for decision, a matter which God only can and does determine. Hence, his appeal proves to be an appeal to God, and an appeal to God without proper cause is profane.

If this view carries with it serious consequences, we, on that account, all the more beg of the Assembly, and would of the whole Church, the most thoughtful and prayerful consideration of it; for, if true, it behooves all to acknowledge it and be guided by it.

The Scriptures show that the lot involving the principle of chance is an ordinance of God. "The lot is cast into the lap but the whole disposing thereof is of the Lord" (Prov. xvi, 33). Likewise our Standards show the same; and teach that the lot improperly used is sinful. See the answer to the 113th question of the Larger Catechism, where it is declared that among the sins forbidden in the Third Commandment are "all sinful cursing, oaths, vows and lots."

In reference to card-playing under the popular style of "progressive euchre," your Committee would fain hope the practice is diminishing in the centres of social influence—the larger cities. But whether this is so or not, it still exists to such extent as, if it be wrong, to do great harm. If the principle for which we have contended be true, that games of chance are necessarily sinful, that ought to settle the question for all who love God and seek to obey Him. Besides this, much as we could desire to say nothing which would unnecessarily shock or wound the feelings of any, your Committee fail to see how this practice does not combine in itself the essential elements of gambling. Our civil statutes and courts of law, for substance, define gambling to consist in playing at any game of chance for money, or anything else of value. That something of greater or less value is generally played for in this parlor style of card-playing is too well known to need any affirmation by this Committee. And civil courts have already decided it to be gambling. What a subject for thought and humiliation it is, and an evidence that evil can stealthily creep into the Church, although the most glorious body on earth, that here is a practice indulged in by church members which, when brought into court, has been found to be under the ban of State law, which looks only to public policy. How then is the Church fulfilling her mission as the light of the world? How can her people be the salt of the earth when the salt cannot be distinguished from the earth?

No General Assembly of our Church has made a deliverance touching card-playing in any form for the last fifteen years, nor upon theatre-going and dancing for twelve years. In view of these facts, and in view of the whole subject, involving the most weighty interests, your Committee would recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That this General Assembly reaffirms the deliverances of past Assemblies on the subject of worldly amusements, calling attention to the excellent summary of Christian principles set forth in the action of the Assembly of 1879, and the resolution adopted by that Assembly on "the theatre and opera" (New Digest, pp. 590, 591). Also to the action of the New School Assembly in 1869 on "the opera, the dance, the theatre and card-playing" (New Digest, pp. 588, 590); and the action of the Old School Assembly of 1860, interpreting our Standards, in answer to an Overture from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, to the effect, that social dances and private theatricals are included under the head of "dancing and stage-plays" mentioned in the Larger Catechism amongst the "sins forbidden in the Seventh Commandment," and declaring Church Sessions fully competent to decide when and how far discipline should be exercised (New Digest, pp. 586, 587).

2. This General Assembly would affectionately call upon all the members of our Church, to so regard their obligations to Christ, as to see to it, that they take no part in amusements which they cannot take in His name.

Respectfully submitted,
J. W. TORRENCE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance respectfully submits the following Report: The following accounts have been submitted to us and have been carefully examined by us, to wit:

1. The account of Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., as Treasurer of the General Assembly for the year ending May 9, 1891. Said account shows balance on hand May 9, 1890, $32,406.36; receipts during the year, $51,620.74; total, $84,027.10. Disbursements: Bills paid, as per vouchers exhibited to the Committee, $45,050.89; balance on hand May 10, 1891, $38,976.21; total, $84,027.10. We have also carefully examined the vouchers for all said expenditures, exhibited to us by said Treasurer and have audited the same; and recommend that all said payments be approved. The accounts of said Treasurer we find to have been carefully and accurately kept in every particular. We find that he has not only complied with the resolution of the General Assembly of 1890, directing him to invest the sum of $30,000 for the term of one year, but that he has also, through satisfactory arrangements made with safe banking houses, obtained a fair rate of interest on all of the funds of the General Assembly which were in his hands during the past year. By this means he has been enabled to realize from said funds a sufficient amount of interest to much more than pay his entire salary for said year.

2. Your Committee has also examined the statement of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of their receipts and disbursements for the fiscal year ending March 1, 1890, and also the report of said Trustees for said time. No vouchers were submitted with this statement and report, but there was appended to said statement the certificates of the Committee on Finance of said Board, and of an auditing Committee of the Board to the effect that they had examined the securities mentioned in the Treasurer's statement and account; and had audited said account and had found the same correct. These reports show that said Trustees have received the following legacies during the past year, to wit: Two legacies for the Board of Relief, aggregating $1376.79; one legacy for the Board of Freedmen, $5000; total, $6376.79.

The receipts on account of the Permanent Fund have been as follows: Balance on hand, April 1, 1890, $12,254.97; received from legacies, $6376.79; received from sale of stock, $824; received from mortgages paid off during the year, $28,000; total, $47,455.76. The payments for the year were as follows: Board of Missions for Freedmen, for legacy of Preserved Smith, $5000; invested in mortgages, $27,300; balance on hand, April 1, 1891, $15,155.76; total, $47,455.76. The receipts on income account were as follows: Balance on hand, April 1, 1890, $634.01; amount of income received for the year, $23,919.25; total, $24,553.26. Disbursements: Paid the several beneficiaries, $21,712.13; Treasurer's salary, $1500; Recording Secretary's, $150; printing, stationery, stamps, etc., $22.36; balance on hand, March 31, 1891, $1168.77; total, $24,553.26.

The entire amount of principal in the hands of the Trustees is $505,117, which is invested as follows, viz.: In mortgages, $458,225; stocks, bonds, etc., $24,658.15; advances to secure bequests, $7078.09; balance of cash on hand uninvested March 31, 1891, $15,155.76; total, $505,117.

3. Report of the Treasurer of the Centenary Fund, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., up to May 16, 1891.* This report was audited up to December 1, 1890, by a Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1890. Said account, at the time it was so audited, showed a balance on hand of $10.20. Since said date the Treasurer has received from interest on deposits, $17.45, making a total of $27.65. For this amount the Treasurer has exhibited to the Committee a receipt of W. W. Heberton, Treasurer of the Board of Relief, dated May 16, 1891. Your Committee take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that your Treasurer has acted as collector of your Centenary Fund for the relief of disabled ministers, a fund which amounts to over $600,000, the work involving great labor, patience and responsibility, without accepting any compensation therefor, and without involving any expense except for the necessary printing, stationery and posting. For this he is deserving of your hearty thanks.

4. We have examined also the account of Rev. W. H. Roberts for the printing and distribution of the Reports of the various Boards of the Church for the last fiscal year. From this it appears that the total cost of such work was $2326.56. This expense was charged to and collected from the several Boards in proportion to the number of pages assigned to them respectively, said amounts appearing in the Reports of the various Boards. This work has been accomplished at a cost largely below that of previous years. Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Treasurer of the General Assembly, be authorized to invest so much of the funds of the Assembly as shall remain in his hands after the adjournment of the Assembly, as may to him seem advisable, and in securities concerning whose value there can be no doubt, for a term not exceeding one year.

Your Committee further recommends:

1. That the accounts of said William H. Roberts, as Treasurer of the General Assembly and as Treasurer of the Centenary Fund, be approved.
2. That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the Treasurer for his able and efficient services, especially in the collection of the Centenary Fund, and for the clearness and accuracy of his various accounts.
3. That the vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, caused by the death of Mr. T. Charlton Henry, be filled by the election of Elder John J. McCook, of New York.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

CHARLES T. THOMPSON, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Finance also presented a Special Report in the matter of the Church of Jacksonville, Fla.

The Finance Committee, to which was referred the resolution directing that it should examine into and report upon the claim of the Presbyterian Church at Jacksonville, Fla., respectfully report as follows:

The Presbyterian Church, at Jacksonville, Fla., remained loyal to the Union, and maintained its connection with the Northern Assembly during the civil war. Upon the conclusion of said war, the congregation of the Southern Presbyterian Church, of Jacksonville, which had separated from the Northern Church during the war, began legal proceedings to obtain possession of the property of the Northern Church. In 1872, the General Assembly appointed a Special Committee to advise with said church at Jacksonville, and, if possible, to adjust the controversy between said Northern and said Southern churches concerning the ownership of said property.

Upon the advice and at the request of said Committee, the congregation of the Northern church, in a spirit of friendliness, surrendered to their Southern brethren a part of the church property, worth $5000, upon receiving what amounted to a pledge from said Committee of the General Assembly, that the Assembly would see that the Church at large would provide for the repayment to them of the value of the property so surrendered. This obligation was recognized in some form by several succeeding Assemblies.

Under instructions of the General Assembly of 1878, $1000 has been paid thereon by the Board of Church Erection; but otherwise the pledge has not been redeemed up to this date.

The church of Jacksonville, by reason of this surrender of property, and by reason of the loss of financial ability due to the withdrawal of the said Southern congregation, and of three other churches which were formed out of the mother church after the war, and by reason also of the yellow fever epidemic, has become greatly crippled in her work, and is likely to lose her entire property, estimated to be worth the sum of $25,000.

The sum pledged by the General Assembly, with interest thereon from the date of said pledge, amounts to about the sum of $10,000; the congregation would, however, be satisfied if they could receive at once the sum of $7500, being the amount of the mortgage on said property, which is now due, and is likely to be soon foreclosed.

Your Committee find:

1. That the Presbyterian Church is bound, in all honor, to redeem at once the pledge made to the Presbyterian Church at Jacksonville, more than eighteen years ago.

2. That this payment must be made at once if this property is to be saved to the Presbyterian Church. The Committee therefore recommend, that the General Assembly make immediate provision for the payment to the Presbyterian Church, at Jacksonville, of the sum of $7500; they further recommend that a Committee be appointed to raise said sum for this purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES T. THOMPSON, Chairman.

The Report was accepted, and the recommendations adopted, and the following Committee was appointed to gather contributions for the Jacksonville Church: Ministers—John Hall, D.D., George P. Hays, D.D., William H. Roberts, D.D.; Ruling Elders—John H. Converse, Lemuel R. Hall.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented its Report, which was accepted, and its recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Benevolence respectfully present the following Report to the Assembly. They have carefully considered the Twelfth Annual Report of the Assembly's Special Committee on Beneficence, with the Overture from the Synod of New Jersey which was referred to them. They have also received such exposition of the work, plans and successes of the beneficent schemes as the worthy Chairman in the time allotted him has been able to give.

It is, therefore, with intelligent and cordial appreciation of the methods and service of this Special Committee that the attention of the Assembly is called to the subject, which is so vitally involved in the progress of the Church. There are clear grounds for encouragement revealed by the success of this cause of Scriptural giving, as shown by the Reports of this Committee for the last twelve years, but there has in the last year been a most cheering advance in the support of the benevolent work of the Church, which is most probably due to the practical adoption of the general principles, declared in the Form of Worship, and which has been brought to the notice of pastors and Sessions by the work of this diligent Committee.

There has been in the last year an actual increase of $247,181 in the amount given by God's people for the benevolent work of the Church. The whole sum of $2,653,751, which has been poured into the established channels of our Church work, ought to awaken new songs of courage and hope in the hearts of all our pastors and people. A goodly portion, indeed, of this supply has to stand as a memorial of our blessed dead, as it came by legacy. But the actual increase of $229,193 in the contributions and collections from living church members, affords evidence enough that the idea of giving as an act of worship in God's sanctuary is taking its place in the great body of our churches. The increased support of all the Boards in the past year, with the single exception of that of Church Erection, shows that the great scheme of proportionate giving as a worship of God is taking its place in the heart and confidence of our people.

There is revealed here cause for cheerful commendation of all faithful pastors and Sessions. The trying and wearying work of awakening a worthy benevolence in their churches has not been in vain. The efforts of a large number of Presbyteries to lead their churches into the practice of systematic and proportionate giving, as a part of the worship of God, with which the Saviour is well pleased, deserves the warmest commendation of this Assembly.

Certainly there is much yet to be done before the Church can be brought up to the measure of Christian giving which the Scriptures demand and which our glorious opportunities invite. But if the right principle can be fully apprehended, and modes truly adjusted, the success, so desirable, cannot be long delayed under the blessing of the divine Spirit. The offering unto God of prayer, praise and thanksgiving in the public worship must carry with it the giving of the substance of the worshiper, that God's honor may be recognized and His kingdom come. These parts of worship cannot be widely separated in the experience and service of the growing Christian, nor can any Church expect to grow either in grace or strength as the Lord's witness without the practical recognition of the Gospel demand for benevolence according to the Saviour's rule, "Freely ye have received, freely give."

The ideal of the Committee on Beneficence in all its plans and work is to secure an offering from every member of the Church for every cause presented by the Assembly, and this, too, as an act of worship to Almighty God, and that this offering shall bear some defined proportion to the temporal blessing the worshiper has received. This ideal is certainly Scriptural and worthy of the most careful consideration of Synods, Presbyteries and Sessions.

"The earth is the Lord's, and His people of all times are 'sojourners' with Him." Christians are stewards of the heritage entrusted and called to a constant as well as an ultimate account. The fruits of the Lord's vineyard are to be returned by every worker therein in their season.

The privilege and responsibility of giving to the cause of Christ are personal to the believer, and their appreciation must enter into the worthy Christian life as certainly and fully as any other of the prescribed exercises of Christian worship. When Christians and churches shall learn that they may as well omit the prayer and praise as their material offerings from their worship of God, a grand advance of the Kingdom of Christ, in the world, will doubtless be manifest.

But a distinction must be clearly apprehended between that giving which, however pious and acceptable as a part of the worship, is all expended upon the home church and home privileges, and that giving which is the act of true benevolence. The one is but the building and adorning of the Christian home for ourselves and our children, the other the expression of Christ's saving help for the homeless and perishing. The one is the payment of our own bill at the inn; the other, the price of the care of our neighbor whom we have found fallen among thieves.

To the dissemination of sound and fruitful principles of Christian giving, in obedience to the Assembly, has its Committee addressed itself with such means as have been permitted them. They deserve the commendation of faithful servants. The harvests of their sowing may be delayed, but they are progressing; they may be slow to appear, but they must increase by the law of grace.

Your Committee recommend therefore the following action:

1. That the Assembly commend the diligence and fidelity of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, and approve their plans and methods of work as revealed in their Report, and these are commended to all pastors and Sessions.

2. That the Committee be continued for another year with its present membership. By the special request of the Chairman, who has served so faithfully from the organization of the Committee, that he shall be relieved from the burden of his position, the Committee recommend Dr. Rufus S. Green as Chairman and Walter Carter as Secretary for the coming year, in order to greater convenience the Committee and the reasonable division of its burden. This Committee will consist of: Ministers—Rufus S. Green, D.D., Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., Hiram C. Haydn, D.D., Edward C. Ray, D.D., David R. Breed, D.D., Edward P. Whallon, Ph.D., Paul F. Sutphen, John Dixon; Elders—Walter Carter, Dan P. Eells, Thomas Kane, Logan C. Murray, William Bakewell, Thomas Lord, Reuben F. Smith.

3. That the limit of expenditure of this Committee, hitherto fixed at $500, be extended to $800, in order that the Committee may reach a greater efficiency and affect the greater number of Presbyteries and churches.

4. That in view of the fact to which the attention of the Assembly is called by an Overture from the Synod of New Jersey, that in one-half of the churches many of the Boards are entirely neglected, the Presbyteries are hereby enjoined to take measures without delay to have each of these causes presented in all their churches and to afford the people an opportunity to give.

5. That all pastors and supplies be requested to keep ever before their churches the true distinction between the worshipful giving for the support of their own means of grace and the benevolence which sends the Gospel to the world that is without the means of salvation.

6. That the Assembly directs all having the work of systematic giving in charge, to press the matter of proportionate offerings to God with the hope and intention of securing contributions worthy of the Christian profession, not only from every church, but from every member of the Church.

7. That the movement in many churches to form leagues or unions of proportionate givers is hereby commended. Such associations may be made specially useful both in developing and in directing the benevolence of the Church.

8. That the Committees on Benevolence of Synods and Presbyteries be directed to coöperate with this Committee of the Assembly in intelligent effort to secure systematic and proportionate giving as a part of the worship of God, in all our churches.

All of which is respectfully submitted by unanimous vote of the Committee. S. C. Logan, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Church Unity presented its Report, which was accepted, and adopted, as follows:

The Committee to which was referred the Reports of the Committee on Church Unity, and the Committee on the Coöperation of Churches, would report that the members find themselves unable to agree, and it was decided to recommend the Assembly to approve both Reports and adopt the recommendations, and direct the Committees to hold joint meetings for conference and coöperation in their work, and with a view to a possible consolidation of the two Committees in the near future.

The Report of the Committee on Church Unity is as follows:

By the action of the last Assembly your Committee was authorized to continue negotiations with the Protestant Episcopal Church with reference to a union on the basis of the four propositions of the House of Bishops; the principle of interdenominational comity, as recognized in the correspondence of the Committee, was approved, and the Committee was authorized to make known the Assembly's approval of the principle of the proposed federation as a step towards a closer union of the Churches. Three subjects were thus entrusted to your Committee—Negotiation with the Episcopal Church, Interdenominational Comity and a Federation of Churches.

Two meetings were called during the year; the first to meet in Philadelphia in January, 1891. At this meeting, after careful consideration, it was resolved to postpone final action to a future meeting. The second session of the Committee was held in the Mission Rooms, in New York, on the 14th and 15th days of April, 1891. There were present, Rev. J. T. Smith, D.D., Rev. W. H. Green, D.D., Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Rev. D. C. Marquis, D.D., Rev. R. M. Patterson, D.D., Hon. Cyrus H. Pershing and Hon. W. E. Dodge. Dr. Marquis was appointed Secretary. A letter was prepared and sent by order of the Committee to the Protestant Episcopal Commission.*

As a Special Committee was appointed by the Assembly on the subject of Interdenominational Comity, no action was taken by your Committee further than the appointment of a Committee to confer with them as to our respective duties.

As to the Federation of Churches, the Committee, after careful deliberation, resolved to address a communication in the first instance only to the Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian system. Accordingly, a letter was prepared and sent to the Stated Clerks of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, the Reformed Church in America, the Reformed Church in the United States, the United Presbyterian Church in North America, the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America, the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in the United States of North America, and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.*

The Committee recommend:

That they be continued, and carry on the correspondence with other Churches with reference to Interdenominational Comity, Church Federation and Church Unity, and report to the next Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

Report of the Committee on the Coöperation of Churches.

In presenting our Report to the Assembly, we have, first of all, to express our profound sense of the loss our Committee, in common with the whole Church, has sustained in the death of its beloved Chairman, Dr. Howard Crosby. There was no man among us all more deeply interested in the idea which called this Committee into existence. His great heart went out towards all of every name who love the Lord Jesus Christ, and he was ever foremost in all wise plans for the closer and more effective fellowship of the various evangelical denominations. The cause of Christian cöoperation has lost an advocate it can ill afford to spare. But it has not lost the memory, nor the stimulus of that noble catholic Christian manhood, which is now the inheritance, not only of our Church, but of the evangelical Christianity of the country.

* See Appendix.

Your Committee was appointed in response to a petition presented to the last Assembly, "that a Committee of four ministers and three elders be appointed to gather information and make recommendation to the next Assembly regarding the possibility of any coöperation between our Church and other denominations, in places where feeble churches exist, in order to the saving of the Church's money."

The subject thus presented concerns the relations of comity between our own and other denominations, and beyond that, as an advance step, suggested alike by the tendency towards Christian union and the imperative mission needs of our country, the possibility of actual coöperation in our common work, by which our resources may be economized, and the unity of the faith find a more adequate and impressive expression.

In the limited time given to us since the death of our Chairman, we have not been able to gather the information desired by the Assembly. It is manifest that our final conclusions must rest on an induction of facts widely gathered from our own and from other denominations.

We beg, therefore, to offer this partial Report, with the following statements and considerations, which give importance to the subject of comity and coöperation, and which will indicate the direction and scope of any further action of the Assembly.

So far as we have been able to discover, the question we have in hand has not been formally and definitely before the General Assembly, though, of course, the general principles of comity underlie alike our Presbyterian system and the various actions of our Church courts. The question, at least in its present shape, is entirely new. The need for some action has long been felt throughout the Church.

The present urgency of our Home Mission work, and the inadequacy of means at our disposal to overtake its demands, press the question on our attention with increasing force, Is there not some way, by coöperation with other Churches on our common ground, of combining energies, arresting waste, avoiding friction, and generally hastening the evangelization of the country?

In 1874, this question so forced itself on the attention of the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions and the Congregational Home Missionary Society, that they formulated and promptly adopted certain principles of comity which were to guide the relations of these two great denominations to each other on Home

Missionary ground. In them it was recommended "to all Presbyterians and Congregationalists, especially to all our brethren in the ministry, and more particularly to all missionaries, superintendents of missions, agents, Presbyterial or Synodical missionaries, to study first of all the things that make for peace; to yield more to the cause of unity than justice could demand; * * * to magnify the weightier matters by our common faith and waive the less important; to be careful so to advise and act with respect to all unorganized communities, that, if possible, there may be but one strong and harmonious church organization at the first, whether it be Congregational or Presbyterian; to avoid the wicked waste of funds in the support of two feeble churches, both of which must be weak and which might become involved in bitter, protracted and unholy strife."

It was further recommended that "where both a Presbyterian and Congregational Church already exist, but where both are weak and but one of them is necessary, such churches meet together with prayer and conference, and seek to become one on any basis that is equitable and that promises good results." It was also recommended that there be appointed by Associations and Presbyteries or Synods, "a Special Committee of wise and judicious men, who shall confer together, look over the whole field in their respective bounds, visit the places where such churches exist, recommend union only where there is good hope that it would be peaceful and permanent, and not break out in future strife and division; suggest plans of reunion on a fair and equitable basis, and by kind advice heal divisions and strengthen the cause of Christ by making stronger churches even though the whole number should be less." And the two missionary societies "propose to use all proper means to discourage and prevent this great evil which we have been considering. We propose to examine more critically than heretofore the reasons urged for the occupancy of new fields, and to give or withhold Home Missionary aid in accordance with the principles herein set forth."

We advert thus fully to these principles of agreement adopted seventeen years ago by the Home Missionary organizations, because they have never been formally brought to the notice of the Assembly, and because they are worthy of all emphasis and endorsement as a noble declaration of comity.

It gives us pleasure to state that it is the testimony of the organizations thus consenting together that these recommendations have on the whole been increasingly observed, greatly to the strengthening of the common cause and of fraternal bonds.

But within these years fraternal relations, not only between these two denominations, but between evangelical denominations generally, have been greatly developed and strengthened. And it is worth considering whether the time has not come for seeking for somewhat more of coöperation in our mission work than would have seemed advisable to attempt seventeen years ago. Whether, in short, there may not be found a way to coöperate on mission fields with our Congregational brethren more effectively than heretofore, and further, whether such coöperation may not be extended also to other denominations of essentially the same faith with ourselves.

In pursuing our investigations along this line, we are happy to note that the last National Council of Congregational Churches, held in 1889, took strong ground in the direction of comity and coöperation. A Committee, of which Dr. George P. Fisher was Chairman, presented a Report, pleading for closer relations between denominations and more earnest coöperation on mission ground. The resolutions embodied in the Report were adopted by the Council, and a Committee on Christian Unity was appointed to confer with similar Committees of other denominations in the interest of the whole subject. It seems to us that the best declaration of our willingness thus to confer, would be given by the Assembly's adoption of the resolutions of the Council.

We have had some conference with the Chairman of this Committee, and the way is entirely open for such joint consideration of the important matter as may be necessary to secure practical and valuable results.

No doubt conferences can profitably be had with other members of the family of denominations closely allied. But for these we have not yet had time to arrange. We have, however, conferred with the Missionary Secretaries of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and while, of course, it may be for the present impossible to secure active coöperation, we are sure that noble Christian denomination will respond to an effort to secure such mutual agreement on general principles of comity as will unite them with us and others in strict instructions to missionary agents, to keep uppermost the kingdom of Christ, and to organize churches more with reference to the spiritual needs of the country than merely for denominational advantage. In our judgment, the first step towards coöperation is the constitution of local authorities in all mission fields, representing all denominations consenting to seek more effective ways of doing our common work, which authorities shall consult and agree concerning Home Mission work in their field, and also frequent and stated conferences between the general executive officers of the various coöperating missionary societies.

We have matured no detailed plan for the coöperation so earnestly desired, but we believe it is along the lines now indicated that the investigations should be pursued. In closing this partial Report we offer the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly adopts as its expression on the great question of interdenominational comity the following resolutions adopted by the National Council of the Congregational Churches:

"Resolved, 1. That the multiplying or continuing of churches in towns and villages beyond the capacity of the people to sustain them, under the auspices of different ecclesiastical bodies, which are essentially united in their faith and teaching, is productive of deplorable evils. It involves a waste of Christian forces. It is inconsistent with the spirit of fraternal coöperation that should animate Christian disciples. It engenders sectarian rivalry and conflict. It presents in the communities where it occurs a spectacle of division, which operates in various ways to weaken the practical influence of Christianity, and strengthen the hands of its adversaries.

"Resolved, 2. That the remedy for the evil thus described lies in the observance of the Christian rule of comity, which forbids one ecclesiastical body from interfering, on the same ground, with the work which another has already undertaken, and is faithfully prosecuting. To secure the observance of this rule—next to the spread of an enlightened Christian conviction on the subject—the most important requisite is proper official action on the part of general and local superintendents of Home Missions, and especially of the several ecclesiastical organizations with which they are connected."

2. That the Board of Home Missions be directed to announce to all superintendents and missionaries the principles of comity adopted in 1874, and under which our Church is acting in harmony with the Congregational Churches for the extension of the one kingdom of Christ, and that the Board urge a faithful adherence to the letter and spirit of those principles.

3. That this Committee be continued in order to secure, if possible, by correspondence and conference, the coöperation with us, of other Home Missionary organizations in the furtherance of the objects here announced, and such others, as by conference, may seem to be for the prosperity of the Churches and the glory of God.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES L. THOMPSON, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church presented a Report in part, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Polity of the Church, to whom was referred the question of the enactment by the Assembly of the rule in the Report of the Special Committee on the Increase of Ministers, with reference to the reception of ministers from foreign bodies and other denominations, recommend that in view of repeated previous action taken by the Assembly with reference to this same matter, no objection can properly be made to its passage, especially in view of its immediate and imperative necessity, but in order that a way may be provided by which this and similar rules may become actually binding and not simply recommendatory upon the Presbyteries, your Committee further recommend that the following amendment to the Form of Government and Book of Discipline, to be known as Sec. 6, Chap. xii, be sent down to the Presbyteries: "Before any Overtures or enactments proposed by the Assembly to be established as rules regulative of the constitutional powers of Presbyteries and Synods shall be obligatory upon the churches, it shall be necessary to transmit them to all the Presbyteries, and to receive the return of at least a majority of them in writing, approving thereof, and such rules when approved shall be appended to the Constitution of the Church."

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Special Committee on Increasing the Number of Ministers, reported, recommending the adoption of the Report. The Report was considered and amended, and Recommendations 5 and 6* were referred to the next General Assembly. The Report was then adopted as follows:

The Special Committee on Increasing the Number of Ministers, appointed by the last General Assembly, would respectfully submit the following Report:

There was referred to this Committee, by the Assembly of 1889, the Report of the Special Committee on Education, together with the last part of Resolution No. 4 of the Report of the Standing Committee on Education. The Committee was directed to consider and report to this Assembly whether it was advisable to adopt any other practicable methods than those now in use, and those recommended by the Special Committee on Education, to introduce into the ministry of our churches, men specially qualified to meet the present wants of our vacant churches and various mission fields, and if so, why?

The carefully prepared statements presented by the Chairman of the Special Committee on Education (Dr. Morris) so fully and accurately set forth the facts with reference to the present inadequate supply of qualified ministers for our churches, and also the sources from which the ranks of our ministry are to be recruited, that this Committee felt that there was no necessity for further investigation in this direction. The statistics of the year 1889 do not show a change for the better, but the rather make more emphatic the statements of the former Report; but it is neccessary to make a brief restatement of the facts presented in that Report, in order that the Assembly may see the reasons which have led to the conclusion which the Committee desire to submit for your consideration.

The Report shows, first, that 1139, or over 17 per cent. of all the churches on our roll, were reported as vacant. Many of these churches were relatively prominent; 33 having a membership of 200 or more; 101 a membership between 200 and 100; and 193 having a membership varying from 100 to 50. There are 812 vacant churches whose membership falls below 50. These may be divided into three groups; those having from 50 to 25 members, numbering 274; those having from 25 to 10, numbering 319; and those having from 10 to 1, including 6 which make no report, 219. The Statistical Report of 1889 shows a still larger number of vacant churches, there being 1148 reported as vacant in that year, as against 1139 in 1888. What is still more significant, the increase of vacant churches is among those which have the larger membership. The vacancies among the churches containing 25 members or less, have decreased by 51; while among those containing a membership of over 50, they have increased by 59. It is also a well-known fact that a large proportion of our vacant churches are so poor in financial resources, that they are unable to support pastors without aid from abroad. Even if ministers were ready to enter these vacant fields, there remains the serious question of their support. In this connection the former Report calls attention to the fact that, chiefly for lack of ministerial supplies, 373 churches have been disbanded during the past five years, an annual average of 75; and during the nineteen years since the reunion, no less than 1099, an annual average of 58. The whole number of churches organized in this period was 3044, an annual average of 160—in the aggregate nearly one-half of all the churches on our roll; but on the other hand, these dissolutions constitute no less than thirty-six per cent. of the aggregate of new organizations. In other words, while three churches were being organized, one was dying out, and these deaths have occurred at more than the rate of one each week for the entire nineteen years. It is also noticeable that the rate of dissolution is constantly increasing, and that the number reported last year is the largest in the whole course of our history.

*See "Minutes" of 1890, p. 166.

The causes for these dissolutions are found in part in the continuous migrations of our population, in the decline of frontier villages and mining towns, in mistaken location, in denominational rivalries, and other incidental factors. But in large degree, the result must be traced, at last, to the lack of means to support men in these fields, and to the lack of men ready and willing to enter upon the work. Both elements must be fully recognized. If the men had been at hand, there would not have been means to sustain them in the treasury of our Board of Home Missions without serious injury at other vital points; had that treasury been full to overflowing, the requisite number of laborers could not have been obtained. It is here after all, painful as the fact is, that the main secret of these church deaths, eleven hundred in less than twenty years, is to be found.

But, in addition to our present, we must also keep in mind the prospective need. Our work in foreign lands is steadily growing in magnitude and interest, and will demand in the future a constantly enlarging supply of laborers. One of the Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions furnishes the information that, including the eighteen now under appointment, the Board has sent out during the last decade 151 new missionaries, an annual average of fifteen. But he also states that the Board will need at least thirty new men, and could utilize sixty for the coming year; and further, that for the next decade, not less than fifty new missionaries will be needed every year to fill the place of the losses by resignation and death, and to carry on the constantly enlarging work for which the Board is constituted. At the lowest estimate the average of the last ten years ought to be doubled, if the Church rises in any proper degree to the magnitude of the divine call upon her to go forth in the name of Christ to disciple the nations.

The veteran Secretary of the Board of Home Missions expresses the conviction that at least 200 new missionaries will be needed to meet existing demands, and to carry out the prospective work of the Board during the year to come. The number of Home Missionaries employed in 1878 was 1131, and in 1888, 1486, a net increase of 355, or thirty-five annually; while the number of churches aided by the Board has increased at a ratio probably three times as great. Large as the increase in the number of churches has been since the union, and especially within the past five years, there is no reason to anticipate that this rate of increase will diminish for a long period to come.

Some special reference should also be made here to our prospective work among the colored population, especially in the South. During the quarter of a century since the Board of Freedmen was organized, a good beginning in this interesting work has been made; 235 churches have been organized, and are under the care of the Board; 27 white and 90 colored ministers and licentiates are employed by it; new churches have been organized at the rate of fourteen annually for the past five years; and a corresponding increase has been needful in the number of laborers. But this work is only in its infancy; and it may reasonably be estimated that an additional ministerial force of twenty or twenty-five a year, chiefly colored, will be indispensable to its proper development during the next decade. Beyond that, it is altogether probable that a much larger provision will need to be made for the evangelization of the many millions of the colored race in the older and newer South. In the providence of God this is one of the weightiest tasks in which His Church on this continent is to be summoned in the great future before it.

Another fact to be considered in this connection is the loss from the ranks of our ministerial force through disease and death. This has amounted annually, for the last five years, to more than one hundred.

Summing up the present and prospective need, in these and in other aspects which might be named, it becomes at once apparent that our Church is brought face to face, to a degree almost unequaled in its history, with this great problem of ministerial demand and ministerial supply. For Foreign Missions, for Home Missions, for this developing work among the freedmen, for evangelizing labor in our larger and smaller cities, for colportage and the planting of Sabbath-schools, for evangelistic labors in destitute sections, for service in the cause of education, for teachers and professors in colleges and seminaries, for editors of our denominational press, for official service in our Boards and other agencies, the Church needs and must have a very large aggregate of trained consecrated ministers. The present condition strongly emphasizes this conclusion, and the prospective sphere and mission of our Church on this continent make the conclusion as imperative almost as if it were a direct revelation from God.

The following statistics will show the present available ministerial force of the Church: There are on the rolls the names of 5789 ministers and 314 licentiates; of this number 1458, nearly one-fourth of the whole, are either honorably retired on account of age or infirmity, or are occupied as teachers, secretaries, editors, foreign missionaries, agents and the like; there are 589 others who are reported either as without charges or as evangelists, leaving an actual working force of 2387 pastors, 1355 stated supplies and 314 licentiates; in all 4056; but as some reported as evangelists, or as without charge, render much valuable service, it would be safe to estimate our available working force at 4500, as against 6543 churches of all grades. Of the 589 ministers reported in 1888 as substantially without charge, it is safe to say that one-half are disqualified by age, infirmity, or by various other causes from undertaking the full work of the pastorate, however useful they might be for some special service. If the other half, 294, could be instantly employed in our vacant fields, it is evident that their presence would go but a little way towards meeting present needs.

As to the channels of supply through which we receive recruits to the ministry, there are three.

The first is our theological seminaries. The number of graduates from these institutions, including two German schools and two training schools for colored preachers, for the last five years was 810, an annual average of 162. But a deduction must be made from this number: first, for the graduates belonging to other denominations who have studied in these schools; second, for graduates who become professors or teachers; and third, for those whom ill health or other causes prevent from entering the ministry. The number of ministers coming to us from our seminaries does not exceed an annual average of 145.

The second channel of supply is through exceptional courses of study, or what our Book denominates "extraordinary cases." Statistics gathered from the Presbyteries show that about thirty are entering the ranks of the ministry each year, with variations or subtractions more or less extensive from the prescribed standard of qualifications.

The third is the supply which comes from other denominations. Special attention is called to the fact that the accessions through this channel have amounted, since the reunion, to 1192, or 63 annually. The number has rapidly increased of late. In 1887 the number received was 88, in 1888 it was 89; last year it rose to 105. This large addition must, of course, be offset by the fact that 33 of our ministers were dismissed to other bodies. But at the present rate we may expect an annual addition of 60 from this source. Adding all this together, our annual supply from all sources would reach possibly 220. But from this must be taken the loss by death. This, for the past five years, has amounted to 110 annually. Thus it appears that the annual supply from our seminaries is only 35 in excess of the loss by death. Add to this the 30 "extraordinary cases," and 60 from other denominations, and we have a yearly net increase of 125. In 1887 our net gain was 108 ministers; in 1888, 135; in 1889, 147. But it must be remembered that during the same period the number of our churches was increasing in a much greater ratio than that of our ministers. We may well ponder this question: With a net increase of but 125 ministers each year, how long will it be until our Church fulfills the command of our divine Lord, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature?"

Thus far, in presenting the facts concerning the need for more ministers, and the supply likely to be furnished through existing agencies, the Committee has confined itself mainly to the statements made in last year's Report. It was in view of these statements, so important in their bearing upon the future growth of the Church, that the General Assembly directed this Committee to inquire whether it is advisable to adopt any other practical methods than those now in use, and those recommended by the Special Committee on Education, to introduce into the ministry of our churches men specially qualified to meet the pressing wants of our vacant churches and various mission fields, and if such methods are found to be advisable to suggest them to this Assembly. In seeking information on these points, the Committee sent letters of inquiry to all the leading denominations, both in this country and in England, containing the following questions:

1. What are the conditions of ordination in your Church?
2. What courses of study are insisted upon?
3. Do you allow exceptions to the prescribed course, and upon what grounds?
4. What provision have you made for supplying candidates for the ministry?
5. What conditions, if any, do you impose on those coming from other evangelical bodies?
6. What agencies are you employing to reach the foreign population in our own country?
7. Have you any appliances for training the officers of the church, other than ministers, for evangelistic work?
8. What official agency have you in operation for bringing vacant churches and unemployed ministers together?

The Committee hoped to gather, from the experience and practice of the whole Church, additional light, especially on the two questions that have been agitating the mind of our Church. The first of these concerns the present educational qualifications for the ministry, demanded by our Form of Government, as necessary to ordination. Some have held that the tests prescribed for ordination were scholastic rather than Scriptural, and that while the educational standard should not be lowered, it ought not to be limited, as is now done, by our Book. It has also been urged, somewhat strenuously, that the prescribed course of education demanded by our Standards is one reason why many of our young men are deterred from seeking the ministry in connection with our Church.

The second question has reference to the creation of a special class of ministers for our feeble churches and mission fields, a class less fully equipped in point of learning than our Constitution requires for the regular ministry.

So far as the conditions for ordination are concerned, the replies from the various Churches show that in all the branches of the Presbyterian Church, with the exception of the Cumberland Presbyterians, the educational qualifications are substantially the same as in our own; all allow some exceptions to the regular course.

With regard to the Churches who do not hold to our polity the case is different. In the Protestant Episcopal Church the qualifications for ordination are nearly as in our own. But in the Methodist Church, North and South, the Baptist, the Lutheran and the Congregational Churches, candidates are licensed entirely upon Scriptural qualifications; that is to say, they are examined concerning their piety, their call to the ministry, their knowledge of the Word of God, of theology and of the doctrines of the Church. Inquiry is also made concerning their general intelligence and their aptness to teach. A knowledge of the Greek and Hebrew languages, while considered most desirable, is not essential to ordination. All these Churches are striving to raise up an educated ministry, and are well equipped with theological seminaries, but in these institutions the course of study, while of the highest order, is elective. The Churches last named act upon the theory that the ministry must not be confined to such as have enjoyed superior advantages for mental culture, but that every one who proposes to be a preacher must be encouraged to gain the most thorough education in his power. Their ministry thus contains men of every grade of culture. Their theological seminaries, while affording ample facilities for studying the Scriptures in their original languages, and for the higher branches of theological learning, at the same time give to those who have only a good English education, the opportunity of studying the Scriptures in the English version and full theological instruction in all other respects. The policy, especially of the Methodist and Baptist Churches, has been to recognize the ministerial gift, to put it into exercise as early as possible, and then to proceed to develop and educate it. Ours has rather been first to educate the candidate and then see if he has the gift. It is well to contrast the results of these different methods, so far as the extension of the Church is concerned. At the beginning of the present century our branch of the Church stood foremost in numbers and power, and with the brightest prospects for enlarged growth in the future. For some causes the Methodist and Baptist Churches have outrun us in the race, and have succeeded in reaching the great masses of the people, as we have not. Whatever the causes of this may have been, it is evident that their work could not have been accomplished if they had waited until they had secured a ministry educated in all respects according to our accepted standard and by our methods. Their method of bringing men into the ministry was an indispensable factor in their success. But the reports from these great bodies show that, while they are not lacking in ministers, and have, in one respect, a full supply, they are demanding more ministers of a higher grade of culture. They need not so much more men as men better qualified for their high work. Such need is not confined to any one branch of the Church. The testimony from all sides shows that there is an urgent necessity for an educated ministry in order to meet the demands of the hour. All branches of the Church with which the Committee has corresponded admit this necessity, and are earnestly striving to meet it. The Committee has not been able to find the much-desired "short-cut" to an efficient ministry. The way is long, arduous, demanding painstaking and self-sacrifice. The way to ordination may be made short, but it is usually the ordination of ignorance and inefficiency. On the other hand, the Committee recognize the fact that the course of study may be unnecessarily prolonged or made difficult by prescribing studies that bear only incidentally upon the Gospel ministry, or such as tend to make specialists in some department of learning rather than preachers of the Word. For this reason the Committee would recommend that the imperative requirement of our Book for a Latin exegesis, as a prerequisite to licensure, be omitted, leaving the language in which the exegesis is to be presented, optional with the Presbytery.

The Committee is also of the opinion that in some respects the course of study prescribed in our theological seminaries for candidates could be better adapted to the needs of our age; and that without lowering the educational qualifications, some studies could be made elective. That there is need for this is shown by the facts already stated, that the number of exceptional cases in which ordination is granted, is increasing yearly. Nor can the large number of non-graduates in our seminaries follow to the best advantage the course which is prescribed for those who have received a classical education. But while some modifications might be made to advantage, the Committee cannot see any reason, in the present condition of affairs, for abandoning the time-honored policy of our Church in requiring special and thorough education for the work of the ministry. The lowering of the educational standard for ordination might possibly increase the number who apply for it, but there would be no real gain in entrusting the holy ministry to weak and ignorant men. We recognize the fact that the great and dominant qualifications for the ministry are piety, knowledge of the Scriptures, soundness in the faith, and aptness to teach. But with all these, there must be that intelligence which is the result of proper education. Nor do we find from any evidence before us, that the standard of education fixed by law and custom among us is unreasonably high. In the judgment of the Committee, the proper method to secure an increase for the ministry, is not by lowering the standard of education, and thus seeking to make it attractive and acceptable to our young men, but rather, to magnify the sacred office before the Church, and to set it forth more fully and clearly, in the honor, glory, and responsibility which the Word of God gives to it. It is but seldom that pastors present this subject to the church. Too often by complaints, or by proclaiming the trials and hardships of the ministry, an impression is made, such as deters many from entering it. The Church should be taught to offer the best of her youth for this sacred office, and to encourage them in their course of preparation for its high duties and difficult labors. The radical remedy for the present evil is not to be found in our theological seminaries or schools, or in new regulations from our Church courts, but in the Church itself, and especially in its family life. Parents must consecrate their children to this work, and teachers and pastors seek to impress the youth under their care with some just conception of its greatness and blessedness. If the Church were thus moved to offer freely her sons for this sacred office, there would be little complaint as to the length or difficulties of the educational course.

As to the second question, namely, whether it is advisable to adopt any other practical methods than those now in use to introduce into the ministry of our Church men specially qualified to meet the present wants of our churches and various mission fields. The Committee, after investigating all the facts, are ready to say emphatically, that it is advisable. But by the ministry in this case, we do not mean the regularly ordained ministry of the Word, but such qualified and officially licensed laborers as may properly supplement the work of the regular ministry. The existence of such a ministry as this is clearly recognized in the Scriptures. No one reading carefully the records of the Apostolic Church can fail to notice the fullness and variety of the ministerial functions named in it. The names "apostle," "prophet," "evangelist," "pastor," "teacher," "helper," "governments," "elders," "deacons," "deaconess" are sufficient evidence of this. Since there are "gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us," it is the duty of the Church in its administration to recognize these gifts, and to provide for their proper exercise.

Again, the need for such a varied ministry is clearly apparent at the present time. It has been so strongly felt that thousands of consecrated men and women have, outside of any official recognition, given themselves to the work of evangelists, of exhorters, of Bible readers and missionaries, of visitors and teachers. Indeed, the need of special and trained workers in all these departments is so manifest, that schools for their education are springing up in different parts of our country. Some branches of the Church, alive to the importance of this movement, have already taken means to bring it under ecclesiastical control, and encourage it with official recognition. We, as a Church, cannot afford to be indifferent to it. Nor is it to be questioned, that there are thousands in our communion who, if encouraged and placed under proper leadership, would be able to do efficient service in our vacant churches and various mission fields. Thankful mention should be made of the fact that so many, without official recognition, have made themselves true helpers of the ministry, and are abounding in faithful labors for the extension of the Church. It is true that official recognition is not necessary to give efficiency to all Christian work, but it ought to tend to a twofold result. On one side, it would give encouragement and guidance to those who are engaged in service; on the other, it would protect the Church from teachers of false doctrine, or from those who, through ignorance or unwise zeal, distract rather than edify the Church. The attitude of the Church towards the movement for greater efficiency in service among the laity, ought not to be one of indifference or tolerance, but of active coöperation and wise guidance. It is difficult, and perhaps hardly possible, to devise beforehand a plan which would fully meet all the exigencies of this movement. Much must necessarily be left to be determined by growth and experience. But a beginning should be made. The opinion of the Committee is that the Assembly should sanction the establishment of schools of training for both men and women, for this department of service; and that our Presbyteries should be empowered to give special license, as deaconesses, or missionary teachers, or as Bible readers, or as local evangelists, as the particular cases might justify, to such persons as in their judgment were qualified for any of these departments of evangelistic work. Especially do we deem it desirable that the Presbytery should be authorized to license as local evangelists, such male members of the Church as may desire to engage in special evangelistic work, and who, in the judgment of the Presbytery, are qualified to teach or preach the Gospel publicly, but who, as yet, do not feel called upon to separate themselves for the full work of the ministry. This is not recommended in order to open a new or shorter course to the ministry, but only in order to furnish a class of laborers much needed at the present time; and also in the belief that through the exercise of their gifts, many of these may be led to seek that necessary education which will qualify them for the full work of the Gospel ministry.

In view of these facts and statements, the Committee presents to this General Assembly, for its consideration and approval, the following declarations:

1. The General Assembly is compelled to recognize the present and prospective need of ministers, as set forth in the Report of the Special Committee, as a reality at once palpable and serious. Also that the very large number of small and dependent churches, many of them vacant and perishing for the lack of the stated ministration of the Word, is a feature of our denominational life which cannot be contemplated without painful solicitude. The Assembly feels itself constrained by every consideration, either of duty or of prudence, to do all within its power, under our Constitution, towards meeting a necessity so immediate and so vital to the welfare of the Church. In every such provision the limitations prescribed in our organic law, must, of course, be faithfully regarded.

2. As a partial provision for this necessity, the General Assembly hereby urges upon the several Presbyteries their direct obligation with respect to the care of these small, dependent and largely vacant churches, whose case has been presented in the Report. Under our Constitution, the Presbytery is officially the pastor of every vacant church within its bounds. The question whether any such church shall continue to exist is one which the Presbytery alone can solve; and if such continued existence is deemed desirable, it is directly incumbent upon the Presbytery to provide, in some way, for the spiritual necessities of every such organization. It may group these small churches together in a joint pastorate, or in a wider circuit; it may associate a weak church with some stronger one as a single charge; it may appoint an adjacent pastor to be for the time the minister and shepherd to the little flock; it may bring in the service of intelligent elders, competent to teach and counsel, and willing to be engaged in such oversight. The General Assembly judges that by Presbyterial diligence and faithfulness in these directions, much of the evil resulting from these numerous vacancies would be avoided, and many of these feeble churches might speedily be nourished into vigor and usefulness. It therefore lays the obligation to such faithfulness and diligence directly on the conscience of each Presbytery, and of every minister in each Presbytery, whether engaged in the pastoral care or in some other form of ministerial service, as one which true loyalty to the Church and to Christ will permit no one to neglect. In adopting this resolution, the General Assembly recognizes with special satisfaction the allusion to the ruling elders as possible agents and instruments in providing for the special needs of these feeble churches.

3. In view of the urgent need of ministers, as shown in the Report, the Presbyterian Church welcomes into its service all who are drawn into such service by right motives, and who possess the qualifications requisite to a useful ministry in its communion.

Yet the General Assembly feels constrained, at the same time, to instruct the Presbyteries to exercise great care in the reception of ministers from other denominations. It involves no hardship to subject them to the same scrutiny to which our own ministers are subject, as to their motives in seeking the ministry among us, as to their age and adaptation and general capacity for usefulness, and as to their possession of those intellectual qualifications and attainments which our Church has found to be essential to large and permanent success in her ministerial work. In order to secure uniformity of practice in the reception of such ministers, the Assembly hereby adopts the following rule for the guidance of the Presbyteries: When application is made by a minister of another Church for admission to Presbytery, Presbytery shall inquire concerning his character, his educational and professional training, the fact of his ordination, his ministerial standing in the body to which he belongs, and the motives which lead him to apply for admission to Presbytery. If this inquiry shall prove satisfactory, Presbytery may place his name on its roll. All applicants from other bodies shall be required, previous to their enrollment, to give their assent, in a public session of Presbytery, to the first seven questions prescribed in the Form of Government for ordination; but should the applicant not possess the same educational qualifications for ordination as those prescribed in our Standards, he shall not be enrolled as a member of Presbytery until at least six months after his application shall have been presented to Presbytery. He may be permitted to labor, in the interval, within the bounds of Presbytery.

4. In respect to the "extraordinary cases" provided for in our Form of Government, Chap. xiv, Sec. 6, the discretionary power vested in the Presbyteries, should be exercised with great caution and with supreme regard to the welfare of the entire Church. Wherever the full collegiate course is found to be impracticable, the student should be required to pursue, not a short or partial, but a full course of three years in some theological institution, and this course should be introduced, wherever possible, by at least one year of special preparatory training. The candidate for such exceptional course should be not less than twenty-five years of age, of special promise as to talents and capacity for usefulness, and of approved piety, having a fair degree of education, and so circumstanced providentially, that he can prosecute to the end whatever studies the Presbytery may prescribe. As cases of this kind are presenting themselves in considerable numbers, our theological seminaries are advised to provide suitable courses of study in which the full period of three years may be profitably employed, and are authorized to receive such persons under their instruction when they are duly approved by the Presbyteries. The Presbyteries are also hereby required to make a full record of their action in each instance of this class, including a statement of the several exceptions allowed; and this record should be furnished to the faculty of the institution where such student is received.

5. The General Assembly earnestly commends the Board of Education to the confidence of the entire Church as an agency which God has greatly blessed in the past, and which has in it large promise of good for the future. The following rules are hereby adopted for the guidance of the Board:

So far as the means at its command will permit, the Board is authorized to grant aid to all students in their academic course, who are under the care of a Presbytery, and are recommended by it as suitable persons to receive such aid.

In all exceptional or extraordinary cases, duly certified by the Presbyteries as conforming to the general standard herein prescribed, the Board is authorized to grant aid, so far as practicable, as in the case of students in the regular course.

The Board is hereby instructed to confer with the faculties of our theological seminaries in order to secure substantial equality in the amount of aid provided from whatsoever public source, for students in these institutions. The maximum of aid to such students from all public sources should not, except in the case of honorary scholarships, exceed the sum of $200 for each full year of study.

6. The faith and practice of our Presbyterian forefathers were that institutions of secondary and higher learning were intended to prepare a ministry of large attainments and eminent spirituality. The educational impulse which this intention has communicated throughout the history of civilization should be noted. Warned by the decreasing percentage of the ministerial product of many largely endowed secular colleges, and encouraged by the satisfactory result in our own institutions (the ministerial graduates of which reach in some cases to 40 per cent.), the Assembly with emphasis urges upon churches the immediate larger equipment and constant patronage of our own denominational colleges, as a plain and sure way of increasing the ministry.

7. The General Assembly, finally, believing that the main source of supply for our ministry must ever be found in the large class of young men connected with our Church who are enjoying the privilege of liberal education in our various institutions of learning, urges upon the Board of Education the importance of devising such measures as in its judgment shall help to bring this great interest of the Church more directly before the minds of this class of students. We would particularly suggest the sending of suitable representatives, especially pastors of prominence, to every college in connection with the denomination, in order to lay the claim of the ministry, as a sacred calling, more distinctly before both teachers and pupils, and to do whatever else may be found practicable in the way of awakening new enthusiasm in respect to this vital interest.

In behalf of the Committee,

S. J. NICCOLLS, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk as the Special Committee on a Blank for the Narrative of the State of Religion in the Presbyteries presented a Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on a Blank for the Narrative for the State of Religion in the Presbyteries respectfully reports that in its judgment it is advisable to conform the Blank for the Narrative of the Presbyteries in large part to the Blank already used by the Church Sessions in preparing annual Narratives of the State of Religion in the Congregations. Such conformity will result in the presentation of facts in a way in which they can be made readily available, both for information and edification. The Committee therefore submits the following:

BLANK FOR THE NARRATIVE.

The Presbytery of reports to the General Assembly on the State of Religion within its bounds, for the year , as follows:

[NOTE.—These inquiries are intended for the guidance of Committees in preparing the Annual Narrative of the State of Religion. The Narrative should not be restricted to bare and formal answers. It should be, however, very concise, consisting of statements of fact rather than reflections.]

I. PUBLIC WORSHIP.

1. Have your churches been supplied with preaching throughout the year?
2. Has the attendance been encouraging?
3. Are the children and youth of the churches generally present at the Lord's day public services?

II. SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

4. Is the condition of the Sabbath-schools encouraging?
5. Has the Shorter Catechism been regularly taught?
6. Are the Westminster Lesson Helps used?
7. How many mission schools are there in the Presbytery? What encouragement is there in this special work?

III. MEETINGS FOR PRAYER.

8. Are meetings for social worship generally observed within your bounds.
9. Are monthly services devoted to missions and other church work held in all the churches?
10. Is the interest in these meetings well sustained?

IV. FAMILY RELIGION.

11. Are Christian parents faithful in presenting their children for baptism, and are they well instructed in respect to this duty?

12. Are the obligations of family worship and the Christian training of children urged in public and private instruction?

13. Is the number of baptized persons admitted to the Lord's Table such as to indicate that God's Covenant is generally honored by the churches?

V. BENEVOLENCE.

14. Do all your churches contribute, according to a definite plan, to all the Boards of the Church?

15. Is there an advance in giving?

16. Do Sabbath-schools under your oversight contribute statedly to benevolent objects?

17. Is proper provision made for the poor of the Church?

VI. ORGANIZATIONS FOR CHURCH WORK.

18. What organizations are there for Women's Work within your bounds, and what objects do they include?

19. Are Young People's Societies established and sustained by the churches, and if so, to what extent?

20. Is there encouragement in the interest shown in these two classes of organizations, and in the results reached.

VII. REVIVALS.

21. Have there been any marked religious awakenings among the unconverted? State the number of conversions so far as ascertainable?

22. What general signs of spiritual prosperity may be noted?

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS.

23. Are the financial obligations of all the churches met with fidelity?

24. Are there any unusual obstructions to the progress of religion within your bounds?

25. What work is done under your direction for the judicious advancement, by Christian methods, of legitimate measures of moral reform?

The Stated Clerk reported to the General Assembly that:

1. The number of Synods under the care of the General Assembly is 30, and of Presbyteries 216. The Presbyteries of Idaho and Oregon have been dissolved. The new Presbyteries organized during the year were those of Portland, Sioux City, Spokane, Walla Walla and Willamette.

2. The Synod of Washington was duly organized at Tacoma, Washington, October 9, 1890, in accordance with the terms of the act of the General Assembly of 1890 ("Minutes," p. 87). The Presbyteries constituting the Synod are those of Alaska, Olympia, Puget Sound, Spokane and Walla Walla.

3. The list of absentees without leave at the final roll call of the General Assembly of 1890 should be corrected by stating in the "Minutes" of this Assembly, that the Rev. S. F. Grier, of the Presbytery of Washington, and Mr. Abner Hissem, of the Presbytery of Wooster, were present at said roll call.

4. The attention of the Assembly is drawn to the fact that many of our foreign missionaries, connected with the Board of Foreign Missions of our Church, are greatly inconvenienced by the absence of their names from the List of Ministers and Licentiates, annually published in the "Minutes" of the General Assembly. Their names are omitted from this list, because, though laboring under the Board of Foreign Missions, and supported by our Church, their Presbyterial connection is with the Presbyteries in foreign lands connected with native churches. The United Church of Japan, for instance, is an independent organization, and the ecclesiastical connection of some of our missionaries is with the Presbyteries of the Japanese Church, and not with the Presbyteries under the control of the General Assembly. The ecclesiastical status of our missionaries in Japan is also that of those in Brazil. As a consequence, the names of the majority of Japanese and Brazilian missionaries are not found in the "Minutes."

The Report was accepted and approved, and on motion the following resolutions were adopted by the Assembly:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk publish annually a list of the names and addresses of all foreign clerical missionaries in the service of the Board of Foreign Missions, whose names do not appear in the official list of ministers.

Resolved, That the "Minutes" and Reports be furnished gratuitously to all foreign clerical missionaries in the employ of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The following action was on motion taken:

In view of the varying practice in the preparation of the Statistical Reports of the Presbytery, and of the desire that there should be uniformity in the details of these reports, the Assembly adopts the printed directions to Stated Clerks found in the "Minutes," as follows:

Resolved, That the directions to Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, found on pp. 290, 291, 292 and 293 of the "Minutes" for 1890, are hereby adopted by the General Assembly, and Presbyteries and Church Sessions are hereby directed to prepare their Statistical Reports, so far as required for the use of the General Assembly, in conformity therewith.

The Committee on Concerts of Prayer presented its Report, as follows:

Your Committee on Concerts of Prayer have had placed in their hands for consideration the following four Overtures:

1. Overture No. 55, from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, asking that the Day of Prayer for Colleges be the last Thursday in January.

The Committee recommend that the request be granted. Adopted.

2. Overture No. 56, from the Presbytery of Lackawanna, with reference to a change in the time for the observance of the Week of Prayer. The following was adopted by the Assembly as a reply, viz.:

Whereas, The first week in January is a most inconvenient and inopportune time for the Annual Week of Prayer, by reason of the multitude of business interests, which at that season of the year require the attention of the people, therefore,

Resolved, That this General Assembly favors a change of the Week of Prayer to a more opportune season, and directs the Stated Clerk to bring this action to the attention of the Evangelical Alliance, and of sister denominations.

3. Overture No. 58, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, and No. 63, from the Presbytery of Sacramento, asking the General Assembly to issue a pastoral letter urging ministers and churches to greater zeal in evangelistic work.

The Committee recommend the following reply:

Inasmuch as evangelistic and other efforts to promote the interests of the Church are obvious, acknowledged, and permanent duties of the ministry, and of all Christians; and inasmuch as the proposed action is largely anticipated by the various appeals that are being issued by this Assembly to arouse the Church to more earnest efforts for the advancement of all departments of her work; no special recommendation in this direction is required. Adopted.

4. Your Committee beg leave to propose for adoption the following resolution with regard to the Monthly Concert of Prayer for Missions, viz.:

Resolved, That this Assembly enjoins upon all our churches the continued and devout observance of the time-honored Monthly Concert of Prayer for Missions; and earnestly urges upon the members of our Church to seek, by the careful study both of God's Word and the present condition of the heathen world, to know more of God's will and our duty in this matter; and to pray earnestly that God would send forth laborers into His harvest; and that the Holy Spirit may be poured out on all nations; and that we, and all God's people may be disposed and enabled freely to consecrate to the service of the Master, ourselves, our sons and daughters, and our worldly possessions. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN L. NEVIUS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was accepted, and its recommendations adopted.

The Committee on Mileage respectfully submit the following Report:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments, Mileage Fund, . . .	$29,810 30
" " Entertainment Fund, .	10,778 38
" " Contingent Fund, . .	11,137 29
Total, ...	$51,725 97

DISBURSEMENTS.

Bills of Commissioners for Mileage, ...	$20,372 46
Paid Entertainment Fund to Stated Clerk, . . .	10,778 38
Paid Contingent Fund to Stated Clerk, . .	11,137 29
Paid for services of a Clerk, ...	35 00
Balance for Mileage Fund in hand, . . .	9,402 84
Total, ...	$51,725 97

Three Presbyteries have been added during the past year, making the present total 216. Of these, eight are without representation in the Assembly, the number represented being 208. 533 Commissioners are enrolled, being 6 less than last year. There are also three advisory members.

Thirty-four Presbyteries, being Foreign Mission, Freedmen, and Indian Presbyteries, are exempt from payment. Of these, eight Presbyteries have paid their apportionment in part, viz., Atlantic, Cape Fear, Catawba, Corisco, Fairfield, Knox, Southern Virginia and Yadkin; while five, namely, Black Hills, Cherokee Nation, Chickasaw, Dakota and Muskogee, have paid the apportionment in full. In the judgment of your Committee, the example of these latter Presbyteries is to be especially commended to all Presbyteries which, although not exempt from the apportionment, pay in part only, or not at all.

The Presbytery of Bellefontaine contributed to the Contingent Fund only. The Presbyteries of Clarion, St. Clairsville and Steubenville contributed to the Mileage and Contingent Funds only; and the Presbyteries of Rock River, Shenango and Winona have paid their apportionments to the Entertainment and Contingent Funds, and also a portion of the Mileage Fund. It is proper to state that the Presbyteries of Bellefontaine, Rock River and Shenango have drawn no money from the Mileage Fund.

The total receipts were $1715.65 in excess of those of last year.

The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the attention of all Presbyteries is hereby again called to the fact, that it is desirable that each Presbytery not specially exempt should contribute its full apportionment to the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, 2. That the apportionment for next year be fixed at 7 cents per communicant, of which amount 4 cents shall be apportioned to the Mileage, 1½ cents to the Entertainment, and 1½ cents to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, 3. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to make his arrangements for the transportation of the Assembly of 1892, if said Assembly meet in Portland, Oreg., upon a basis of an expenditure of $30,000, and no more, of the Surplus Fund in his hands. This in addition to the Mileage Fund for 1892.

Resolved, 4. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to make any further payments to Commissioners, that shall appear to him to be justly due, by reason of increased railroad charges upon their return home.

Resolved, 5. That the thanks of the General Assembly be hereby tendered to all such transportation companies as have given to Commissioners the advantage of reduced rates of fare; and also to the Stated Clerk for his valuable and efficient service in conducting negotiations to that end.

Resolved, 6. That the Chairman of the Mileage Committee be directed to pay to William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, the balance of $9402.84 now in his hands.

Resolved, 7. That the thanks of the General Assembly are hereby extended to the officers of the State Savings Bank of Detroit, for unusual banking facilities extended by them to the Mileage Committee and to the Commissioners of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANKLIN L. SHEPPARD, Chairman.

The following resolution was adopted unanimously, and by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the General Assembly tenders its hearty thanks to Mr. F. L. Sheppard, Chairman, and the other members of the Mileage Committee, for their arduous, faithful and generous service in connection with the Mileage business of the General Assembly.

It was also

Resolved, That Presbyteries, not exempt by rule, which have failed to contribute to the Mileage Fund during the past three years, be not allowed to participate in the Mileage surplus of the General Assembly at the Portland meeting.

The Special Committee to which was referred certain Overtures from the Presbyteries of Cayuga, Albany and Niagara, on the subject of holding a General Missionary Convocation, reported that they deemed it inexpedient to undertake the project. They propose the following for the adoption of the Assembly:

Resolved, That the Committees of Arrangements for the meetings of the Synods of 1891 are urged to secure the holding of Synodical Missionary Conventions, and we especially urge that a full day be given to the work of the Boards.

Respectfully submitted,
GEO. P. HAYS, Chairman.

The Report was accepted, and referred to the Secretaries of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions.

The Stated Clerk, by unanimous consent, cast the ballot of the Assembly for John J. McCook, as a Trustee of the General Assembly.

The following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly returns sincere thanks to the Presbytery of San Francisco, and to their representatives on the floor of the Assembly, for their very cordial and generous invitation to the General Assembly to hold its meeting in the Calvary Church, San Francisco, next year.

The Moderator announced the following Committee to confer with the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary: Ministers—Francis L. Patton, D.D., LL.D., John H. Worcester, Jr., D.D., William E. Moore, D.D., William H. Roberts, D.D., Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., John S. MacIntosh, D.D., George Alexander, D.D.; with Ruling Elders—George Junkin, John J. McCook, Russell Murdoch, M.D., George H. Ely, Samuel J. Broadwell, Edward P. Durant, George W. Ketcham.

The Moderator also appointed the following persons to supply vacancies in the Special Committee on the Revision of Proof Texts: Rev. B. B. Warfield, D.D., Rev. Timothy G. Darling, D.D., Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, June 2, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of this morning's session were read and approved.

The Committee on Religious Instruction in the Army presented its Report:

The last Assembly gave its approval to the organization of the United Christian Commission, and instructed your Committee "to write and coöperate with it." The Commission was organized in 1890. It was composed of representatives from some of our largest national Churches, the Methodist Episcopal, the Baptist, Lutheran, Episcopal, Congregational, United Presbyterian and Presbyterian. Its objects, as defined in its Constitution, are the promotion of the intellectual, moral and religious welfare of the Army and Navy by suggesting needful national legislation and administration, receiving well-qualified chaplains, encouraging Sabbath observance, promoting temperance, multiplying libraries, reading rooms and gymnasiums, and endeavoring to rouse the sentiment of the nation to a sense of its obligation to this large class of our fellow-citizens.

The first annual meeting of the Commission was held in the city of Washington, on the 10th and 12th days of December, 1890, when the following officers were elected: Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., of Baltimore, President; Rev. Dr. S. M. Newman, Vice-President; C. H. Richardson, Secretary, and W. E. Parsons, Treasurer, all of Washington, with Standing Committees, legislative and administrative.

On the 14th, a large and enthusiastic popular meeting was held, on the call of the Commission, in the City of Washington. It was presided over, and its objects most heartily commended by the Secretary of War, the Hon. Redfield Proctor, and addresses were made by Gen. Cutcheon, Chairman of the Military Committee, the Rev. Dr. Richardson, and Chaplain Nave.

Since the appointment of your Committee, the material, educational, moral and religious condition of the Army and Navy has been improved, and efforts are making to secure other and still more important improvements, while a general interest in the subject has been awakened in the other Churches, and their hearty coöperation secured. The Committee recommend,

1. That the Committee on Religious Instruction in the Army be discharged.

2. That the Assembly, at this meeting, and annually hereafter, appoint three persons as members of the Christian Commission who shall report to the Assembly.

JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

The Report was accepted, and its recommendations adopted.

The following persons were appointed to act in behalf of the Assembly, as members of the Christian Commission: Ministers—Joseph T. Smith, D.D., William A. Bartlett, D.D.; Elder—George H. Beatson.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church presented its Report, as follows:

Overture No. 1, a Petition of churches in Douglas county, Wisconsin, asking to be transferred from the Presbytery of Duluth, Synod of Minnesota, and reinstated in the Presbytery of Chippewa, Synod of Wisconsin. The Committee recommends that the request be granted. Adopted.

Overture No. 6, a Petition in the matter of the statistical columns of the "Minutes" from Presbytery of Chicago. The Committee recommends that Request 1, in regard to a separate column for local mission work, be answered in the negative; Request 2, in regard to a separate column for legacies, be answered in the negative; Request 3, that all chapels with separate congregations be reported separately underneath the report of parent church, be answered in the affirmative. Adopted.

Overture No. 7, with reference to change of boundary line between Synods of Utah and Colorado; also Overtures 8 and 9, with reference to the same subject. The Committee recommends that, all the petitioners agreeing, these Overtures be answered in the affirmative. Adopted.

Overtures No. 10 and 11, from Presbyteries of Lake Superior and the Synod of Michigan, with reference to the transfer of the Presbytery of Lake Superior to the Synod of Michigan. The Committee recommends that these Overtures be answered in the affirmative, and the Presbytery of Lake Superior be and hereby is transferred to the Synod of Michigan. Adopted.

Overture No. 35, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, with reference to striking out the word "MALE" in the Form of Government as a qualification for the office of deacon. The Committee recommends that in view of the recent action of the Church with reference to deaconesses, this Overture be answered in the negative. Adopted.

Overture No. 41, from the Bloomington Presbytery, with reference to the functions and duties of Trustees in their relation to Sessions. The Committee recommends that this Overture be answered by reiterating the deliverance of the Assembly of 1874, that "the Constitution of our Church charges the Sessions with the supervision of the spiritual interests of the congregation and all services and matters pertaining thereto, and that any action by the Board of Trustees tending to annul or contravene in any way such supervision and control is illegal and void." Adopted.

Overture No. 50, from the Synod of the Columbia, with reference to change of name to Synod of Oregon. Committee recommends the Overture be answered in the affirmative, and that the Synod of Columbia be hereafter known as the Synod of Oregon. The Assembly adopted the Report and passed the following act: Be it enacted, That the Synod of the Columbia shall hereafter be known as the Synod of Oregon, and shall include all Presbyteries within the State of Oregon, and the Synod of Oregon is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the said Synod of the Columbia.

Overture No. 68, from the Presbytery of Utah, with reference to the relation of the Presbyteries and the Board of Home Missions. The Committee recommends that no action be taken, inasmuch as the Overture presents the case only in thesi. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE D. BAKER, Chairman.

The Committees on the Records of the following Synods reported, recommending their approval, and the Records were approved accordingly: Baltimore, Catawba, Colorado, The Columbia, Illinois, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, The Pacific, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wisconsin.

The Records of the Synod of Atlantic were approved with the following exceptions:

1. That the minutes lack in fullness. Important reports are referred to as on file, which should appear on the minutes (see pages 413 and 414) (Digest, 194, 513). On page 417, a paper is recorded without reference to its source, or whether it was acted on by the Synod. The minutes are not complete enough to give the knowledge, properly to judge of the proceedings in many cases.

No Report of the Committee on Leave of Absence is made enabling one to determine the state of the roll after it was made up at the opening of the session.

The Synod omitted to approve the minutes of the last day of its meeting before sending their Records to the Assembly.

2. The irregularity of its proceedings in entering upon the transaction of business without a quorum.

And also, although a quorum was subsequently present, the issuing of a Judicial Case by a vote of five to one.

Your Committee would recommend that with respect to the irregularity of its proceedings, this Assembly direct the Synod of Atlantic to review and correct so much of its proceedings as were of a judicial character in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Discipline (see Chap. lxxiv), care being had in such review and correction to the direction of this Assembly in the matter of the appeal of the Rev. James A. Rainey against the Synod of Atlantic, no part of this recommendation being understood as characterizing the proceedings other than irregular.

In behalf of the Committee,
J. R. FISHER, Chairman.

The following resolutions were adopted, viz.:

Resolved, That Ministers Arthur J. Brown, D.D., and W. H. Roberts, D.D., with the elders of the First Presbyterian Church, Portland, Oreg., be the Committee of Arrangements for the next meeting of the General Assembly, if said meeting be held in Portland, Oreg., and that the Committee have power to add to their number; provided, however, that if the Assembly meet in Kansas City, Mo., said Committee of Arrangements shall consist of Ministers George P. Hays, D.D., and W. H. Roberts, D.D., with the elders of the Second Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, with power to add to their number.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the "Minutes" of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the "Minutes" to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the "Minutes" and Reports to the ruling elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; provided the ruling elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses, and that the Presbytery which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent funds.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill, by appointment, any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees, with the exception of the Committee on Revision.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, and to settle all accounts connected with the entertainment of the Assembly.

The Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Overture No. 67 was taken up and adopted as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, to which was recommitted its Report on Overture No. 67, from the Presbytery of Stockton, asking, "in view of the recent action of 'one of our Boards' in retiring one of its Secretaries on a salary," that the Assembly disapprove of the retiring of any Secretary of any Board on a salary.

Your Committee have very carefully reconsidered their former answer, in view of the fact mentioned in the Overture, that it is made in view of a concrete case which is familiar to the Assembly and presents peculiar circumstances. They think it inexpedient to make a general rule which would prevent the exercise by each Board of its wise discretion in each case as it may arise. Your Committee therefore beg leave to renew their answer, viz.: That as the respective Boards are necessarily fully acquainted with all the circumstances of each case, and must be conceded to be faithful to the trust committed to them, that no action be taken by the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
W. E. Moore, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers was called for, and not being presented, it was Resolved, That all papers in the hands of the Stated Clerk on the Plan of Vacancy and Supply be referred to the Committee on that subject, and that said Committee, consisting of ministers Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., and S. J. McPherson, D.D., be continued to report to the next General Assembly.

A Paper on the subject of Annuities was referred to the Board of Relief.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions submitted the following additional Report, as follows:

Your Committee respectfully reports upon the matters following:

An Overture from the Presbytery of Wooster has been referred to this Committee, asking that all undesignated contributions to Sustentation sent to the Board of Home Missions, from churches in Synods which have adopted a sustentation scheme, be returned by the Treasurer of the Home Mission Board to the Synodical Committee. We recommnd that no action be taken. Adopted.

At the suggestion of a Committee of the Board appointed to examine into the financial situation of the Board, we recommend that the Assembly authorize the Board of Home Missions, regardless of the amount of legacies received in any one year, to expend only an amount equal to the average amount of legacies received during the preceding ten years, and to reserve and invest any surplus in any one year, to meet further deficiency such as has occurred during the past year, this policy to be continued until there shall be such an increase in revenue, as, in the opinion of the Board, will warrant a departure from it. Adopted.

We recommend that the contributions of the Sunday-schools, as provided for in Resolution 2 of our previous Report, be devoted to the mission educational work of the Board, and that this recommendation be appended to the resolution above named. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

A. V. V. RAYMOND, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented an additional Report, which was adopted, and is as follow:

The Committee on Correspondence, beg leave to report that a letter from the General Synod of the Holland Christian Reformed Church has been placed in its possession, and that an answer thereto has been prepared. The Committee would further report that the United Brethren in Christ appointed as delegate to this General Assembly, the Rev. J. S. Mills, President of Western College. In lieu of his personal presence, President Mills has sent a letter, to which a reply has been prepared. The Committee recommends that the letters be approved by the Assembly, forwarded by the Stated Clerk to the parties named, and that the correspondence be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes."

The Committee also report that Rev. John Hemphill, D.D., delegate to the Jubilee Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland; the Rev. W. C. Cattell, D.D., delegate to the Reformed Church of Bohemia; the Rev. J. P. E. Kumler, D.D., delegate to the Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and the Rev. A. A. E. Taylor, D.D., delegate to the Conference of the Southern M. E. Church, have performed the duties assigned to them.

Respectfully submitted,

A. H. CARRIER, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education presented an additional Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Education respectfully report on an Overture from the Presbytery of Sante Fé, asking that the Assembly direct the Board of Education to furnish aid for the education of Spanish students for the ministry. The Committee recommends the reference of the Overture to the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN EATON, Chairman.

In behalf of the Committee,
JOHN GORDON, Chairman.

The Special Committees on Blanks for Narratives and on Increasing the Number of Ministers were discharged.

The following paper was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In order to increase the contributions of the churches to the Assembly's Boards, it is important to know the causes which have prevented or limited such contributions in the past.

Resolved, That the several Presbyterial Committees on the work of the Boards, are hereby earnestly recommended to inform themselves by visitation or direct correspondence, of the reasons which in each case have prevented or manifestly limited the contributions of the churches of their Presbyteries, to the causes which those Committees severally have in charge, and also to suggest to the proper Board any means by which the Board may assist the Committee, in enlisting the interest and gifts of each such church.

Resolved, That the several Presbyteries are urgently requested to further the aim of this action, by carefully appointing a Committee on the work of each Board, and by instructing their Stated Clerks to keep the Board fully informed concerning the names and addresses of the Chairmen of such Committees.

The Standing Committees were called upon, and reported that no further business was in their hands, and were severally discharged, viz.: Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Polity of the Church, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Aid for Colleges, Correspondence, Benevolence, Temperance, Narrative, Leave of Absence, Mileage, and Finance.

FINAL ROLL CALL.

The following Resolution of thanks was adopted unanimously by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly are due, and are hereby cordially tendered to the Moderator, the Rev. William Henry Green, D.D., LL.D., for the fairness, the urbanity and the efficiency with which he has presided over our deliberations.

Additional Resolutions of thanks were adopted as follows:

1. To the Stated, Permanent and Temporary Clerks, for their watchful and faithful care of the important interests committed to their charge.

2. Also, to the pastor of the Fort Street Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., and the other members of the Committee of Arrangements, for the thoughtful and complete provision made for our comfort and convenience; to the Trustees and members of the Fort Street Church, for the use of their church edifice; to the choir and organist of the same Church, for their valuable services; to Grace Protestant Episcopal Church, for affording the use of their lecture room for our elders' prayer meetings, and to all the Presbyterian and other congregations of Detroit, for the favors which they have so freely bestowed.

3. Also, to the papers of the entire country for the unusually extended accounts of our transactions which they have given to the public, particularly to the Detroit Tribune, Journal, News and Sun, for their able record of our meetings, and especially to the Detroit Free Press for its stenographic reports of our proceedings, which for completeness and accuracy have never been surpassed.

4. Also, to the Western Union Telegraph Co., and the Detroit Telephone Co., for the valuable favor conferred in placing their lines at our disposal in the basement of the church.

5. Also, to Postmaster Hance, for the very acceptable post-office service in the church, which is all the more highly prized because furnished, not of necessity, but from a kind and thoughtful regard for our convenience.

6. Also, to Gen. R. A. Alger, for his generous provision of the special train to Ann Arbor, and to the Presbyterian ladies of Ann Arbor for the bountiful lunch served so cordially on that delightful occasion.

7. Also, to the Detroit and Cleveland Transportation Co., for special facilities on the very enjoyable river excursion, and to the Central Traffic Association, the Western Passenger Association, the Trunk Line Association and the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad for reduced rates to Commissioners.

8. We also recognize with special appreciation the elaborate provision for our social intercourse and enjoyment, in connection with the proposed banquet which was made by the citizens of Detroit, and which, although in the providence of God we were prevented from sharing, we remember as a pleasing proof of the large-hearted liberality of our entertainers, and of their desire to promote our happiness in every possible way.

The Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., the pastor of the Fort Street Presbyterian Church, responded cordially to this expression of the thanks and good-will of the Assembly, and the Moderator made an appropriate reply.

The minutes of this afternoon's session were read and approved.

After solemn praise, thanksgiving and prayer, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator declared the Assembly dissolved, and required another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet on the third Thursday of May, A.D. 1892, as may be determined by the Committee empowered to decide, either in the First Presbyterian Church, Portland, Oreg., or in the Second Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, Mo.

WILLIAM E. MOORE, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1891.

With abounding gratitude to the Great Head of the Church, your Committee would ask the Assembly to unite with us in devout recognition of the King's favor to His Kingdom for the year ending April 30, 1891.

Twenty-nine Synods and about two hundred Presbyteries have reported, and these Reports have been canvassed by your Committee. These Reports have a varied circumstantial detail, but withal, reach common ground in testifying to a steady progress in almost all our Boards.

By way of statistical information, it may be noted that there are reported 405 licentiates, 1171 candidates for the Gospel ministry, a gain over last year of 48 licentiates and of 115 candidates.

There have been added by our churches:

On examination,	56,199
By letter,	36,689

This exhibit, let it be remembered, represents only our organized scheme for self-support and beneficence. Were individual beneficence to the nameless objects reckoned, which, without ceasing, plead at our doors for help, and which owe their very life-blood to Presbyterian liberality, these more than thirteen millions of dollars would be increased manifold. We cannot but emphasize the urgency of supplying our chosen agencies with ample means. The debts which have stared the Assemblies of 1890 and 1891 in the face, are already demonstrated to be the result, not of lack of funds in the hands of our people, nor due to a want of liberality on the part of Presbyterians, but to the fact that miscellaneous liberality has a more powerful hold upon our purse-strings than any single Board of the Church. It becomes us to believe in our own agencies, first of all, and to prepare them in advance to meet even unexpected emergencies without the least embarrassment.

We note with unfeigned gratitude to God that there have been revivals of marked power, attended by liberal fruitage, in various parts of our land, and in foreign lands. These revivals have not extended over very large areas. It is noteworthy, however, that groups of churches have witnessed the power of the Holy Ghost, and have severally received many souls on confession of their faith. God still attests the faithful preaching of His Word; sealing its message by many signs and wonders and gifts of the Holy Ghost.

We gather from the Reports in our hands, that in some places sadly, in many places noticeably, the Gospel is neutralized in its effect by the spirit of worldliness, which exalts material things unduly, and gives countenance to doubtful methods of improvement and recreation.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL.

No Statistical Report has been placed in the hands of your Committee. We, therefore, cannot give the number of schools under our care, nor speak with much exactness of our advance during the year. But the schools reported speak encouragingly. Out of them, many children and youth have been received to sealing ordinances. In a majority of these schools the Westminster Helps are used. The Catechism is taught in some schools in all the classes; in others, in part of the classes; in others it is not yet introduced; in some schools a Quarterly Temperance lesson, has become a stated order; in others, temperance bands have been organized; in some, the pledge has been introduced. Other schools exhibit a fervent industry in the matter of planting mission schools. Some are emphasizing Chinese work, with most hopeful promise and satisfactory success. And thus our Sabbath-schools are giving heed to doctrine. morals and missions.

FAMILY WORSHIP AND CHURCH ATTENDANCE.

It is gratifying to note so many evidences in these Reports that the family altar is a modern means of stimulating the Christian life of our people; and that, with few exceptions, the Reports pronounce the attendance upon public worship good, except that the evening service is a constant sufferer. It must not be forgotten that we can never carry more piety to church with us than we have at home. Hence, the untold worth of the family altar, with its ever-burning fires. It is a famished piety that feeds but once a week. God's promise was, that He would be as the dew unto Israel; coming in gentle distillation of grace upon His people, as the dew comes upon all vegetable life after the subduing heat of the day. It was the daily dew of His grace that caused Israel to don the lily-tint and to put down roots as Lebanon. So it is the daily ministration of grace that gives the finer touches to Christian character, deepening its foundations and sustaining its very life. We commend to our Sessions in the exercise of their oversight of the flock, that they use all care to stimulate and incite this venerable and most helpful custom of daily reading God's Word in connection with vocal prayer in the home.

In this connection, we would strongly commend to all the Sabbath-schools under our care the sound doctrinal interpretations and the able expositions of practical godliness contained in our Westminster Helps, and that the Catechism be faithfully taught to all children under our care.

It is with deep regret that we observe a growing tendency and widespread disposition to neglect attendance upon the evening service on the Sabbath day. We reaffirm the sanctity of the entire day, and call renewed attention to former deliverances of the Assembly as to the proper method of its observance. It devolves upon our people to remove the reproach of vacant pews on Sabbath evening by personal attendance as far as possible.

MEETINGS FOR PRAYER.

1. Weekly Prayer Meetings.—One Presbytery says that one-half of the churches under its care do not have the midweek prayer service. Another Presbytery says that a number of churches under its care have a midweek prayer service during only a part of the year. Some report good attendance; others fair attendance.

2. Week of Prayer.—Your Committee was hardly prepared to find that the observance of the Week of Prayer is falling into decay. This is probably true in the outlying districts, and may have been, doubtless, has been true to a greater or less degree from the beginning. No word need be said here in support of prayer, or of the advantage of concerted supplication to the Great Head of the Church.

3. Young People's Meeting.—The enlistment and enrollment of the young is one of the hopeful signs of the times. The trend of God's providence is in this direction, We state the fact, but cannot discuss its bearings. Let our Sessions wisely control this modern impulse to service by the youth of our Church; and the very best way to control it, is to actively identify one's self with it.

4. Women's Meetings.—The women in many of our churches have stated meetings for prayer for missions, adding to their munificent gifts the supplications of their hearts. In a word, it would seem that the volume of prayer in our Church was never greater than to-day—a volume of prayer being lifted up from young and old, men and women, for the King's favor.

Many other things the Committee would be glad to say, but will content itself with incorporating the following paper as ordered by the Assembly:

"Religious Conversation.—Has not a sad decline in this respect been manifest of late years? Many speak much of some things concerning Religion, but how few delight in speaking of the great things of God, and particularly experimental Religion. We would be very far from encouraging an ostentatious display of personal feelings. But proper conversation is as much opposed to ostentation as to coldness. It was an inspired man who said, 'Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul' (Ps. lxvi, 16). Many of the Psalms, such as the 32d, 41st and 51st, are full of declarations of religious experience. The seventh chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Romans is most precious to the saints, chiefly because it reveals the internal conflicts of that servant of God. Nor should pious conversation be confined to times of prosperity of the Church. The prophet Malachi lived in times of open wickedness and sad apostasy. But few remained steadfast. Yet, even then, 'they that feared the Lord spoke often one to another; and the Lord hearkened and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon His name. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.'

"Indeed, he who would condemn a truthful and modest recital of the dealings of God with one's soul, must not only condemn such works as Augustine's 'Confessions,' Bunyan's 'Grace Abounding,' Newton's 'Authentic Narrative,' and Scott's 'Force of Truth,'' but also the conduct of Paul, who often declared the particulars of his conversion and the conduct of very many of the other inspired writers also. We do, therefore, commend this matter to your serious attention. (Adopted by the Old School Assembly at Pittsburgh in 1849, and printed in 'Moore's Digest,' pp. 317, 318)."

RECOMMENDATION.

That throughout all our borders we take up most earnest prayer for largely increased conversions during the year.

ADAM W. RINGLAND, Chairman.

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

CINCINNATI, O., May 14, 1891.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, takes great pleasure in informing your Venerable Body that, during the year ending April 30, 1891, the work entrusted to its care by the Council of the Alliance, has been carried forward with diligence and success.

Your attention is respectfully drawn, this year as last, to the fact that the sum of $2500 per annum is the quota of the Churches on the American Continent towards the expenses of the maintenance of the Alliance. Upon this basis your proportion of the expense fund for the year ending April 30, 1891, is $735. You are requested to make some arrangement for the payment of this apportionment.

Last year the fact was communicated to your Venerable Body that the Fifth General Council of the Alliance would meet in 1892, in the city of Toronto, Canada. It is expected that the delegates to this Council will be appointed at your sessions during this calendar year.

Requesting your kind and prompt attention in these matters, we are respectfully and fraternally yours,

TALBOT W. CHAMBERS, Chairman.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., June 12, 1890.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

REV. FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The General Synod of the Holland Christian Reformed Church, convened at Grand Rapids, Mich., June 4, 1890, and following days, took cognizance of the present "revision movement" in your Church.

As fellow-laborers in the great cause of our Lord Jesus Christ, we felt ourselves under obligation to adopt the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we, as a body representative of Reformed principles, express our hearty sympathy with that part of the Presbyterian Church which so earnestly advocates the maintenance of the Westminster Confession, which we believe to be a bulwark against the anti-Calvinistic, un-Biblical tendencies which make themselves felt in the Presbyterian Church."

We hope and pray you may be abundantly endued with the Spirit of Christ, continuing in His strength your spiritual welfare against all error, and at last triumphing over all your and our spiritual enemies.

In the name of the Holland Christian Reformed Church,

L. J. HULST, President.
R. T. KNIPER, Vice-President.
A. KEISER, First Clerk.
JOHN RIEMERSMA, Second Clerk.

REPLY.

DETROIT, MICH., June 1, 1891.

To the General Synod of the Holland Christian Reformed Church:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—Your fraternal solicitude as conveyed in your letter to our General Assembly, concerning our maintenance of the Westminster Confession, is recognized and appreciated.

We call your attention to the fact that our Committee on Revision were instructed by the last Assembly that they should "not propose any alterations or amendments that would in any way impair the integrity of the Reformed or Calvinistic system of doctrine taught in the Confession of Faith." Their work is still in hand, subject to suggestions and amendments by our Presbyteries, but we believe that yourselves, and all other religious bodies interested in the maintenance of the Reformed Confessions, may be assured that our branch of the Presbyterian Church will continue "earnestly to contend for the faith once for all delivered unto the saints," while at the same time it will seek to comprehend more fully in its outlook the great work of the world's evangelization.

With this assurance we heartily reciprocate your kind interest, praying that we may together hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering, and may consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works. (Heb. x, 23, 24).

In behalf of the General Assembly,
W. HENRY GREEN, Moderator.

LETTER FROM THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST.

TOLEDO, IA., May 26, 1891.

To the General Assembly, Presbyterian Church, Detroit, Mich.:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—I have been delegated by the United Brethren in Christ to bear to you an expression of their good-will and fraternal regards.

With regrets that I am unable to be with you in person, I send these words of Christian greeting.

The past year has been one of growth in all departments of Church work. The schism growing out of our creed revision is rapidly disappearing, and will soon be a thing of the past. God is graciously leading us into new fields of usefulness, and causing His work to prosper in our hands. We rejoice with you in all your prosperity, and pray that "the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace" may prevail among you, and that our common Father may bless you with all grace and wisdom, making you fruitful in every good word and work.

With great respect, sincerely yours,
J. S. MILLS.

REPLY.

DETROIT, MICH., June 1, 1891.

To the United Brethren in Christ:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The spirit of brotherly love, suggested by the name that you bear and conveyed in the greetings of your delegate, finds the warmest response in the minds and hearts of our Assembly. "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." We rejoice with you, therefore, to hear through the communication of your delegate that "the schism growing out of your creed revision is rapidly disappearing," and that furthermore, "the past year has been one of growth in all departments of your Church work."

And this we pray, "That your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment, and that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with all the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God" (Phil. i, 9-11).

In behalf of the General Assembly,

W. HENRY GREEN, Moderator.

LETTERS OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN UNITY.

I. ON A FEDERAL UNION.

To the Synods and General Assemblies of the Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian System:

DEAR BRETHREN :—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at its meeting at Saratoga, N. Y., in May, 1890, expressed a desire for a Federation of the Christian Churches of the land, and instructed us as a Committee to make this desire known to other Churches.

We, therefore, beg to call your attention to the subject, and to indicate briefly the general idea which is in our mind.

A partial illustration of the benefit of such a Federation already exists in the Evangelical Alliance.

The annual meetings of the Alliance have been productive of great good in bringing closer together prominent and influential ministers and members of the different denominations; in showing the fundamental and essential agreement of the Evangelical bodies; in the moral influence on the community at large of such a Christian union; in the valuable contributions to the literature of the Church and to the discussion of great religious, moral and social questions which they have made; and, as it is hoped, in educationally preparing the way for a closer and still more practical and effective union.

The Alliance is composed of individuals simply. It does not officially represent organizations by commissioned delegates. It is voluntary, and can do nothing but seek to mould public opinion on the great questions that are discussed at its meetings. An organization with a closer organic connection with the Churches, and, therefore, vested with some measure of power, seems to be needed.

It seems to us that it would be wise and right for the Christian Churches of the land to form a Federal Union, in which there should be no renunciation by the different Churches of their peculiarities or independent organization, and no interference with their doctrines, government, worship or internal affairs, but by which specific powers should be delegated to a Federal Council for the concentration of the influence of all upon such phases of Christian effort as might meet the approval of all.

Some of the measures which would come within the scope of such a Federation are:

1. United work for the reclamation of the Christless masses in the large cities, towns and old rural settlements.

2. The conduct of the home missionary work of the different denominations in the new settlements of the country, in such a way as to remove denominational friction and prevent the multiplication of weak and antagonistic organizations where unnecessary; the prosecution of the foreign missionary work by the different denominations on the same principle of comity; different Churches cultivating particular fields so as to avoid unseemly strife before the heathen.

3. The National Council of such a Federation could be potential in its influence on the community at large. It could educate and strengthen the public conscience with Scriptural views on marriage and divorce, the Sabbath, temperance, education, and other moral and social questions.

It certainly seems to us worth while to attempt, so to bring together all the Evangelical Churches, that, in their necessary separate denominational work, they shall not harmfully clash with each other, and that they may, in a great degree, unite in the work which none can separately prosecute with vigor and success. And in this aspect of the matter should be particularly emphasized the influence which the Churches of the land should exert upon its citizens for the preservation of their religious inheritances and the maintenance of their fundamental principles.

This proposition is first addressed to the Synods and Assemblies of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian system, with a view to securing their coöperation in extending a similar proposition to the other Evangelical Churches of our country.

May we, dear brethren, ask you to take this into consideration, and if, in its general idea, it commend itself to your judgment, appoint a Committee to confer with us and with similar Committees that may be appointed by other Churches to consider and report upon it.

Fraternally yours,
JOSEPH T. SMITH, D.D., Chairman.

BALTIMORE, April 23, 1891.

II. LETTER TO THE COMMISSION ON CHURCH UNITY OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

BALTIMORE, MD., April 23, 1891.

DEAR BRETHREN:—We had the honor of addressing a communication to you under date of May 14, 1890, to which as yet we have received no reply.

In accordance with your suggestion, we recommended to our General Assembly "to conduct further negotiations with reference to a union on the basis of the four propositions of our (your) House of Bishops." The recommendation was cordially adopted by the Assembly, and a copy of its action, together with our entire Report, was immediately furnished to you.

We have as yet received no intimation as to your wishes or purposes with reference to the continuance of our negotiations so happily commenced and conducted thus far on your part in such a kind and fraternal spirit. We have no doubt there are valid reasons for the delay, and we do not here speak of it in the way of complaint, but only to explain the reasons which have led us to anticipate your reply by the present communication, inasmuch as we are instructed to report to our next Assembly.

As to the first three of the four principles proposed as a basis of union, we are, as you say, "happily agreed." As to the fourth, you assure us that the only authoritative deliverance made by your Church in respect to the threefold Orders of the Ministry, is regarded by you "as a statement of what is historic—a declaration of ecclesiastical polity, as this Church hath inherited the same, and not at all as a dogmatic Article of Faith." We were greatly gratified at receiving this assurance, and it seemed to us to leave the way fairly open for the continuance of our negotiations with reference to the only principle on which we are not yet in full accord.

We will hold ourselves in readiness to receive and carefully consider any communication with which you may honor us, hoping and praying, that on the basis proposed and with the understanding now reached, we may approach more nearly if we do not at once attain the great end so cordially desired.

With Christian salutations to the members of your Commission, and earnest prayers for their continued and enlarged prosperity, we are,

Yours, in the bonds of Christian fellowship,
JOSEPH T. SMITH, Chairman.

D. C. MARQUIS, Secretary.

LETTER ON A CONSENSUS CREED

FROM THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON A CONSENSUS CREED TO THE SUPREME JUDICATORIES OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

To the . . . . . .

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, during its sessions, May 21, A.D. 1890, took action on a Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures with reference to the subject of a Consensus Creed, the record being in the words following, viz.: "The Report was adopted and is as follows: The Committee recommend that all Overtures on a new and Consensus Creed shall be referred to a Committee of nine, who shall invite the coöperation of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian system, to prepare a short creed, containing the essential articles of the Westminster Confession, to be used as the common creed of these Churches, not as a substitute for the creed of any particular denomination, but to supplement it for the common work of the Church, especially in mission fields, to report to the next General Assembly; and that the Moderator of this Assembly be the Chairman of the Committee."

The Committee met at the call of its Chairman, the Rev. Dr. Moore, in the city of New York, December, 1890, and directed the undersigned, as the Secretary of the Committee, to communicate the above action of the General Assembly to the several Churches connected with the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian system." In compliance with the direction thus given, this communication is addressed to the General Assembly of , accompanied by the respectful request that the Assembly at its next meeting, if the way be clear, appoint a Committee to enter into correspondence with the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, with a view to the consideration and preparation "of a short creed containing the essential articles of the Westminster Confession, to be used as the common creed of these Churches, not as a substitute for the creed of any particular denomination, but to supplement it for the common work of the Church."

Into the question of the advisability of a Consensus Creed, the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America do not feel called upon to enter, but prefer to leave its consideration to the several Churches interested, or to the representative Committees which they may respectively appoint. It is understood, however, by the Committee that the creed, which may be formulated by the labors of the joint Consensus Committee, will have no binding force in any of the Presbyterian or Reformed Churches, except as first submitted to and approved by the judicatory or judicatories in whom such power of approval is vested by the laws of these Churches respectively.

Tendering to your Venerable Body the fraternal regards of your brethren of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, I am,

Very respectfully yours,

WM. H. ROBERTS,

Secretary of the Consensus Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A MINUTE ON THE DEATH OF REV. HENRY J. VAN DYKE, D.D.

Your Committee, to whom you have assigned the difficult and painful duty of formulating an expression of the esteem and sorrow of the Assembly and of the Church which we represent, suddenly called forth by the tidings of the death of the Rev. Dr. Henry J. Van Dyke, would respectfully suggest the following minute:

The Master, by a mysterious exercise of His will and grace in the sudden transfer of our beloved brother, Henry Jackson Van Dyke, from active and appreciated service in the Church, on earth, to the visions and rewards of the Eternal Kingdom, has called to mind the memories of a faithful ministry, has shocked us with the unexpected termination of cherished plans of greater usefulness, and has sobered us with a profound sense of immediate and impressive responsibility.

Henry J. Van Dyke has made his name familiar and his memory precious by nearly half a century of zealous and effectual work in the Church. Trusted and honored he has served the Church in every possible capacity. In times of strife he has been a factor of confidence, and, by strong conservatism, he has contributed valuable service. A positiveness, almost severe, was tempered with frankness, and so softened by a winning kindliness, and a strong impulsive nature was so bridled with manifest grace, that his influence was sweeping and the confidence of his brethren assured. In the pastorate he was affectionate and faithful; in the pulpit he was true to the Word of God and persuaded men; in the courts of the Church he was a faithful watchman; in every position assigned him he met responsibility with carefulness, and did his work with zeal and faithfulness.

He closed his career in a unique relation, the contemplation of which, in the light of God's strange Providence, fills us with wonder and anxiety. Long identified with one institution as an honored Director, called to three others to occupy the Chair of Theology, he was reported to this Assembly as the unanimous choice of the Union Theological Seminary Directors, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of one whom the Church honors for a service not surpassed. Before we could express our gratification and hope, God has disposed of our plans, and left us to interpret the meaning of His Providence in the dark.

Let us complete our record with a prayer that God will make our disappointments and His decision an omen of good and a benediction of peace. Those who knew his heart are confident that his own purpose and desire regarded the purity and peace of the Church, and that he gave himself to the last work which he was ready to undertake, with the hope of binding our beloved Zion in unity and love. We can best express our sorrow by serving in his spirit, and our regard for his service by imitating his devotion.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNEMPLOYED MINISTERS AND VACANT CHURCHES.

The Committee on this subject reported to the last Assembly, presenting a plan of ministerial adjustment. The Report was taken up, discussed, referred to the next Assembly, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes."

It was also "Resolved, That the Report be transmitted by the Stated Clerk to the Presbyteries; that the Presbyteries be required to send up their opinions thereon to the Stated Clerk by January 1, 1891, and these opinions, with the Report, be considered by the Committee, and reported to the next General Assembly."

The action of the Presbyteries on the plan of ministerial adjustment, as thus submitted, is as follows:

Of the 213 Presbyteries, 47 make no report; 23 report "no action;" the balance of the Presbyteries, 143, have sent up their "opinions" on the proposed plan sent down by the Assembly last year. It is quite impossible to give these opinions in detail, and it is equally impossible to classify them. Many of them pertain simply to verbal expression. Many of them touch only one feature of the plan. Many of them object to two or three features. Three or four of the Presbyteries submit plans embracing the main and essential features of the plan of the Committee, but with circumstantial modifications.

Two Presbyteries report that they have had within their bounds essentially the same plan in successful operation, one for three years, and the other for ten years, and they heartily endorse it.

Some of the "opinions" are as follows: "It will militate against Synodical sustentation." "Do not consider it the remedy, though remedy greatly needed." "Regard it as impracticable." "Involves additional expense." "Work better accomplished through Presbytery and Synod." "Details impracticable." "Object to Secretary." "Object to special collection." "Object to black list." "Having applied such a scheme, from experience heartily approve." "Deprecate inequality, but consider the good derived paramount." "Not confident; would have scheme applied on probation." "Heartily in favor of object; not prepared to sustain all its parts."

Nearly all the responses recognize its need, and emphasize the importance of some plan of adjustment, even where they dissent from the one submitted. Of the 143 Presbyteries sending up opinions, the Committee count 91 Presbyteries as fairly affirmative, with about a half dozen of these to be counted with an interrogation point; and 52 Presbyteries as fairly negative, with about a half-dozen of these to be counted with an interrogation point.

Guided by Presbyterial suggestions and criticisms, your Committee have modified, in several particulars, the plan submitted last year.

The most frequent objection urged against the plan has been that it is "cumbersome, complicated, impracticable." As the Committee were under the impression that the plan was simplicity itself, they have concluded the difficulty was in the form of presentation, and they have sought by a restatement to make its simplicity stare every Presbyter in the face. Objection has been made to the name. And the name is changed. Instead of "ministerial adjustment," which was liable to misconstruction, we call it now just what it is, viz.: "Vacancy and supply adjustment." Objection was made to the "two Sabbaths in succession" clause (Art. vi), as a restriction that would make the scheme practically impossible in some missionary Presbyteries, and this detail, like many others, is now stricken out, and larger discretion is left to the respective Presbyteries. The objection to the publication of the so-called "black list" (Sec. 6), has led the Committee to omit the clause of that section requiring such publication, leaving it with the Assembly to determine whether or not such list shall be published. And the serious objection, felt by the Committee originally, and urged by many of the Presbyteries, to the expense and inconvenience of gathering the permanent Committee from the different Synods to act as a sort of clearing house once a year, has led to an entire modification of that feature.

With these preliminary observations, requisite to the history of this movement, your Committee resubmits the Report of last year, which is substantially an argument and an appeal, and asks for the modified plan appended, your careful consideration, recommending its adoption.

We do not understand that we were instructed and expected to inquire into the causes leading to so many unemployed ministers and so many vacant churches, but to find and suggest, if possible, a scheme by which ministers and churches thus designated may be brought together, so that with the least possible delay or friction, and with all possible respect for the interests of all the parties concerned, every minister able and willing to preach may be furnished the opportunity, and every church caring for the ministry of the Word may have it supplied.

We are now wholly without order in this matter, and whatever law we may have is a dead letter. The scheme adopted by the Assembly of 1873, and recommended to the Presbyteries, authorized the Board of Home Missions to organize a Special Bureau of information on this subject of unemployed ministers and vacant churches, but gave the movement no head, called it to no subsequent account of itself, and left it without any financial provision whatever. The scheme submitted by the Assembly of 1881, contained a plan for securing the needed funds for this work of adjustment of ministers and churches, but it provided no central agency, no power of review and control, and no means of unifying the movement so that the whole home field covered by our Church should be brought within the scope of its operation. Here and there a Presbytery took some steps to work this scheme; but the efforts were local and spasmodic, the scheme had no comprehensive unity, it took no organic form, left the Church without a medium of communication, and we are as far off from an effective adjustment of this grave matter as ever.

Meanwhile the crying and sore evil continues. The fact still stares us in the face that a large number of the churches are left without the stated ministry of the Word, and a large number of our brethren solemnly ordained to minister the Word are not doing it. The Church that glories in its polity, as both efficient and Scriptural, is hence obliged to confess that thus far it has proven itself either unwilling or incompetent to remove this reproachful fact. If our polity is right, we have not worked it. If it is not right, it is time we made it right. Among intelligent Christian men there ought to be some commendable and available way of bringing our long list of vacant churches and our long list of unemployed ministers together.

But this utter lack of system in the adjustment of ministers and churches leads to another humiliation. On the one side, our churches are open to all sorts of ecclesiastical prowlers scouring the country for a new field in which to exploit their vagaries and idiosyncrasies, appearing with no proper credentials, driven from one city and fleeing to another, with just enough of external gifts to capture itching ears and to give promise of filling the pews, and so getting long enough lodgment to vex and fret, if not to divide and even destroy, the little flock. Our churches, too, in their strait of finding suitable men to minister to their need, and not knowing where to turn for authorized and intelligent counsel, have been frequently led to resort to the devices of the shop, and to advertise for a preacher, hawking through the religious press the peculiar wares by which they would attract candidates to their pulpit.

And as if, on the side of the churches, this were not humiliation enough, we have on the side of the ministers a compelled experience that is to our rebuke and shame. A minister finding himself for any reason without charge, and wishing a field of labor, has no one in all our broad communion competently informed as to the openings, and officially authorized to put the now unemployed minister in connection with them. The churchless minister must buttonhole his friends, he must resort to correspondence, he must apply to vacant churches, and solicit hearings, and begin a process of candidating, and sometimes, in the sheer and desperate strait for a living, submit himself to mortifications and personal humiliations that to some sensitive souls are tortures worse than the stake. Out of this evil has grown another. Recognizing the discouragement and difficulty of securing a charge when without charge, the feeling has more or less come to prevail that a minister must keep his field by hook or crook until he find another. Hence the spectacle of a minister holding on to a charge of which he is in possession, after his usefulness is ended, and almost everybody in the parish is wishing for the termination of the pastorate. It only needs the slightest consideration to see that here is a great folly and a great wrong.

Let us fully recognize the contrast to all this in the happy, efficient pastorates and the reasonably contented stated supplies of thousands of our beloved and useful ministers, and in the thousands of active, growing and well-instructed churches that show a reverent regard for God's Word and God's ambassadors. But, after all that may be said with perfect truthfulness, and with positive emphasis concerning the satisfactory relation of the vast majority of our ministers and churches, and after all allowance has been made for circumstances and conditions that would justly modify judgment, it still remains true that hundreds of churches without preaching, and hundreds of ministers without charge, is a condition of things that ought to be intolerable. It involves a great waste of value. It indicates utterly unbusiness-like methods. It subjects a sacred profession to humiliating experiences. It exposes parishes to drought and barrenness. It is indefensible at the bar of even any common business judgment, and from no possible point of view can it be sanctioned by an intelligent Christian conscience.

Your Committee believes that a clear, definite, comprehensive and determined effort should at once be made to remedy this evil. Any plan of operation, promising wide success, must secure and embody the following particulars:

1. Concert of Action.—The whole Church must be covered by the scheme. Every Presbytery and Synod in the home field must be actively and officially represented.

2. A Medium of Communication.—There must be some central source of intelligence to which both ministers and churches may directly go for information; some officer or agent by which the field and the man may be put in communication with each other. This agent should be clothed with no authority, but should simply be a gatherer and distributor of facts, a kind of living library of digested information, for the benefit of Presbyteries in the exercise of their episcopal functions, and for the benefit of ministers seeking a field of labor.

3. A Permanent Committee to counsel with the Corresponding Secretary, measure the total and relative need, consider the best method of adjusting supply to demand, and to stimulate the organization of the scheme in all our bounds.

4. An Annual Report of the Work to the General Assembly.—No plan will be successfully worked that is not made to give an account of itself.

5. The Episcopal Powers of the Presbytery, as related to ministers and churches, recognized, respected, and wisely used. If such powers are in possession they should be put in execution on proper occasion; and there should be a loyal acquiescence in the jurisdiction by both ministers and churches. Otherwise we abandon a fundamental feature of Presbyterianism, and are given over to Independency, and our boasted polity at a vital point proves a rope of sand.

In the effort to embrace in some working scheme the five preceding points, which your Committee believes to be indispensable, it is not at all assumed that this most delicate and difficult problem of vacancy and supply adjustment has been fully solved. Doubtless objections could be well taken to any scheme that could possibly be devised. But surely something can be done, and ought to be done, and done speedily, to abate this grave evil. In the full conviction of this, your Committee submits the following to the Assembly, and recommends it adoption:

PLAN OF VACANCY AND SUPPLY ADJUSTMENT.

1. Each Presbytery shall appoint a Committee, either an existing Standing Committee or a new one, to have supervision of all vacant churches within its bounds, except as otherwise arranged for by the Presbytery. And for purposes of greater efficiency it is recommended that the term of service of this Committee be not less than three years.

2. It shall be the duty of this Committee to prepare and keep a list of the Presbytery's vacant churches and of such of its unemployed ministers as are competent for service and not relieved from the active work of the ministry; and also to arrange for the supply of these churches from its list of available ministers, and from such other sources as may be suggested by correspondence with the Secretary or with Committees of other Presbyteries: all details of adjustment, such as the amount to be paid supplies, the sum to be contributed by the churches, and the duration of assignment to any particular church being left to each Presbytery, to be determined by its own conditions and needs.

3. It shall be the persistent aim of the Presbytery and its Committee to bring the vacant churches to the full support of this arrangement for temporary supply. But if, in the judgment of the Presbytery, pecuniary aid is wanted beyond the amount contributed by the vacant churches themselves, the Presbytery shall provide by a distinct offering from its entire list of churches, or, in some other way, for a fund that shall be used exclusively for this work, and which may be known as "The Vacancy and Supply Fund," and placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Presbytery.

4. All unemployed ministers, able for service, who refuse to be placed on the list, and to work under the direction of the Presbytery, and all vacant churches that refuse to assist in any Presbyterial arrangement to supply them with the preaching of the Word, shall, if not excused, be so recorded by the Presbytery and reported to the Assembly.

5. The Chairmen of the several Presbyterial Committees on Supply and Vacancy within the bounds of any given Synod, together with the Synodical Missionary, if there be such an officer, shall constitute a Synodical Committee of a similar character, whose duty it shall be to report annually to the Synod on this work of adjustment, to unify the work within the Synod's bounds, to bring about better relations of supply and demand, and to furnish such information to the Presbyterial Committees as might contribute to their knowledge and efficiency.

6. There shall be a Permanent Advisory Committee, of seven, appointed by the Assembly, and of which the Secretary hereinafter to be named shall be a member ex-officio, whose business it shall be to consider and plan for the better adjustment of this delicate and difficult problem of our Church, to issue such appeals and tabulated statements as may be deemed serviceable, to order all such matters pertaining to the work as shall not be in conflict with the episcopal powers of the Presbytery, and to make an Annual Report through the Secretary to the Assembly.

7. There shall be a Correspondence Secretary located at , with a salary of $1500, to be provided for by , who shall act as a constant and helpful medium of communication with different parts of the Church, through, or by the authorization of, the respective Presbyterial Committees on Vacancies and Supplies. He is to stimulate to organized and concerted action, so that at the earliest moment the scheme in its essential features, though with varying details, may be in operation in every Presbytery. His office carries with it no power or authority. His business shall be wholly to give information, to be a depository and distributor of facts both as to unemployed ministers and vacant churches, to whom a minister without charge may unhesitatingly apply, and by whom he may be put at once in correspondence with a Presbyterial Committee, or through that Committee, with a vacant church likely to furnish the very field for which he has both adaptation and desire. He shall be appointed by the Assembly, or by a Committee of the Assembly named for the purpose, and shall be subject to the Assembly's general direction.

All previous action of the Assembly in conflict with the foregoing action is hereby repealed.

HERRICK JOHNSON,
S. J. McPHERSON,
Committee.

DELIVERANCES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY UPON INSTRUCTION IN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES, REAFFIRMED BY THE ASSEMBLY IN 1891.

DELIVERANCE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1882.

"5. That, in view of the crude and dangerous utterances of many of the secular and religious papers, periodicals and books, and of some of the pulpits of the land, resulting from the introduction and prevalence of German mysticism and 'higher criticism,' and of philosophic speculation and so-called scientific evolution; in view of the alarming defection from the faith of the Gospel, both in this country and abroad, and which seriously threatens our own beloved Church; and in view of the fact that the revealed Word of God, the Holy Scripture, is the only infallible rule of faith and practice, and, therefore, the only hope of mankind, your Committee recommend that this Assembly, in the name of the Great Head of the Church, solemnly warns all who give instruction in our Theological Seminaries against inculcating any views, or adopting any methods, which may tend to unsettle faith in the doctrine of the divine origin and plenary inspiration of the Scriptures held by our Church, or in our Presbyterian system of doctrine, either by ignoring or depreciating the supernatural element in divine revelation, or by exalting human conjecture and speculation above historical and divine facts and truths, or by applying hypotheses of evolution, unverified and incapable of verification, to the Word of the living God." (See "Minutes," 1882, p. 92.)

DELIVERANCE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1888.

"4. We are constrained also to make another suggestion, which will not be taken amiss by the right-minded. It is doubtless necessary that heretical views should be made known to the students of theology, and that heretical authors should be quoted; but care should be taken that these heresies should not be presented in more attractive form than the truth, and that these authors should not be commended and their works urged upon the students' reading. Emphasis should be laid upon the truth as against such heresies and heretics, and errors should be exposed and denounced with earnestness and zeal. There is to-day a vast amount of infidel and semi-infidel writings by professed commentators on the Holy Scriptures, and on Scripture history, especially in Germany. These make light of God's Word and treat the Sacred Volume as a mass of rubbish. Only condemnation of such writers should be heard from a Seminary professor, whatever may be the secular learning of the infidel authors or their rationalistic imitators. It is not wise nor righteous dealing with young candidates for the Gospel ministry to commend this poison to their minds, when they have no antidote to save them from its insidious action. Truth must be emphasized, and all falsehood unsparingly condemned. Excuse or apology for these errors, or any mitigation of their heinousness coming from a professor, is tantamount to approval in the practical effect upon a young student. The professor, armed in his own mind with all the answers to the arguments or error, must not make himself a standard for the student, to whom these arguments appear conclusive. What is perfectly safe to the professor may be of the utmost danger to the student. We insist upon it that the truth, as given in the Bible and the Confession of Faith, should be the truth taught in our Seminaries. We make these suggestions unhesitatingly, because it is the duty of the General Assembly to watch over its Theological Seminaries, and to give them such advice as may seem useful and appropriate, and we know well the special dangers which now press upon the Church of Christ from worldliness and from learned infidelity. In our Seminaries, as spiritual arsenals, must the proper armor be furnished against these foes of our Lord and His Church, and to our faithful brethren laboring in these schools of the prophets, the General Assembly confidently looks for the needed supply." (See "Minutes," 1888, pp. 89, 90.)

II. Theological Seminaries.

I. PRINCETON SEMINARY.

Calvin Scott Williams,	“	University of Michigan.
Edgar Morrison Wilson,	“	Lake Forest University.
Arthur Thomas Young,	“	Park College.
Edward Crawford Young,	“	Lafayette College.
Oscar Woodward Ziegler,	“	Johns Hopkins University.

Of these, Mr. Houston withdrew after a few days, and Mr. McKelvey was dismissed, October 2, to Union Seminary, New York.

Of the non-graduates, Mr. Armstrong had taken a college course in part at Hamilton and Williams; Mr. Edgar at the College of New Jersey; Mr. Gallwey at Lake Forest University; Messrs Juistema, Kremers and Ossewarde a course all but complete at Hope College, and Mr. Teis at Park College, leaving but one who had no college course.

Of those entering advanced classes or taking post-graduate courses, Messrs. Adair, Barr, Robertson and Smith had studied at the United Presbyterian Seminary at Allegheny; Messrs. Alexander, Bates, Gemmill and Troub at McCormick Theological Seminary; Messrs. Boyd, Hamill, McClorg and Rogers at the Assembly's College, Belfast; Mr. Dobbins at the San Francisco Theological Seminary; Messrs. Edgar and Mackenzie at the United Presbyterian Seminary at Xenia; Mr. Gilkeson at the Union Theological Seminary of Virginia; Mr. Hyndman at the Seminary of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia; Mr. Jennings at the Theological Seminary at Columbia, S. C.; Mr. Marshall at the Western Theological Seminary; Mr. Garrison at the Associate Reformed Seminary at Due West, S. C., and Mr. Williams at the Congregational Seminary at Oberlin, Ohio.

The number of students reported in the annual catalogue as in attendance within the year, including the fellows, is as follows:

Graduate Students,	13
Special Students,	4
Senior Class,	53
Middle Class,	50
Total,	174

Of the students engaged in organized religious work in the town and its vicinity, thirty-six have been employed in prayer meetings, preaching services or tract distribution, and thirteen in Sabbath-schools.

Of the fifty-one members of the graduating class who have substantially completed the work of the year, five are expecting to go to the foreign field, six to the home field, one to a college professorship, twenty-nine to pastorates, or to special charges as stated supplies or evangelists; while three study longer, and seven have not as yet completed their arrangements for the future.

The Junior class has recited in Hebrew in three divisions, one of which was sufficiently advanced to read Middle year Hebrew with Dr. Green, and the second was able to read a considerably increased amount in the historical books, reading the latter part of the time largely at sight. A portion of the class pursued the study of New Testament Greek under the instruction of the Fellow in that department.

The lectures on the L. P. Stone Foundation were delivered in February and March, by Rev. Robert E. Thompson, D.D., of the University of Pennsylvania, on "Christian Sociology, in the Light of the Bible." The course proved to be one of the most interesting and popular ever delivered on this Foundation.

The special work of the Evangelical Alliance was the subject of three addresses, delivered about the same time, by Rev. Frank Russell, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Alliance. Rev. Dr. McCosh, by invitation, gave three valuable addresses, followed by a conference, on "Parochial Visitation." The Seminary has been visited within the year by Rev. Drs. N. L. Walker and James Stalker, of Scotland; President George Walker of Robert College, and several other pastors and Secretaries, who have preached or spoken in the Oratory on subjects of interest and importance.

The first Carter prize was taken by Mr. S. M. Campbell, of the Senior class, and the first Scribner prize by Mr. S. C. Hodge, of the same class. The other Carter and Scribner prizes were not awarded.

The prize provided by the recent establishment of the "Benjamin Stanton Fund," which is to be given "for excellence in Old Testament literature," is awarded to Mr. W. A. Shedd, of the Middle class. On the foundation established within the present year by Alexander Maitland, Esq., of New York, in connection with the New Testament department, the first Robert L. Maitland prize of $100 is awarded to Mr. T. C. Marshall, of the Middle class, and the second prize of $50 is divided equally between Mr. H. T. Dobbins and Mr. J. M. Hamill, of the same class. The unusual number and the high merit of the papers called out in the first competition for this valuable prize give promise of fresh impulse to and new interest in Biblical studies in the New Testament.

The George S. Green Fellowship has been continued to Mr. L. B. Paton (the present Fellow) for a second year. Mr. W. C. Mickey, of the Senior class, received a special prize for work done on subjects assigned in the department of Old Testament Literature.

It is hoped that the Trustees of the Seminary will find it to be in their power at their approaching meeting to establish the "Alumni New Testament Fellowship." In view of the fact that the income of the recently established "Archibald Robertson Scholarship" may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be given to the students receiving the Alumni Fellowship, this provision is substantially equivalent to that made for the Old Testament Fellowship. The balance of a few hundred dollars needed to complete this provision was fully made up by the Alumni of the Seminary at the recent meeting of their Association. If this action shall be taken by the Trustees the Faculty designate as the New Testament Fellow (and Archibald Robertson Scholar) for the next year, Mr. R. H. Beattie, of the graduating class.

In consequence of illness, Dr. C. W. Hodge has been unable, since the 1st of March, to conduct the instruction of his classes. Under his direction the classes have privately prepared themselves for examination on those portions of the several courses which had been completed before his reluctant and deeply regretted withdrawal from the work of the class-room. At the recent meeting of the Board of Directors, under the advice of his attending physician, leave of absence was granted to Dr. Hodge for the recuperation of his health, and the Faculty was fully empowered to make arrangements for instruction in his department to continue uninterruptedly.

Since the date of the last Report, certificates of graduation have been given to forty-eight members of the graduating class of 1891. They are:

Two of the forty-eight, viz.:

W. Jamison Fitz Simons,	Castle Dawson, Irel.,	Assembly's, Belfast,
Joseph Edgar Maxwell,	Millersburg, O.,	Princeton, who have not taken the Hebrew course, were granted certificates of their having passed satisfactorily the other examinations.

The Directors, whose term of office expires in May, 1891, have all been reëlected. They are:

Robert Hamill, D.D., Lemont, Pa.
Joseph T. Smith, D.D., LL.D., Baltimore, Md.
Abraham Gosman, D.D., Lawrenceville, N. J.
James O. Murray, D.D., LL.D., Princeton, N. J.

2. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J., respectfully present to the General Assembly this their Sixty-sixth Annual Report:

A donation of $5000 was received from the estate of Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, late of New York city, to found the Archibald Robertson Scholarship; also $1000 from a friend of the Seminary in Brooklyn, N. Y., for the New Testament Fellowship, through Rev. Henry Van Dyke, D. D.; also $3000 from Alexander Maitland, Esq., New York, the income to constitute the Robert L. Maitland prize in New Testament Exegesis, open to students of the Middle class; also $3000 from a lady in New York for the Faculty Fund, through Dr. William M. Paxton; also $130 from Rev. Horace C. Stanton, to complete the Benjamin Stanton Fund of $1000, the income of which is to constitute a prize in Old Testament Literature; also greatly valued aid from the Princeton Association of the ladies of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, N. Y.; also sundry sums to complete the New Testament Fellowship.

The Board would further report that, in accordance with the will of Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, late of New York city, they have founded the Archibald Robertson Scholarship of $5000.

As to the finances of the Institution, the Board would present their Report in compliance with the form, and under the headings suggested by the General Assembly, as follows:

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Report to the General Assembly.

The Governing Boards of the Seminary report as follows for the year ending May 7, 1891, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

THE CONTROL OF THE SEMINARY

The Trustees have the immediate care of the Seminary and the management of its estate, both real and personal.

The Commissioners are two clergymen and one layman from each of the Presbyteries in what were formerly the Synods of Albany, Central New York, Geneva, and Western New York, namely, the Presbyteries of Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo, Cayuga, Champlain, Chemung, Columbia, Genesee, Geneva, Lyons, Niagara, Otsego, Rochester, St. Lawrence, Steuben, Syracuse, Troy, and Utica. The Commissioners fill the places of the Trustees as they become vacant, appoint the Professors, and, with the concurrence of the Trustees, fix the salaries, and make all necessary appropriations of funds. Each Commissioner holds his office three years; one going out of office, and the Presbytery supplying his place by a new election, each year. Vacancies occasioned by removal are filled by the Presbyteries as they occur.

Visitors to the Seminary are annually appointed by the Synod of New York.

Appointments of Professors are reported to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, at its next meeting after the appointment is made, and are subject to veto by the Assembly at that meeting.

THE GOVERNING BOARDS.

The Officers of the Board of Commissioners for the ensuing year are:

Rev. M. N. Preston, Bath, N. Y., President.
W. H. Meaker, Auburn, N. Y., Stated Clerk,
C. H. Beebe, } Clerks.
Silas S. Pearson, }

The Board of Trustees is as follows:

Class whose term of office expires in 1892:

Rev. Levi Parsons, D.D., Mount Morris, N. Y.
Edward C. Selover, Auburn, N. Y.
Robert A. Nelson, Auburn, N. Y.
Hon. William E. Hughitt, Auburn, N. Y.
Robert L. Drummond, Esq., Auburn, N. Y.

Class whose term of office expires in 1893:

Henry A. Morgan, Aurora, N. Y.
James Seymour, Jr., Auburn, N. Y.
Rev. George B. Spalding, D.D., Syracuse, N. Y.
Rev. Andrew V. V. Raymond, D.D., Albany, N. Y.
Rev. John McC. Holmes, D.D., Albany, N. Y.

Class whose term of office expires in 1894:

Rev. Albert T. Chester, D.D., Buffalo, N. Y.
Hon. Charles C. Dwight, LL.D., Auburn, N. Y.
Rev. J. J. Porter, D.D., Phelps, N. Y.
Rev. Charles C. Hemenway, Auburn, N. Y.
George C. Buell, Esq., Rochester, N. Y.

Of these, the Rev. John McC. Holmes, D.D., was chosen in place of the Rev. Henry Darling, D.D., LL.D., who died April 20, 1891. He had served acceptably as Trustee for seven years.

The President of the Board of Trustees is the Rev. Albert T. Chester, D.D.; the Vice-President is the Rev. Levi Parsons, D.D.; the Secretary is James Seymour, Jr.; the Treasurer of the Seminary is W. H. Meaker, Auburn, N. Y.; the Auditor is Edward C. Selover.

THE FACULTY.

On the 29th of June, 1890, the Rev. Ransom B. Welch, D.D., LL.D., Richards Professor of Christian Theology, entered into rest. A few weeks later, the Rev. Timothy G. Darling, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology, was elected to the chair of Christian Theology. Pending the action of the General Assembly on this election, Dr. Darling has had charge of the department of Theology during the year, giving instruction also in Pastoral Theology. The work of the Homiletical department was divided among the Professors till the latter part of November, when the Prudential Committee secured the services of the Rev. Alonzo H. Quint, D.D., of Boston, to take charge of this department to the close of the Seminary year. This arrangement proved eminently acceptable and successful.

The Board of Instruction for the year has been constituted as follows:

Rev. Samuel M. Hopkins, D.D., Hyde Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.
Rev. Ezra A. Huntington, D.D., LL.D., Taylor, Seymour, and Ivison Professor of Biblical Criticism.
Rev. Willis J. Beecher, D.D., Professor of Hebrew Language and Literature.
Rev. Anson J. Upson, D.D., LL.D., Emeritus Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. James S. Riggs, D.D., Professor of Biblical Greek.
Rev. Timothy G. Darling, D.D., Richards Professor of Christian Theology, and giving instruction in Pastoral Theology.
Rev. Alonzo H. Quint, D.D., in charge of the department of Sacred Rhetoric.

ATTENDANCE.

Fifty students have been in attendance during the year, of whom the following eighteen were received since our last Report:

To pursue graduate studies, Henry Schlosser, a graduate of Union College and of Princeton Seminary.

To the Senior Class: Henry Rufus Fancher, a graduate of Union College, on letter from Union Theological Seminary.

To the Middle Class: Charles Maar, a graduate of Rutgers College, by letter from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary.

Richard Lincoln Meily, a student of Lafayette College, by letter from the Danville Theological Seminary.

Of the special students of last year, three are this year in the Middle class, and two in the Junior class.

GRADUATES.

The following sixteen students have completed the course, and received the usual diplomas of graduation:

Frank Edsall Bancroft,
David Lovejoy Bradley,
William Henry Chapman,
Wesley Walter Cole,
Charles Edwards,
Samuel Foster Emery,
Henry Rufus Fancher,
James Whitcomb Fenner,
George Harlow Marsh,
Alexander Kenneth McNaughton,
Edward Waite Miller,
Walter Mitchell,
Samuel Seymour Phelps,
Charles Frederick Richardson,
Henry Kendall Sanborne,
John Gilmore Smith.

FINANCIAL REPORT.

Attached to this Report are the statistical and financial questions asked by the General Assembly, with our answers to the same. Comparing them with those given last year, it appears that the permanent funds of the Seminary have increased from donations and legacies about $10,500. Owing to the receipt of certain amounts that were past due, the reported income of the year is exceptionally large; the income received from the actual earnings of the year has been about equal to the expenditures.

The Scholarship funds reported include the scholarships heretofore published in the "Minutes" of the Assembly, and in addition to these:

The Schermerhorn Scholarship, founded by a legacy of the late Jacob M. Schermerhorn, of Homer, N. Y.

The Van Buren Scholarship, founded by H. W. Van Buren, late of Syracuse, N. Y.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The fund, as reported, includes the following scholarships. The usual full scholarship has a principal of $3000, but many of the scholarships are either special or incomplete, and represent smaller amounts:

Stated Clerk of Board of Commissioners.

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following, as their Sixty-fourth Annual Report.

Since the last Report the following thirty-five students have been matriculated:

R. L. Alter,
Elmer Aukerman,
W. J. Bell,
W. K. Cozad,
J. C. Dible,
J. L. Ewing,
J. D. Gibbs,
S. M. Goehring,
R. L. Graham,
Harry A. Grubbs,
Joseph Hamilton,
C. G. Hazlett,
A. W. Hayes,
Brooks Hitchings,
William P. Hollister,
William Houston,
J. I. Humbert,
H. B. Hummel,
George T. Jones,
A. A. Kelly,
F. F. Kennedy,
Alexander Laird,
A. L. Lathem,
James P. Leyenberger,
W. L. McClure,
G. E. K. Mechlin,
Thomas W. Pearson,
R. E. Porter,
F. E. Simcox,
Will E. Sloane,
A. T. Taylor,
Chas. G. Williams,
H. C. White,
S. W. Young.

Of these thirty-three entered the Junior class: Mr. Laird entered the Senior class; and Mr. Kennedy entered the Middle.

The whole number of students enrolled has been seventy-nine, of whom seventy-one are college graduates, and two graduates of the Pennsylvania State Normal School at California. Of the six non-graduates, Mr. Cozad attended Grove City College, and pursued a special course preparatory to the ministry under the direction of the President of the College: Mr. Sloane took a three years' course at Washington and Jefferson College, under the advice and superintendence of his Presbytery; Mr. Laird studied for some time in Glasgow: Mr. Gallager at the Western University of Pennsylvania; Mr. Kelly at Mt. Union College, and Mr. Young at Wooster University.

Of the seventy-nine students, one was a resident graduate: twenty-two were members of the Senior class, twenty-three of the Middle class, and thirty-three of the Junior class. Since the last Report, Mr. Gordon and Mr. Lane, of the Middle class, and Mr. Cochran, of the Senior class, have been removed by death.

The six following have been regularly dismissed to other Seminaries, to wit: Mr. James Hamilton and Mr. James McGrew, to the Cumberland Presbyterian Seminary, at Lebanon, Tenn.; Mr. E. H. Liles, without standing, and Mr. E. L. McCartney, to the Middle class of Union Theological Seminary, New York; Mr. T. C. Marshall, of the Middle class, and Mr. C. B. Williams, of the Senior class, to the Senior class of Princeton Theological Seminary, New Jersey.

At its regular weekly meeting the Missionary Meeting has been addressed by the Revs. A. V. Bryan, Prof. W. H. Jeffers, D.D., E. P. Cowan, D.D., and others. The Missionary Society has made arrangements with the Y. M. C. A. of Washington and Jefferson College by which the two societies have agreed to support the Rev. Arthur Ewing of the India Mission.

The annual address to the Society was delivered in the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, on the evening of Sunday, May 3, by the Rev. R. B. Ewing, D.D., of Pittsburgh.

Prof. John P. Stephens, who for the last four years has been instructing the students in elocution, has been called to a chair in McGill University, Montreal.

The conference lecturers for the past year were: Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D.D., Rev. J. Edwards, D.D., Rev. J. N. McGiffert, D.D., Rev. D. S. Kennedy, Rev. R. S. Holmes, Rev. C. H. Dunlap, Rev. Henry Bain, Rev. J. R. Sutherland, D.D., Rev. J. S. Bausman.

Through the generosity of a member of the Board of Trustees a course of instruction in vocal music and of training in the leading of congregations in sacred songs, was given to the students by Prof. Lafferty, of Allegheny. The course was a very valuable one and was highly appreciated by the young men. A valuable piano has been presented to the Seminary, and placed in Memorial Hall, through the kindness of a lady in Pittsburgh. Some large photographs of antique statuary were presented to the Seminary by Mr. Henry Phipps, of Allegheny, having been sent by him from Rome, and handsomely mounted and framed at his expense.

The Elliott Lectureship was filled this year by a course of twelve lectures given by Rev. A. M. Fairbairn, D.D., of Mansfield College, Oxford, England. The lectures were given in the North Presbyterian Church to large audiences gathered from the two cities and the surrounding region. They were characterized by great ability, and were received with universal admiration and approval. The opportunities for Christian work in the two cities, and for preaching in vacant churches in the region have not been as numerous during the present closing year as usual. Quite a large number of young men, however, have been engaged in mission and Sunday-school work in connection with the churches.

The burden that rests on our Board of Home Missions will interfere very seriously with the work of the young men during the coming vacation. The Board was unable to make any appointments among them, and the young men are largely dependent upon their Presbyteries for opportunities of labor.

The Sunday-school department of the Board of Publication has also been able to commission but eight of our large class of Juniors for work in the West, a number much smaller than usual. Many of them, it is feared, will be unable to receive the means so much needed to help them in the prosecution of their studies for the coming year.

The following is a list of those who have completed the course and received in the regular way the usual diploma, to wit:

J. Newton Armstrong,
James R. Baker,
John G. Black,
Chas. L. Bradshaw,
Alden D. Collins,
John A. Crawford,
J. E. Drake,
J. L. Godfrey,
Samuel B. Groves,
Francis M. Hall,
James B. Hill,
Basil R. King,
Ulysses L. Lyle,
William G. Reagle,
Henry H. Ryland,

L. O. Sutherland.

The closing exercises this year were held in the East Liberty Presbyterian Church. A popular address on this occasion was delivered by Rev. John Hall, D.D., LL.D., of New York. Rev. Dr. Jeffers addressed the graduating class, and Rev. Dr. Riddle delivered the diplomas.

Prof. Henry T. McClelland, having received a call from the Bellefield Presbyterian Church to become its pastor, sent to the Board of Directors his resignation as Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology and Lecturer on Comparative Religions, asking that the Board waive its right to six months' notice, and allow his resignation to take effect on the 1st of July next. The request was granted, and resolutions were adopted commendatory to Prof. McClelland's faithfulness and ability in connection with the chair about to be vacated. Prof. McClelland was elected as a member of the Board of Directors in the place of Rev. Carroll Cutler, D.D., resigned.

The Class of 1891 was reëlected and made the Class of 1895.

VI. DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Thirty-eighth Annual Report:

I. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The class of Directors whose term expires at this time has been elected for another term of three years, and Elder W. J. Hendrick has been put in place of Ormond Beatty, LL.D., deceased; Elder L. T. Chiles in place of James Barbour, Esq., resigned, and the Rev. S. M. Hamilton, D.D., in place of Rev. Charles Hutchinson, D.D., resigned—all of the class whose term expires in May, 1892. The organization and membership of the Board to-day are, therefore, as follows:

Rev. L. FAYE WALKER, D.D., President.
J. C. MAXWELL, M.D., First Vice-President.
Rev. GEORGE J. REED, D.D., Second Vice-President.
Rev. STEPHEN YERKES, D.D., Secretary.

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
Class whose term expires in May, 1892:
H. H. Allen, D.D.,	G. E. Wiseman,
George J. Reed, D.D.,	W. H. Wherritt,
W. C. Condit, D.D.,	J. M. Armstrong,
Maurice Waller,	W. J. Hendrick, Esq.,
S. M. Hamilton, D.D.,	L. T. Chiles.
Class whose term expires in May, 1893:
A. C. Dickerson, D.D.,	D. J. Curry,
J. T. Lapsley, D.D.,	A. B. Nelson, M.D.,
L. F. Walker, D.D.,	J. T. Landes, Esq.,
William S. Fulton,	H. V. Loving,
William C. Young, D.D.,	L. B. Todd, M.D.
Class whose term expires in May, 1894:
T. H. Cleland, D.D.,	J. C. Maxwell, M D.,
J. P. Hendrick, D.D.,	George Denny,
W. O. Goodloe, D.D.,	A. J. Grundy,
J. R. Collier,	T. B. Trussell, Esq.,
J. W. C. Willoughby,	E. W. C. Humphrey, Esq.

II. FACULTY.

On the 19th of August, 1890, the Board elected the Rev. John M. Worrall, D.D., pastor of the Thirteenth Street Church, city of New York, Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government. Dr. Worrall accepted the appointment, and entered on the duties of his office the November following. A Committee has been appointed to make arrangements for his installation after his election shall have received the sanction of the General Assembly. The Faculty now consists of the following professors and instructors:

STEPHEN YERKES, D.D., Biblical Literature and New Testament Exegesis.
JOHN M. WORRALL, D.D., Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, and Study of the English Bible.
CLAUDE B. H. MARTIN, D.D., Systematic Theology.
WILLIAM C. YOUNG, D.D., Homiletics, Theoretical and Practical.
JOHN L. MCKEE, D.D., Pastoral Theology and Elocution.
CLARENCE K. CRAWFORD, A.M., Old Testament Exegesis, History and Archæology.

Provision has been made, as seen above, for systematic instruction in the English Bible. Two hours a week are to be devoted to it throughout the entire course, all the students being taught together as one class.

III. STUDENTS.

Since the date of our last Report five new students have been matriculated, viz., Ernest D. Martin, M.D., Henry Nelson Craik, Allen D. Seelig, Alvin Modestus Hendee, and Joseph Franklin Hopkins. Dr. Martin was received from the Union Theological Seminary, of the city of New York, and entered the Middle class. By a special arrangement between the Presbytery of Transylvania and Mr. Hopkins, he is to spend three years in study in the Seminary and Centre College, omitting the languages and higher mathematics, by way of preparation for work in the mountain region of Eastern Kentucky, under the direction of the Presbytery. He has already taught for nine years in the public schools of his native county in that region, and will engage in that work again during the vacation. All of the other students, except two, are now engaged for some form of Church work for the same period.

The whole number of students has been ten, distributed between the Middle and Junior classes. There has been no Senior class; but one student completed the course in the department of Systematic Theology, was licensed this spring, and has entered regularly on the work of the ministry as a licentiate. We confidently anticipate some increase in the number of students next session.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS.

It was stated in our last Report that the Board of Directors and Trustees had unanimously determined to erect a commodious building for the uses of the institution, to be located on a different and far more eligible site than the one now occupied. The foundations of it were laid last fall, and our hope was that it would be ready for occupancy by the 1st of September of this year; but we now find there will be a delay of two or three months. We are confident the erection of this building will be a great gain to the Seminary. It will be 161 feet long, and will contain excellent accommodations of the modern style for forty-two students. One end of it, separated completely from the dormitory part and with a distinct entrance of its own, will be reserved for recitation rooms, a reading-room and the library.

The new and first-class gymnasium, of which we spoke in our last Report as in course of construction by the Trustees of Centre College, is now completed. Our new building is located within easy access of it, and our students are entitled to as free and full use of it as those of the College. This is provided for by a contract between the authorities of the two institutions.

The Librarian reports a small increase to the library during the year, altogether by donation, but an increase of real value.

The whole expense of conducting the institution for the year has been two-fifths of its income. This includes insurance, repairs, salary of Treasurer, and other minor expenses, all of which would have to be incurred were the institution closed. The salaries of instructors have amounted to almost exactly one-third of the income. The outlay for instruction next year will be somewhat larger.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Board,

L. FAYE WALKER, President.

STEPHEN YERKES, Secretary.

2. FACULTY.

At a special meeting of the Board, held December 30, 1890, upon the nomination of a Committee previously appointed, the Rev. Willis G. Craig, D.D., LL.D., was unanimously elected Cyrus H. McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology. Dr. Craig has since notified the Board of his acceptance of the chair subject to the approval of the Assembly.

At a special meeting of the Board, held May 19, 1891, upon the report of a Nominating Committee, the Rev. Andreas C. Zenos, D.D., was unanimously elected Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History. Dr. Zenos has accepted this professorship subject to the approval of the Assembly.

We ask the Assembly to approve the election of both these professors. At the last special meeting of the Board above referred to, upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, the Rev. Augustus Stiles Carrier, A.M., was unanimously appointed as Adjunct Professor of Biblical Philology.

With these changes the membership of the Faculty is as follows:

Rev. LEROY JONES HALSEY, D.D., LL.D., Professor Emeritus of Church Government and the Sacraments, 294 Belden avenue.

Rev. THOMAS HARVEY SKINNER, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Divinity, 1042 North Halsted street.

Rev. WILLIS GREEN CRAIG, D.D., LL.D., Cyrus H. McCormick Professor-elect of Didactic and Polemic Theology, 1048 North Halsted street.

Rev. DAVID CALHOUN MARQUIS, D.D., LL.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, 322 Belden avenue.

Rev. HERRICK JOHNSON, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology, 1070 North Halsted street.

*Rev. EDWARD LEWIS CURTIS, Ph.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis, and Librarian, 314 Belden avenue.

Rev. JOHN DEWITT, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Apologetics and Missions, 2 Chalmers place.

Rev. ANDREAS C. ZENOS, D.D., Professor-elect of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

Rev. AUGUSTUS STILES CARRIER, A.M., Adjunct Professor in Biblical Philology, 497 Fullerton avenue.

EDWARD MUNSON BOOTH, A.M., Instructor in Elocution and Voice Culture.

*Resigned May 19, 1891.

During the past year, instruction in Systematic Theology was given by Prof. DeWitt to the Senior class, and by Prof. Craig to the Middle class. An extended course of instruction on Elocution was given by Prof. Booth, and a class in the English Bible was taught by Prof. Carrier. Several special students also received instruction from Prof. Carrier in Biblical Aramaic and elementary Arabic. A course of three lectures on Assyriology was delivered to the students by Prof. Robert W. Rodgers, Ph.D., of Dickinson College; and several of the clergymen of Chicago, under the direction of the Professor of Sacred Rhetoric, delivered addresses to the Senior class.

The Faculty report that "the punctuality and diligence of the different classes has been commendable, and the work has been extremely satisfactory in all departments." The interest in city missions among the students has been growing, and has led to the organization of a Permanent Committee for its direction. "The needs of the city field have been carefully studied in all phases, and one hundred and fourteen students placed in all classes of the work and in all parts of the city, and from work in penal and hospital institutions, up to coöperative work among the professional students of the city. One mission, in a most destitute part of the city, has been organized into a church during the year. This work not only does not interfere with Seminary duties, but it is acknowledged by our graduates to be one of the most helpful features of Seminary life."

3. STUDENTS.

One hundred and seventy-three students have been in attendance, a number larger by twenty-one than ever before in the history of the Seminary. The number of new students is seventy-seven. Of these, sixty-five are graduates of colleges.

New students have been matriculated as follows:

During the last vacation, Mr. Benjamin Wallace Irvin, a member of the Middle class, died at St. Paul, Minn.

On the nomination of the Faculty, the Bernadine Orme Smith Fellowship was assigned for the next year to Mr. George Frederick Ayres, who, under the direction of the Faculty, will study abroad.

4. LIBRARY.

The Library consists of:

Bound Volumes, ...	12,189
Pamphlets, ...	1,794
Volumes added this year, ...	41
Pamphlets added this year, ...	294

The Board resolved that as soon as means can be secured the library should be enlarged in every department of sacred learning.

5. FINANCES.

GENEROUS GIFTS.

The one hundred thousand dollars received last year from the Trustees of the McCormick estate was increased this year by the same generous givers by the sum of twenty-six thousand six hundred dollars ($26,600). The entire sum has been expended in building eighteen houses on Chalmers place for the purpose of rental.

In addition to this, Mrs. Nettie Fowler McCormick and Cyrus H. McCormick, Esq., have each pledged five thousand dollars to the Permanent Scholarship Fund.

The Rev. Prof. Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., has also pledged ten thousand dollars to the same fund.

A bequest of two thousand dollars from the estate of Anna M. Gibbs has been added to the Endowment Fund.

A bequest of five hundred dollars was received from the estate of Elijah A. Allan, to found a scholarship bearing the name of the donor.

The sum of seven hundred and thirty-eight dollars has been received from the Second Presbyterian Church, Chicago, from the Alumni, and from individuals for the current scholarship account.

Thus a total of nearly fifty thousand dollars has been contributed or pledged to the funds of the Seminary this year.

The Board makes grateful acknowledgment of these gifts. For this thoughtful provision for theological education, the whole Church is their debtor.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

This Report, which presents a clear and full statement of the finances of the institution, as entered upon the records of the Board, is herewith forwarded in compliance with the form and under the heading suggested by the General Assembly. It is as follows:

Real Estate, excluding income-bearing property,	$789,697 85
General Endowment,	347,037 29
Scholarship Fund,	86,258 04
Lectureship Fund,
Library Fund,	2,742 72
Special Funds,	6,500 00
Income for the year,	40,765 69
Expenses for the year,	86,207 17

The special items, which make up the large deficit this year, are expenditures for special assessments and taxes, amounting to $15,710.43, and for improvements in the new streets and grounds of the property, amounting to $19,662.96, thus making a total of $35,373.39. These are extraordinary expenses, whose product is mainly of a permanent character. In the sale of the balance of the five acre tract, lying outside the Seminary plot, the Board has the resources to meet the accumulated deficits of several years.

6. SCHOLARSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIP.

While the income of the Scholarship Fund is carefully distributed under the supervision of the Faculty, so large has been the necessary demand that within two or three years a deficit has accumulated, amounting to nearly $25,000. In order, if possible, to make permanent provision for this want of the institution, the work of raising additional scholarship funds was committed to a joint Committee of Trustees, Faculty and Directors. This Committee determined that it was necessary to raise at least $100,000 additional to the present funds, in order to meet the demands upon the Seminary for aid to students.

A wise and comprehensive plan has been prepared; but while this effort will begin in the churches of Chicago, the fact should be emphasized that this is peculiarly the work of the Church at large. The Seminary is equipped and endowed for the education of students. The wise and necessary assistance which they need should not be a tax upon and embarrassment to the Seminary in its regular work, but should be provided for by the whole Church. Five thousand dollars will build a scholarship house on the Seminary grounds; fifteen hundred dollars will found one scholarship; and contributions in any amount will help this needy fund.

We are pleased to report, as above, that $20,000 have already been pledged towards the raising of this additional sum.

VIII. BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

Blackburn University, as has been reported in previous years, has by its charter a chair to be always designated as the Blackburn Professorship of Theology, the incumbent of which is ex-officio a member of the Board of Trustees. It has now for several years been the policy of the institution to make the duties of this chair more and more that of preparation for a theological course, except in those cases of students for the ministry who cannot take a regular course in the seminaries, and to send the regular graduates from the college course to the regular theological seminaries of our Church. For the last several years, Blackburn University has had not less than six of its graduates as students in the McCormick Theological Seminary, besides students in Princeton and other seminaries of the Church. These students, besides taking the regular studies in our college course, have, some of them, had preliminary instruction in Hebrew, in Homiletics, and in special studies, preparatory to early work among the weak churches; and several of them have done useful work in such churches while yet in college. Some of them have an affectionate remembrance in those churches, which will be always abiding. One such young man, now in his studies, is depended upon for the regular supply of two small churches, in one of which the work has been largely blessed during the winter in the conversion of souls, and in additions to the Church of several who will rise up in the future to call this young servant of Christ blessed.

Of other young men who, from one cause or another, cannot go through the regular course of the theological seminaries, and yet who cannot be spared from the work of the Church, Blackburn University has its full share, who must be provided with such instruction as was contemplated by Dr. Gideon Blackburn, when he provided that the object of the institution should be "To qualify young men for the Gospel ministry, by giving them such instruction in the Holy Scriptures as may enable them to perform the duties of that high and holy vocation." Besides those who are doing good work for the Church in various fields, who had no other academic and theological preparation than this department of Blackburn furnished, the institution has constantly those whom it helps thus into the work of the ministry, who would otherwise be lost thereto. We may mention, as an instance, one who has done good service in two of our churches until he could equip himself for the study of Hebrew, Pastoral Theology and Homiletics with us, and who was lately called to the pastoral care of one of our prominent churches.

The Church must arouse herself to the sending of the laborers into the great harvest for which she prays; and an institution like Blackburn University, endowed for such a purpose, must do such supplemental and preparatory work as cannot be done by the regular theological seminaries.

Blackburn University has lately lost a considerable portion of its permanent funds by unfortunate loans, and more are imperilled in the same manner; but it is hoped that the institution will be able to tide over the peril, and that wealthy friends may endow it to continue and increase the work which it has done so well in the past. The prayers and beneficence of the Church are bespoken to this end.

The peculiar organization of the Theological department of Blackburn University, as a department merely, and without equipment for the complete work of theological courses, explains why the statistics expected from the seminaries do not appear from this institution.

The President of Blackburn University, after serving the institution as the Blackburn Professor of Theology for fourteen years, has resigned his position, to take effect at the June commencement, and returns to the work of the pastorate.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. HURD, President.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The most pressing need of the Seminary at present is scholarships. Last year we could report only one, and that the gift of an Eastern friend. Now we are able to report four. Friends here at home are beginning to take an interest in this department of our work, and we have the assurance that soon our number of scholarships will be materially increased.

1. The John Williams Buckley Scholarship, founded by Mrs. E. A. Buckley, of Brooklyn, N. Y.
2. The Davenport Scholarship, founded by John D. Thompson, of San Francisco.
3. The John A. Mackenzie Scholarship, founded by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., of San Francisco.
4. The Williston Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Emily B. Hopkins, of San Francisco.

NEW BUILDINGS.

Since our last Report, the campus at San Anselmo, containing fourteen acres, has been platted, the locations for buildings determined and graded, walks and drives laid out and graveled. The plans for two substantial stone edifices, to be called respectively Montgomery Hall and Scott Library Hall, have been approved by the Board, and contracts entered into for their construction. The cornerstone of Montgomery Hall was laid with appropriate ceremonies and in the presence of a large assemblage of the friends of the Seminary, from all parts of the Coast, on the 30th of April, 1891. This Hall is 120 feet long by 60 feet wide, and, including the basement, four stories high. It will cost, when completed, about $60,000, and will accommodate fifty students. It stands on a gentle elevation, overlooking a landscape of considerable extent and of almost matchless beauty. This Hall bears, with great propriety, the name of the largest donor to the funds of the institution, Alexander Montgomery, whose check for $250,000 was acknowledged in our last Annual Report.

Scott Library Hall, named in honor of our first President, Rev. Dr. W. A. Scott, will stand on another elevation near to Montgomery Hall. It will be 107 feet long, 56 feet wide, two and three stories high, and will cost when completed $50,000. The foundation is being prepared for it, and it is expected that both buildings will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the next Seminary term in September. We will then have ample and most attractive facilities for our work.

GRADUATES OF 1891.

At the commencement held in Calvary Church, San Francisco, on Thursday evening, April 30, diplomas were given, by order of the Board, to Messrs. Alexander Eakin. Kochi Mittani, Ayarvo Huttori and Donald M. Ross. Certificates of Proficiency were given to Messrs. J. H. Cornwall, George B. Scrogin and Andrew J. Brill, M.D., they not having pursued all the studies of the course.

Respectfully submitted,

CLEMENT E. BABB, President.

R. J. TRUMBULL, Secretary.

5. General Statement.

At the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors the school was reincorporated, the legal term of incorporation having expired; and the Articles of Incorporation were amended so that the classes of the Board should consist of eight members instead of six as heretofore. The classes were filled as reported above.

The vacancy, caused by the resignation of Prof. John Bantley a year ago, has been filled by the election of Rev. A. Van der Lippe, D.D., to the Van Vleit Professorship of Theology. The approval of this election by General Assembly is asked.

The endowment of the Professorship of Church History has been completed, and the chair has been formally named the Catherine M. Edwards Professorship of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History. Under these circumstances, the Board felt warranted in duly installing, as such professor, the Rev. Adam McClelland, D.D., who has for some years so ably occupied the chair.

The nucleus of a new endowment was started in what is to be known as the Edgar and Edwin Camp Professorship of Sacred Languages and Literature. Could this chair and that of Theology be endowed, the school would be lifted out of present embarrassments, and would no longer need to beg at the door of the Church for the few dollars necessary to carry on the work. To obviate a prevailing objection to the endowment of an institution of foreign speech, it has been stipulated in the Articles of Incorporation that all property and endowments, not otherwise legally provided for, shall, in the event of a discontinuance of the German work, revert to the Board of Education, to be used as a fund for the education of students for the ministry.

During the year there have been thirty-three students in attendance. The thoroughness of the instruction, and the earnestness of the students, were alike manifested at the annual examination, giving promise of large results, when years of preparation shall give place to the full work of the ministry.

This work has been carried on at the small expense of $4000. And yet even this amount would have been raised with the greatest difficulty had not the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies granted $1000. The school will need this help another year; indeed, it should have at least $1500, in order that another instructor may be employed, which is absolutely required for the equipment of the school and the proper instruction of the students. Attention is called to the fact that here are thirty-three students, with the prospect of no less than forty the coming year, all preparing for the ministry, and the larger part in the Collegiate department. We would, therefore, ask General Assembly to commend the school to this Board to the amount of $1500, and to the profound sympathy and practical benevolence of the Church at large.

Respectfully submitted,

ADAM W. RINGLAND,

President of the Board.

XI. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK, N. J.

By the direction of the Presbytery of Newark, the Board of Directors of the German Theological School of Newark, N. J., presents to the General Assembly their Report for the year ending April 30, 1891.

FACULTY.

The Rev. Frederick Ernst Hausser, Ph.D., for three years Instructor in both the Theological and Academic departments, has been elected Professor of Hebrew Exegesis and Church History, and was, on October 27, publicly installed in that department.

The designation of the Professorship of the Rev. Dr. Seibert has been changed from Biblical Exegesis and Theology to Greek Exegesis and Systematic Theology.

The Faculty is now constituted as follows:

Rev. Charles E. Knox, D.D., President and Professor of Homiletics, Church Government and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. George C. Seibert, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Greek Exegesis and Systematic Theology.
Rev. Frederick Ernst Hausser, Ph.D., Professor of Hebrew Exegesis and Church History.
Rev. William A. Niles, D.D., Instructor and Financial Agent.
Charles Vuilleumier, Tutor in the Academic department.

THE STUDENTS.

The number of students in attendance has been forty-eight, fourteen in the Theological, six in a Special Short course, and twenty-eight in the Academic department.

Five students were graduated in June, 1890. Two candidates have been admitted to the Junior Theological class, and five students have been promoted from the Academic to the Theological department.

From the Academic department, one student has taken a dismission to the Union Theological Seminary; one a dismission to the Grammar School of Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., and two others have withdrawn. Thirteen have been admitted to the regular Academic course.

Three Bohemians and three Italians have been admitted to a short course, prepared with reference to their special needs. The foundation of their course is in the English language, and they are able to derive advantage from several of the existing English studies. Their practice of and guidance in their vernacular speech, is in connection with the advice of our Bohemian and Italian pastors in New York city. The plan of opening the institution to foreign nationalities other than the Germans is considered as still on trial.

The expenses of the institution have been increased during the year	$1,250 78

The expenses for the Bohemian and Italian students have been derived from sources especially designated.

NEED OF ENLARGEMENT.

The Seminary building is unequal to the demand. The dormitory rooms are insufficient; students are occupying rooms in outside families at increased expense. The chapel and rhetorical room, the library, the lecture rooms are too contracted. The Board of Directors are compelled to face the inspiring necessity of increased accommodations. Funds are needed for this purpose, as well as to provide for the increased current expense.

GENERAL STATEMENTS.

There has been in no year so large a demand for graduates. Our Theological department is increasing in numbers. The Special course for other nationalities than Germans meets an urgent want of the time.

The subject of our varied and mixed foreign population commands universal attention. The phases change but the question is one. For all the evils flooding in with the immigrant tide the Gospel is the one remedy. The Gospel in the soul, lodged there by vernacular preaching, is for these people and for our land health and life.

We appeal to the Church, and especially to persons of fortune in our Church and land, to assist in placing our institution on a larger foundation for a still broader and still more efficient work. We solicit a broader and deeper spiritual sympathy; a more fervent spirit of prayer to accompany the increase and enlargement. For the Board of Directors,

CHARLES E. KNOX, President.

Newark, N. J., May 6, 1891.

The Academical year began on Thursday, the 18th of September, 1890, and closed on Tuesday, the 21st of April, 1891. The opening address was delivered by Prof. Samuel A. Martin, September 25, 1890: "Our Inheritance in Sacred Song."

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. John C. Caldwell, D.D., on the 19th of April, 1891: 1 Sam. xvi, 1, "How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him."

The annual examination of the classes took place on Friday and Monday before Commencement. Committees of the Board of Trustees of the Synod of Pennsylvania and of the Ministers' Association of Philadelphia were present and expressed their satisfaction at the proficiency of the students. God is favoring these young men with opportunity. He makes no difference between the Negro and the Anglo-Saxon in the endowment of powers. They show no difference in the results of training in all the departments of study. And it seems to be the purpose of our friends, that this institution shall be fully equipped to give to our colored youth an unstinted participation with ourselves in all the benefits of liberal education.

Mrs. David Brown, of Princeton, who last year gave to this institution $20,000 for a chapel, has signified her intention to endow the chair of the English Bible in the sum of $25,000, during the current Collegiate year. This gift will release the $13,000 previously held for this chair by vote of the Board of Trustees, but not specifically given for that purpose.

An increase of $50,000 during the year now closing.

The cost of supporting twenty-one Theological students during the year has been $3000.

The number of students in all departments has been 228. Of these, only thirty-four are not professors of religion; and over 100 are candidates for the ministry. Five have made profession of faith during the year.

Notwithstanding the large increase of students, we close the year without debt.

Of the one hundred Scholarships which we proposed to establish in 1889, thirteen have been already paid in, and four others await delivery.

The prospect of financial support on our plan of enlargement is more encouraging than ever before.

Among our immediate and pressing wants are—a library building for the safety of 16,000 books; a hall for recitations for both our Theological and Collegiate work; the separate equipment of our Theological department; and provision for the care and improvement of the property of the University.

We have been again called to deplore the loss of one of our honored Trustees.

Reuben J. Flick, Esq., died at his home, in Wilkesbarre, Pa., on the 18th of December, 1890. He was a generous supporter of our work. Besides other annual benefactions, he had endowed the chair of Mathematics, and built a house for the professor. By his death we have lost an active friend and trusted adviser. The good which he has done in this institution will be perpetuated in the gratuitous education of all our students in one important department of study.

The Board of Trustees, at its recent meeting on the 21st of April, elected Walter Carter, Esq., of New York city, as a Trustee, in the place of Adam C. Eckfeldt, Esq., deceased. Mr. Eckfeldt was an elder in the Third Presbyterian Church, of Chester, Pa. He had been for many years a contributor to the Annual Educational Fund of the University. And he was always faithful to his duties as a Trustee, not allowing his infirmities to prevent his attendance upon the annual and special meetings of the Board. His place in the Board will be filled at the annual meeting on the 1st day of June next.

The University has met with a heavy loss by the resignation of the chair of Systematic Theology by Rev. E. T. Jeffers, D.D., to accept the pastorate in the Presbyterian Church in Oil City, Pa. The Board of Trustees adopted the following minute expressing their appreciation of the professional work of Dr. Jeffers:

"Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of Lincoln University received from Dr. E. T. Jeffers, Baldwin Professor of Theology and of Psychology, his resignation of these chairs of instruction with profound regret.

"Resolved, That in accepting his resignation, and thus severing the special ties which have endeared him to Lincoln University since 1883, we desire to express our gratitude to God for the favor of Dr. Jeffers' connection with our corps of instruction, and of his professional and voluntary labors in all the offices which he has faithfully and successfully filled.

"Resolved, That we express to Dr. Jeffers our appreciation of his work of instruction in Theology; in that he has, in a masterly way, conducted the classes committed to his care over the whole range of theological study, exhibiting the doctrines, elucidating the difficulties, and building up the system of revealed truth upon a Scriptural foundation, thereby magnifying the Word of God, and making it honorable in the esteem and reverence of the students; and in that, in his course of instruction, he has made prominent the critical and analytical study of the New Testament in the Greek text, establishing in the minds of the students by minute and elaborate examination of the Apostolic Epistles the fact, that the system of revealed religion taught by each inspired writer is not only harmonious with that taught by every other, but that all alike, though with personal peculiarities, teach the same foundation of Christian hope, in the vicarious work of Christ; the same way of realizing that hope by the diligent use of the means of grace; and the same conditions upon which every man will be welcomed to a participation in that hope. We wish to express our appreciation of the scholarship and authority of his teaching, in that the students have been incited and helped to form their opinions out of the Word of God, and to submit their opinions to the authority of God.

"Resolved, That we further express to Dr. Jeffers our appreciation of his clearness, and thoroughness, and soundness in instructing his classes in the difficult and sometimes irksome topics of Psychology and Logic. While his pecuniary remuneration has been so inadequate, we rejoice that the reward of success in quickening, and enlarging, and enobling the minds of so many students has been abundant.

"Resolved, That the Board further express its thanks to Dr. Jeffers for his laborious, and accurate, and helpful oversight of the financial business of the Faculty.

"Resolved, That we are grateful to be assured that Dr. Jeffers will bear with him to his new field of labor a continued and cordial interest in the work and prosperity of Lincoln University, in which he has spent so many of the best years of his life; and that we commend him to the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying that He may always add the seal of His approval to his professional and ministerial work, and bless him and his beloved household with all temporal and spiritual blessings."

On the 22d of April, 1890, the Board of Trustees elected the Rev. Robert Laird Stewart, of Danville, Pa., Professor of Biblical Antiquities and Sacred Geography in the Theological Department.

This institution is always open to the visitation and inspection of the Church. It is offered, through the General Assembly, as a Presbyterian agency, through which the good-will of the Church may reach our colored fellow-citizens of the household of faith without obstruction or delay.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Faculty,

ISAAC N. RENDALL,
President of Lincoln University.

The Commencement exercises will take place in connection with the closing exercises of the Collegiate department, Wednesday, June 1. We have reason this year to be thankful for the highest degree of prosperity that has yet been granted to this institution. We have enrolled 176 students this year, as against 156 the previous year, but we gained still more in the character of the work done, by securing much more regularity of attendance than was previously possible. Many of our students have always had their studies much broken in upon by failure to secure funds enough to pay the full expenses of the year. The assistance of friends and a careful pressing of the duty of self-help have this year removed much of this difficulty, and the class-rooms show the benefit of the change in better work. It is a great pity that the many who doubt the ability of the colored man to acquire, and the tact to make a good use of the higher education, should not oftener look into these class-rooms and see for themselves the work that is done. Very few institutions in the land have so many students whose faces are set towards the ministry of the Presbyterian Church as are now in Biddle. Is it not fair to extend to these young men an education differing neither in kind nor in degree from that we offer to the young candidates of other parts of our Church? Will the negro minister have any lighter task before him than his white brother, and can we expect him to perform it well with any poorer equipment?

Most of our students who have not the ministry in view are trying to qualify themselves as teachers, and in this particular field the need is almost as great as in the pulpit. The self-denying efforts which many of these young men make in their deep poverty to attain this end ought to call forth the sympathy of the Church and the liberal aid of the benevolent. If we insist on leaving the main burden of the higher education on the colored people, unaided and alone, then much that is of the highest importance to the race and to our country must be left undone and even unattempted.

Respectfully submitted,
W. F. JOHNSON, President.

XIV. OMAHA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

THE Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, respectfully submit the following Report to the General Assembly:

At a conference of ministers and elders held in the First Presbyterian Church, Omaha, Neb., February 17, 1891, after carefully and prayerfully canvassing the condition and needs of the great Home Mission field throughout the Central West, it was decided to establish a theological seminary in the vicinity of Omaha. The members of this conference came from the Synods of Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. Many in these and other States who were unable to be present sent letters expressing hearty sympathy with the movement. A remarkable unity of thought and feeling characterized this conference, and the important action taken by it expressed its unanimous and cordial judgment in the premises.

Within the territory covered by the constituency of this institution there are in the neighborhood of two hundred candidates for the Gospel ministry. These young men have been born and reared in the West. In sympathy and purpose they are warmly indentified with that section of the country. But experience has shown that even such young men when they go off to Eastern seminaries, do not in probably the majority of cases return to the region in which they were reared. It was felt by the brethren who participated in this conference that a theological seminary in or near Omaha would be attended by not only a majority of the candidates for the ministry in the Presbyteries throughout the Central West, but, like the other seminaries, it might and probably would become, through the influence necessarily exerted by such an institution, an instrumentality whereby the minds of many young men would be turned to the Gospel ministry as the avocation in which they can most usefully serve the Divine Master. A theological seminary builds up an influence peculiar to itself. This influence is felt throughout the region in which it is located.

A question of very serious character—of vital importance to the kingdom of Christ—throughout this region, has awakened anxious thought among our brethren, and especially upon the part of the Superintendents of Home Missions in our Synods, viz.: What shall be done in behalf of our weaker churches? These churches are mostly located in the rural districts. Persistent effort has been made to supply them with the ministrations of the sanctuary. In the main, however, this effort has not been crowned with gratifying success. A large proportion of them are compelled to content themselves with only occasional services. The experience of Synodical Superintendents and of Presbyterial Home Mission Committees, has been that as a rule the young men in the graduating classes of our seminaries cannot be induced to take charge of these fields. In view of this fact, as well as influenced by other considerations, the feeling has grown into a profound and settled conviction that we must establish an institution in which we can train up a native ministry.

An old and prominent citizen of Omaha, Dr. George L. Miller, has formally offered to give to the Presbyterian Church for the purpose of establishing a Theological Seminary, a tract of land in Seymour Park, six miles south by west of Omaha, comprising twenty-five acres, upon the condition that the foundation of a building to cost at least $20,000 be laid within three years from the date of the offer. A Committee from the Board of Directors visited Seymour Park, on Friday, May 15, 1891, and chose the tract of land which is to constitute the site of the new seminary. The ground has been surveyed, and Dr. Miller is ready to deed the land to the Seminary Directors or Trustees.

Efforts to secure funds for the prosecution of this great enterprise will be inaugurated at once. Arrangements will probably be made with the First Presbyterian Church of Omaha, by which the lecture and adjacent rooms in that edifice may be used for seminary purposes during the school year, beginning the first Thursday of September next. The prospect so far is that at least half a dozen students will enter the Seminary next September.

The following Directors have been chosen:

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions has completed the eighty-ninth year of its service—its twenty-first since the reunion.

In presenting the Annual Report to the General Assembly the Board desires to express gratitude for the goodness of God throughout the year.

No officer or member of the Board has been removed by death,* and God hath dealt graciously with those whose labors have been interrupted by physical infirmities.

*Mr. Joseph F. Joy, one of the oldest members of the Board, died April 11, after the close of the fiscal year.

One member of the Board, the Rev. Henry M. Booth, D.D., whose term of service expires at this time, resigned in view of a contemplated absence abroad. His resignation removed from the councils of the Board one whose large experience and faithful services were always helpful to the office and of great value to the work.

The Rev. D. Stuart Dodge was elected for the unexpired term.

The number of missionaries who have been called away from earth during the year is unusually small. The Board bears record to their faithfulness unto death. Their names are as follows:

Rev. B. P. Russel,	Nebraska.
Rev. O. W. Winchester,	Wisconsin.
Rev. Thomas McNinch,	South Dakota.
Rev. G. W. Riggle,	New Mexico.
Rev. S. N. St. John,	Kansas.
Rev. C. S. Armstrong, D.D.,	Michigan.
Rev. James M. Pryse,	Wisconsin.
Rev. Thomas S. Dewing,	Maryland.
Rev. P. L. Carden,	California.

The churches, in the main, have been blessed with vigorous growth. Reports of revivals of religion come from all parts of the field. The results are tabulated on another page.

FINANCES.

The year opened under the shadow of a great debt, the amount of which was $80,391.84. This was caused by a decrease of $85,000 in the receipts of the month of March; the last month of the fiscal year. No human wisdom could forecast such a thing. The General Assembly's call for a special collection for the debt met with a loyal and liberal response, but the liquidation of such a debt in the limited time between the close of the Assembly and the summer vacation was impracticable. The facts suggested the wisdom of retrenchment at the outset. Presbyteries or their Committees were notified that the condition of the treasury would not warrant increase of appropriations and that no new work could be supported by the Board. The current demands of the work already in hand rapidly outran the receipts during the summer. The small amount of securities at the command of the Treasurer so limited the borrowing capacity of the Board that prompt payments were impossible. Missionaries upon the field were compelled to wait and suffer for their well-earned but delayed salaries. The relief which legacies usually afford failed in a large measure.

The receipts of the Board for the current work for the first five months of the fiscal year were $46,000 less than for the corresponding months of the former year. The aid-receiving churches responded most nobly, and the patience and heroism of the missionaries upon the field cannot be too highly commended, many of them relinquishing, in whole, or in part, their much-needed salaries. But at length some relief came. The heavier contributions of the fall and winter months made prompter payments of salaries possible, but did not at any time so far relieve the treasury as to enable the Board to resume aggressive work even in the most inviting fields. The year has closed with a smaller number of missionaries than the Board had last year; fewer churches on its roll by as many as have become self-supporting, yet the year closes with a deficit of $98,346.04. The Board appropriated $55,525.44 less than last year, and $110,000 less than the General Assembly authorized.

But through this trying year the churches have been most loyal to the cause of Home Missions. The receipts from churches and individuals for current work have been greater than last year by $34,122.22, and in advance of any previous year in the history of the Board. In addition to this increase $64,000 were received towards liquidating the debt. For this loyalty of churches and individuals the Board cannot too forcibly express its gratitude. But the receipts from legacies were only $87,990 as against $187,173 last year.

In this connection it seems well to call the attention of the Assembly and the Church again to the great necessity of increasing the amount of the Board's permanent funds.

Knowing that the salary of a missionary allows him no margin above an economical support, it is the purpose and most earnest desire of the Board to give the matter of prompt payment of salaries prominence in all its plans of operation.

PRESENT CONDITION.

The financial straits of the year have thoroughly tested the resources of the churches dependent upon the Board. If, as has been supposed, there were churches on the Board which ought to be self-supporting, and others which ought to receive less, the stringency of the year has afforded the best opportunity to discover them.

Presbyteries and their Committees have strong motives for relieving the Board and placing it upon a better financial footing. It is always a commendable ambition to desire to give the Gospel to neglected communities, to take possession of strategic points, to enlarge the work and the sphere of usefulness, as well as to have all their requests in behalf of established but dependent churches honored. These, together with a loyal sympathy with the Board, are powerful reasons for reducing to the minimum every application for aid that seeks their endorsement. There are satisfactory reasons for believing that they have never been more conscientious and careful than during the past year.

One blessing that has attended our financial trials has been more careful and faithful Presbyterial oversight. Another has been a more general acquaintance with the affairs of the Board and a deeper personal interest in the great cause of Home Missions, both by those who support the Board and those who derive support from it.

Another embarrassment under which the Board labors, arises from the tardiness with which those who contribute to the Board send in their gifts. Great opportunities for usefulness are often neglected because the resources of the Board for the year are entirely unknown until the year is drawing to a close. And much is necessarily spent in paying interest on borrowed money which would be saved if contributions were received earlier in the year.

THE FIELD.

In reviewing the field it is proper to begin in the Northeast, and pass Westward and Southward.

The Church may well look with pleasure upon the steady progress of its work in New England. There is no encroachment upon preoccupied territory. The manufacturing towns of New England have attracted multitudes of Scotch, and Canadians of Scotch ancestry. "There are more Canadians in this country than in Canada, and Canada is largely Presbyterian," says Dr. Scott. Those who know the conditions recognize the purpose and necessity of the work of the Presbyterian Church.

These people bring with them their characteristic loyalty to their ancestral faith and its symbols. Churches of other denominations, long established in New England, realizing that these people can be reached only by the Church which they know and love, give strong and substantial encouragement.

But the results of the work are its best justification.

Nine years ago Boston Presbytery had 2721 communicants and 2874 children in Sabbath-school. It has now about 5500 communicants and nearly 6000 children in Sabbath-school.

The accessions to the churches in Boston Presbytery exceeded those of any other Presbytery in the great Synod of New York except Brooklyn and New York.

But with all this growth and promise no new work has been undertaken in New England the past year, nor can it be until the treasury of the Board is relieved.

SYNODICAL SUSTENTATION.

Under this head can best be discussed the work from New England to the Mississippi river, north of Mason and Dixon's line.

These older Synods have, with laudable purpose, undertaken to care for their own dependent churches, without reducing their contributions to the Board. New Jersey has succeeded in doing this. It has done more. Its churches have steadily increased their contributions each year, having given to Home Missions $5000 more than they did last year, and at the same time supported all the mission work in their State. New York has done well, but has not accomplished its high aim. There has been a steady increase of aggregate contributions from the Synod ever since the sustentation scheme was adopted, but not a sufficient advance to support its own work, in addition to its gifts to the Board. Pennsylvania has an admirable plan, but has not been able to advance far enough to support all its work in addition to its regular contributions to the Board.

The Synods of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are aiming at the same thing, but working along different lines. Several Presbyteries in Ohio have attempted to support all the work within their own bounds and have made gratifying progress. Provision has been made for Synodical aid to the weaker Presbyteries.

Indiana has never been able to contribute as much as it received from the Board, but the Synod, at its late meeting, resolved to support all its own work, asking no aid from the Board.

The Synod of Illinois last year employed four evangelists to work among the feeble churches and destitute fields with a view to progress towards self-support. The results were very gratifying. This Synod is making a splendid record, having given to the Board nearly $16.000 more than it received. It is fast taking rank with the strongest Synods of the Church.

Michigan has had its share of numerical increase and material prosperity. There is an earnest and importunate appeal for the enlargement of our work within its bounds.

THE MIDDLE WEST.

Minnesota never disappoints us. Twelve churches have been organized, and there have been about two thousand accessions to the church membership during the year. Sixteen churches might be organized at once. It may be noticed from last year's Report that the Board had exactly the same number of missionaries in Minnesota that it had in California, ninety-seven. California contributed to the Board's treasury $3628. Great as has been the work in California, it has been greater in Minnesota, where the churches contributed $9393, nearly three times as much. And yet California has three thousand more Presbyterians than Minnesota. This contrast is intended to strengthen the proposition that it will pay to push our work in Minnesota.

What has been said of this State as a field of great promise may be said with some qualification of Wisconsin. Within the year last past there have been organized five churches, and gathered into our churches 1000 members. The present demand is for six new men.

In any estimate which takes into the account any of the great moral movements of our Christian civilization, the State of Iowa must always be accorded a place in the front rank. She has no great cities, no great centers of wealth, no large manufacturing or mining interests; and yet at the late meeting of the Synod a proposition looking towards Synodical sustentation was seriously discussed. Five new churches, with an aggregate membership of 115, have been organized during the year. The last year was one of spiritual prosperity. About 2200 have been added to the churches, nearly half of whom have been gathered by the mission churches. Fifteen more ministers are imperatively called for. The supply has never equaled the demand in Iowa.

Missouri has the well-grounded promise of great growth in wealth and population. Of her 3,000,000 population only about 16,000 are members of our Church. But there are many communities who most earnestly invite us to give them the Gospel. Sixteen are ready now and asking to be organized. A still larger number of communities are waiting for our missionaries, but have not been prepared for organization because of the Board's admonition "no new work." Thirteen churches within the bounds of this Synod have become self-supporting during the year, and are tributary to the Boards of the Church, and $172,000 has been raised and expended on church building. Missouri asks most earnestly for thirty new men. Its resources of coal, iron, lead, zinc, and building stone, and stones of commerce, grazing and fruit-growing lands, farming and lumbering industries, have never been known, not even suspected until recently.

What work we have in Arkansas is within this Synod. It consists of five churches, three of which are negro churches of great usefulness and promise, ministered to by men of learning and eloquence. Three railroads are pushing their lines into Northern Arkansas, and new towns will spring up to demand our attention.

A severe drought came up from the south and swept across the Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Western Kansas, Western Nebraska, and the Dakotas. The churches throughout that region called most earnestly for increased appropriations from the Board, but the increase was denied them for the same reason that all new work was declined. But the early spring gives promise of a prosperous year. The churches in Indian Territory and Oklahoma have something more than held their own, and thirteen have been organized. The "Cherokee Strip," with its 9,000,000 acres of attractive land, is about to be opened. Three counties, with a dozen towns, will be ready for several ministers.

From Kansas there come very interesting facts. Take Emporia Presbytery as fairly representing the State, lying as it does partly in the drought-stricken district and partly in the more favored regions. While there has been a perceptible decrease in the additions to the churches on certificate, because of the outward movement of population, the additions upon examination show an increase of five hundred per cent., two-fifths of which have been gathered by the self-supporting churches, and three-fifths by our missionaries. Another significant fact appears from the additions on certificate, namely: only one-third was received by the mission churches, while two-thirds entered the self-supporting churches, showing that the drift of the population was from the weaker towards the stronger churches in the old-established communities. While there has, therefore, been a loss in population, there has been a gain in church membership. And while there have been heavy losses by drought, there has been an increase of over $300 to the Board by that Presbytery alone. That State calls loudly for more men, and ought to organize a large number of new churches, but is held in check by the condition of the Board's treasury.

What has been said of Kansas is measurably true of Nebraska. The drought caused great suffering. Churches, of course, felt the effect most keenly, and yet four churches reached self-support, and fourteen dedicated houses of worship at an aggregate cost of $45,500. The Spirit of God has been manifest in many of the churches of the State, and again the accessions on examination exceeded those on certificate. The rapid growth of the cities, and the growth of manufacturing towns, and the increase of population in the frontier counties, call for at least eight new churches. Twenty men are needed in this State. South Dakota, with its great and rich mining regions in its western part, and North Dakota, with its vast, never-failing and inexhaustible Red River Valley, survive severe winters, droughty summers and Indian wars, and continue to grow and call for churches and ministers. North Dakota wants twenty-four men.

THE NEW NORTHWEST.

Montana, with its diversified and inexhaustible resources, has attracted three of the great transcontinental railroads, viz., the Union Pacific, which was diverted over 400 miles out of its course in order to tap that vast mining business; the Northern Pacific, which built over 800 miles of its main line to get through that great State from east to west, besides building six or seven lateral feeders; and the Great Northern, which went round by way of the great stock ranges, the neglected agricultural lands and the coal fields, along the course of the Missouri river, then came down to the mining centres after a part of Montana's big business, and now has resumed its march towards the Northwest coast.

Idaho lies to the west with an extent and variety of resources, and a population that demanded and justified Statehood. The new State of Washington completes the journey across the Continent from ocean to ocean without touching a territory From any point of view these three States are of thrilling interest and momentous importance. Into them, within a year, a half million enterprising citizens have gone.

Montana leads all the States in output of precious metals. But vast as is this industry and its possibilities, the State has the advantage of at least two other industries, each of which is sufficient to sustain a State, viz., agriculture and stock raising. The Board's investments in this State have been paying. Montana has twenty churches, six of which are self-supporting. This State calls for nine men to supply long-waiting and neglected fields. Idaho has been a profitable field for our Church, and offers great inducements to six new men.

The growth of Washington and its cities has been phenomenal. Seattle, Tacoma, Fairhaven, Whatcom, Anacortes, Spokane, and Ellensburg, have never been surpassed and seldom equaled in the rapidity and character of their growth.

During the year, fifteen churches have been organized by the irresistible force of the demand in spite of the halt called by the Board. The past has been a year of revivals in this young State. Sixteen churches have been organized, and 1500 souls gathered into our churches. Twelve men are imperatively called for in this State.

Oregon is not much behind. Its churches are growing into self-support, and our missionaries are very restive under the restraint which the condition of our treasury imposes. No finer field ever opened to the Board, and no more faithful and consecrated missionaries ever wrought in the vineyard.

THE SOUTHWEST.

California is better known than the newer States. Our Church work has steadily advanced, though there has been no specially fruitful revival. Last year the Presbytery of San Francisco gave more to Home Missions than it asked from the Board. Eleven more men are wanted for as many vacancies, even if we make no advance.

Nevada at last is looking up. Pioche, that so long seemed dead, comes to life and offers a very inviting field. Four other points call for organization and the Gospel. Seven men are needed.

Coming Eastward, we may, for the first time, class at least a portion of Utah with our American communities. Leaving the Mormon work to its appropriate head, we have cause for profound gratitude that the long and faithful labors of our missionaries in Salt Lake City and Ogden have been abundantly rewarded. American civilization has at last won the victory in those two cities over the Asiatic system that has so long dominated them, and with this progress our first churches have bravely assumed self-support. The second church in Salt Lake City is following in the wake of the first. A precious revival greatly cheered its members and enlarged their number. But Salt Lake City, with its fifty thousand population, should have a fourth and a fifth church, and Ogden a second. The power of the Spirit was manifest also at Manti, adding many, and among them some very influential citizens, to the membership. The mission at Richfield, the county seat of Sevier county, has grown into a church and members have been added as the fruits of special services. The churches in Utah were never so strong and hopeful as at the present time.

Wyoming.—The youngest of the sisterhood of States has yielded rich treasures to the prospector. Extensive coal, iron, silver, tin and soda mines have attracted railroads, population and capital. New communities have called for the church and minister; still only two new churches have been organized. Several growing towns in this State are pressing their claims upon us.

Colorado.—This State has had a vigorous and steady growth since the advent of the railroads, twenty years ago. The past year has marked another era of prosperity in material development and in church growth. Though the Presbyteries have been restrained from advancing into new and inviting fields by the inability of the Board to aid them, they have been compelled to organize two churches in communities where mission work had fully ripened. South Denver was one of these; Colorado Springs the other. Twelve men are needed, and could be secured for these promising fields if the Board were prepared to give them reasonable support. The churches of Colorado have contributed to the Board more generally than ever before.

New Mexico.—In 1881, there were five churches; there are now twenty-one. The annual increase of membership has been thirty-three per cent. This territory has been for three centuries under the domination of a corrupt and ignorant priesthood. About sixty-five per cent. of its population are Mexican Romanists, who ought to be enlightened and Americanized before the territory is admitted to the Union of States.

A large infusion of enterprising American citizens are making this territory their home, attracted by its fertile soil, mining resources and salubrious climate. Our American churches at Raton, Las Vegas, Santa Fé, Albuquerque and Socorro have had a healthy and vigorous growth. The Las Vegas church has assumed self-support. Albuquerque will do so within the coming year; Santa Fé soon after.

Arizona has been neglected. Our churches at Tucson and Prescott have long since passed out of our connection into other denominational relations, because of our inability to supply them with ministers. Our church at Tombstone, long vacant, has at last a settled pastor, but Phœnix has been calling in vain for some months. A new church was organized at Flagstaff during the year with a membership of eighteen, and a Mexican church at Lake Side. Six additional men are needed.

THE SOUTH.

There is a great opportunity in the South. Both branches of our Church do not supply the demand. Texas is a great State and growing greater. Agriculture and stock raising have been the chief occupations of its people, but its mineral resources are now attracting attention. Capital and population are coming in from the North, the East and foreign countries. Railroads and manufactories are multiplying. Four new churches were organized during the year; these grew out of missions formerly maintained and are not new work; many others are impatiently awaiting the assurance of aid that they may organize. There have been 500 accessions to the churches; 400 of these on examination. Twelve men are imperatively called for.

The Board's work in Alabama and Tennessee is within the bounds of the Synod of Tennessee. The growth of our churches has been gratifying; 125 members have been added to our mission churches in the Presbytery of Union, and 115 in those of Holston. Eleven additional ministers are very much needed in this Synod for the work now in hand. Eight new organizations are demanded. The Synod of Kentucky reports no church organized during the year, but 586 members have been added to our churches; of these, 388 were received on examination. Seven new churches are needed which three new men could supply.

The extensive mineral deposits of Eastern Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama are attracting immense capital and large population from the Northern States and foreign countries.

Florida.—The churches in this State report a very prosperous year: 134 have been added to the membership, and about $8000 has been contributed for all causes, being about eight dollars per member.

New enterprises are now springing up in Florida. Immense deposits of phosphates have recently been discovered, large areas of land have been drained, and the extensive production of sugar cane will add to the attractions and wealth of the State.

CITY EVANGELIZATION.

One-third of the population of the United States dwells in cities. There are several reasons for this fact. In the first place, rural occupations offer little opportunity for the rapid acquisition of wealth. In the second place, the cities present superior social and intellectual attractions. In the third place, the improved machinery now used on the farms enables one man to do the work which formerly gave employment to ten men. Nine are therefore thrown out of employment and must seek other occupations. In the fourth place, the application of steam and electricity to the business of life, and the rapid increase of manufacturing, open to them innumerable attractive places in the cities.

These facts present two problems to the Board: 1. What shall we do with the churches in the country and villages? It will not do to let them die. It is better, it is cheaper, to sustain rural churches in order that they may continue to be rich sources of nutrient elements by which the churches in the cities and the West may be enriched. The older Synods are trying to provide for this class of churches within their bounds, so that the Board's income may be used exclusively in the new West and in the cities.

2. What shall we do with the unchurched masses of the cities? It will not do to leave them to the voluntary care of individual city churches. The burden proves too great, and the provision too precarious. There should be some denominational provision and constituted oversight. In the nation's metropolis, where this work has been left to the churches of the city, great as has been their work, and liberal as has been their provision, the fact remains that large masses of the population are not reached.

But where the constituted power—the Presbytery—has undertaken the city work and called upon its ally, the Board of Home Missions, for aid, as in most of the Western cities, the results have been very gratifying. The work in the cities is relatively more economical than in the rural regions. Greater numbers are reached, and earlier results are accomplished; more speedy attainment to self-support, and earlier return of the invested money to the Board's treasury. The first church of Portland, Oreg., was aided by the Board four years, at an aggregate expense of $1100. Already that church has paid back to the Board about $100,000, besides making large contributions to the other causes of the Church. But that is not all. There are now twelve other churches in the city of Portland. In Kansas City great wisdom and untiring energy have been displayed in capturing a dozen strategic points for the Master. The strongest church in the city—the second—was nursed in its infancy by the Board. It has returned manifold in increasing annual contributions, besides nursing others into strength and ability to give. In Omaha an average of one church a year has been organized for fourteen years. The fifteenth church is ready for organization at the beginning of the fifteenth year. St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Denver, Los Angeles, Tacoma, Seattle, have made similar records.

Middlesboro, Ky., not yet two years old, with 5000 population, three railroads, several millions invested in established industries, with unmeasured wealth of resources in the immediate vicinity—Fairhaven, Wash., not yet two years old, with an assured population of 7000, or, including Sehome and Whatcom, now practically one, 15,000—Butte and Helena, Mont.—Salt Lake City, at last Americanized—shall these call in vain for help?

FOREIGN POPULATIONS.

There are thirty different nationalities, in every city in our country, having a population of 100,000 or over. The immigration last year represented ninety-seven different countries.

The missionaries of our Board are preaching the Gospel in twelve different languages, not counting the Indian languages and dialects. But we have scarcely touched the great work that lies before us among our foreign populations, although no department of our work is more promising. There are in Texas twenty counties dominated by Germans, an excellent class. We organized but one church among them last year. We ought to give them twelve ministers at least this year. Among the 200,000 Scandinavians in Minnesota, the 50,000 in Wisconsin, the many communities of them in the Dakotas, Kansas, Montana and Utah, there is a large per cent. accessible to our Church, and dependent upon us for the Gospel. There is a pressing call for twelve men for this work.

The Bohemians, notwithstanding the prejudice that unjustly attaches to their name, are among our most industrious and reliable citizens. Those of them who are Protestants are Calvinists, and cling to the Presbyterian form of government. They belong to the Reformed Church of Bohemia, which has always been represented in the Pan Presbyterian Council. A great responsibility rests upon our Church in view of the wants of this interesting people. There are 30,000 in New York city, where we have a church, 10,000 in Baltimore, where we have a church, 40,000 in Chicago, 50,000 in Wisconsin, 10,000 in Omaha, 50,000 in Minnesota, several large communities of them in Nebraska and Kansas conveniently situated for economical evangelization. We have fourteen churches among them already in our connection, besides sixteen stations ready to be organized at their own request by our Presbyteries.

IMMIGRATION.

Twenty per cent. of our immigrants are under fifteen years of age. Half are under twenty-five. If we were prepared to take them at this impressible age, and evangelize and Americanize them, one element of danger would become a source of security to our country.

EXCEPTIONAL POPULATIONS.

The Indians, the Mexicans, the Mormons, the Alaskans and the Mountain Whites of the South are passing through a period of pupilage which is necessary to prepare them not only for discharging the duties of citizenship, but for hearing profitably the preaching of the Gospel. The mission school is the chief agency in this work. Prosperity has generally attended the schools. There has been a steady progress towards more perfect organization and equipment. A very much needed and very complete academy building was erected at Logan, Utah, the ladies of New Jersey providing the money, and another at Mt. Pleasant, with money raised by the ladies of New York. Each of these has ten well-conducted mission schools in the populous valleys adjacent from which to draw students. These academies, together with the Collegiate Institute at Salt Lake City and Hungerford Academy at Springville, with all their tributary mission schools, are the realization of a plan matured sixteen years ago at the inception of our Mormon work. Our schools among the Mormons were never in a more prosperous condition. After careful sowing, faithful tillage and patient waiting the harvest time has come. There have been numerous conversions in our missions in Salt Lake City, Springville, Mt. Pleasant, Manti and Richfield. A church was organized at Richfield, another at Box Elder.

Our missionaries among the Mexicans are not able to meet the demand for the Gospel. They are assisted by native "Helpers," who are appointed by Presbytery to act under the special direction of the ministers whom they assist and by whom they are instructed. The means have been abundantly blessed, as the Statistical Report shows. During the year new opportunities have come to us. Populous valleys, which the missionaries had not been able to enter in safety, have opened invitingly to the minister and the mission school. Seven new communities have urgently petitioned for schools. There is not a plaza in all the Mexican regions now closed to us.

INDIANS.

The war with the Indians last winter had no perceptible effect upon our missions. No interruption was experienced and no excitement was observed among those who were under the influence and instruction of the Board's missionaries. Our churches among the Indians have 3000 members, not one of whom was in any way connected with the "Messiah craze," the "Ghost dance," or the troubles of last winter, but they contributed $4000 towards the benevolent causes of our Church. A voluntary society of Indian women at the Yankton Agency supports four native missionaries.

There have been precious revivals in the Indian Territory. At Spencer Academy many students were converted. Our church, among the Papagoes, at Sacaton, Ariz., has 25 members and a congregation of 300. The Sabbath-school numbers 150. Rev. Charles H. Cook, our faithful and very successful missionary to the Pimas and Papagoes, sends us this most interesting statement: "One-half the Pimas abstain from work on the Lord's day, and 370 children are in our school there, with a prospect that the attendance will reach 500 next fall." Our two churches, ministered to by Mr. Cook, cost $3000, of which the Indians paid in cash and labor about $2000. Our Indian boarding-school at Tucson is thoroughly equipped with buildings and appliances, and a splendid force of consecrated teachers. The enrollment has reached 142.

At Albuquerque our school has been most admirably managed by the Superintendent and an efficient corps of assistants.

ALASKANS.

A church of twelve members was organized at Hoonah, March 15. Our church at Sitka has received thirty-four members during the year, and now has a total of three hundred and eighteen. Some of the students have married, and begun to establish Christian homes. Others desire to prepare for teaching, and are now ready for normal training.

In this department of our work no advance into new communities has been attempted during the year, except at Point Barrow, the northernmost point in Alaska, where Dr. Jackson has established the first school, and provided the first missionary for the Esquimaux. The expense of this enterprise has been borne by special contributions.

MOUNTAIN WHITES.

These peculiar people present a most interesting and promising branch of work. There has been a steady and gratifying progress in all our schools among them.

Oakland Institute was sold during the year, so as to enable the Board to erect a building better adapted to the purpose and more capable of economical management, plans for which have been drawn.

BOARDS OF CHURCH ERECTION AND PUBLICATION.

This Report would be incomplete if no acknowledgment were made of the helpfulness of the Boards of Church Erection and Publication.

THE BOARD'S LITERATURE.

The condition of the Board's business, with fresh facts from the field, has been faithfully presented to the Church through The Church at Home and Abroad, and by means of innumerable tracts and leaflets frequently published. The Woman's Executive Committee have maintained The Home Mission Monthly as the organ of their work.

In conclusion, we cannot close our Report without emphasizing a few facts that must appear from the foregoing. The Presbyterian Church is not doing its part towards the evangelization of our country, and therefore not developing its resources for the conquest of the world for Christ. Hundreds of communities of our own people and of foreigners prefer the Presbyterian Church, and could work and grow best within its fold. They desire the same for their children, and they appeal to the Board, but appeal in vain. Opportunities of very great value to us—opportunities of rare occurrence in a nation's life, are slipping from us. We shall not have their like again.

NUMBER AND DISTRIBUTION OF MISSIONARIES.

The number of missionaries who have labored the whole or a part of the year in connection with the Board is 1677, and they have been distributed as follows: in

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Two changes have taken place in the membership of the Board during the year—the resignation of Mr. John Sloane, on account of business cares, and the election of Rev. David Gregg, D.D.; the resignation of the Rev. John C. Lowrie, D.D., Senior Secretary of the Board, which took effect May 1, severs an official tie which has existed since the organization of the Board.

On the basis of the authority granted by the last General Assembly the Board, on November 17, 1890, appointed the Rev. Thomas Marshall, Field Secretary, the funds to meet the expense having been secured outside of the Board's ordinary sources of income.

At the opening of the year the Board was greatly embarrassed as to its duty in regard to reinforcements. Of a large number of applicants for appointment, seventy-three, including wives, stood the test of a careful examination. The Board, after earnest and prayerful consideration, resolved to send forth these laborers, throwing the responsibility of their support on the Church. Because of impaired health and other providential reasons, six missionaries have retired and eight have been called into the joy of their Lord. These latter are: Rev. A. L. Blackford, D.D., of the Brazil Mission; Rev. B. B. Brier, of the Gaboon and Corisco Mission; Rev. R. E. Abbey, of the Central China Mission; J. W. Herron, M.D., of the Korea Mission; Miss Margaret R. Craig, of the Lodiana Mission; Mrs. J. N. Wright, of the West Persia Mission; Mrs. F. V. Mills, of the Central China Mission, and Mrs. Stanley K. Phraner, of the Laos Mission.

The work of the whole year has been most gratifying, although serious difficulties have occurred in several fields. The war between Guatemala and San Salvador, now ended, and the civil war in Chile, now raging, have interfered with mission plans in both countries.

The uprising among the Sioux, in our own country, while interfering with our work, illustrated the value of missions, because of the conspicuous absence among the hostiles of those who had been trained under missionary influence.

The virtual expulsion of our missionaries from Chi Ning Chow, in Shantung Province, China, though without violence, shows that the interior of that Empire cannot be won for Christ without anxious and patient effort. On the other hand the unchallenged occupancy of I Chow Fu, in the same province, shows that under God such effort will prove successful.

Work in Japan has progressed hopefully, notwithstanding serious apprehensions at the begining of the year. Large gains are reported from many parts of the Empire.

The Ottoman Government has permitted the reopening of long closed schools, and the reissue of the Neshra, an Arabic newspaper published by our Syrian Missions.

The aggregate additions to the churches reported is 2875, a slight increase over last year. Unusually large accessions are reported from the Shantung and Laos Missions.

The educational work shows a gain—total pupils 27,840, as against 26,348 last year, notwithstanding the closing of a number of day schools because of retrenchment. The boys in boarding-schools, including men in course of training for teachers and helpers, number 2202, nearly double that of last year, while girls in boarding-schools, including women under training, number 1715, an increase of 113. Students for the ministry number 160, an increase of about 50 per cent.

The work of Medical Missions continues to grow in favor as a pioneer evangelical agency. We have thirty-three physicians, of whom seven are ordained ministers, eleven lady physicians, twelve hospitals and fourteen dispensaries, with some native physicians trained by our force. In this work 116,659 patients have been treated, including about 6000 surgical cases.

Press work has gone on well. The aggregate of pages issued during the year is 64,023,335, of which more than 40,000,000 were Scriptures. The total receipts by the Treasurer during the year were $942,690.64, a gain of $148,624.20 over the year preceding. This gain is in every class of gifts except Sunday-schools and legacies, which are less than last year.

The receipts of the Woman's Boards and Societies have reached the highest figure yet touched, being an increase of $55,959.27 over last year.

By an arrangement with the Board, the salaries of sixty-five ordained and medical missionaries are provided through the Board's treasury by individuals, churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor. When, after the adjournment of the last Assembly, the Board was confronted with the question of the appropriations for the new year, it was found that a total of $900,000 would be required without serious retrenchment. This, in addition to the $60,000 carried over from the previous year. To cut down estimates to this figure required the omitting of much work which the missions deem essential. On the basis of the action of the Assembly, at Saratoga, authorizing the expenditure of $1,000,000, the Board appropriated $900,000, knowing that other special grants would be needed to meet exigencies. Formerly ten per cent. advance annually was thought the least the Church could do and keep pace with the natural growth in fields already occupied. A ten per cent. advance means now $100,000 dollars a year, and it is evident that this rate of increase cannot be realized through present methods. Some form of subscription plan has, on recommendation by a recent Assembly, been tried by a number of churches with marked success.

The Foreign Missionary spirit is abroad in our schools of learning, so that men and women stand ready to go at the church's call. The same spirit is also abroad in our churches, so that what is needed under God to secure steady advance in the work is a wise development of the resources within the Church, which ought to be available for the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Board,

F. F. ELLINWOOD.

* During the past two years, the Board has entirely rearranged its financial system, and by reducing the balances on the field, has been able to meet its appropriations in part from funds on the field.

This process is now completed, and does not diminish the expenditures, nor alter the relations of the Church in regard to the amount required for annual expenditure.

In this respect the result of the year was that the total receipts were $942,690.64, while the expenditures were $972,517.02 or $29,826.38 more than was given for the year's work. In addition to this was the deficiency of the previous year, $60,275.93, making in all $90,102.31 needed, beyond what was actually received.

Abstract of the Seventy-second Annual Report.

With gratitude to God for the goodly measure of success enjoyed during the past year, the Board of Education presents to the General Assembly its Seventy-second Annual Report.

In January last, the Board suffered a severe loss in the death of Samuel Field, one of its most valued friends and benefactors.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The number of these has been unprecedently large, in all 955. Of these, not less than 86 were declined, notwithstanding several of them were earnestly pressed for acceptance, leaving the number accepted at 869, an increase of 30 over last year. The injury inflicted by these refusals is one to be deplored. They entail the loss of valuable laborers for fields where the calls for labor are loud and the means for training them are scanty. The question is, Can these calls be met?

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The year opened with a debt of $8700. This acted as a constant restraint upon the acceptance of candidates, as the Board was unwilling to run the risk of reporting a heavier deficit at the end of the year. Yet the promises of support were so fair, and the urgency of the Presbyteries was so strong, and the need of ministers was so evident, that the Board ventured on assuming obligations to the utmost extent that a hopeful prudence would allow. Moreover, all was done that could be done to raise the funds required. But, notwithstanding the many efforts put forth, the Board regrets the necessity of reporting an addition to the debt of last year of $7300, caused in part by the reception of an increased number of candidates and in part by a falling off in legacies. The deficiency now amounts to $16,000, which will prove a heavy incubus on the Board next year. Would that the Presbyteries that recommend candidates for aid felt the obligation to contribute towards their support more keenly.

A review of the list of contributions received, even after making due allowance for the poverty and feebleness of many of the churches contributing, suggests the thought that in too many instances no collection was taken up, and the single dollar was forwarded to save appearances; or, if it was taken up, that it was preceded by no statement of the nature and demands of the cause. It is hardly credible that any church of respectable size would lightly treat an interest so vital to the welfare and spread of the Church when duly informed of its importance. Misapprehensions, no doubt, may exist in the minds of some individuals, and in certain communities, as to the necessity of aiding young men in their course of study for the ministry, or as to the pressing need of more ministers when so many seem to be unemployed. Prejudices, too, against the management of the Board may have been awakened in some, because of an unworthy candidate that has now and then been taken under its care. But these obstructions to beneficence might easily be removed by fair statements of counter facts that are abundantly on hand. And for presenting these statements the Board must depend on the ministers in charge. If they fail in this particular, it is virtually helpless.

THE DEMAND.

The number of churches marked Vacant in the "Minutes" of 1890 is 1163, an excess of 15 over that of the previous year. Many of these are of the first importance and find it not easy to obtain the men that suit. Evidently the churches are growing in size and strength more rapidly than capable ministers can be found for them. The consequence is that our strong men are called frequently from place to place as if for equal distribution; and they often leave places where, by reason of the peculiar needs of the region and the great influence they have acquired, their loss is severely felt. In these transfers the West is generally the greatest sufferer.

A sad lack of laborers is also reported from our mission fields and smaller churches. During the year ending 1890, not less than 222 new churches were organized, while 65 were dissolved, leaving a net increase of 157, for many of which no adequate provision could be secured. And there is prospect of a large increase in the near future through the labors of Sabbath-school missionaries, who, during the current year, have established over 1200 Sabbath-schools in places where there were no religious privileges whatever. Many of these, we are told, promise soon to become the nuclei of churches requiring pastoral care. The fruits of such noble evangelistic work it becomes the Church to secure by putting them in charge of a settled ministry.

Still further, in proportion as the churches at the South among the Freedmen multiply, the candidates from this class are increasing upon us. And these have to be aided from the academic stage up to their graduation in theology.

Finally, the General Assembly has urged the importance of a more vigorous prosecution of religious labors among the immigrant populations that are pouring in upon us at such an ominous rate. And men for these fields are being put under the Board's care in increasing numbers. These, too, must be taken into account when considering the question of the need of more ministers.

SUPPLIES.

While our churches are multiplying at this rapid rate, there was only a small increase in the graduates from our Theological Seminaries last year. In all they numbered 218, only 12 in advance of those the year previous, the increase being in McCormick and Lane Seminaries. Judging somewhat by the localities these graduates are from, we shall have to deduct about a dozen from this aggregate, as destined for other denominations. What accessions have been made by the ordination of non-graduates, we have no means of ascertaining. Plainly enough, however, our educated candidates are not equaling the demand as yet.

As has often been emphasized, the failure above noted results in two evils. One is, that it necessitates the ordination of imperfectly trained men to meet the pressing want. These, in many instances, after a while, betray their incompetency and become supernumeraries. The other is, a resort to other denominations for supplies, who may be only in partial sympathy with us and understand not our methods. And with noble exceptions these often disappoint expectation and fail to coöperate with us heartily. Our true policy, therefore, is to consecrate and educate our own sons to the work in our own schools, and in numbers sufficient to meet all exigencies. This is the only way to secure a homogeneous ministry, strong and acceptable to the people. Moreover, it is exceedingly desirable that this education should be conducted as nearly as possible to the fields where the young men belong. This will tend to keep them where they are often most needed. This is said with special reference to those living in the West and South. Proximity frequently has a determining influence in the matter of employment and settlement, and also of fitness. Instances constantly occur where the sons of the West, when educated at the East, remain at the East to the loss of their own region, especially if they happen to be men of superior ability. This fact has led to the organization of a new Theological Seminary at Omaha, though some of our Eastern Seminaries are by no means full. The plea is: We must have our candidates educated at home if we are to carry on our church work successfully. It is this fact also which gives such importance in a religious point of view to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, helping, as it does, to found its institutions upon new fields, and thus furnishing facilities for the education of young men resident there. At the same time, it must be remembered, that every such new institution makes new demands upon the Board of Education, in aid of the candidates in the earlier stages of their studies.

A fact worthy of note in this connection, is that proposals have come from some of our Missionary Presbyteries for instituting a less protracted and costly course of study, for candidates who are expected to supply our smaller country churches and mission fields. This plan is now adopted by our Congregational brethren both at the East and West, called for by the exigencies of the situation. Unless our Church makes more liberal provision for educating our candidates, a like measure may be forced upon us to save our churches. An average of two hundred graduates per year will by no means suffice to fill our vacancies, man our new churches, and make good our losses by death and dismissal. These are facts which require constant reiteration and earnest consideration.

CANDIDATES AIDED.

The number of candidates under care of the Board has increased from 839 to 869. They are distributed through their course of study as follows: in the Theological Seminaries, 368; in colleges, 443; in the preparatory department, 58.

Classified according to their nationality and race: 38 are Germans; 103 Negroes; 4 Scandinavians; 1 Japanese; 3 Bohemians; 4 Bulgarians; 1 Turk; 1 Spaniard; 3 Sioux Indians; 6 Mexicans; 1 Brazilian. The rest are American, Scotch, Irish and Dutch.

In point of scholarship, 262 are marked high; 320 medium +; 244 medium; 19 medium—; 3 low. A few of those marked below medium have been retained on special information from their instructors that their excellence in other respects warrants good hope of success in the ministry; 5 have been obliged to suspend study on account of ill health; 6 have withdrawn, having found other means of support; 4 have been called away by death; 21, though accepted by the Board on Presbyterial recommendations, were not reported by their professors as needing the scholarship, and, therefore, they were not paid.

Those who have completed their studies at the Theological Seminaries, and have been graduated this spring, are as follows: From McCormick, 40; Princeton, 22; Union, 13; Lane, 6; Western, 7; Auburn, 4; Biddle, 5; Newark, 2.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

The Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Fifty-third Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1, 1890, and closing March 31, 1891.

WORK OF THE BOARD.

The Board reports, with gratitude to God, that the past year has been in most respects one of prosperity, in which all the departments, to a greater or less extent, have participated.

SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

FUNCTIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT.

These are four—1. The organization and upbuilding of Sabbath-schools in needy districts of the country. 2. The distribution of books, tracts, lesson helps, Sabbath-school papers, Bibles and hymn books, by grants and by missionary sales. 3. The elevation and improvement of existing Sabbath-schools. 4. The collection and presentation to the General Assembly of Sabbath-school statistics.

SABBATH-SCHOOL ORGANIZATION AND UPBUILDING.

Two classes of agents are engaged in this work, styled respectively Permanent and Student Missionaries.

PERMANENT MISSIONARIES.

These are men who give their whole time to the work. The entire number employed during the whole or a portion of the year was 54, 4 more than were reported in 1890, who labored in 29 States and Territories. Of the 44 remaining in commission at the close of the year, 9 additional were commissioned shortly before March 31, making the entire number in commission at the end of the year, 53.

STUDENT MISSIONARIES.

Of these, 89 were in the field during the summer of 1890. They labored with faithfulness, and God crowned their efforts with success.

The whole number of Missionaries, Permanent and Student, in actual service during the last year was 143.

RESUMÉ OF RESULTS.

During the year our missionaries organized 1209 new Sabbath-schools and reorganized 65, with 4843 teachers and 40,528 scholars—a total of 45,371.

In addition to the foregoing, 135 schools were organized under the offer of the Board to supply hymn books, lessons helps, papers and Bibles to any man or woman establishing a Presbyterian Sabbath-school. It thus appears that there have been organized during the year, under the direct and indirect agency of the Board, 1344 new schools, having a membership of over 50,000 teachers and scholars. Our missionaries visited and otherwise aided 2567 schools; delivered 6171 addresses; visited 67,220 families; and traveled 306,115 miles.

PERMANENCY OF THE NEW SCHOOLS.

The Board has instituted a system by which it endeavors to ascertain the condition of all its new organizations. Each year a careful census is taken of schools that were organized during the preceding year. Reports have been received during the year just closed of the schools that were directly organized by our missionaries between April 1, 1889, and April 1, 1890, from which the following facts are gathered: Of the 1121 schools organized, 714 are alive and flourishing; 391 have succumbed to circumstances; 16 have not been heard from. From the 714 living schools, 78 churches have already grown. All of the 109 schools established during that year under the offer of the Board to supply needed books and lesson helps are alive and flourishing. These added to the 714 established by the direct efforts of our missionaries make a total of 823 living schools that, in the year ending April 1, 1890, were added to our lists.

ENLARGEMENT OF THE WORK.

Urgent calls for an increase in the number of missionaries come to us from Georgia, West Virginia, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Texas, Montana, and Washington. Already nine new permanent missionaries have been commissioned, who will be sent to some of these States as soon as practicable.

CONJOINT RESPONSIBILITY OF THE BOARD AND THE PRESBYTERIES.

The General Assembly of 1887, after directing the reorganization of the Board in accordance with the recommendation of the Special Committee appointed by the previous Assembly, adopted the following resolution (italics ours):

"Resolved, That inasmuch as the extension of the Board's work herein contemplated, requires the appointment of missionaries of high character and ability, their qualifications for the work should be judiciously weighed and their selection and appointment carefully made by the Board. No missionary of the Board shall labor within the bounds of a Presbytery except with the approval and under the supervision of the Presbytery or its appropriate Committee."

With the intent of securing to the Presbyteries their full authority in the case, the following directions have been incorporated in the printed code of "Instructions," a copy of which is placed in the hands of each missionary. A copy is also sent to the Chairman of the Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work of every Presbytery to whose bounds a missionary has been assigned.

"SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS TO MISSIONARIES.

"Consult and coöperate with the Committee of Presbytery on Publication and Sabbath-school Work. At the beginning of your labors ascertain who is Chairman of this Committee. Seek an interview with him; ask his advice and that of the other members of the Committee. Keep up frequent communication with them. Respect their counsel and wishes.

"If practicable procure from them a descriptive list of the localities in the Presbytery at which they will authorize and recommend you to organize Sabbath-schools.

"Advise with the pastors of churches in the neighborhood of your mission field.

"Attend the meeting of Presbytery, and report your work, and ask its advice and coöperation.

"You are not to organize a Sabbath-school in any locality unless you are expressly authorized to establish one there by the Presbytery or its Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

"On the fifteenth day of each month copy on your monthly blank Report all statistics of your labors since the fifteenth day of the preceding month contained in your blank book of forms. Send this monthly Report to the Chairman of the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work of the Presbytery within whose bounds you labor, for examination, correction and endorsement. Have this Report returned to you by the Chairman of the said Committee; then, and not till then, forward it to the Superintendent of the Department, so that it may be received by him before the end of the month.

"Send a duplicate of the Report which has been endorsed by the Committee to the Chairman of said Committee, to be retained by him."

GRANTS.

During the year there have been distributed 70,891 volumes of Christian literature, of which 3692 were Bibles. Of volumes, the missionaries sold 5405, and gave away, other than Bibles, 45,116; and the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee made grants of 16,178. The number of pages of tracts and periodicals given away by the missionaries was 2,711,480; the number granted by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 11,889,992; which, together, make 14,601,472. The net value of the grants (i. e., the exact cost to the Department) was $16,785.57.

SABBATH-SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT.

Efforts have been made to effect this by: 1. The promotion of teacher training. 2. The supply of personal letters to contributing Sabbath-schools from missionaries. 3. The presentation of prize Bibles to all scholars who receive certificates of having committed to memory the Shorter Catechism. 4. The suggestion to all our schools of concerted action for Sabbath-school extension.

SABBATH-SCHOOL STATISTICS.

The fourth function of this department is to collect statistics of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools, a tabulated statement of which is published in the Appendix to the "Minutes" of the General Assembly. The following table presents a synoptical comparison of the full statements that appeared in the Appendices to the "Minutes" of 1889 and 1890.

PERIODICALS.

No new periodicals have been started during the past year, and there have been no changes in the form of those regularly issued. A few descriptive words concerning each of these will explain their character and object.

THE WESTMINSTER TEACHER is issued once a month, each number containing forty pages. It is prepared specifically for the teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools, but it is used also by many Bible-class scholars. It is published in octavo form. Price, single copy by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 50 cents each copy.

THE WESTMINSTER QUESTION BOOK is a complete manual for the study of the International Bible Lessons for the year. It is adapted to higher grade or Senior classes. Price, $12 per 100 net; single copy, by mail, 15 cents.

THE WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY is adapted to intermediate and Bible classes. It is an octavo of 36 pages, and is issued quarterly. Each number contains full lesson work for three months, with order of service and music. Price, $12 per 100 copies to one address, for one year; single copy, 20 cents.

THE WESTMINSTER PRIMARY QUARTERLY is adapted to the little people. It is prepared by Mrs. G. R. Alden ("Pansy"). Price, school subscriptions, to one address, 100 copies per year, $8, or 8 cents for each scholar.

THE LESSON LEAF is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but so arranged that if desired the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Price, school subscriptions, to one address, 100 copies per year, $5; or 5 cents yearly for each scholar.

THE WESTMINSTER PRIMARY LESSONS. In the same form and at the same rate as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

THE GERMAN LESSON LEAF is prepared specifically for the Sabbath-schools of our German congregations. It is published monthly. The price is the same as that of the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

FORWARD.—An illustrated semi-monthly paper of twelve pages, which may be taken once or twice a month as subscribers desire. Price, school subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies per year, $15; twice a month, 100 copies per year, $30.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL VISITOR.—An illustrated semi-monthly four-page paper, which may be taken either once or twice a month. Price, school subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies per year, $10; twice a month, 100 copies per year, $20.

THE MORNING STAR.—An illustrated semi-monthly, which may be taken once or twice a month. Price, school subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies per year, $5; twice a month, 100 copies per year, $10.

THE SUNBEAM.—A weekly paper for the little ones. Price, school subscriptions, to one address, $20 per 100 copies, for the year. No subscription taken for less than a month.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This department has charge of all the property of the Board, and conducts all its business operations. Of these operations, the most important are, first, the publication (manufacture) of books, tracts and periodicals, and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

There have been published during the year 1,310,300 books and tracts and 21,367,199 periodicals, which, together with 8150 copies of the Annual Report and 1000 copies of the History of the Board, printed for gratuitous distribution, make an aggregate of 22,686,649 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work continues to be performed, as was reported last year, by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia and twenty-three depositories and branch houses, eighteen of which are in our own land, four in British America and one in England. These agencies are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES AND BRANCH HOUSES.

Our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools by circulars addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents. Our missionaries also bring all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

PERIODICALS.

Our periodicals form one great system which is not only of inestimable benefit to the Church at large, but is remunerative to the Board. Four of them, viz.: Forward, Morning Star, Westminster Primary Lessons and Westminster German Leaf, were published until the year covered by this Report at a pecuniary loss; the total deficit for the year ending March 31, 1890, was $710.60. All of them, with the exception of the German Lesson Leaf, not only have reached a paying basis, but have returned profits which have been used towards liquidating the accumulated deficits charged against them. The German Lesson Leaf was established on the recommendation of the General Assembly and as a missionary enterprise. In view of its missionary character the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department has assumed the payment of all future deficits.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $103,572.05. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received.

The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $151,430.12.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts into the treasury during the year from all sources were $364,797.49. To this should be added the balance in the treasury, April 1, 1889, making a total of $434,440.91.

The entire expenditures have been $360,860.70.*

The balance in the treasury, April 1, 1891, is $74,080.21. This balance includes not only the balance belonging to the different departments of the Board, but also those due to The Church at Home and Abroad, and the Missionary Bible Fund. The total balance belonging to the Business Department alone is $45,157.16.

NET PROFITS.

The net profits of the year have been $12,517.48. Of this sum, two-thirds, or $8344.99, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $4172.49, has been added to the capital stock.

---

* The apparent discrepancy between the preceding statements of " receipts " and " expenditures," and those given in the Treasurer's Report, page 34 (" cash received," $373,142.48 ; " cash paid," $368,705.69), is due to the fact that, in the Report, each of the statements is increased by the amount paid over from the Business Department to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, viz., $8344.99.

CAPITAL STOCK.

This, at the beginning of the year, amounted to $512,128.76; it is now reported at $516,301.25. (See Report of Standing Committee, p. 123.)

THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of The Church at Home and Abroad. The relations of the Board to this magazine are different, however, from those which it sustains to the other periodicals which it publishes.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under its general direction, as does also the Board itself in this particular. The Board is an agent, rather than the principal, in its publication, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in reference thereto.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

The amount of receipts* on account of the magazine for the year was $19,122.76. The number of copies published was 243,519.

A balance of $2783.29 now stands to the credit of this magazine in the books of the Treasurer.

Abstract of the Twenty-first Annual Report.

I. THE DEMANDS OF THE FIELD.

The annual applications to the Board are nearly equal in number to the churches organized, the new congregations able to build without aid being offset by those that, though old enough to need to enlarge or build anew, are still pecuniarily weak.

The total number of applications brought before the Board during the year was for church edifices 190, and for manses 52, and the aggregate sum asked was for church buildings $123,615, and for manses $21,498, or a total of $145,113, which is $16,073 more than last year and $27,856 more than the year before.

The steady and marked growth of the Board's work, which, of course, simply reflects the progress of the Church, is indicated by the amount of the applications in succeeding years. Omitting the manses, the applications for five years have been respectively $94,112, $94,802, $104,457, $113,345, $123,615. In other words, there has been an advance in the demand in five years of more than 31 per cent.

II. THE RESPONSE OF THE CHURCH.

Again the Board must call attention to the depressing fact that of the 6894 churches upon our roll 3716 made no contribution at all to the work of this Board. It is true that some of these congregations have only a nominal existence, and many of them are weak and overburdened, but it still remains true that among them are numbered scores, and probably hundreds, that can make no such excuse for neglect, and some even that are to be counted among the most prosperous in material things.

The working income of the Board, including the small balance from last year and the actual receipts, was as follows:

Balance unappropriated, ...		$4,557 71
Contributions from churches, . . .	$60,082 23
Individual contributions, ...	1,556 02
Legacies, ...	9,701 02
Interest on invested Funds, ...	10,137 61
Sale of church buildings, ...	2,282 42
Appropriations returned, ...	1,624 75
Receipts from insurance, ...	3,232 81
Special contributions, ...	14,687 63
		103,304 49
Surplus in Permanent Fund, ...		5,038 51
Manse Fund, balance unappropriated, .		879 73
Contributions to Manse Fund, . . .	$1,951 56
Repayments to Manse Fund, ...	9,583 91
Interest, Manse Fund, ...	384 56
Special Contributions, Manse Fund, . .	941 81
		12,861 84

III. THE APPORTIONMENT.

1. Churches.—Appropriations have been made during the year for 173 church edifices. These have been in response to applications from 27 Synods, 103 Presbyteries and 36 States and Territories. The total appropriations for church edifices have reached the sum of $86,901, which is $9493 less than last year. This reduction has been enforced by the want of means to respond in full to the applications of the churches, the demands having been larger than ever before.

To this must be added the special gifts, aggregating $14,531.10, and distributed among 42 churches—making the entire amount promised through the Board for church edifices $101,432.10.

The actual payments were $91,465, of which $14,531.10 were on account of special gifts, and $1180.90 were received from insurance companies to meet losses from fire.

2. Manses.—The applications for aid in manse building (52 churches asking for loans to the extent of $21,498) were, as has been already seen, larger than in any year excepting the first since the manse work was inaugurated. Of these, 42 were approved and 40 loans were made to the extent of $14,385, and two grants amounting to $783. It should be said, however, that $558 of this latter sum was provided by special gifts. The advance upon last year was $4918.

IV. SUMMARY OF RESULTS.

While, owing to the lack of funds, there has been this year necessarily a falling off in the aggregate amount disbursed, yet the uninterrupted growth of the work is indicated in the fact that the number of churches reached was larger than ever before, viz., 271, and the aggregate amount thus pledged, including all appropriations, general and special, and payments of losses by fire, was $117,730. As usual these churches are found in all the Synods of the Church, and in every State and Territory to which our Church extends. Of the Presbyteries about one-half are represented upon our roll.

The aggregate of receipts in all departments was $120,774.45, and the sum of all payments, including expense of administration, was $121,065.67.

V. WORK IN THE FUTURE.

During the year the Board has taken much pains to gather the facts in regard to the number of church edifices and manses within the bounds of our Church, their value and distribution, and also the number of congregations without church homes. The value of the property is necessarily only estimated, but the estimates have been made by those whose familiarity with the buildings and with the value of neighboring property gives their opinion great weight. Returns were received from all of the Presbyteries in this country excepting nine. and in their case estimates were added in accordance with the returns from neighboring and corresponding Presbyteries.

While the figures are, therefore, not exact, it is believed that they very nearly represent the facts, the values being doubtless under rather than overestimated. Foreign Synods and Presbyteries are omitted. The result is as follows:

Number of church organizations,	6,754
Number of edifices (including chapels),	6,351
Number of churches without edifices,	804
Estimated value of church edifices and chapels,	$68,801,894
Number of manses,	1,766
Estimated value of manses,	$5,447,400

In several instances the number of manses and their value were omitted in the returns, and it is probably within bounds to say that the value of church property in the Presbyterian Church amounts to $75,000,000.

As many of the churches own mission chapels, the number of congregations without edifices cannot be computed by the number in excess of the reported number of buildings. While there are only 403 more congregations than edifices, there are still 804 without any building at all—or nearly 12 per cent. of the whole number. But little more than one-quarter of our churches—26 per cent.—are reported as having manses.

The average value of the church edifices throughout the country is about $10,800, and of the manses a little more than $3000; many of the manses, however, are upon the church lots, and thus are estimated aside from the value of ground.

[In the Report, as presented to the Assembly, and as distributed through the Church, an analysis of the figures obtained is given, and a table is printed showing in compact form the conditions of the different Synods in respect to church edifices, manses, values, and percentage of want. It is to be hoped that these figures will be examined by our ministers generally, and by the officers of our churches.]

From these figures it will be seen that a great work is before the Church if the ground that has been occupied by our advancing missionaries is to be held. The 804 congregations without church homes appeal to the sympathy and affection of their sister congregations within the bounds of our Church. Doubtless there are a certain number of these churches that are newly organized in our older Synods, and are able to provide for themselves, but 555 of them are west of the Mississippi, and 86 of them among our Freedmen. Many of the others, although in our older States, are equally unable unaided to carry through their enterprises successfully.

Is it asking much to pray that the Presbyteries will arouse the churches that in the past have done nothing, to make at least some contribution to this work? It has already been noted that 3716 churches, more than half of those upon the Assembly's roll, gave nothing last year to this Board. If one-half of these would unite in the work, and if those that have heretofore aided would aim at an advance of 10 per cent., the Board could meet all really necessary claims.

All of which is respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

SAMUEL D. ALEXANDER, President.

ERSKINE N. WHITE, Corresponding Secretary.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD:

1334 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The number on the roll of the Board to whom remittances were sent upon the recommendation of the Presbyteries during the year from April 1, 1890, to April 1, 1891, was 642: that is, ministers, 266; widows of ministers, 342; orphan families, 31; two women "who have given themselves to missionary work under the care of the Home or Foreign Board for a period of not less than five years" (see printed "Minutes" of the General Assembly, 1888, page 83), and one widow of a medical missionary (see printed "Minutes," 1889, page 32). The number of families provided for during the year at the Ministers' House, at Perth Amboy, N. J., in lieu of receiving a remittance in money, was 17, making upon the roll of the Board during the past year a total of 659 families, an increase of 17 over last year. The Presbyterial recommendations in their behalf came from 162 Presbyteries. The Presbytery of West Africa recommends three families. Besides several withdrawals from the roll, owing to a change in pecuniary circumstances or restored health, which has rendered further aid from the Board no longer necessary, 39 names have been removed from our roll by death; that is, 27 ministers and 12 widows. There have been 83 families added to the roll during the year; that is, 52 ministers, 25 widows, and 4 orphan families, and 2 women who have given themselves to missionary work.

THE NEW RULE OF THE ASSEMBLY.

There are now upon the roll of the Board 58 ministers who have applied for aid under the new rule of the Assembly, which provides that: "Every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age, who is in need and who has served our Church as a missionary of the Home or Foreign Board or as a pastor or stated supply for a period in the aggregate of not less than thirty years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support, without a necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery." The maximum sum to be paid by the Board upon such application was fixed by the Assembly at $300, and 47 of these venerable men, enrolled under the new rule, have certified to the Presbytery that they were in need of this sum annually for their support in their helpless old age. The oldest of them is in his ninety-eighth year; eighteen are over 80. The average age is over 78, and the average number of years spent in the ministry is nearly 49. During the two years in which this new rule of the Assembly has been in operation, the whole number of ministers enrolled upon this list is 66. Eight have been called to their reward on high, leaving the present number as given above, viz., 58. The entire annual sum appropriated to these fifty-eight aged ministers amounts to only $16,200, an average of a little less than $280.

THE MINISTERS' HOUSE, AT PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

In addition to the guests at the Ministers' House, recommended by the Presbyteries as given above, there have been a number during the year who have resided temporarily at the House, at their own charges, while recuperating their health. So long as the rooms may not be wanted by those for whom the House is specially designed, its advantages are offered to ministers needing its quiet and rest, but who, not wishing to be a charge to the Church, are glad to pay such a sum as shall cover the expense of their board.

During the past year two of the guests have been called away by death. One of them, who needed care and attention which could not be secured at the House. was brought in the early part of the year to the Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia, where, tenderly cared for by the trained nurses for several months, she quietly breathed her last. The Ministers' House is not a desirable place for those who need this care of trained nurses, or who should have constant medical attendance. Such persons, it will be well for the Presbyteries to remember, can be better cared for elsewhere, and they should, therefore, be recommended for an appropriation from the Board, rather than for admission to the House.

During the past year Miss Bower, who had so acceptably filled the position of Superintendent from the opening of the House in 1883, resigned her position, and her place has been filled by the election of Mrs. S. J. Clark, whose testimonials show her eminent qualifications for the post. She entered upon the duties of her office on the 1st of last November.

THE TREASURY.

The entire income of the Board during the past year (see page 20 of the Report) amounted to $155.154.78. This includes the interest from the Permanent Fund as well as the contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals.

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS FOR CURRENT USE.

	1889-90.	1890-91.
(1) Contributions from Churches and Sabbath-schools, ...	$92,570 89	$94,119 27
(2) Contributions from Individuals, . . .	12,798 67	14,896 54
(3) Interest from Permanent Fund, ...	34,911 84	45,782 89
(4) " Deposits in Bank, . . .	330 12	580 96
(5) Miscellaneous Receipts, ...	245 12	275 12
	$140,856 64	$155,154 78

This is the largest income the Board has ever received, but the demands upon our treasury have also been larger than ever before—the entire expenditures of the Board amounting to $151,321. This leaves a balance in our treasury, as the result of the year's operations, of $3833.78.

The Report calls attention to the fact, that although the appropriations have increased from $113,669, as reported to the Assembly in the Centennial year, to $139.705 in the year just closed, the contributions (though somewhat larger than in the year previous) are still $2219 less than those reported in 1888. It will readily be seen that were it not for the large increase of our income from the Centennial Fund, the Board would be unable to meet the demands now made upon its treasury. It will be well, therefore, for pastors and elders in presenting this cause to the people for their contributions during the coming year, to remind them that, even with the great addition to our income from the interest of the Permanent Fund, last year, and with all the appropriations continued on the same small scale as in previous years, the Board had a balance between the receipts and expenditures of the year of only $3833.

CENTENNIAL OFFERING.

The total of contributions to the Centennial offering, as given in the final Report of the Committee, to the General Assembly of 1889, having this matter in charge, amounted to $595,734.86. Of this sum, $590,820.07 (see page 21 of the Report) have been transferred to the Board for investment, and the entire amount (except $375.18) is now bearing interest. The Committee of the General Assembly "on the disposition and investment of the Centennial Fund" recommended in their Report to the Assembly of 1889, that the Board call in the aid and advice of brethren conversant with the distant localities in which any of the Fund may be invested; and the Board have been able to place loans amounting to $102,000, at six per cent., through the agency of a Committee in St. Paul, Minn., of which Mr. C. H. Bigelow was the Chairman; also $20,000 at the same rate of interest through the help of a Committee at Wichita, Kans., of which Rev. John D. Hewitt, D.D., was the Chairman. The thanks of the Board are due these brethren for their kind aid in placing these loans.

LEGACIES.

The Permanent Fund of the Board has been largely increased by legacies ($43,083.61—see page 40 of the Report) during the past year. All of the bequests to the Board (unless the legatee directs otherwise) are placed in our Permanent Fund.

LADIES' AID SOCIETIES.

A list is given on page 22 of Ladies' Societies sending boxes to the families upon the roll of the Board. The estimated value of these is $5657.35. The estimated value of boxes sent last year was $5551.04.

OVERTURE FROM THE PRESBYTERY OF BALTIMORE.

An Overture was presented to the last General Assembly from the Presbytery of Baltimore, asking the Assembly to substitute the word "pensions" for the word "relief" in the title of the Board, with a view of removing the charity thought from its appropriations—urging that if such a change be made, "the distributees of the fund will occupy the respectable position of pensioners in lieu of the equivalent rôle of eleemosynaries."

By direction of the General Assembly, the Board have taken the whole subject into consideration, and while repeating and emphasizing the earnest hope that every possible means shall be used by which the claim of the sick and aged ministers of the Church and of their dependent widows and orphans shall be clearly recognized, not as the claim of charity, but that of equity and justice, they report to the Assembly that it does not seem clear to them that the change proposed by the Overture in the title of the Board will accomplish the desired object. Nor are the Board able to suggest any other change that will appreciably remove the eleemosynary idea so generally and wrongfully connected with the appropriations of this Board. These appropriations are made only to those who are "in need" and the word "relief" therefore seems to express the aim of the Board as well as any other word that can be employed. The pastors themselves, in presenting the claims of the Board to the people, can do much towards placing it in its true light—as the agency by which the Church discharges (in part) its sacred obligations to the ministry. Of course, every consideration that enforces the no less sacred duty of the Church to its poor, strengthens the claim of these suffering brethren of Christ. No story of want and suffering can have a more pathetic interest than that which comes so often to this Board from these refined, cultured, educated men and women in whose homes there is now hard and bitter want. But this should not be allowed to obscure the real ground of their claim upon the Church, which is their service to it at salaries ordinarily sufficient only for a bare support. Pastors and missionaries have but little opportunity to lay by anything for protracted sickness, or for helpless old age, or for the support of their families after their death.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

WILLIAM C. CATTELL, Corresponding Secretary.

This has been one of the Board's most successful years, as will be seen by a careful consideration of this Report. Missions in the old fields have been strengthened and enlarged, and we have advanced into new territory as our means would allow. We have sustained in the field 354 missionaries, 288 of whom are colored. This last fact is encouraging when it is remembered that twenty-five years ago we had not a single educated colored preacher or teacher.

The total receipts of the Board for the year were $155,078.13.

The Board closes the year with no notes outstanding and with a cash balance of $7770.80. The exact financial condition of the Board is evident when we add that we have $31,970 temporarily invested, and available when needed, making a real cash balance of just $39,740.80. On the other hand, the sum of $26,539.19 of the money in the hands of the Board has been contributed for special purposes, and will be needed as the work on the new buildings progresses, while the sum of $15,000 has been appropriated for the new buildings at Burkville, Va., and at Rogersville, Tenn., and the new building to be erected in Mississippi. This makes an aggregate of liabilities amounting to $41,539.19. Subtract from this our balance of $39,740.80 and we have a net indebtedness of $1798.39. This, however, would be met by interest on temporary investments before the money will all be needed, so that the Board closes the year entirely free from debt.

It is gratifying to report that the colored people in our churches and schools have this year given towards self-support $45,581.39, an increase of more than $4000 over last year. Many of our churches, however, have failed to report in regard to this matter. If all the reports had come in we have no doubt they would have run the total up to $50,000.

The following table will show the work of the year in detail, and will show a growth all along the line as compared with last year, except in the total of communicants, which may be accounted for by the removals above alluded to, and churches becoming self-sustaining. Two churches on the roll last year, with over six hundred members, are now among the self-sustaining churches:

The work of the Women's Department during the year has been especially gratifying. It has extended its influence among churches and societies heretofore unreached, and a deeper interest than ever before has been awakened in the minds of the women of the Church. As an evidence of this growth, the receipts of this year show an increase of $8457.99 over those of last year.

The following table of receipts from the beginning of our work among the Freedmen to the present time, will show how the Board has grown in the sympathy and confidence of the churches. This growth is really remarkable when we consider the prejudice which existed against this work at its beginning, both at the North and the South. The prejudice was widespread and in many localities intense. It will be remembered that the first Secretary, Rev. S. C. Logan, D.D., found great difficulty in getting into many of our churches in the North to present the work of the Board.

It will be noticed that the receipts of the last eleven years more than doubled those of the preceding eleven years, and exceed the entire receipts of the previous fifteen years by $554,371.91, and that the receipts of the last five years exceed those of the immediately preceding six years by $199,984.41.

TREASURER'S ADDRESS, P. O. Box 294, Chicago, Ill.

ABSTRACT OF SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The death of Hon. Jacob S. Farrand, a member of the Board is noticed. "He will be remembered with the warmest respect and affection."

The Board's work is fast coming into systematic shape, and by the exaltation of the principle of getting and keeping out of debt.

The Board's policy includes these three elements:

1. That for those of the Church's aided institutions that are still carrying any debt the Board will do its utmost for the removal of the burden—in part by bringing to them help from the Church at large; but chiefly by stimulating, through the offer of such outside aid, the utmost liberality of the several neighborhoods that are to profit by the proposed relief.
2. That when new schools or colleges apply to be received under the Board's care, it will require them to go so far in providing school properties (not necessarily complete, but adequate for present school work) that, if they be not already quite paid for, the Board, out of the means entrusted to it, can complete the payment; so that the school shall, from the first, carry no clog of debt or interest. It is a necessary part of such a policy that the school thus started without debt shall not go into debt for any new property, except under full understanding with the Board concerning means of payment.
3. That every school shall conduct its current school work within its current means (the Board's yearly appropriation, of course, included); so that no school property shall be put under a load of unsettled claims, whether of teachers or of others.

PAYMENTS MADE ON PROPERTY DEBTS.

The following table shows what the Board has done during the year in this direction:

College of Southwest, Del Norte, Colorado,	$5,387
Whitworth College, Sumner, Washington,	1.000
Longmont Academy, Colorado,	4,200
Scotland Academy, South Dakota,	1,700
Carthage Collegiate Institute, Missouri,	3,000
	$15,287

The five institutions above named are, in the aggregate, improved in their condition to the amount of $40,000 by means of the Board's payment of a little more than $15,000.

Twenty-two (nearly two-thirds) of the institutions that are under the Board's care are substantially out of debt already; the sum of their debts (outside of those already provided for) amounting to less than 3 per cent. of their total property. That total, as reported by these twenty-two institutions, is $651,264, upon which the total of unprovided debt is $16,685. After these, a little more than a third of the Board's institutions remain, whose proportion of debt is larger, reaching in the aggregate to nearly 20 per cent. of their total property. Still, all these burdens, with a single exception, are materially smaller than some which the friends of this cause have already enabled the Board to lift.

It thus appears that under a steady, though even moderate, supply of means, the problem of clearing off remaining property debts offers no difficulty whatever.

Though the Board has covered by promise every dollar of Property Fund which it has now in sight, it is so sure of the trustiness of its methods and of the approval which, in so many ways, is already accorded to them, that it watches without question for the continuous gifts which are to carry so careful a policy to complete success.

STARTING NEW SCHOOLS WITHOUT DEBT.

The applications newly made to the Board during the past year have been well adapted to test the wisdom of its refusal to load itself with the debts of new properties. (For details, see Report.) With its present means of current help less than sufficient for the current work which it has in hand; with no more Property Fund in possession than is fully covered by its present offers, and with an unprovided list of property debts fully sufficient to absorb all the additional Property Fund upon which it dares to count for the next year or two, to what good purpose could the Board undertake both to sustain more work and to provide for a further list of property debts? We wait for nothing but the means of a prudent administration, and are ready to use them with the greatest delight.

KEEPING SCHOOL WORK WITHIN SCHOOL INCOME.

Every college and academy applying to the Board during the past year was informed in advance of its application that such restriction of expenses must be effected; and that, after the several votes of appropriation should be made and communicated, each Board of Trustees would be expected to return an itemized schedule of its contemplated expenses, together with a similar schedule of contemplated income (the Board's appropriation included), and that these two were required to balance.

The system thus introduced has, even in its first year, gone very far towards complete success. Accordingly, no reasonable doubt remains of the safe and regular working of the system from this time forward. In order to this, pains have been taken to make every Board of Trustees aware that its complete coöperation in this matter of yearly balanced books will henceforth be absolutely required.

But now, when full understanding is had of the Board's settled policy of restricting work within income, what a mistake will it be in a Church that counts the work important, to allow it to be hampered because the means are lacking.

The Church and the Board are to understand together that to keep out of debt is not the only thing. In ordinary trade it is not always even the best thing. If this Board and its schools were doing business in forms that admitted of ventures promising large returns, and if they had capital of their own to be ventured, it might be even wise in them to risk some debts. But they subsist by gifts, and they have no right to put those gifts to risk. None the less should the givers consider that they themselves put their gifts to risk when they keep the volume so small that it cannot do its appointed work; and so keep their schools out of debt, indeed, on the one hand, and out of all thrift on the other. Schools, like men, can, under certain circumstances, both keep out of debt—and starve. This Board proposes a partnership with Presbyterian forethought and benevolence on these conditions: The Board offers to furnish economical management and perfect trustiness; the other partner must furnish money. With that provided, the Board is now in shape to do, with God's blessing, a work of breadth, permanence and multiform beneficence second to no other now projected in America, if in the world.

RECEIPTS OF THE YEAR.

The number of contributing churches has been 2178, an advance of 143 upon the preceding year. A few of these have contributed through their Sabbath-schools only.

Receipts from these churches and Sabbath-schools have been of two sorts. The greater part by far have been sent to the Board's treasury.

These have amounted to $30,502.93. But this year, for the first time, the Board has put all the colleges and academies on its list at liberty to "solicit and receive" from the churches of their respective Synods and Presbyteries, those churches' annual collections taken for the Board; and it has given credit for such collections, though they constitute a clear addition to the appropriations which the Board has definitely voted. This policy has had its expected effect of adding materially to the liberality of the neighboring churches so solicited. In particular it is found that of the nineteen Presbyteries in which the aided academies are located, only four have failed to make some increase upon the giving of the former year. And of the eighteen Synods which contain either those Presbyteries with their academies, or their own several Synodical colleges, there are but four in whose aggregate of contributions similar increase is not manifest. The total of such increase in the eighteen Synods containing aided institutions exceeds $3500. But the schools have secured not only this $3500 of additional giving, but so much of the former routine giving of the churches that, as the following table shows, church collections have added nearly a third to the total pledged from the Board's own treasury. They have added, that is, $9069.18 to $30,950.

The total giving of churches and Sabbath-schools, including direct gifts to their local schools, has been $39,778.30, which is larger by $4040.55 than the giving to this cause by churches and Sabbath-schools in any former year.

The Board has further received the following gifts from individuals: To its General Fund, which is expended on current work, $1290.33; in assistance of the current work of special schools, $1010. In addition to these amounts the several schools have reported individual donations in aid of their current work to the aggregate amount of $6757.81. Thus the total of contribution made during the past year from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals to the current work of the Board has reached the sum of $46,536.11, which is larger by $7139.91 than the similar total of any former year.

In addition to the foregoing contributions to the Board's current work, it has received for the increase of the property of its own institutions, the total of $50,000; made up of a gift of $10,000 reported in a former year as promised by Mr. C. H. McCormick, and of final payment of $40,000 upon the legacy of $50,000 left to the Board by Mr. William Thaw. There has also been sent to it a legacy from the estate of the Rev. Dr. Carson W. Adams, to the amount of $6500, to be held by the Board in trust (and for a special object) under the name of the Martha Adams Fund.

The total of this year's receipts into the Board's treasury has been $89,303.26, against $84,996.16 of the former year.

But we have yet to notice those gifts which are made to the property of our institutions without passing through our treasury. They add $41,050.71 to all amounts above set forth; and show that the total of direct giving to our institutions has this year reached the sum of $57,083.89; outmeasuring by $17,420.74 the corresponding total of 1889-90. The fact that such an increase comes in connection with the Board's introduction of its policy of balanced accounts for all schools, is worthy of notice. Of such safe giving to institutions that keep within the Board's safe rule we hope for more and more.

The aggregate of all receipts this year reported, whether by the Board's treasury or by its institutions, is $146,387.15. It exceeds the similar aggregate of the former year by $51,727.84.

CURRENT AID.

In the table of appropriations and payments will be included not only the payments made from the Board's treasury, under its definite vote of appropriation, but the sums of payment made directly to each institution by neighboring churches under the Board's promise of acknowledgment. In one instance, that of Alma College, Michigan, the only aid voted by the Board was that which the college could secure from the churches of the Synod of Michigan, under their knowledge that what they should thus give to their own Synodical college would have the Board's approval and formal credit. In that case the Board could not offer more than this, because the whole of its expected income was required for institutions already on its list. It was fully assured, however, that that college well deserved such help as the Board could render it, since its affairs had been formally made known to it. It had further conformed to all the rules which the Board prescribes.

A comparison of the *Statistical tables with the similar ones of last year shows a marked advance at almost every point. This is in part explained by the addition to the list of Alma College, with its large property and considerable roll of students. But, leaving those figures aside, the general increase of totals would still be very noticeable.

DEFINITE AIMS AND NEEDED MEANS.

For the academies and colleges whose work is thus presented, the Board entreats a great increase of gifts:

1. From the churches, by their annual collections. In many cases our most valuable teachers are, as yet, so inadequately paid that nothing but devotion to their Church's work of Christian education prevents their acceptance of the better and securer offers which would take them into secular schools. Such sacrifice of common comforts, both for themselves and their families, should not be exacted of them. Nor can their own neighborhoods fully make up to them the lack of the Church's giving to this treasury. We beg those pastors who have a just appreciation of the influence which our Church's Christian teachers are carrying to these Western centres to enlist their congregations more and more in their fair support.

2. The Board entreats the liberal help of individuals: In part in increasing the same General Fund to which the collections of the churches are all applied, and for which, as has just been said, they are far from sufficient.

But we look to individuals exclusively for the gifts that produce or increase the property of these young schools. Has not the time come when such examples of confidence in the Board, as have been set by a few notable names, dead and living, may wisely find scores of imitators? We have now our system complete. The reservoir of our treasury is made ready, and the mains are carefully laid for distributing our supply without a drop of waste. But what supplies we now have are all in the mains. So soon as these discharge themselves, conduits and reservoir will be dry. We plead for immediate and generous contribution to the Property Fund, which we use for stimulating local clearance of remaining debts, and local increase of necessary property. And especially, we plead for immediate gifts for the endowment of colleges and academies that have their properties complete enough for doing good work, and are out of debt. In truth there is not a college or academy to which the Board affords its current aid upon any other footing than that of its ascertained worthiness of all the addition to its property and endowment that friendly hands will offer. Yet special inquiry is invited in regard to their comparative condition and prospects; and the fullest information is promised in response.

An effort for such an endowment of the New York University being on foot, Dr. Crosby wrote to our Church magazine in warm and just commendation of that Christian institution, to which he had been related so closely. But his broad and loyal mind could not stop with the utterance of those special words. His last sentences were these: "It is this (the necessity of meeting skepticism with Christian education) which makes our Board of Aid for Colleges so important an agent in our Church's work. It should receive tenfold its present support, for it represents the cry of the coming generations to save them from the blight of a sensuous and material philosophy unto God and His eternal truth." The Church that hears this unreserved and hearty utterance is not surprised by it. She has watched this work with such steady increase of interest and manifest approval that this call for even a tenfold addition to its means comes to her with no tone of extravagance. A wise man could make it; and the Christian wealth that applies itself at once with conscience, with prudence and with enthusiasm, will respond to it. The centres are now prepared on which our Church's endowed Christian schools will stand with open doors and growing endowments for all coming generations.

Respectfully submitted by order of the Board,

H. D. GANSE,

Chicago, Ill., May 5, 1891. Corresponding Secretary.

The Special Committee of the General Assembly on Systematic Beneficence respectfully presents its Twelfth Annual Report. We recognize with gratitude the specially pronounced and unstinted approval bestowed upon our work by the last General Assembly, as well as its thorough and reiterated commendation of those principles and methods of Christian beneficence for which our Committee stands before the Church and the world. If the Assembly's imprimatur could stamp the conscience, conviction and practice of our members at large, the work would be done already. Any Committee like ours might disband or exist merely to perpetuate and encourage the accepted methods of a sure success. But useful reforms are not mushroom growths. Their development is slow, especially if they call for work and sacrifice. The new era has begun, however. Reforms that have the breath of Heaven in them, do not go backward. What was once a novel, tentative, questionable scheme of finance among us, has now, by the mature conviction of our highest court, and by incorporation into our Constitution by the Presbyteries, secured establishment as accepted theory and recommended practice. It remains only now that these great truths of system and worship and adequate proportion in giving, for which our great denomination stands pledged, should spread from head to heart, from heart to hand, by their enthusiastic, practical adoption in every home and every life. We are glad that our recommendation endorsed by the Assembly should have been so widely followed, as to the greater permanence of Committees on Beneficence in Synods and Presbyteries. Many of these bodies have altered their custom of annual changes in these offices and the better practice is pursued, of securing devoted, enthusiastic men with a term of office long enough to ensure the most thorough acquaintance with a work so delicate and important as theirs, giving them knowledge of local needs and an experience in counsel which can never be overestimated. Without these brethren, without their efficient aid in furthering our effort —by voice and pen and ecclesiastical influence—your Committee would be shorn of its largest power.

Our supply of standard publications has been kept up with a fair demand for them from all parts of the Church, but often the least demand has obtained where was really the greatest need. The means are not within our reach at present, for flooding the Church with such literature upon this subject, as needs to be broadcast over our entire field. Such an irrigation, however, if we were permitted to make it, would pay, before long, in abundant harvests. Our most pretentious publication of the year has been a covered pamphlet of 32 pages, by the Rev. Alfred E. Myers, entitled, "The Best Way of Giving," an interesting and forceful presentation of the cause as it bears upon the individual. Its circulation has been stimulating and effective.

Our reports from the Presbyteries are showing a growth in the feeling of responsibility in the eldership of our churches, which may be fraught with the highest hopes. "Always with good results" is the invariable report as to those churches which adopt the new methods heartily in any Presbytery. Many pastors write what may be voiced in the speech of one—"Indeed a small fraction are systematic proportionate givers, but more is received from the few that are than used to be received from all." There can be no automatism of perpetual motion about the best plan on earth. It must be watched and worked with faithful Christian interest. Under our ecclesiastical system the bounden duty of training the Church in beneficence rests absolutely with our ministers and elders. The people must ordinarily be reached through them or not at all. Pastoral and Sessional labor earnestly directed towards development of any congregation's beneficence, will always meet success, more or less. We have never yet discovered the first exception to this rule. Judgment must begin at the pulpit and the eldership in every case where in any church nothing is given for our Boards. If only the leaders were faithful, the blanks could not exist, even though the rank and file gave nothing.

It must be remembered that no scheme of consecration, no method of offering can dispense with stated information and appeal from the pulpit and otherwise, as to the needs and progress of our Church work. Special interest easily finds a channel for special contribution under any of our systems. An offering from every member for every cause must be the ideal of our effort.

We note many a remarkable advance in the giving of individual churches through faithful canvassing for pledges. Whole Presbyteries here and there within the last decade have greatly improved upon themselves through pastoral insistence upon higher motives and better methods in giving for Christ's sake. Some may even have reached or exceeded the remarkable advance of the Presbytery of Washington City, which reports an increase in offerings of tenfold within the past ten years above the increase in membership.

The weekly worshipful giving, as commended in our Directory for Worship, the new Chapter vi, is testifying its Scriptural wisdom and practical benefit wherever heartily adopted, with its varied advantages and its convenient flexibility. The report of one Presbytery tells the experience of many others as to the gain of frequent offerings:

"The experience in this Presbytery seems to favor the plan of gathering offerings by frequent collections into a common fund, to be afterwards distributed to the several objects, as yielding the best financial results; but perhaps this is to be attributed more to the frequent collections than to having a single fund. Just here lies one great advantage of a single fund; it admits frequent gatherings without multiplying explanations and appeals. It is simple and easily understood by the people; it emphasizes the idea of giving for Christ's sake instead of simply for the objects, and it probably secures a wider distribution than would be made by some donors with little information and large prejudices."

We will allow the excellent report of another of our Presbyteries to speak as to convictions that stir many earnest minds among us:

"We deplore the indifference of many churches, and of several of the ministers, to Scriptural beneficence. We hazard the assertion, without fear of valid contradiction, that no church is so small and weak that it does not owe some contribution to the Kingdom beyond its own support. Giving is a recognized means of grace. The eldership and ministry ought to be of one mind, and enthusiastic in this belief. The application of all truth is first to the members and then to the churches, but the example is looked for from the officers who teach and rule. A Christian income owes to Christ some fraction of it as an offering, corresponding in kind with the first fruits and tithes which Jehovah exacted of the Hebrews. But churches, like communities, have their share of misers, parasites and tramps, who, while confessing the faith of the saints, yield no return; tenants who can pay rent but evade it; charitists who sedulously commit the maintenance of the work of philanthropy to others, and consistently believe in free pews, free Gospel and extensive missionary enterprises by faith alone. This reference is not satirical, it is a dangerous fact inherent in the relation of men to the Kingdom. We plead, therefore, for the faith and habit of regular and graded benevolence with our Church officers, that they may plead by example and precept with all the members of the churches."

The interest which has been growing so steadily among us as to best principles and methods of Christian beneficence has penetrated also the entire Christian world. Denominational bodies and missionary conventions all over the land, and in many other lands, have been wrestling with the question, How can money be Christianized? They, like us, have found no inquiry more pertinent, more pressing. Nothing is surer than that the contemporary appropriation of Christian wealth for God in the work of Christ's Kingdom is inadequate. Christian principles and consecration have not yet captured the immense money power of the Church, or secured a proper share of it, either, for the supply of our Lord's treasury. Christian sincerity is being crucially tested before the world, according as it is victorious or defeated in the struggle with human selfishness.

Every Christian income owes some fair proportion as an offering to God. If giving of the tenth as a minimum were recognized as a fundamental economic principle of the divine Kingdom, earnest pastors might easily secure it from their people. The loftiest form of law is the constraint of a grateful soul. Yet the sense of duty and gratitude must shape a habit of life. No sporadic enthusiasms can support the steady current that must float the enterprises of Christian benevolence for a world's welfare. Vacillating sentiment is inadequate. Feeling must crystallize into permanent activity, else must always remain fluid and uncertain. Nothing runs like a habit. Then look at the situation. With all our effort and all our receipts, the fact abides, can easily be demonstrated, that the great masses of our membership are hardly giving at all. The tendency still abides in most churches to be satisfied by the giving of a few, to let the many go, and the power of the littles to vanish.

With many a pronounced advance in certain quarters of the Church, and a general elevation of the grade of thought and conviction as to systematic beneficence, it is still to be said that scarcely more than a foothold has been gained as yet in our churches for the basic principles of Christian giving on the part of the individual. With him, at the last analysis, rests the issue. No one can be in touch with our churches without perceiving forcefully the radical nature of the reforms demanded here. Many a good step has been taken, but the best advance of all, the most radical and certain, not half so difficult as at first blush it might appear, is the training of 700,000 Presbyterian Christians in setting apart from every personal income, small or large, a stated, adequate proportion for the cause of Christ. This simple act would settle at a stroke our deepest problems of Christian finance. It will be the dawn of a new day when the light of this discovery shall break upon the Church.

In this conviction, for the past two years, your Committee has been employing its most aggressive effort with the scanty means at its disposal, in pushing that beneficent reform and fostering its beginnings among the people. The Presbyterian Union of Proportionate Givers has spread among our churches during the year in its quiet way of propagation, through its circulars, blanks and return coupons, by which many of our people have been pledged to practice themselves and influence others to begin the storing and offering of some definite proportion (generally using the tenth as a minimum) for the aggregated causes of Christian benevolence, especially the Boards of our own Church.

As this effort has advanced we are strongly pressed with the need of even a more definitely shaped and organized form of activity in this direction, which shall aim in all our churches to gather for mutual encouragement and effort those who believe in and mean to practice proportionate giving.

This might do for the establishment of the best principles of giving among us what is now effected by our missionary societies and bands and concerts of prayer towards information and interest in lines of evangelistic labor. It might help to shut out unworthy methods of raising money. Indeed, under the title of "Christian Steward's League," and in other ways of undenominational effort, such enterprises, encouraged by private zeal, have already made some headway in our land; with some experience gained of their feasibility and profit. Members of our own body have been commendably active in this. It may be that the Assembly's Committee might profitably incorporate some method of the kind into its future plans of work.

Our most hopeful field of effort is not among the wealthy, as is generally supposed, but among the young and those of moderate means. A man not generous when comparatively poor, will never be generous when he becomes relatively rich. Our widest experience attests that on the part of the most liberal Christian givers a constant battle is joined with ingrained and natural selfishness. One of them has testified the conviction of many, that "nothing required so much grace from God for me as to give Him a full tenth when I was making money very fast." Multitudes of others have set their seal to divine fidelity. When they "could not afford to give," as selfishness would have said, they did give and now enjoy the blessings promised.

We desire to repeat our suggestion to the Assembly as to the possible wisdom of moving in an apportionment among the Synods of the amount needed by our several Church Boards for the ensuing year. This plan the Synods could repeat for their Presbyteries, and they for the individual churches. Each body could then be guided in estimating its minimum of contribution to the general work.

It will be noticed that the Assembly failed, a year ago, to restate what its own Standing Committee recommended as desirable—a proper proportionate schedule for the distribution, by the Session, of undesignated offerings, or of special gifts by the individual. We append the Assembly's latest recommendation as some guide for its action this year.

For the measure of success which has attended the efforts of your Committee, we are gratified and thankful. However, we deem it almost impracticable for a Committee so constituted as ours, of busy pastors and laymen, and confined, like ours, within the narrow bounds of expenditure allowed by the Assembly, ever to compass in the duties of wide correspondence, of clerical work and publications, the requirements of such a work as ought to be pursued within the Presbyterian Church. It is too much like boring an artesian well with a straw. When the needs of this effort fairly lay hold upon the mind and conscience of our Assembly and our Church, we shall see greater things than these.

We find much encouragement and many suggestions in collecting as follows the statistics of all our Boards, which it is a part of your Committee's duty to tabulate.

Total	$2,406,570	$2,653,751	$293,299	$46,118

This summary discloses a larger net increase in total receipts than has been enjoyed for several years, no less than $247,181.

The following amounts have been received from legacies: For Home Missions, $87,990, not half of the sum received last year; Foreign Missions, including annuities, $116,564; Education, $16,932; Publication and Sabbath-school Work, $1462; Church Erection, $9701; Ministerial Relief, including gifts for investment, $51,776; Freedmen, $27,457; Aid for Colleges, $46,500; a total from the dead of $358,382. The Home Mission total includes a sale of property at Asheville, N. C., for $102,500, of which $77,500 is in mortgage. The Home Board reports a debt of $98,346; and Education a debt of $16,000. No report concerning debt or contributing churches could be obtained from the Foreign Board in time for publication.

Here stands the living Church with a gratifying increase of $226,248, at the very point where our regular benefactions can best be judged. It is a suggestive fact that the contributions of our women and children, steadily increasing, have now considerably overtopped, in the aggregate of Home and Foreign receipts, the gifts of all our churches and individuals besides.

Home Missions, however, show a gain from the men of the churches this year of $32,520, and Foreign Missions a gain of $55,059. Some increase obtains in all the Boards, except slight falling off in Church Erection, even while fifty-four more churches contributed.

Ministerial Relief uses only current fund receipts. All legacies and gifts for permanent fund are held for investment. Aid for Colleges includes receipts for both current work and property.

The amount credited to churches from Women's Societies has been: for Home Missions, $283,108; Foreign Missions, $386,244, a gain of $55,959, and Freedmen, $34,780.

Sabbath-schools have contributed to Home Missions, $35,640; Foreign Missions, $38,013; Publication and Sabbath-school Work, $43,670, and Freedmen, $6286.

We acknowledge gratefully another gift for the expenses of your Committee of $100 from Alexander Guy, of Oxford, O. In addition to preceding suggestions, we recommend for the Assembly's action at this time:

1. That previous instructions be repeated to all Synods and Presbyteries as to appointment and maintenance of efficient Committees on Beneficence, who shall report to and coöperate with the Assembly's Committee.
2. That the Presbyteries be encouraged to publish tables of the churches' gifts, compared with previous years, for information and stimulus; also to urge every church towards improvement in its giving, proportionate to ability.
3. That Chapter vi, Directory for Worship, be earnestly commended to our churches for practical acceptance, and that a general circulation of the periodicals and other publications of the Church be strongly urged.
4. That every minister be charged to instruct his congregation in the grace and duty of liberality for Christ's sake, and in Scriptural principles of giving; to keep them informed as to the work and needs of our Boards, adopting as his purpose an offering from every member for every Board.
5. That each individual, in the sense of Christian stewardship, be earnestly advised to adopt the practice and form the habit of proportionate giving, whether income be large or small, as God hath prospered him, and to become leagued with others in attempts to foster such practical reforms.

Respectfully submitted,
In behalf of the Committee,

ABSTRACT OF THE TENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

It is with grateful hearts that your Permanent Committee on Temperance presents its Tenth Annual Report. Death has not touched us during the past year. Not a breath of discord has shown itself amongst us since your Committee was reorganized at Pittsburgh, five years ago. We have not been under the necessity of appealing to the Church for aid for the last three years, and while our income has not been large, we have endeavored to bring forth the largest possible results with the means placed at our disposal. We have no salaried officers amongst us, and yet we have met regularly once a month, and oftener whenever requested, and the attendance has always been good and the service required rendered with the utmost cheerfulness. Of course not nearly as much has been done as might have been, had we some one amongst us so situated that he could, without neglecting his other duties, devote more of his time to this particular department of Church work, but this, under the circumstances, has been simply impossible.

As you will see, by glancing at our Treasurer's Report, we had placed at our disposal but eleven hundred and seventy-one dollars and fifty-five cents. With this we have printed and distributed over one million pages of tracts and other literature during the past year, which has been scattered, gratuitously, over a field reaching from Bangkok, Siam, to Albuquerque, in New Mexico. We sent quite a nice small library, including all of our own publications, with some twenty or twenty-five bound volumes, to the Temperance Society of Bangkok, Siam, and we have just sent thirty dollars to Rev. John Menaul, M.D., at the head of the Spanish tract work, to enable him to print in the Spanish twelve thousand copies of one of Dr. Talmage's soul-stirring sermons on the subject of temperance. We also sent a large amount of our own literature into the State of Nebraska last fall, while the Prohibition struggle was in progress. Since then we have sent a very considerable amount of matter to Mr. Wilson, of St. Louis, Chairman of the Synodical Committee of Missouri, who is doing a grand work for that State. And a still larger amount of our literature has been sent the Women's Temperance Society of the Presbyterian Church, auxiliary to the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance, whose headquarters are in Philadelphia, which promises to be a very important auxiliary indeed. This society has already distributed thousands of our little tracts containing the deliverances of the General Assembly, and other publications of your Committee.

In addition to these we have sent packages to the friends of the cause all over the country, who had promised that they should be wisely distributed and faithfully used; often in these cases the money to pay postage or expressage accompanied the orders, but in most cases the order was filled without regard to the question of transportation; indeed, as far as is known, every call made upon us has been answered, at least to the extent of our ability.

In most cases, as you will notice, the contributions from churches have been small, but not so small that it was not appreciated, inasmuch as the very presentation of the cause before a congregation tends to direct the attention of the people to the subject and awaken a new interest in it. You will notice, however, that in three separate instance we have received one hundred dollars from single individuals, and what is particularly gratifying is that one of these has contributed that sum regularly every year since your Committee has been located in Pittsburgh.

I. N. HAYS, Chairman.

JOHN F. HILL, Corresponding Secretary.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America respectfully report to the General Assembly of the Church, to be held at Detroit, Mich., on May 21, 1891, as follows:

The account of the Treasurer, together with the accompanying financial statements, for the year ending April 1, 1891, with the usual certificates of the Finance and Auditing Committees, are herewith submitted.

During the year the following legacies have been received, viz.:

For the Board of Relief:
Estate of Elizabeth Clarke, deceased, ...	$898 59
Estate of David Brown, deceased, ...	478 20
		$1,376 79
For Board of Freedmen:
Estate of Preserved Smith, deceased, ...		5,000 00

The legacies for the Board of Relief have been duly invested, and the legacy for the Board of Freedmen has been paid over to that corporation.

The interest upon the various securities mentioned in the Treasurer's Report has been paid to date upon all of them, and the same, from time to time, has been paid over to the various beneficiaries in accordance with the terms of the respective trusts for which the same are held by this corporation.

During the year, Mr. T. Charlton Henry, one of the Trustees, has died, and the Assembly is requested to fill the vacancy thus created.

GEORGE JUNKIN, President.

JACOB WILSON, Secretary.

FRANK K. HIPPLE, Treasurer.

April 1, 1891.

The undersigned, having examined the Cash Account of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, from April 1, 1890, to March 31, 1891, and compared the vouchers with the payments charged, find the same correct; leaving a balance in the treasury of sixteen thousand three hundred and twenty-four dollars and fifty-three cents ($16,324.53), of which fifteen thousand one hundred and fifty-five dollars and seventy-six cents ($15,155.76) is principal, and one thousand one hundred and sixty-eight dollars and seventy-seven cents ($1168.77) is income, verified by deposit in bank.

May 7, 1891.

The undersigned have examined the bonds and mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the Treasurer's statement herewith, find the same in proper order and amounting in the aggregate at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1891, to $489,961.24, adding to which $15,155.76 cash balance of principal for investment makes total Permanent Fund on hand at close of fiscal year $505,117.

The investments are registered in the name of the corporation, excepting $8000 in corporation bonds, which are coupons, being securities specifically bequeathed to the corporation, and which are kept in the vaults of the Real Estate Trust Company, of Philadelphia.

Since the close of the fiscal year, investments in first mortgages on improved real estate in Philadelphia, have been secured for the full amount of the above-mentioned uninvested cash balance of principal.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877 and 1884. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to four cents for mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee.

☞ See, also, Minutes of 1891, p. 183.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1891 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 293 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1891, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1885, can be had from the Board of Publication, by whom it has been printed for the use of congregations and Presbyteries.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞293, Minutes, '90, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other Ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviations P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; and V., for one that is vacant.

*These rules were adopted as a whole by the General Assembly of 1891. See "Minutes," p. 181.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follow:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Presbyterial Mission Schools, value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc.
2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.
3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.
4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.
5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.
6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.
7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.
8. Sustentation. Contributions to the Board of Home Missions for Pastoral Sustentation, and to the Synods for Synodical Sustentation.
9. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.
10. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.
11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses.
12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(9) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(10) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(11) Annex a Statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolution of pastoral relations, organizations, reception and dissolution of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(12) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(13) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name); and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞ Forward the Statistical Report by April 25,[*] but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., 950 Gilbert Avenue, Cincinnati, O.

[*] See "Minutes," 1890, p. 37.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The evenings of the days of session are assigned to popular meetings in the following order:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of Monday the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.
The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.
The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.
The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

5. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.
Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

6. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Aid for Colleges, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

7. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures, and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

8. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

9. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

10. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning.

11. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution, hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

12. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be revised by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee.

13. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them, to the place of meeting of each Assembly prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

14. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

15. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is an executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108].

16. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies, may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

17. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. •This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the Judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely, A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. But in cases of process on the ground of general rumor, where there is, of course, no particular accuser, there may be a committee appointed (if convenient), who shall be called the "Committee of Prosecution," and who shall conduct the whole course on the part of the prosecution. The members of this committee shall not be permitted to sit in judgment in the case.

XLIII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIV. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
